BACKGROUND

10. Elia Fashions Ltd. and Bossa Nova Fashions Ltd. were formed on April 29, 1986 and January 23, 1989, respectively. Please Mum Partnership was subsequently established on August 5, 2001 as a general partnership between Elia Fashions Ltd. and Bossa Nova Fashions Ltd. The founder and Chief Executive Officer, Ms. Kathryn Adrian, controls Please Mum through a majority ownership of Elia Fashions Ltd.
11. On July 7, 2011, Please Mum filed a notice of intention to make a proposal (“NOI”) pursuant to Section 50.4 of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (“BIA”) and Deloitte & Touche Inc. was appointed as trustee under the proposal (“Proposal Trustee”).
12. On August 5, 2011, by Order of this Honourable Court, the stay of proceedings was extended to September 20, 2011.
13. On August 20, 2011, by Order of this Honourable Court, the stay of proceedings was extended to September 30, 2011.
14. On September 30, 2011 by Order of this Honourable Court, the stay of proceedings was extended to November 14, 2011.
15. On November 7, 2011 by Order of this Honourable Court, the stay of proceedings was extended to November 21, 2011.
16. On November 21, 2011 by Order of this Honourable Court, the stay of proceedings was extended to November 28, 2011.
17. On November 24, 2011 by Order of this Honourable Court, the stay of proceedings was extended to December 6, 2011.
18. This First Report should be read in conjunction with the Proposal Trustee’s reports dated August 2, 2011, September 14, 2011 and December 5, 2011.
19. Since filing the NOI, and as part of its restructuring, the Company has:

- (i) Closed 80 stores nationally and redistributed inventory amongst its remaining 13 stores and e-commerce site. In addition, inventory has been consolidated to achieve optimum product mix.
- (ii) Undertaken an orderly liquidation sales strategy to realize inventory and generate sufficient cash to continue the operations of the business through a reduced store network.
- (iii) Reduced headcount from approximately 869 employees to 169 employees across the retail network, warehouse and head office location.
- (iv) Removed all gift cards from Please Mum stores and deactivated gift cards distributed through other retail channels.
- (v) Secured a refinancing of the Royal Bank of Canada credit facilities (the “RBC Facilities”) through a related entity, 0710345 B.C. Ltd. (“071”).
- (vi) Continued to engage environmental consultants to undertake environmental assessment work at the Company’s head office location situated at 333 Woodland Drive, Vancouver (the “Woodland Property”) in order to close a sale contract. The Woodland Property is owned by 071.
- (vii) Held negotiations with financiers and investors with respect to funding the ongoing operations of the Company in the long term.

20. In consideration of the constraints imposed by section 50.4(9) of the BIA and given the protracted timing to close the sale of the Woodland Property, it was determined that it is in the best interests of Please Mum’s stakeholders to continue its restructuring under these CCAA proceedings.

INITIAL ACTIVITIES OF THE MONITOR

21. Since the date of the Initial Order, the Monitor’s activities have included the following:

- a) establishing a website and making available the Initial Order, application materials and a list of creditors with claims against Please Mum of more than $1,000;

- b) preparation and issuance of notices required under the Initial Order, including the following creditor correspondence and notices:
 - (i) notice to creditors published in the Globe and Mail on December 12, 2011, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix B.
 - (ii) notice to creditors mailed on December 8, 2011 to approximately 330 creditors of the Company with respect to the CCAA proceedings. A copy of the notice is attached hereto as Appendix C.
 - (iii) notices issued to the Office of the Superintendent of Bankruptcy in the prescribed form as required under section 23(1)(f) of the CCAA.
- c) notified customers with outstanding gift cards, by e-mail, of the CCAA proceedings;
- d) held discussions with Management and the Company's legal counsel and financial advisors regarding the Company's business and financial affairs, including the Cash Flow Statement (as defined in paragraph 25 below), restructuring activities, employee and creditor matters and other matters relating to the CCAA proceedings generally;
- e) attending to continued enquiries from creditors and customers of the Company; and
- f) continued monitoring of the business and financial affairs of the Company in accordance with the Initial Order.

