ARRANGEMENT OF EXPRESS GOLD REFINING LTD.

AFFIDAVIT OF ATEF SALAMA
(sworn September 9, 2022)

I, Atef Salama, of the City of Toronto, in the Province of Ontario, MAKE OATH
AND SAY:

1. I am EGR's Vice-President and have been since 2001. As such I have personal knowledge of the facts and matters deposed in this affidavit save where the same are stated to be based upon information or belief, and where so stated I verily believe the same to be true.
2. I make this affidavit in support of EGR's seventh motion for an extension of these CCAA proceedings and the October 27, 2020 second amended and restated initial order (the "SARIO"), of which I attach a copy as Exhibit "A", to December 16, 2022 (3 months).
3. The current extension expires on September 16, 2022.

I. INITIAL AND CONTINUED NEED FOR CCAA PROTECTION

4. EGR is in the precious metal (predominantly, gold) refining and trading business.
5. EGR's resort to relief under the CCAA was necessary due to (i) the Canada Revenue Agency ("CRA")'s refusal to pay EGR's net tax refunds, including input tax credits under the Excise Tax Act, since August 2018, and (ii) reassessments in excess of $189,000,000 issued to EGR on July 28, 2020 for the period from June 1, 2016 to October 31, 2018 (the "2020 Reassessments").
6. The 2020 Reassessments are being challenged by EGR (the "Tax Litigation") in the Tax Court of Canada ("Tax Court"). However, they are enforceable notwithstanding contestation,¹ and on or around October 8, 2020, CRA announced it would commence enforcement measures on October 15, 2020.
7. This is not an operational restructuring. But for CRA's refusal to pay EGR's net tax refunds and the 2020 Reassessments, EGR would be solvent and its business would be profitable. An application under the CCAA was necessary to create a statu quo and allow EGR to obtain, as a first milestone of a restructuring, a decision on the merits in the Tax Litigation.
8. The SARIO provides that a stay of proceedings applies but the Tax Litigation may continue.²

² I am referred to paragraph 10 of the SARIO.

II. STATUS OF TAX LITIGATION

A. Timetable Order

9. As set out in the Applicant's materials filed in connection with the June extension motion, a Tax Court case management conference was held on March 15, 2022 to discuss a timetable for completion of the remaining steps in the Tax Litigation. EGR counsel proposed a timetable that would have the parties seek to commence trial in the fall of 2022; however, CRA counsel sought a more extended timetable.
10. The Tax Court ordered the following timetable:

Step	Deadline
Completion of examinations for discovery	October 31, 2022
Serve answers to all undertakings given at the examinations for discovery	November 30, 2022
Serve all follow-up questions arising from answers to undertakings	December 19, 2022
Serve all answers to follow-up questions	January 27, 2023
Advise the Hearings Coordinator, whether the appeal will settle, whether a settlement conference would be beneficial or whether a hearing date should be set and in the latter event, filing a joint application to fix a time and place for the hearing.	February 28, 2023

B. Examinations for Discovery

11. I have previously advised the court that on May 12, 2022, the parties in the Tax Litigation discussed the holding of oral examinations for discovery. The expectation was to complete oral examinations for discovery by CRA conducting oral examinations of EGR's representative in September 2022 and EGR conducting oral examinations of CRA's representative in October 2022. This remains the expectation, subject to any need for additional oral discoveries arising out of additional documentary productions and undertakings.
12. In the course of the June extension hearing, counsel to the Monitor made reference to the Monitor's intention to seek to participate in the examinations for discovery solely as an observer. The Applicant has taken no issue with this intention and EGR's counsel reached out to CRA counsel in mid July to facilitate a timely agreement to permit the Monitor's participation to take place in a timely and cost-efficient manner. Counsel responded by requesting that the Monitor provide it with its request in writing setting out the parameters and particulars of their role in the discovery as well as their reasoning for wanting to attend the discoveries.

