19. The Canadian Recognition Order requires that the Information Officer deliver a report to the Court at such times and intervals as it deems appropriate, and in any event, in anticipation of a request for a further extension order, on the status of the proceedings, the foreign proceedings and such other information that the Information Officer deem to be material. This report is filed pursuant to the requirements of the Canadian Recognition Order and Mexicana's request for a stay period extension until July 15, 2014.
20. This seventeenth report of the Information Officer (the "Seventeenth Report") has been prepared in view of providing the Canadian Court with information on the status of the Mexican Proceedings. The purpose of this Seventeenth Report is to provide the Canadian Court and Mexicana's stakeholders with an update on the Mexican Proceedings since the filing of the Information Officer's Sixteenth Report. This Seventeenth Report is to be read in conjunction with the previous reports of the Information Officer available on the Information Officer's website.

TERMS OF REFERENCE

21. In preparing the Seventeenth Report, Deloitte has relied upon unaudited financial information, the Company's books and records, financial information prepared by the Company and its advisors, discussions with management of Mexicana and its representatives and advisors. In addition, Deloitte has reviewed the publicly available information filed in the Mexican Proceedings and the CCAA Proceedings. Deloitte has not audited, reviewed or otherwise attempted to verify the accuracy or completeness of the information and, accordingly, Deloitte expresses no opinion or other form of assurance on the information contained in this report.
22. Some of the information referred to in this Seventeenth Report may consist of or include forecasts and/or projections. An examination or review of financial forecasts and projections, as outlined in the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants Handbook, has not been performed. Readers are cautioned that since projections are based upon assumptions about future events and conditions that are not ascertainable, actual results will vary from the projections, even if the assumptions materialize, and the variations could be significant.

23. Deloitte has requested that Mexicana bring to its attention any significant matters that were not addressed in the course of its specific inquiries. Accordingly, this Seventeenth Report is based solely on the information (financial or otherwise) made available to Deloitte. Some information provided by Mexicana had yet to be translated from Spanish at the date of the issuance of this report and some facts could be reported differently once an official translation is provided to Deloitte.
24. All references to dollars in this Seventeenth Report are in Canadian currency unless otherwise noted. Capitalized terms not defined in this Seventeenth Report are defined in the Initial Order, the Gonzales Affidavit or in the previous reports of the Information Officer available on the Information Officer's website.

UPDATE ON THE MEXICAN PROCEEDINGS

25. As mentioned in the Sixteenth Report, Mexicana filed a Creditors' Agreement with the Mexican Court. The Mexican Court imposed a condition to the approval of the said agreement, namely that an agreement has been reached with a potential investor. On April 3, 2014, given that an acceptable investor had not been identified by the Mexican Court, Justice Edith Alarcon-Meixueiro denied the approval of the Creditors' Agreement and declared Mexicana bankrupt (the "Decision").
26. According to the Foreign Representative's understanding, Mexicana's insolvency proceedings in Mexico have changed from a reorganization procedure to a liquidation procedure.
27. According to the information provided by the Foreign Representative, several appeals of the Decision (the "Appeals") were launched by creditors, unions and employee groups. Until the Appeals are dealt with, the bankruptcy of Mexicana remains subject to contestation and the possibility of being overturned.
28. On or about April 23, 2014, Mexico's Secretaría de Comunicaciones y Transportes appointed Mr. Alfonso Ascensio Triujeque (the "Trustee") as trustee to Mexicana. The Trustee accepted the appointment and was sworn on April 29, 2014.
29. We have been advised by the Foreign Representative that, although expected shortly, the Trustee has yet to take possession of the assets and undertaking of Mexicana.
30. According to the Foreign Representative's understanding the Trustee may select a new foreign representative or ask the current Foreign Representative to remain in place.
31. As Mexicana presently sits in a juridical limbo and that it still has assets located in Canada which, if the stay period is not temporarily extended, would be subject to seizure or execution by the creditors of Mexicana, it is necessary to extend the Initial Order on a short-term basis. This will allow the Trustee to determine the identity of the foreign representative going forward and plan the next steps in Mexicana's insolvency proceedings.

32. Mexicana was not able to confirm that it presently has the financial capabilities to pay the Post-filing debt and ongoing costs. Mexicana was not able to advise the Information Officer that the Company is processing payments to suppliers presently, providing post-filing goods and services.

ACTIVITIES OF THE INFORMATION OFFICER

33. Since August 5, 2010, the Information Officer's activities have included:

- Reviewing the draft materials for the CCAA Proceedings and communicating with Mexicana's Canadian counsel, BLG, regarding same;
- Posting a copy of the Court-filed documents in these CCAA Proceedings to the Information Officer's website at <http://www.deloitte.com/ca/mexicana-airlines>;
- Various discussions and correspondence with BLG;
- Responding to inquiries of Mexicana's stakeholders;
- Preparing and mailing a notice to creditors entitled Supplemental Disclosure Regarding the Credit Recognition Application Process;
- Preparing and updating the service list and posting same to the Information Officer's website;
- Participating in conference calls with management of the Company, BLG and the Foreign Representative to discuss matters relevant to the Mexican Proceedings and CCAA Proceedings;
- Preparing the Information Officer's reports and communicating with BLG regarding the same; and
- Attendance at Court hearings.

CONCLUSION

34. Since the Company was not able to provide the Information Officer with any financial information, the Information Officer is not in a position to conclude on the financial and liquidity situation of the Company.
35. The Company notified the Information Officer of its intention to request a further extension of the Stay Period until the earlier of (i) July 15, 2014 or (ii) ten (10) days following the service by the Foreign Representative or the undersigned Information Officer to this Honorable Court and to the members of the service list, of a Notice advising that all appeals against the Decision have been either dismissed, withdrawn or settled, such that the Decision is confirmed and final.

The Information Officer respectfully submits to the Court, this, its Seventeenth Report.

DATED AT MONTREAL, this 14th day of May, 2014.
