INTRODUCTION AND PURPOSE OF THIS REPORT

1. On October 6, 2023, Enlightened Funding Corporation ("Enlightened") issued a Notice of Application with the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List) (the "Court") for an order appointing Deloitte Restructuring Inc. ("Deloitte") as receiver of the property, assets, and undertakings of Velocity Asset and Credit Corporation ("Velocity") and certain property of 926749 Ontario Ltd. o/a Clonsilla Auto Sales and Leasing (the "Dealer" and, together with Velocity, the "Debtors"), including all of the Leases, Leased Vehicles, Rights, Collections and the Dealer Blocked Account (each as defined in a dealer security agreement entered into between Enlightened and the Dealer) and all products or proceeds thereof (the "Dealer Property").

2. On October 26, 2023, pursuant to an order of the Court (the "Receivership Order"), Deloitte was appointed as receiver (the "Receiver") of the property, assets, and undertakings of Velocity and the Dealer Property. A copy of the Receivership Order is attached hereto as Appendix "A".

3. On December 8, 2023, pursuant to an order (the "A&R Receivership Order") of the Court, Deloitte was appointed as receiver over all the property, assets, and undertakings of Velocity and of the Dealer. A copy of the A&R Receivership Order is attached hereto as Appendix "B".

4. Pursuant to paragraph 9 of the A&R Receivership Order, the Receiver was empowered to exercise all available investigative and other rights and remedies that are available to a trustee in bankruptcy under the BIA. The Receiver has the same rights as a trustee in bankruptcy pursuant to the A&R Receivership Order.

5. Also on May 3, 2024, the Court granted an Order authorizing the Receiver to assign the Debtors into bankruptcy (the "Bankruptcy Order"). The Receiver filed assignments in bankruptcy in respect of Velocity and the Dealer on May 16, 2024. Deloitte was appointed as the licensed insolvency trustee of both Velocity and the Dealer (the "Trustee"). The Bankruptcy Order specified that the date of the initial bankruptcy event with respect to the Debtors was October 6, 2023. A copy of the Bankruptcy Order is attached hereto as Appendix "C" and copies of the bankruptcy assignments in respect of Velocity and the Dealer are attached hereto as Appendix "D" and "E", respectively.

6. The purpose of this fifth report of the Receiver (the "Fifth Report") is to provide information to the Court with respect to, among other things:

   (a) the Receiver's motion for an order (the "Reviewable Transactions Order") that, among other things:

      i. declares that the transfers (the "Transfers") out of the Dealer's estate to the parties (the "Reviewable Transaction Parties") listed in this Fifth Report and as described herein are preferences and/or transfers at undervalue pursuant to subsections 95(1)(b) and 96(1)(b) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act, RSC 1985, c B-3 (the "BIA"), respectively or, in the alternative, subsection 95(1)(a), subsection 96(1)(a) of the BIA, or subsections 4(1) and 4(2) of the Assignments and Preferences Act, RSO 1990, c A-33 (the "APA"); and

      ii. directs the Reviewable Transaction Parties to pay the Receiver the amounts set out below, which amounts constitute the Transfers received from the Dealer's estate.

TERMS OF REFERENCE

7. In preparing this Fifth Report, Deloitte has been provided with, and has relied upon the Debtors' books and records, unaudited, draft, and/or internal financial information, discussions with the Debtors' management, shareholders, employees, and information from third-party sources (collectively, the "Information"). Except as otherwise described in this Fifth Report:

   a) Deloitte has reviewed the Information for reasonableness, internal consistency, and use in the context in which it was provided. However, Deloitte has not audited or otherwise attempted to verify the accuracy or completeness of the Information in a manner that would wholly or partially comply with Canadian Auditing Standards ("CAS") pursuant to the Chartered Professional Accountants Canada Handbook, and accordingly, the Receiver expresses no opinion or other form of assurance contemplated under CAS in respect of the Information.

   b) The Receiver has filed this Fifth Report solely for the purpose of providing information to this Court. Parties using the Fifth Report other than for the purposes outlined herein are cautioned it may not be appropriate for their purposes.

8. Unless otherwise stated, all dollar amounts contained in this Fifth Report are expressed in Canadian dollars.

BACKGROUND

9. Velocity was incorporated on August 21, 2019, under the Ontario Business Corporations Act (the "OBCA"). The directors and officers of Velocity were Hollinsworth Auguste and Hugh Waddell ("Hugh" or "Waddell").

10. The Dealer was incorporated on June 4, 1991, and was revived on July 12, 1996, under the OBCA. The Dealer operated a used car dealership located at 809 Clonsilla Avenue, Peterborough, Ontario. The directors and officers of the Dealer were Waddell and Meggan Waddell, Waddell's daughter.

11. The Dealer's primary business activity was selling and/or leasing used vehicles to customers with sub-prime credit ratings.

RECEIVER'S INVESTIGATION

12. Since its appointment, the Receiver has taken all necessary steps to maximize the revenue from the legitimate portion of the Dealer's business operations. As outlined in the First Report, however, the Receiver identified numerous concerns with the books and records of the Debtors, as well as the transfers of property in the months leading up to the appointment of the Receiver.

13. The A&R Receivership Order granted enhanced investigative powers to the Receiver, including the power to investigate any persons that the Receiver believes has knowledge of the affairs or property of the Debtors.

14. The Receiver has conducted a comprehensive investigation of the Dealer's financial records to trace the movement of funds to identify and pursue recoveries related to reviewable transactions, including transfers at undervalue and other preferences.

15. As part of the investigation, on December 13, 2023, the Receiver delivered correspondence to various individuals, including members of the Waddell family, notifying them they may be examined in connection with their relationship with the Debtors (the "Examination Letters"). Copies of the Examination Letters are attached hereto as Appendix "F".

16. Subsequently, the Receiver's investigation revealed members of the Waddell family may have benefited from reviewable transactions with the Dealer, including by way of direct transfers from the Dealer's accounts. Accordingly, on February 15, 2024, the Receiver delivered correspondence to members of the Waddell family, including Waddell, Nancy Waddell, Taylor Waddell, Meggan Waddell, Sara Waddell, Thomas Sargeant and Meagan Archer demanding certain banking information in order to determine which parties received transfers from the Dealer dating back to May 2022. Copies of these correspondences are attached hereto as Appendix "G".

17. In response, the Receiver and its counsel were contacted by Frank Bennett of Bennett Bankruptcy Law ("Bennett"), who advised that he was representing members of the Waddell family and that the Receiver was not entitled to the requested information.

18. In particular, on May 31, 2024, on behalf of the Waddell family members, Bennett wrote an email to the Receiver's counsel refusing to deliver the banking information to the Receiver. A copy of Bennett's email is attached hereto as Appendix "H".

19. On June 20, 2024, Bennett advised that he was no longer representing the Waddell family. A copy of Bennett's email is attached hereto as Appendix "I".