STAKEHOLDER UPDATE

22. The Company's key stakeholders continue to generally support the ongoing operations of Please Mum during these CCAA proceedings:

- (i) Suppliers

The Monitor has been advised by Management that suppliers have been generally supportive of the Company post-filing and continue to supply goods and services on commercially reasonable terms.

The Company is supplied inventory by a related company, World Shake Productions Inc. (“World Shake”). The Company has entered into a consignment arrangement whereby inventory is purchased by World Shake and sold to the Company. According to Management, World Shake is able to negotiate more favourable payment terms than Please Mum due to the insolvency proceedings. The Monitor has not reviewed the intercompany transactions between these related parties. The Monitor has requested Management provide the Monitor with an intercompany reconciliation, but it was not available prior to the filing of this Report. Management has advised it will provide an intercompany reconciliation as soon as possible.

(ii) Employees

The Monitor has notified approximately 100 employees with outstanding entitlements of more than $1,000 owed by the Company advising of the CCAA proceedings. Management has advised that the existing employees remain committed to the Company during its restructuring efforts.

Management advises that employee source deductions outstanding as at the date of the CCAA filing have been remitted by the Company to the Canada Revenue Agency (“CRA”), in full. Management has advised that source deductions will be remitted on a timely basis, going forward.

(iii) Customers

The Monitor has notified all known customers with outstanding gift cards of the CCAA proceedings and advised that the Company is not in a position to honour gift cards or credit notes issued prior to July 7, 2011. To date, the Monitor has been contacted by approximately 450 affected customers who hold unused gift cards.

CASH FLOW STATEMENT AND LIQUIDITY

23. The Company’s cash receipts and disbursements for the period November 27, 2011 to December 24, 2011 are attached as Appendix D with a comparison to the Cash Flow Statement filed with the Court in connection with the Company’s initial application.

24. The Monitor has conducted weekly reviews of the Company's actual cash flow compared to forecast by Management and contained in the Cash Flow Statement. The Monitor's comments on the actual cash flow to December 24, 2011 are as follows:

- (i) Sales receipts were approximately $114,000 (16%) higher than projected due to stronger than anticipated sales during the Christmas season and performance of certain product lines. However, total receipts for the period were approximately $30,000 lower than projected as a result of financing not being obtained as of the date of the First Report. The Company had originally forecasted $150,000 in additional receipts during the period in connection with a prior expression of interest to provide additional financing by a third party.
- (ii) Disbursements with respect to payroll and taxes were approximately $100,000 higher than originally projected. Management has advised the Monitor that the Company has remitted all employee source deductions outstanding as at December 24, 2011. Payroll and tax disbursements exceeded forecast during the period as a result of catch-up payments on previously unremitted source deductions.
- (iii) Freight expense was approximately $19,000 (70%) lower than projected due to deferral of payments to assist with short term cash flow.
- (iv) Offshore purchases were approximately $151,000 (53%) lower than forecast. The decrease in offshore purchases represents deposits not paid towards the acquisition of new inventory. The Company issued fewer deposits than expected as working capital was used to fund other obligations.
- (v) Trade payables were approximately $61,000 (100%) higher than forecast. The variance was primarily a result of an unanticipated disbursement to the Company's point-of-sale and gift card provider, and unexpected maintenance repairs at the Woodland Property.
- (vi) Environmental fees were approximately $60,000 lower than projected as a result of payment negotiations with its environmental consultant described further below.

25. Subsequent to the Initial Order, Management has updated cash flow projections to reflect current information and assumptions.. Attached as Appendix E is the Company's revised cash flow statement for the period ending April 7, 2012, adopting the Probable and Hypothetical Assumptions set out in the Notes.

