HOMBURG INVEST INC.

Homburg Invest provides Bi-Weekly Status Report

MONTREAL, August 28, 2012 - Homburg Invest Inc. (NYSE Euronext Amsterdam: HII) ("Homburg Invest" or the "Company") is providing its first bi-weekly Default Status Report under National Policy 12-203 Cease Trade Orders for Continuous Disclosure Defaults.

On August 14, 2012, the Company announced that its interim filings for the quarter ended June 30, 2011, including its financial statements, the related management discussion and analysis as well as CEO and CFO certifications, were being delayed beyond the applicable filing deadline.

The Company reports that since its initial default announcement on August 14, 2012, there (i) have not been any material changes to the information contained in the initial announcement, nor any failure by the Company to fulfill its intentions as stated in the initial announcement, (ii) are no additional defaults or anticipated defaults subsequent to the initial announcement, and (iii) is no other material information concerning the affairs of the Company that has not been generally disclosed. The Company expects to file its annual filings by August 31, 2012. Should it fail to do so, the Company will file its next Default Status Report by September 11, 2012.

As previously announced, the Company has obtained an order (the "Order") from the Superior Court of Quebec (Commercial Division) (the "Court") granting creditor protection pursuant to the provisions of the Canadian Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act. The Order provides for a general stay of proceedings which has been extended by the Court to August 31, 2012. The stay period is subject to further extensions as the Court may deem appropriate.