20. On June 17, 2024, the Receiver's counsel was contacted by Matthew Harris, who advised that he was now representing Sara Waddell and Nancy Waddell. Following an initial discussion, Mr. Harris provided the Receiver's counsel with the requested banking information of Sara Waddell and Nancy Waddell, however, not all of the requested disclosure was made to the Receiver.

21. The lack of full cooperation from the Waddell family frustrated the Receiver's ability to ascertain the movement of funds by the Debtors. The Receiver was forced to undertake a detailed reconciliation exercise using the books and records of the Debtors, including the bank statements of the Dealer dating back to May 2022.

22. The reconciliation involved considerable effort and required the assistance of the banks that held the Debtors' accounts to identify the counterparties to transactions that appeared to be out of the ordinary course of business.

23. Once the reconciliation was completed, the Receiver began conducting examinations pursuant to the A&R Appointment Order.

24. The goals of these examinations included, among other things:

(a) confirming whether there were any legitimate purposes for transfers out of the business in the final year of its operations; and

(b) understanding the operations of the Dealer prior to the appointment of the Receiver, including how the relationship worked between the Dealer and Velocity in practice.

25. To date, the Receiver has been unable to examine Mr. Waddell, given his purported health issues. Nevertheless, the Receiver believes that the objectives of the examinations of the parties to date were accomplished. A review of the Dealer's bank statements for the period from October 6, 2022, to October 6, 2023 (the "Relevant Period") indicated that a large number of funds were transferred away from the Dealer during this period to non-arm's length parties.

26. The Receiver's examination and investigation has also uncovered significant financial irregularities involving transactions between the Dealer and various related parties, including members of the Waddell family.

27. There are 13 parties that comprise the Reviewable Transaction Parties against whom the Receiver seeks relief on this motion. The basis for the relief sought against each individual is set out below.

28. An individual who was examined but against whom no relief is sought is Maryanne Jacobs, who was the Dealer's de facto bookkeeper. On October 1, 2024, the examination of Ms. Jacobs was held in Peterborough. The transcript of Ms. Jacobs's examination is attached hereto as Appendix "J".

29. The Receiver asked Ms. Jacobs questions regarding her role with the Dealer and how the operations of the Dealer were conducted prior to the Receiver being appointed. Ms. Jacobs was able to confirm many of the concerns raised by the Receiver, including the use of duplicate leases, Waddell's use of company funds to fund personal expenses, Waddell's practice of signing lease purchase and lease agreements in the name of other people, and incomplete record-keeping.[1]

30. Ms. Jacobs' evidence was that she had an increasingly expanding role with the Dealer and had considerable knowledge of the inner workings of the Dealer and all of the individuals who were involved with its operation.[2] She also testified that she knew Waddell's family and its use of Dealer funds for personal expenses and the reimbursement of loans made by his family members.[3] Ms. Jacobs' evidence is referred to in this report given the important role she played at the Dealer and her extensive familiarity with the Reviewable Transaction Parties.

31. As mentioned above, the Receiver has been unable to examine Hugh as the result of several adjournments that have been granted in the parallel personal bankruptcy proceedings in respect of Hugh brought by Peoples Trust Company of Canada, the Dealer's principal secured creditor. The adjournments have been due to Hugh's asserted health concerns, which Hugh states prevents him from participating in legal proceedings or examinations. Accordingly, the Receiver has not yet examined Hugh, although intends to do so at the first available instance.

32. The table below summarizes the amounts the Receiver has identified as Reviewable Transactions and for which the Receiver is seeking to recover these amounts:

Party	Amount Claimed (3 months)	Amount Claimed (12 months)
Nancy Waddell	$12,800.00	$32,150.00

(1) Nancy Waddell

33. On November 7, 2024, the Receiver examined each of Nancy Waddell, Sara Waddell, Taylor Waddell and Meggan Waddell in the presence of Mr. Harris. Copies of each of their transcripts of examination are attached hereto as Appendix "K", Appendix "L", Appendix "M", and Appendix "N", respectively. Mr. Harris advised that he was acting as Taylor Waddell and Meggan Waddell's agent. The Receiver questioned each of the Waddell family members regarding the transfers of funds they received from the Dealer.

34. Nancy Waddell ("Nancy") is Hugh's wife and is a "related person" to the Dealer under the BIA. Accordingly, pursuant to section 4(5) of the BIA, she is presumed to not be dealing at arm's length with the Dealer. During the Relevant Period, she received e-transfers from the Dealer in the aggregate amount of $32,150.00, as set out below.

October 6, 2022	$1,000.00

September 20, 2023	$1,800.00
September 29, 2023	$1,000.00
Total	$32,150.00

35. The relevant bank statements and evidence are attached collectively at Appendix "O".

36. During her examination, Nancy testified that she occasionally performed work for the Dealer, although she was not formally employed and was not paid through payroll. She did not record her hours, had no employment agreement, and there was no arrangement regarding her compensation for any work performed.[4] The Receiver understands that no amounts were remitted to CRA in respect of payroll withholdings on Nancy's behalf.

37. Nancy further testified that, from time to time, she would inform Hugh that she needed money, and he would e-transfer funds to her from the Dealer. She presumed these payments were intended to compensate her for the hours she had worked.[5]

38. Based on the examination conducted and the limited evidence and documentation provided, the Receiver is of the view that the transfers from the Dealer to Nancy constitute preferences within the meaning of section 95(1)(b) of the BIA and/or section 4 of the APA, and further constitute transfers at undervalue within the meaning of section 96(1)(b) of the BIA.

39. Accordingly, the Receiver submits that the transfers ought to be declared void as against the Receiver, and that Nancy should be ordered to pay the amount of $32,150.00 to the Receiver, or such other amount as this Honourable Court may determine.

(2) Meggan Waddell

40. In addition to being a director of the Dealer, Meggan is Hugh's daughter and is a "related person" to the Dealer under the BIA. Accordingly, pursuant to section 4(5) of the BIA, she is presumed to not be dealing at arm's length with the Dealer. 41. The relevant bank statements and evidence are attached collectively at Appendix "P".

42. On examination, Meggan provided evidence that she had loaned money to her father's business and that the money she received from the Dealer was for the repayment of her loans. The source of the funds loaned to the Dealer was an inheritance that Meggan had received. She was unable to produce any written documentation of her loans to her father.[6]

43. Based on the examination conducted and the limited evidence and documentation provided, the Receiver is of the view that the transfers from the Dealer to Meggan constitute preferences within the meaning of section 95(1)(b) of the BIA and/or section 4 of the APA, and further constitute transfers at undervalue within the meaning of section 96(1)(b) of the BIA.

44. Accordingly, the Receiver submits that the transfers ought to be declared void as against the Receiver, and that Meggan should be ordered to pay the amount of $85,681.00 to the Receiver, or such other amount as this Honourable Court may determine.

(3) Sara Waddell

45. Sara Waddell ("Sara") is also Hugh's daughter and is a "related person" to the Dealer under the BIA. Accordingly, pursuant to section 4(5) of the BIA, she is presumed to not be dealing at arm's length with the Dealer. During the Relevant Period, Sara received wire transfers, e-transfers, direct deposits and cheques in the aggregate amount of $124,684.00 from the Dealer, as set out below.