26. The Monitor's comments on the revised cash flow statement to April 7, 2012 are as follows:

- (i) The revised cash flow statement shows a reduction in sales of $245,000 (18%). Management has advised that its expectation of sales has reduced due to a lack of new inventory on hand and product mix in January 2012. As noted above, reduced inventory deposits during December may negatively impact stock availability in the immediate term. However, the revised forecast shows a significant increase in sales during March and April 2012. The Monitor has enquired about the expectation of strong sales during March and April. The Company has advised that sales will improve during these months due to increased inventory as a result of purchases made by World Shake through the previously described consignment arrangement, in addition to historical sales improving as the spring season approaches.
- (ii) Total receipts in the revised cash flow statement have been reduced by $757,000. The Company has advised that the previously forecasted $500,000 in cash receipts by third party financing will not be obtained during the revised forecast period.
- (iii) The revised cash flow statement shows no inventory deposits or offshore purchases. The Company will not be funding any direct inventory deposits or purchases. World Shake will fund all inventory purchases during the revised cash flow period in accordance with the consignment arrangement.
- (iv) The revised cash flow statement reflects no payments made in respect of head office rent/mortgage expense during January and February 2012. Management has advised that it has approached the mortgage lender to defer mortgage payments in January and February 2012, to assist with working capital funding.
- (v) The revised cash flow statement includes no payments to store landlords in February 2012. The Company has advised it will be contacting store landlords to discuss possible accommodations of February rent payments. Management has advised that it intends to increase rent payments during the period from April to September 2012 in consideration of the February 2012 rent deferral.
- (vi) Legal and professional fees in connection with the CCAA proceeding will be deferred by the Company until the closing of the Woodland Property sale.

- (vii) The revised cash flow statement includes a reduction of $210,000 (52%) in payroll and taxes from the original forecast. The revised cash flow statement shows that source deductions will be remitted on a current basis. The Company has advised further that cost reductions may be achieved by the following means:
- Management may consider further labour force reductions or decreased labour hours;
 - The Company may curtail certain head office operations for the month of January 2012;
- and
- The Company's RRSP benefit plan will be postponed and employee medical benefits have been reduced.
- (viii) The revised cash flow statement shows that GST payments will be reduced by approximately $30,000. Management has advised that all statutory remittances during the CCAA period will be kept current. The reduction in expected GST expense is due to reduced sales expectations.
- (ix) Environmental fees of $60,000 were previously forecast to be paid by December 24, 2011. This payment has been deferred into the revised forecast period.
- (x) The revised cash flow statement estimates that for the period December 25, 2011 to April 7, 2012, the Company will have gross receipts of approximately $2.24 million and disbursements of $2.10 million, representing a net operating cash inflow of approximately $147,000.
- (xi) The Monitor's review of the revised cash flow statement consisted of inquiries, analytical procedures and discussion related to information supplied to us by certain of the Management and employees of the Company. Since Hypothetical Assumptions need not be supported, the Monitor's procedures with respect to them were limited to evaluating whether they were consistent with the purpose of the cash flow statement. The Monitor has also reviewed the support provided by Management for the Probable Assumptions, and the preparation and presentation of the cash flow statement.
- (xii) Based on the Monitor's review, nothing has come to our attention that causes them to believe that, in all material respects:

- the Hypothetical Assumptions are not consistent with the purpose of the cash flow statement;
- as at the date of this report, the Probable Assumptions developed by Management are not suitably supported and consistent with the plans of the Company or do not provide a reasonable basis for the cash flow statement, given the Hypothetical Assumptions; or
- the cash flow statement does not reflect the Probable and Hypothetical Assumptions.

27. Since the cash flow statement is based on Assumptions regarding future events, actual results will vary from the information presented even if the Hypothetical Assumptions occur, and the variations may be material. Accordingly, the Monitor expresses no assurance as to whether the cash flow statement will be achieved. The Monitor's express no opinion or other form of assurance with respect to the accuracy of any financial information presented in this report, or relied upon by the Monitor in preparing this report.