13. This request was communicated to Monitor's counsel and counsel responded to the request directly. Unfortunately, CRA was not agreeable to the Monitor's attendance and a dispute arose which resulted in concurrent requests to each of the Tax Court and this court seeking to obtain guidance on resolving the dispute in a timely manner. Throughout this dispute it has been the Applicant's consistent position that it is obliged to support the CCAA proceeding as an applicant thereunder and to comply with existing orders and relief with respect to the provision of timely information to the Monitor on the Tax Litigation.
14. As financial responsibility falls to the Applicant to fund the Monitor's participation it is in the Applicant's interest to facilitate a timely and cost-efficient process.
15. I understand that at the time of the swearing of this affidavit, the Monitor and CRA are in discussions to resolve the issue of the Monitor's participation in the discovery process, and it appears that CRA will agree to the Monitor receiving the transcripts of the discovery process. I expect that the Monitor will update the Court on the resolution of the discovery issue.

III. OTHER ACTIVITIES SINCE LAST EXTENSION

A. Operationally

16. Throughout these CCAA proceedings and as mentioned at every extension hearing, EGR has continued to operate its business in accordance with the Protocol as currently drafted and while complying with COVID-19 legal requirements and best practices as they currently apply.
17. As noted above, this is not an operational restructuring. There are no material changes or developments. EGR's day-to-day, and it is operating in the normal course.
18. I understand that the details and figures regarding EGR's business since the latest Monitor's report will be set out in the Monitor's eleventh report (the "Eleventh Report"), to be filed and served separately.
19. I believe EGR will be able to support its operations, the Tax Litigation, the herein proceeding and the Protocol for the duration of the extension sought, as I understand will more fully appear from the Eleventh Report.
20. From a restructuring perspective, the above sets out what EGR has been working on since the last extension hearing and, to an extent, since the beginning of this proceeding. EGR will continue to work on those matters alongside the Monitor and all stakeholders with due diligence and in good
21. The above sets out the notable developments in the Tax Litigation since the last extension. EGR will continue to work on those matters alongside its tax counsel, the Monitor and CRA with due diligence and in good faith.

IV. NEED FOR CONTINUED CCAA RELIEF

22. The extension of the stay provisions is necessary considering that the $189 million 2020 Reassessments are otherwise enforceable notwithstanding contestation. The continuation of the stay is intended to maintain the statu quo so that EGR may obtain, as a first milestone of its restructuring, a decision on the merits of its case in the Tax Litigation.
23. The SARIO provides that the Protocol terminates automatically upon termination of these CCAA proceedings, and so EGR requests the continuation of these proceedings to allow the Protocol to remain within this court's jurisdiction to enforce, as the case may be.
24. With the above in place, EGR has and will continue to act with due diligence and in good faith with respect to the Tax Litigation, its business and operations, and its relationship with CRA more generally.

THIS COURT ORDERS that nothing herein contained shall require the Monitor to occupy or to take control, care, charge, possession or management (separately and/or collectively, "Possession") of any of the Property that might be environmentally contaminated, might be a pollutant or a contaminant, or might cause or contribute to a spill, discharge, release or deposit of a substance contrary to any federal, provincial or other law respecting the protection, conservation, enhancement, remediation or rehabilitation of the environment or relating to the disposal of waste or other contamination including, without limitation, the Canadian Environmental Protection Act, the Ontario Environmental Protection Act, the Ontario Water Resources Act, or the Ontario Occupational Health and Safety Act and regulations thereunder (the "Environmental Legislation"), provided however that nothing herein shall exempt the Monitor from any duty to report or make disclosure imposed by applicable Environmental Legislation. The Monitor shall not, as a result of this Order or anything done in pursuance of the Monitor's duties and powers under this Order, be deemed to be in Possession of any of the Property within the meaning of any Environmental Legislation, unless it is actually in possession.

Nothing in this Order shall derogate from the protections afforded the Monitor by the CCAA or any applicable legislation.