46. The relevant bank statements and evidence are attached collectively at Appendix "Q".

47. Upon examination, Sara claimed to have done some work for the Dealer, approximately 100 hours worth – during the summer of 2023. However, Sara stated that this work was paid for through the Dealer's payroll.[7]

48. Sara's evidence is that she had also loaned money to her father's business, and when asked about the transfers noted above, confirmed these payments were the repayment of her loans. While Sara produced some loan documentation, there are no loan documents that track to these inconsistent payments.[8]

49. Based on the examination conducted and the limited evidence and documentation provided, the Receiver is of the view that the transfers from the Dealer to Sara constitute preferences within the meaning of section 95(1)(b) of the BIA and/or section 4 of the APA, and further constitute transfers at undervalue within the meaning of section 96(1)(b) of the BIA.

50. Accordingly, the Receiver submits that the transfers ought to be declared void as against the Receiver, and that Sara should be ordered to pay the amount of $125,183.00 to the Receiver, or such other amount as this Honourable Court may determine.

(4) Taylor Waddell

51. Taylor Waddell ("Taylor") is Hugh's son and is a "related person" to the Dealer under the BIA. Accordingly, pursuant to section 4(5) of the BIA, he is presumed to not be dealing at arm's length with the Dealer. During the Relevant Period, he received wire transfers, e-transfers, direct deposits and cheques in the aggregate amount of $155,236.00 from the Dealer, as set out below.

52. The relevant bank statements and evidence are attached collectively at Appendix "R".

53. Upon examination, Taylor gave evidence that he occasionally worked for the Dealer between October 2022 and October 2023 but was not on its formal payroll. His evidence was that his agreement was to be paid $25 per hour for his time. Sometimes he was paid by e-transfer, sometimes by cheque, and sometimes not at all. His work was informal and he did not keep track of his hours.[9] The Receiver understands that no amounts were remitted to CRA in respect of payroll withholdings on Taylor's behalf.

54. Taylor also claims to have loaned more than $1.2 million to the Dealer. The source of those funds was an inheritance. While Taylor claims there were written loan agreements, he has not been able to produce any.[10] None of these alleged loan documents form part of the books and records of the Dealer.

55. Taylor's evidence is that the money he received from the Dealer was either for loan repayments or as wages for the work he performed. He was unable to be more specific than that. He agreed that his tax returns would shed light on what amount was wages and what amount was loan repayment, but he has failed to fulfill his undertaking to produce his tax returns.[11]

56. Based on the examination conducted and the limited evidence and documentation provided, the Receiver is of the view that the transfers from the Dealer to Taylor constitute preferences within the meaning of section 95(1)(b) of the BIA and/or section 4 of the APA, and further constitute transfers at undervalue within the meaning of section 96(1)(b) of the BIA.

57. Accordingly, the Receiver submits that the transfers ought to be declared void as against the Receiver, and that Taylor should be ordered to pay the amount of $154,640.00 to the Receiver, or such other amount as this Honourable Court may determine.

(5) Northbridge Estates

58. Nancy is the principal of Northbridge Estates ("Northbridge") and is its sole officer, director, and shareholder. The corporate profile report of Northbridge is attached at Appendix "S". It is a holding company that owns the building out of which the Dealer operated its business.

59. Nancy is related to both of the controlling persons of the Dealer and therefore, Northbridge and the Dealer are "related persons" under the BIA. Accordingly, pursuant to section 4(5) of the BIA, they are presumed to not be dealing at arm's length.

60. It is Nancy's evidence that Northbridge did not loan any money to the Dealer directly, but Northbridge was used as a flow-through for funds. Meggan, Sara, and Taylor would loan money to the Dealer by directing their funds to Northbridge, which would then forward the funds to the Dealer.[12]

61. Northbridge was not carrying on business and was not collecting rent from the Dealer post-2020. Despite this, Northbridge received $12,950.00 during the Relevant Period, as set out below.[13]

Based on the examination conducted and the limited evidence and documentation provided, the Receiver is of the view that the transfers from the Dealer to Northbridge constitute preferences within the meaning of section 95(1)(b) of the BIA and/or section 4 of the APA, and further constitute transfers at undervalue within the meaning of section 96(1)(b) of the BIA.

64. Accordingly, the Receiver submits that the transfers ought to be declared void as against the Receiver, and that Northbridge should be ordered to pay the amount of $12,950.00 to the Receiver, or such other amount as this Honourable Court may determine.

(6) Sandy McDavid

65. Sandy McDavid ("Sandy") is Hugh's mother and is a "related person" to the Dealer under the BIA. Accordingly, pursuant to section 4(5) of the BIA, she is presumed to not be dealing at arm's length with the Dealer. She received $9,380.33 from the Dealer during the Relevant Period, as set out below.

Total:	$9,380.33

66. The relevant bank statements and evidence are attached collectively at Appendix "U".

67. Although Sandy was not examined, Ms. Jacobs advised the Receiver that she had loaned money to the Dealer, similar to the other individuals referenced above. Ms. Jacobs also testified that she heard Hugh tell Sandy she would be repaid the loans she had advanced.[14]

68. The Receiver has been unable to locate any loan agreements, or other supporting documentation in the books and records of the Dealer to substantiate the existence of any such loans or to explain the nature and purpose of the payments the Dealer transferred to Sandy.

69. Based on the examination conducted and the limited evidence and documentation provided, the Receiver is of the view that the transfers from the Dealer to Sandy constitute preferences within the meaning of section 95(1)(b) of the BIA and/or section 4 of the APA, and further constitute transfers at undervalue within the meaning of section 96(1)(b) of the BIA.

70. Accordingly, the Receiver submits that the transfers ought to be declared void as against the Receiver, and that Sandy should be ordered to pay the amount of $9,380.33 to the Receiver, or such other amount as this Honourable Court may determine.

(7) Ian Anderson

71. Ian Anderson ("Ian") is Hugh's brother[15] and is a "related person" to the Dealer under the BIA. Accordingly, pursuant to section 4(5) of the BIA, he is presumed to not be dealing at arm's length with the Dealer. During the Relevant Period, Ian received $21,070.98 from the Dealer, as set out below.

Total:	$21,070.98

72. The relevant bank statements and evidence are attached collectively at Appendix "V".

73. Ian was not examined; however, Ms. Jacobs testified that he performed maintenance and other miscellaneous tasks for both the Dealer and for Hugh personally.[16]

74. Ms. Jacobs advised that Ian was not on the Dealer's payroll, as much of the work he performed was for Hugh personally at Hugh's house, which "had nothing to do with the [Dealer's] business". Ms. Jacobs was not aware of any loans advanced by Ian but described the payments received by Ian as belonging to the "Hughniverse pile"[17] – which the Receiver understands to be payments made by Hugh out of the Dealer's estate which may be preferential transfers or payments which related to Hugh personally.