RESTRUCTURING EFFORTS

Sale of Woodland Property

28. A successful restructuring under the CCAA proceedings will be subject to 071 closing the sale of the Woodland Property to realize funds for the Company in order for it to be in a position to present a Plan to its creditors.
29. According to Management, the remaining condition of the Woodland Property sale contract provides for a certificate of compliance (“COC”) to be issued by the Province of British Columbia Ministry of the Environment with respect to the Woodland Property and delivered to the purchaser along with a Federal Risk Assessment. Management has advised the Monitor that the COC application has not been filed by the Company's environmental consultant as of the date of the First Report. The Company has advised that the delay in submission of the COC application is due to a fee dispute with the Company's environmental consultant. The Company expects the dispute to be resolved forthwith and the COC application to be submitted within approximately one week of the date of this Report.
30. The Monitor concurs with the view of Management that the completion of the sale of the Woodland Property is essential for the Company to be in a position to present a viable Plan to its creditors.

REQUEST FOR EXTENSION OF THESE PROCEEDINGS

31. The current stay of proceedings under the Initial Order expires on January 5, 2012. In order to facilitate restructuring efforts and development of a viable plan of arrangement to its creditors, the Company is requesting an extension of the stay of proceedings to April 5, 2012. Management has advised that this extension period coincides with the expected timing of the sale of the Woodland Property.
32. The Monitor is of the view that continuing the Company's restructuring under CCAA proceedings will preserve the business as a going concern and allow time for the completion of the sale of the Woodland Property, the proceeds of which will provide the Company with the best opportunity to fund a plan of arrangement or compromise with its creditors. The alternative to a continued restructuring under CCAA proceedings is a deemed bankruptcy, which may cease existing operations, and result in a nil return to unsecured creditors.
33. The Company is working diligently to manage the financial and operational restructuring of Please Mum while fulfilling the outstanding terms of the Woodland Property sale contract.
34. The Monitor is of the view that the Company has acted, and is acting, in good faith and with due diligence. Accordingly, the Monitor respectfully recommends that this Honourable Court approve an extension of the stay of proceedings to April 5, 2012.

All of which is respectfully submitted this 4th day of January, 2012.

- (b) to the extent that any Lender Loan Facilities are secured, such Lender Loan Facilities shall be secured by the same charge (the "Lender Charge") as secured the Lender Loan Facility as at the BIA Stay Date; and

RESTRUCTURING

15. Subject to such requirements as are imposed by the CCAA, Please Mum shall have the right to:

- (a) permanently or temporarily cease, downsize or shut down all or any part of its Business or operations and commence marketing efforts in respect of any of its redundant or non-material assets and to dispose of redundant or non-material assets not exceeding $50,000 in any one transaction or $100,000 in the aggregate;
- (b) terminate the employment of such of its employees or temporarily lay off such of its employees as it deems appropriate; and all of the foregoing to permit Please Mum to proceed with an orderly restructuring of the Business (the "Restructuring").

16. Please Mum shall provide each of the relevant landlords with notice of Please Mum's intention to remove any fixtures from any leased premises at least seven (7) days prior to the date of the intended removal. The relevant landlord shall be entitled to have a representative present in the leased premises to observe such removal and, if the landlord disputes Please Mum's entitlement to remove any such fixture under the provisions of the lease, such fixture shall remain on the premises and shall be dealt with as agreed between any applicable secured creditors who claim a security interest in the fixtures, such landlord and Please Mum, or by further Order of this Court upon application by Please Mum, the landlord or the applicable secured creditors on at least two (2) clear days' notice to the other parties. If Please Mum disclaims the lease governing such leased premises in accordance with Section 32 of the CCAA, it shall not be required to pay Rent under such lease pending resolution of any dispute concerning such fixtures (other than Rent payable for the notice period provided for in Section 32(5) of the CCAA), and the disclaimer of the lease shall be without prejudice to Please Mum's claim to the fixtures in dispute.