75. Based on the examination conducted and the limited evidence and documentation provided, the Receiver is of the view that the transfers from the Dealer to Ian constitute preferences within the meaning of section 95(1)(b) of the BIA and/or section 4 of the APA, and further constitute transfers at undervalue within the meaning of section 96(1)(b) of the BIA.

76. Accordingly, the Receiver submits that the transfers ought to be declared void as against the Receiver, and that Ian should be ordered to pay the amount of $21,070.98 to the Receiver, or such other amount as this Honourable Court may determine.

(8) Thomas Sargeant

77. Thomas Sargeant ("Thomas") is Meggan's spouse and is a "related person" to the Dealer under the BIA. Accordingly, pursuant to section 4(5) of the BIA, he is presumed to not be dealing at arm's length with the Dealer. During the Relevant Period, he received $1,700.00 from the Dealer, as set out below.

Total	$1,700.00

78. The relevant bank statements and evidence are attached collectively at Appendix "W".

79. Thomas was not examined. However, there is no evidence that he ever worked for the Dealer, nor has any documentation been provided to justify the transfers made to him. Ms. Jacobs testified that she was not aware of any reason why Thomas would be receiving transfers from the Dealer.[18]

80. Based on the examination conducted and the limited evidence and documentation provided, the Receiver is of the view that the transfers from the Dealer to Thomas constitute preferences within the meaning of section 95(1)(b) of the BIA and/or section 4 of the APA, and further constitute transfers at undervalue within the meaning of section 96(1)(b) of the BIA.

81. Accordingly, the Receiver submits that the transfers ought to be declared void as against the Receiver, and that Thomas should be ordered to pay the amount of $1,700.00 to the Receiver, or such other amount as this Honourable Court may determine.

(9) Gerald Shapiro, Marion Shapiro, Paul Shapiro and Glortran

82. On October 1, 2024, the examination of Gerald Shapiro ("Gerald") by the Receiver was held in Peterborough. The transcript of Gerald's examination is attached hereto as Appendix "X".

83. Gerald was a long-standing salesperson with the Dealer. The Receiver asked Gerald regarding his background and certain transfers of funds to him which appeared to be out of the ordinary course.[19]

84. Gerald worked for the Dealer for roughly 30 years. He was the general manager for the Dealer during this time. He fulfilled many roles. Around 2018, Hugh changed Gerald's role and, as a result of his internal demotion, Gerald to decide to retire from the business, which he did in November 2020. During the Relevant Period, he received $3,800.00 from the Dealer, as set out below.

Date	Transfer Amount
August 10, 2023 (cheque 38518)	$600.00
August 31, 2023 (Deposited on September 1, 2023) (cheque 38576)	$2,600.00
October 16, 2023 (cheque 38644)	$600.00
Total:	$3,800.00

85. Despite retiring, Gerald continued to go into work occasionally and do some odd jobs for the Dealer, which he continued to do until the Dealer was put into receivership.

[19] Examination of Gerald Shapiro dated October 1, 2024 ("Gerald Examination"), at page 45, Qs. 286-289.

86. Gerald admitted that he had signed his own cheques but was unable to clearly explain the reasons for the transfers or specify the amounts involved. He merely stated that the payments were likely for money owed to him from his time working for the Dealer.[20]

87. Gerald's brother, Paul Shapiro ("Paul"), also had a connection with the Dealer's business. He invested in the Dealer in or around 2022 and had loaned money to Hugh personally for the purchase of a boat.[21]

88. During the Relevant Period, Paul received $22,300.00 from the Dealer, as set out below.

89. Upon examination, Gerald testified that his understanding was that the transfers to Paul were allegedly tied to repayment of his loan to the Dealer or interest payments[22] but no documentation was provided or produced in relation to these transfers.

90. Ms. Jacobs testified that the only reason Paul would have received money from the Dealer prior to the appointment of the Receiver would have been in repayment of the loan Paul made to Hugh for the boat purchase. Ms. Jacobs classified the payments to Paul as being part of the "Hughniverse".[23]

91. Gerald's wife, Marion Shapiro ("Marion"), also received $37,853.14 from the Dealer during the Relevant Period as set out below.

92. Gerald's evidence is that both he and Marion provided loans to the Dealer which were not documented in any written loan agreement. Gerald claims that the transfers he and Marion received were repayments of those loans.[24]

93. Ms. Jacobs also testified that the payments Marion received would have been in repayment of loans advanced by either Gerald or Marion.[25]

94. Glortran Consulting ("Glortran") is a corporation controlled by Gerald.[26] Gerald is the sole director and officer of Glortran. 95. The relevant bank statements and evidence in respect of the transfers received by Gerald, Paul, Marion and Glortran are attached collectively at Appendix "Z".

96. Gerald testified that payments for his services were sometimes made directly to him and at other times to Glortran. According to his evidence, there was no consistent method of payment, and the destination of the payments varied irregularly.[27] Further, the payments Glortran received were for a mix of retirement payments and loan repayments.[28]

97. Ms. Jacobs was not able to confirm why Glortran would have received funds from the Dealer, but her best guess was that it was in repayment of loans advanced by Gerald to the Dealer.[29]

98. Although Gerald, Paul, Marion and Glortran (collectively, the "Shapiros") are not "related persons" with the Dealer under the BIA and were likely at arm's length with the Dealer, the Receiver is of the view that the transfers received by the Shapiros were made at a time when the Dealer was insolvent and the Dealer intended to defeat its other creditors by making the transfers to the Shapiros.

99. Based on the examinations conducted and the limited evidence and documentation provided, the Receiver is of the view that the transfers from the Dealer to the Shapiros constitute preferences within the meaning of section 95(1)(a) of the BIA and/or section 4 of the APA, and further constitute transfers at undervalue within the meaning of section 96(1)(a) of the BIA.

100. Accordingly, the Receiver submits that the transfers ought to be declared void as against the Receiver, and that the Shapiros should be ordered to pay the amounts as set out above to the Receiver, or such other amount as this Honourable Court may determine.

103. The relevant bank statements and evidence are attached collectively at Appendix "BB".

104. Scasny was asked about transfers of funds he received from the Dealer. Scasny provided evidence of numerous loans he made to Hugh personally or to the Dealer. Scasny's evidence is that the transfers he received from the Dealer outside of the ordinary course of his payments through payroll on a regular schedule were for the purpose of repaying the loans Scasny advanced to Hugh or the Dealer.[30]

105. On June 26, 2023, Scasny cashed a $95,000 cheque received from the Dealer, which he explained was to repay loans made by Scasny to the Dealer.[31]

106. Ms. Jacobs confirmed that Scasny had loaned significant sums of money to the Dealer and was receiving repayment of these loans during the Relevant Period.[32]

[32] Jacobs Examination, page 113, Qs. 549-550.

107. Upon a review of the Receiver's review of the books and records of the Dealer, the Receiver discovered fully executed share purchase agreements whereby Mr. Scasny would inject equity into the Dealer and become an equity holder. These agreements were witnessed by Mr. Scasny's wife and were signed by Scasny, Hugh and other shareholders.[33] A copy of the share purchase agreements are attached at Appendix "CC".

108. Despite the appearance of the documents on their face, Scasny's evidence is that these executed share purchase agreements were for his father's eyes only to allow his father to see what the deal would look like if consummated.[34]

109. Without any documentation indicating otherwise, the Receiver's conclusion is that the parties intended for Scasny to become an equity holder in the Dealer and he either was, or had the option to be, an equity holder of the Dealer.

110. Accordingly, although Scasny is not a "related person" with the Dealer under the BIA, the Receiver is of the view that as a question of fact, Scasny was not dealing at arm's length with the Dealer at the time of the receipt of the transfers from the Dealer.

111. Based on the examination conducted and the limited evidence and documentation provided, the Receiver is of the view that the transfers from the Dealer to Scasny constitute preferences within the meaning of section 95(1)(b) of the BIA and/or section 4 of the APA, and further constitute transfers at undervalue within the meaning of section 96(1)(b) of the BIA.

112. Accordingly, the Receiver submits that the transfers ought to be declared void as against the Receiver, and that Scasny should be ordered to pay the amount of $330,931.00 to the Receiver, or such other amount as this Honourable Court may determine.

RECEIVER'S CONCLUSION FROM INVESTIGATION

113. After reviewing the Dealer's financial records in detail, the Receiver identified significant transfers from the estate to individuals who were not dealing at arm's length with the Dealer. These transactions appeared to lack any legitimate business purpose and were made to the detriment of other creditors, in particular, the secured creditors of the Dealer. No documentation has been provided to justify the transfers on any bona fide commercial basis.

114. Examinations conducted by the Receiver provided key evidence in support of these findings. Several of the Reviewable Transaction Parties were examined and generally claimed that the transfers they received were repayments of loans. However, no supporting documentation was produced to verify those claims.

115. In effect, these parties were treated preferentially in the period leading up to the receivership and received payments or other benefits not available to other creditors.

116. The Receiver is of the view that all of the Reviewable Transaction Parties with the exception of the Shapiros are non-arm's length for the purposes of the BIA. As such, any transfers to them within the 12 months prior to the initial bankruptcy event are void as against the Receiver. While "arm's length" is not specifically defined in the BIA, section 4(2) defines "related persons," and section 4(5) establishes a presumption that related persons are not dealing at arm's length. For the purposes of sections 95(1)(b) and 96(1)(b), such parties are deemed not to be at arm's length unless proven otherwise.

117. Under section 4(4) of the BIA, whether unrelated parties were at arm's length at the relevant time is a question of fact.

118. All of the Reviewable Transaction Parties are related to the Dealer, except for the Shapiros and Scasny. However, Scasny was both an employee and an equity holder of the Dealer, and as a factual matter, was not dealing at arm's length when he received his respective transfers.

119. Even if any of the parties were ultimately found to be at arm's length with the Dealer - triggering a three-month lookback period under section 95(1)(a) - the Receiver maintains that the transfers would still constitute transfers at undervalue under section 96(1)(a) of the BIA and preferences under section 4 of the Assignments and Preferences Act ("APA"). Under the BIA, such transfers are void if the debtor was insolvent at the time of the transfer and intended to defraud, defeat, or delay creditors. Under the APA, a transfer is void if made by an insolvent debtor - or one unable to pay its debts in full or on the eve of insolvency - with the intent of giving one creditor an unjust preference over others.

120. The Dealer made the transfers referred to in this Fifth Report knowing that it could not repay its debts in full and that it would have to choose between paying certain creditors and not others.

121. The evidence shows that the Dealer knew it was insolvent, or was on the verge of insolvency, well before the Receiver's appointment and prior to July 6, 2023, which is the date the three-month BIA lookback period begins for arm's length transactions.

122. The BIA defines an insolvent person as a person who (i) is not bankrupt, (ii) carries on business or has property in Canada, (iii) whose liabilities to creditors provable as claims under the Act amount to one thousand dollars, and (iv) meets one of the following tests:

(a) is, for any reason, unable to meet his obligations as they generally become due;

(b) has ceased paying his current obligations in the ordinary course of business as they generally become due; or

(c) the aggregate of whose property is not, at a fair valuation, sufficient, or, if disposed of at a fairly conducted sale under legal process, would not be sufficient to enable payment of all his obligations, due and accruing due.

123. The Dealer met the test for insolvency under the BIA as early as June 30, 2022, as a result of the following:

(a) the book value of the Dealer's liabilities exceeded the book value of its assets, as reported in its June 30, 2022 internal financial statements which are attached hereto at Appendix "DD"; and

(b) the Dealer had cash on hand of $471,000 remaining, and there was a reasonable expectation of a looming liquidity condition that would lead the Dealer to be unable to pay its debts as they generally come due.

124. Further, no later than February 2023, the Dealer had defaulted on its credit agreement with Enlightened.[35] Following the maturity of the loan, Enlightened issued a demand letter and notice of intention to enforce security to the Dealer on May 29, 2023.[36]

125. Section 95(2) of the BIA presumes that a transfer or payment was made with a view to giving a creditor a preference if the effect of such transfer or payment is that a creditor has received a preference in the absence of evidence to the contrary.

[35] Affidavit of Eamonn Glavey sworn October 6, 2023 ("Glavey Affidavit") at para 28, Tab 2 of the Application Record of Enlightened Funding Corporation dated October 6, 2023 ("Enlightened AR").
[36] Glavey Affidavit at para 29, Tab 2 of the Enlightened AR.

126. A transfer of property of a debtor to an unsecured creditor that removes assets from the estate of the debtor during the relevant period has the effect of giving a preference to one creditor over another.

127. All of the transfers referred to in this Fifth Report had the effect of giving the Reviewable Transaction Parties a preference and there is no evidence known to the Receiver that the Dealer did not have a view to or did not intend to give those Reviewable Transaction Parties a preference over the Dealer's other creditors.

128. Accordingly, for the purposes of section 95 of the BIA, the transfers are presumed to have been made with a view to prefer the Reviewable Transaction Parties over other creditors or to defeat, defraud, or delay the claims of other creditors.

129. The Receiver seeks to have the transfers declared void under section 95 or 96 of the BIA and/or section 4 of the APA.

CONCLUSION AND RECOMMENDATION

130. For the reasons set out herein, the Receiver recommends that the Court grant the Reviewable Transactions Order.

All of which is respectfully submitted at Toronto, Ontario this 30th day of July, 2025.

Dear Mr. Pattison:

Re: In the Matter of the Receivership of Velocity Asset and Credit Corporation ("Velocity") and 926749 Ontario Ltd. o/a Clonsilla Leasing (the "Dealer" and together with Velocity, the "Debtors"), Court File No. CV-23-00707330-00CL (the "Receivership Proceeding")

We are counsel to Deloitte Restructuring Inc., in its capacity as Receiver (in such capacity, the "Receiver") of all property, assets and undertakings of Velocity and the Dealer (together, the "Property"). On December 8, 2023, Justice Conway granted an Amended and Restated Receivership Order (the "Order") that expanded the Receivership Proceeding to all property of the Debtors. A copy of the Order is enclosed.