17. If a notice of disclaimer is delivered pursuant to Section 32 of the CCAA, then: (a) during the period prior to the effective time of the disclaimer, the landlord may show the affected leased premises to prospective tenants during normal business hours on giving Please Mum and the Monitor 24 hours' prior written notice; and (b) at the effective time of the disclaimer, the landlord shall be entitled to take possession of any such leased premises without waiver of or prejudice to any claims the landlord may have against Please Mum, or any other rights the landlord might have, in respect of such lease or leased premises and the landlord shall be entitled to notify Please Mum of the basis on which it is taking possession and gain possession of and re-lease such leased premises to any third party or parties on such terms as the landlord considers advisable, provided that nothing herein shall relieve the landlord of its obligation to mitigate any damages claimed in connection therewith.

Upon the completion of the use of personal information for the limited purposes set out herein, the Third Parties shall return the personal information to Please Mum or destroy it. If the Third Parties acquire personal information as part of the Restructuring or the preparation and implementation of the Plan or transactions in furtherance thereof, such Third Parties may, subject to this paragraph and any Relevant Enactment, continue to use the personal information in a manner which is in all respects identical to the prior use thereof by Please Mum.

NON-DEROGATION OF RIGHTS

24. Notwithstanding any provision in this Order, no Person shall be prohibited from requiring immediate payment for goods, services, use of leased or licensed property or other valuable consideration provided on or after the BIA Stay Date, nor shall any Person be under any obligation to advance or re-advance any monies or otherwise extend any credit to Please Mum on or after the BIA Stay Date. Nothing in this Order shall derogate from the rights conferred and obligations imposed by the CCAA.

During the Stay Period, and except as permitted by subsection 11.03(2) of the CCAA, no Proceeding may be commenced or continued against the directors or officers of Please Mum with respect to any claim against the directors or officers that arose before the date hereof and that relates to any obligations of Please Mum whereby the directors or officers are alleged under any law to be liable in their capacity as directors or officers for the payment or performance of such obligations, until a compromise or arrangement in respect of Please Mum, if one is filed, is sanctioned by this Court or is refused by the creditors of Please Mum or this Court. Nothing in this Order, including in this paragraph, shall prevent the commencement of a Proceeding to preserve any claim against a director or officer of Please Mum that might otherwise be barred or extinguished by the effluxion of time, provided that no further step shall be taken in respect of such Proceeding except for service of the initiating documentation on the applicable director or officer.

Please Mum shall indemnify its directors and officers against obligations and liabilities that they may incur as directors or officers of Please Mum after the commencement of the within proceedings, except to the extent that, with respect to any director or officer, the obligation or liability was incurred as a result of the director's or officer's gross negligence or wilful misconduct.

28. Notwithstanding any language in any applicable insurance policy to the contrary, (a) no insurer shall be entitled to be subrogated to or claim the benefit of the Directors' Charge, and (b) Please Mum's directors and officers shall only be entitled to the benefit of the Directors' Charge to the extent that they do not have coverage under any directors' and officers' insurance policy,

The Monitor shall not take possession of the Property and shall take no part whatsoever in the management or supervision of the management of the Business and shall not, by fulfilling its obligations hereunder, or by inadvertence in relation to the due exercise of powers or performance of duties under this Order, be deemed to have taken or maintained possession or control of the Business or Property, or any part thereof, and nothing in this Order shall be construed as resulting in the Monitor being an employer or a successor employer, within the meaning of any statute, regulation or rule of law or equity, for any purpose whatsoever.

32. EUROPEAN DEBT CRISIS

Cameron gets kudos in U.K., scorn in EU

British Prime Minister expected to reiterate that 'veto' on euro zone fiscal deal doesn't signal his country's exit from union

STEPHEN FIDLER BRUSSELS

U.K. Prime Minister David Cameron's decision to stand aside from a pact to allow euro-zone governments to move toward tighter central control of their budget affairs was depicted Sunday as "bad for Britain" by his coalition government partners and, in Europe, as a defeat.

Mr. Cameron's popularity appeared to receive a boost at home, however. And he is expected to repeat in the House of Commons on Monday that his move isn't the start of a process of British disentanglement from the European Union, said a person familiar with the matter.

There also remains a more immediate concern: how the European Central Bank will react to the summit agreement for euro-zone countries to move toward closer fiscal union.