Paragraph 10 of the Order provides:

> THIS COURT ORDERS that the Receiver is hereby authorized to examine under oath any Person, including but not limited to representatives of the Debtors, that the Receiver reasonably considers to have knowledge of the affairs or Property of the Debtors.

The Receiver hereby notifies you that in accordance with paragraph 10, you may be examined by the Receiver regarding the affairs or Property of the Debtors. If you are examined, we will serve a Notice of Examination providing details of the date and time of the examination.

In the meantime, you must ensure that documents in your possession, power and control that are relevant to the affairs or Property of the Debtors are preserved. This extends to all types of documents, whether in paper form, electronically stored information, and any form of communication. Such steps may include:

(a) ensuring that relevant documents (including electronically stored information) are not destroyed, lost or relinquished to others, either intentionally, or inadvertently such as through the implementation of an ordinary course document retention/destruction policy;

(b) ensuring that relevant documents are not modified; and

(c) ensuring that relevant documents remain accessible.

This also includes the preservation of documents stored on your behalf by third parties (such as banks, professionals (e.g., accountants or lawyers), insurers, third party service providers, affiliated companies, data warehouses or internet service providers). In the case of electronically stored information, please ensure that relevant data is preserved intact and unmodified in its original electronic form.

Please ensure that you also immediately notify any relevant individuals of the need to preserve relevant documents.

Further, paragraphs 4 and 5 of the Order provide for the Receiver to take possession and control of any Property of the Debtors and for those with knowledge of the existence of any Property to advise the Receiver of its existence and deliver all such Property to the Receiver upon the Receiver's request.

The Receiver hereby notifies you that, in accordance with paragraphs 4 and 5 of the Order, you are hereby directed to contact the Receiver to report the existence of Property and arrange its delivery to the Receiver.

We thank you in advance for your assistance and cooperation.

Yours truly,

Dear Mr. Scasny:

Re: In the Matter of the Receivership of Velocity Asset and Credit Corporation ("Velocity") and 926749 Ontario Ltd. o/a Clonsilla Leasing (the "Dealer" and together with Velocity, the "Debtors"), Court File No. CV-23-00707330-00CL (the "Receivership Proceeding")

We are counsel to Deloitte Restructuring Inc., in its capacity as Receiver (in such capacity, the "Receiver") of all property, assets and undertakings of Velocity and the Dealer (together, the "Property"). On December 8, 2023, Justice Conway granted an Amended and Restated Receivership Order (the "Order") that expanded the Receivership Proceeding to all property of the Debtors. A copy of the Order is enclosed.

Paragraph 10 of the Order provides:

> THIS COURT ORDERS that the Receiver is hereby authorized to examine under oath any Person, including but not limited to representatives of the Debtors, that the Receiver reasonably considers to have knowledge of the affairs or Property of the Debtors.

The Receiver hereby notifies you that in accordance with paragraph 10, you may be examined by the Receiver regarding the affairs or Property of the Debtors. If you are examined, we will serve a Notice of Examination providing details of the date and time of the examination.

In the meantime, you must ensure that documents in your possession, power and control that are relevant to the affairs or Property of the Debtors are preserved. This extends to all types of documents, whether in paper form, electronically stored information, and any form of communication. Such steps may include:

(a) ensuring that relevant documents (including electronically stored information) are not destroyed, lost or relinquished to others, either intentionally, or inadvertently such as through the implementation of an ordinary course document retention/destruction policy;

(b) ensuring that relevant documents are not modified; and

(c) ensuring that relevant documents remain accessible.

This also includes the preservation of documents stored on your behalf by third parties (such as banks, professionals (e.g., accountants or lawyers), insurers, third party service providers, affiliated companies, data warehouses or internet service providers). In the case of electronically stored information, please ensure that relevant data is preserved intact and unmodified in its original electronic form.

Please ensure that you also immediately notify any relevant individuals of the need to preserve relevant documents.

Further, paragraphs 4 and 5 of the Order provide for the Receiver to take possession and control of any Property of the Debtors and for those with knowledge of the existence of any Property to advise the Receiver of its existence and deliver all such Property to the Receiver upon the Receiver's request.

The Receiver hereby notifies you that, in accordance with paragraphs 4 and 5 of the Order, you are hereby directed to contact the Receiver to report the existence of Property and arrange its delivery to the Receiver.

We thank you in advance for your assistance and cooperation.

Mr. Harland, I acknowledge receipt of your May 28 letter. I note that that you are re-iterating the receiver's request for personal bank accounts rather than requesting them as the trustee in bankruptcy.
As you know, there is an existing motion to vary the terms of the December 8 order regarding the granting of the investigatory powers to the receiver and for an order to return Hugh Waddell's files which, if necessary, can be taken up by the Waddell family members. Paragraphs 9 and 10 were added at the December 8 hearing at which time the companies and Hugh Waddell had no legal representation and the basis for obtaining such investigatory powers was subsequently challenged through his supporting affidavit. He has on several occasions requested the books and records, his personal family files and Northbridge files so that he could defend himself, but to date the receiver is still in possession.
As previously advised, I am not aware of any specific case law nor have you provided any case law where the court has ordered personal banking records from third parties that contain entries unrelated to the dealings with the bankrupt. Entries on bank statements unrelated to the bankrupts are a matter of privacy to the individual family member.
What is in issue is the type and scope of information requested by the trustee from third parties. The trustee in its capacity as court-appointed receiver has been in possession of the books and records of the bankrupts including all bank statements since October 2023.
You have previously advised on May 21 that the companies were bankrupt. Despite my request, I have not received copies of the assignments and statements of affairs filed with the Official Receiver.
On receipt of copies, and on a without prejudice basis, I am prepared to recommend that the Waddell Family members deliver their personal bank statements from January 1, 2022 to December 8, 2023 showing all moneys received or given to Velocity or 926 with all other entries redacted.
On a personal matter Mr. Harland, threatening opposing counsel with a cost order is offensive and unjustified. You have presumed, wrongly, that I have counselled the Waddell Family members to breach the December 8 order as a way of intimidating them to comply. They too have rights of privacy. They too have rights to challenge and defend themselves against what is perceived to be abuse of power by the receiver and its counsel.

> Mr. Harland, I acknowledge receipt of your May 28 letter. I note that > that you are re-iterating the receiver's request for personal bank > accounts rather than requesting them as the trustee in bankruptcy.

> As you know, there is an existing motion to vary the terms of the > December 8 order regarding the granting of the investigatory powers to > the receiver and for an order to return Hugh Waddell's files which, if > necessary, can be taken up by the Waddell family members.
> Paragraphs 9 and 10 were added at the December 8 hearing at which time > the companies and Hugh Waddell had no legal representation and the > basis for obtaining such investigatory powers was subsequently > challenged through his supporting affidavit. He has on several > occasions requested the books and records, his personal family files > and Northbridge files so that he could defend himself, but to date the > receiver is still in possession.
> As previously advised, I am not aware of any specific case law nor > have you provided any case law where the court has ordered personal > banking records from third parties that contain entries unrelated to > the dealings with the bankrupt. Entries on bank statements unrelated > to the bankrupts are a matter of privacy to the individual family > member.
> What is in issue is the type and scope of information requested by the > trustee from third parties. The trustee in its capacity as > court-appointed receiver has been in possession of the books and > records of the bankrupts including all bank statements since October > 2023.
> You have previously advised on May 21 that the companies were > bankrupt. Despite my request, I have not received copies of the > assignments and statements of affairs filed with the Official > Receiver.
> On receipt of copies, and on a without prejudice basis, I am prepared > to recommend that the Waddell Family members deliver their personal > bank statements from January 1, 2022 to December 8, 2023 showing all > moneys received or given to Velocity or 926 with all other entries > redacted.
> On a personal matter Mr. Harland, threatening opposing counsel with a > cost order is offensive and unjustified. You have presumed, wrongly, > that I have counselled the Waddell Family members to breach the > December 8 order as a way of intimidating them to comply. They too > have rights of privacy. They too have rights to challenge and defend > themselves against what is perceived to be abuse of power by the > receiver and its counsel.

9. Q. What was your email address when you were working there?

A. maryanne@clonsillaautosales.com.

10. Q. All right, did you have any other email addresses that you used while you were there?

A. Oh, for a while I had the service email but then we weren't the service anymore so I didn't use it. But there was another one. Dum-dum-dum. I think it was the admin@clonsillaautosales 'cause that was the one that -- Oh, my God. I can't think of her name. She sat right there.

MR. ALLEYNE: Eileen?

THE DEPONENT: Eileen. I was gonna say Elaine but -- Eileen. She was -- Well, there was Charlene, Kirsten, Eileen, a few of them that used it but -- I had access to it but I didn't use it much.

BY MR. MCGRATH:

11. Q. Okay.

A. I could look at if it had to.

12. Q. And then sitting here today I know we contacted you for today by using your personal email address.

A. Yeah.

13. Q. That's -- Can you just confirm for the record what that is?

A. It's maidenburleigh, m-a-i-d-e-n-b-u-r-l-e-i-g-h @hotmail.com.

14. Q. And that's your personal email address.

A. Yes.

15. Q. Does anyone else have access to that email address or only you?

A. No, just me.

16. Q. Okay. I wonder if we could just review your employment history a little bit before we get started just for -- for background.

A. Okay.

17. Q. So after Trent University, after you -- after your year there where did you start your employment?

A. You're going back. After it was -- I worked at the -- Rose's Snack Shack for a while. It was just a little takeout place --

18. Q. Okay.

A. -- right by my house. And then I went to Great Blue Heron.

19. Q. What's that?

A. It's a casino.

20. Q. Okay, and you worked at the casino?

A. Yeah.

21. Q. About what years are we talking about? I won't hold you to it, just to sort of -- if you can ballpark it for me.

A. I want to say -- at the Heron say it would have been four -- so around 2002 to -- No. Just 2002 there was the first flood in Peterborough and I was at the Heron then, so probably 2000 to 2003.

22. Q. Okay, early 2000s.

A. Yeah.

23. Q. Then where did you go after the casino?

A. Then I went to -- Well, it was Peterborough This Week then it became Kawartha Media Group.

24. Q. Okay, and that's -- is that a newspaper?

A. Yeah. It was our local paper.

25. Q. And how long did you work there for?

A. I worked there until -- I think it's 2015.

26. Q. What was your role there? Generally, I mean. I don't need --

A. Delivery.

27. Q. Okay.

A. Yeah, I scheduled deliveries for the drivers and carriers.

28. Q. Okay, and then where did you go after --

A. To Clonsilla.

29. Q. So you joined Clonsilla -- I had it in my records as 2017. Does that sound about right?

A. I think it's 2016.

30. Q. Okay, and so it's Clonsilla Auto Sales. I'm gonna refer to it as CAS today, is that okay? Or how did you refer --

A. Yeah.

31. Q. -- to it?

A. You know what, it's funny because people would always say CAS and to me, I'm in the age group that that was the Children's Aid Society. But --

32. Q. So what did you call it?

A. -- I'm used to it. We just called it Clonsilla.

33. Q. Okay, I'll just call it Clonsilla today then. Okay, so you were first hired by them in about 2016. What was your role when you first started there?

A. I was a detailer. I was a detailer and running cars around if they needed it.

34. Q. Okay, and then did your -- your role change over time?

A. Yeah, there was a girl Christina who worked there and she was leaving so they asked me to come in and cover the phones and try to help out until they found a replacement.

35. Q. When about would that have been?

A. About December, I think.

36. Q. So we're still in 2016?

A. Yeah.

37. Q. Or thereabouts.

A. I don’t know now. Is it '16 or '17.

38. Q. It's okay, I don't think anything turns on it so we can say 2016 or 2017.

A. Yeah. I can't remember now to be perfectly honest. I'm in such a --

39. Q. So around the end of that year you go in and you start sort of covering the phones, and did your -- what were your sort of job responsibilities at that time?

A. It was literally just cover the phones and to try to like follow up on bounced payments or anything like that and just -- just kinda figure it out until they found somebody, like just keep it going.

40. Q. And then did -- Is that the role you stayed in?

A. It is basically because they never actually looked for anybody. I think they just thought, "Oh, she can handle that. She can just -- Let's just keep her there."

41. Q. Okay, and then, Ms Jacobs, can you explain -- So you said follow up on sort of bounced payments but can you go through with me sort of what -- on a day-to-day basis what were your roles and responsibilities while you were working at Clonsilla?

A. Back then or --

42. Q. So did it change over from --

A. Eventually --

43. Q. -- 2017?

A. -- yeah. It just came to be where there was just so much not getting done that I would try to do stuff with stuff because somebody had to do something. And the problem in doing that is as soon as you start trying to do something they would just -- everybody put their hands in the air and ran for cover and said "Good. Just leave it with her." Like --

44. Q. So it's fair to say that your role sort of kept expanding over time.

A. Yeah, they just -- Like it didn't matter what it was, they would just bring it down and drop it on my desk and I had to try to figure out what to do with it. Like I --

45. Q. Did your title change over time?

A. I never really had a title. They just changed it. Sometimes he would call me his secretary; sometimes he would just say this is my admin person. He -- I never really had a title.

46. Q. Okay, and when we're saying "he" we're talking about Hugh Waddell, right?

A. Yeah.

47. Q. Okay, and so let's take 2023 then, like towards the end. Can you help me with sort of what job responsibilities you were covering by that point. What was your -- your role within the -- within Clonsilla?