It will be months, at best, before the pact goes into effect, but governments hope their agreement is solid enough to provide a reason for the ECB to start more aggressive purchases of the bonds of troubled governments.

According to a poll published in Britain's Mail on Sunday, 62 per cent said Mr. Cameron was right to wield his "veto" to an EU treaty, with 19 per cent disagreeing. The online poll by Survation interviewed 1,020 people.

"The EU now knows that this Prime Minister can say 'No,'" John Redwood, a former Conservative minister, wrote on his blog.

German media characterized the summit's outcome as a clear victory for Chancellor Angela Merkel that left the U.K. marginalized. "Merkel succeeds—Great Britain isolated," read the weekend front page of Süddeutsche Zeitung, a leading German daily.

Some analysts said the split could have important long-term consequences. "Britain is as isolated as it's ever been in the 25 years I've been following the EU," said Charles Grant, director of the pro-EU Centre for European Reform. "If I had to put money on it now, I think Britain will leave the EU in the next 10 years."

The prospect that Britain could distance itself further from the EU adds another challenge to the unity of the 27-nation bloc.

With the answer to the euro-zone debt crisis almost unanimously viewed as a closer union among its 17 members, some analysts view Britain's estrangement as an inevitable consequence.

The divisive issue was a British "shopping list" designed to protect the City of London and its financial-services industry. It sought guarantees that some decisions on Europe-wide regulation would be agreed on the basis of unanimity among the 27, rather than by a qualified majority that could see Britain outvoted.

But the proposals, of which diplomats said other leaders had been given little or no notice, struck many present as an effort to protect banks whose actions were at the root of the crisis.

"We thought financial services was the right thing to focus on," said Mats Persson, director of think tank Open Europe. "But he didn't prepare the ground in advance." The start of treaty negotiations was the wrong time to present a list of detailed demands, Mr. Persson said, adding Mr. Cameron should have focused on general principles, leaving more specific negotiations until later.

Many diplomats in Brussels were asking what the U.K. had achieved by its stance. Having secured no concessions over financial services and a major loss of goodwill from other EU countries, its main consequence seemed to be a less-solid euro-zone fiscal agreement than might have been the case.

"It's disastrous for the City," said

Mr. Grant. "Now it's more likely that the 26 will caucus against Britain on financial regulation."

Britain wasn't being asked to participate in the tighter fiscal union, but to agree to allow others to do it. But that was still a problem for Mr. Cameron because it would have required a vote in the House of Commons.

Because of a likely rebellion among his own Conservative Party, Mr. Cameron would probably have had to rely on the opposition Labour Party for support.

Non-British diplomats said Herman Van Rompuy, the EU president who chaired the meeting, suggested a compromise to change an annex of the treaty, rather than the treaty itself. Mr. Van Rompuy had argued in a pre-summit report that it could be agreed by a unanimous vote of the 27 leaders and not need ratification by national parliaments.

Mr. Cameron, however, continued to press for concessions, leading Mr. Van Rompuy to push for an accord without Britain.

This, senior diplomats said, played into the hands of French President Nicolas Sarkozy. He hadn't wanted a full-blown EU treaty change that would have shifted power away from national capitals to the EU executive, and the European Court of Justice.

It also provided an opportunity for Mr. Sarkozy to pursue a long-held French ambition: to advance a smaller union, without Britain and some Eastern European states, in which France would have more influence.

Diplomats said the decision of most of the 10 non-euro zone countries to sign up with the pact would mar any French celebrations, though it would isolate the U.K. all the more.

Sino: Report raises questions of fairness

» The Muddy Waters report alleges that the company has used related parties to "fabricate sales transactions" without tipping off auditors.

According to committee documents, Mr. Chan and Mr. Poon were among a group of founding shareholders of a company called Sonic Jita Engineering Ltd. in 1997. Sonic Jita is the sole shareholder of Huaihua Yuda Wood, which has been a major supplier to Sino-Forest since 2007.

Another early Sonic Jita shareholder was Chan Wai Ling. "No employee named Chan Wai Ling was identified in Sino-Forest's employee record," the committee document says. However, according to a source familiar with Sino-Forest's early days, Chan Wai Ling is also known as Leslie Chan, who is a former Sino-Forest executive and Allen Chan's wife.

Regulatory filings by Sino-Forest from the 1990s say "Leslie W.L. Chan" was a founder and executive director of subsidiary Sino-Wood since 1993 and "was appointed executive vice-president of Sino-Forest in December 1996." Sino-Forest's regulatory filings have referred to Leslie Chan for several years.

Assumptions for Revised Cash Flow Model

January sales are expected to be less than originally estimated do to a lack of inventory and appropriate product mix.
As a result of the lower sales levels our operating plan is to proactively contact all suppliers and manage all cash out flows.
In the event sales exceed forecast we will increase our payments to suppliers

February and March sales are expected to grow for two reasons. First, consigned inventory from World Shake (consisting of Spring 2012 product) will begin to arrive in the final week of January 2012. Second, sales from February to March have historically increased due to new Spring product in stores.

- 1 Please Mum will no longer be funding any inventory deposits or purchases. World Shake has obtained a loan from a related party in order to fund the payment for inventory ordered in November and December.

Starting the week of January 23rd, World Shake will receive an order for inventory valued at US$250,000 at vendor cost. A portion will be received by air and the balance will arrive by sea two weeks later.

Due to the receipt of the inventory sales are forecast to grow starting the week of February 4th.

- 2 Head Office Expense - Starting January 3rd, we are shutting down our shipping department at the head office and reducing staff. We will bring in staff as needed when new inventory is received.

Payroll expense will be reduced by closing the warehouse for 1 month - staff will be called back as needed.

Head office labour will be reduced with reducing one IT position and reducing payroll position to part time.

- 3 Canadian Western Bank (CWB) - We contacted CWB and are in discussions to obtain their agreement to defer mortgage payments for January 15, 2012 and February 15, 2012 to the closing date of the building sale.

1/15/2012	Deferred Payment	Interest	Principal
	Mortgage - Head offic $ 46,000	26,781	17,662
		1,111	509
		27,892	18,171
2/15/2012	Deferred Payment	Interest	Principal
	Mortgage - Head offic $ 46,000	26,699	17,743
		1,108	512
		27,807	18,255

- 4 We are in the process of contacting the landlord for each of the stores to discuss a possible accommodation of February rent payments to better match our forecasted cash flows

Kathryn Adrian will begin negotiations with landlords for repayment schedule of February rent. Our proposal will be to defer February rent and begin to repay with 6 equal monthly payments beginning on April 1, 2012

- 5 Profession fees and legal fees will continue to be deferred to the closing date of the building sale.

Deferred Payment

Legal & Prof Fees	$ 360,000	estimated as per previous filed cash flow model plus an additional $82,000
Environmental Fees	$ 133,000	this includes charges up to January 6, 2012

- 6 Retail overhead will be reduced for January 2012.

Payroll expense will be reduced by reducing sales person hours.

- 7 Additional overhead savings.

RRSP benefit plan has been postponed for the remainder of Fiscal 2012 ($11,000 per month savings)

Employee medical benefits have been reduced ($5,000 per month savings)

- 8 Revised payables plan.

Original cash flow plan had $16,000 per week budgets as payments towards payables.

January has been revised to $20,000 per week.

February has been revised to $22,000 per week.

March has been revised to $28,000 per week.

- 9 Government remittances scheduled to be kept current.

December's GST remittance due on January 31, 2012 to be paid.

All payroll remittances to be kept current.

- 10 With regards to accounts payable we intend to keep all post December 6th transactions current. We have had conversations with key suppliers like Purolator to discuss payment terms that are satisfactory to them.

In addition, as cash flow permits we intend to pay all vendors owed less than approximately $750.00 so that we can focus our discussions with vendors owed greater than $750.00

Vendors owed less than $750.00