A. I was putting out all the fires that I -- That's basically was my time was just trying to find a solution to the fires that would explode. Like nothing -- To be perfectly honest, absolutely -- Five people should have been there dealing with stuff, and they just didn't. It just --

I'd deal with this fire and then deal with this fire and deal with this fire. I didn't really -- I did nothing well but I did a lot. I'm not -- I did -- you know, I did what I could 'cause I'm not trained to do any of these things efficiently. I got direction from the accountant on what we needed to provide to him and I --

48. Q. Who -- who's the accountant?

A. -- go try to find it.

49. Q. Sorry to interrupt.

A. Sid Kasmerazman or something.

50. Q. Okay.

A. I can't spell it. I can -

51. Q. Was he in the -- Was he working for Clonsilla or he was an outside accountant?

A. He's only -- Clonsilla was just one of his clients, I guess.

52. Q. So sometimes you would communicate with him, he'd have questions and you'd try to answer them.

A. Yeah.

53. Q. Is that fair?

A. Well, mostly it was me asking him questions because I would provide him what I -- I would think he needed and he would just say "Oh, if there's any changes I will let you know," and he'd call me back and say "Well, this was wrong and this was wrong, and I submitted it and now they're questioning this." And I said "Well, what do you need from me? Just tell me what you need from me and I will find it." Like --

54. Q. Okay. Earlier you said you were putting out fires, those were your responsibility. Can you give me an example of -- like what type of fire would you be trying to put out?

A. What temperature grade are you thinking?

55. Q. So give me like a sort of most extreme -- you know, the most extreme example you can think of of a problem.

A. A customer phoning me upset because their bank was on the phone saying that their loan had never been paid off for the car they traded in at Clonsilla.

56. Q. Okay.

A. That's a pretty stressful one for not just the customer but for me trying to figure out what the hell do you do with it 'cause --

57. Q. So what would you do in that scenario? Like a customer's telling you that; what's -- what's your response? How do you try to respond to it?

A. Well, then I -- I just -- honestly I'd just tell the customer that I have to investigate it, find out what's happening, and that somebody would get back to them.

So I'd pull the files and find out yes, they really did do it. And in the file there'd always be the buy-out request from the bank or finance company or whoever they had it financed from, so you know that it's supposed to be getting paid off. But then I would take it and say "I need proof of payment so that I can send it to the customer 'cause the bank is saying they didn't get it." "All right, just leave it with me and I'll look after that," and you know, two weeks later the customer's on the phone again 'cause I'd leave it with him.

But it's -- like I don't have -- I can't just go in and take any records. I can't -- like I have no banking --

58. Q. Okay.

A. You know.

59. Q. So if you -- Just to break that up a little bit.

So when you're talking about going to the file you're sort of miming like actually getting a physical file, so --

A. Yeah.

60. Q. -- were there physical files for each --

A. Yes.

61. Q. -- customer? What about electronically, did you -- did you save the files electronically anywhere or it's always go to the physical --

A. It was --

62. Q. -- file?

A. Well, I went to the physical files only because not all the files were digital. Back when I first started everything was just a paper file and then Covid happened. And when Covid happened Hugh had gotten some partnership with a guy who was developing the program for us to be able to run the dealership so I -- it was like "Yay." You know, we'd get something that I could just track and look at and see, and -- You know, it became --

That started with Covid, the whole Velocity program. It was great because I understood it's a work in progress, you know? We're gonna add pieces to it as we get the kinks worked out of all these things.

In real life it ended up for me being nothing more than a piece of the paper file 'cause it had documents uploaded into it but it only had certain documents uploaded into it; it didn't have everything the file would have.

And I had no ability to run a report. Like I couldn't -- I couldn't go into the system and run a report on "Give me a list of all the active leases." I had no way to do that. If I wanted a report I literally -- and I know this sounds antique but it is true -- I'd bring up the file, and there's like, I don't know, ten or twelve on each screen and then you just keep scrolling over, you know, but I would have to copy that, put it in Excel, go to the next page, copy that and put it in Excel, and then go back and investigate every single one of them to see if any one of them were trade-ins or if they were customers bought them out or if the deal was closed 'cause people didn't pay or --

I had not way -- Nothing was tracked in the program to tell me anything.

63. Q. Yeah.

A. It was just a piece of the file. So I kept all the files down where I could get at them, if I could find them.

64. Q. So the paper copy -- Everyone still used the paper copy --

A. Yes.

65. Q. -- and still put stuff in the paper files. And who had -- who had access to the paper files? Is it everyone in the dealership?

A. Yeah.

66. Q. Okay. And just going back to your answer before, we were talking about the example of the customer who's calling you to complain about what their bank is saying and you said, you know, you would go and sort of put the file on the desk of someone and he said he would investigate it. That's Hugh Waddell you were talking about there?

A. He's the only one who has access to tell us if something was paid or not 'cause he did all the payments and --

67. Q. Okay. Did you have access to Clonsilla's bank accounts?

A. I could look at it depending on -- If -- if I needed into it I could get into it but then he would change passwords and stuff so I couldn't access it all the time. So it would be like "Okay, what's the password now?"

68. Q. Okay.

A. You know? 'Cause I had to be able to print them to try to get the tax stuff off. Sometimes it would take months for me to get back into it and so some of the -- like on the Visas and stuff you can -- you can do a little report that exports in Excel. It's wonderful. Okay? But it would go so long that I couldn't get a report, I would have to get the paper copies and key it all in again.

69. Q. Okay. I'm a little all over the place 'cause I'm just trying --

A. That's okay.

70. Q. -- what you're -- you're --

A. I am too --

71. Q. -- job title --

A. -- and I was there.

72. Q. So how many bank accounts did Clonsilla have? Let's start there.

A. There was an RBC account that he pretty much used for everything Clonsilla.

73. Q. Okay.

A. Okay? I know there were other accounts but I couldn't even get copies of those because he said those were his personal ones, they weren't tied into Clonsilla. And that's fine but then if this was paid through there and you're giving it to me to put on the HST I need to be able to prove where it came from, and he wouldn't give it to me so I would take it.

74. Q. Okay, so there's a main RBC bank account that -- that is supposed to be used for Clonsilla business only.

A. Yes.

75. Q. Okay, and then there were -- there were some credit cards too. What was the credit card situation for Clonsilla? Did it have multiple, I'm assuming?

A. Yes. There were -- well, three different Amexes, I believe. And then there was the Visas and I want to say there was --

Well, the problem is is he wouldn't pay them or there would be a problem with them and he'd cancel that one, issue a new one. It was supposed to replace that number but it became a different account to me because of a different account number.

76. Q. Right.

A. So I want to say there's probably five Visas. But one of the Visas -- it's listed under the Visas but it was actually a government loan in Covid but -- It looked like a Visa but I don’t think it ever was really a Visa. I could never get an answer as to what it really was. I think it was a government loan to help businesses get through Covid 'cause it just sat there.

77. Q. Okay, so if we say there were five Visas and there were Amexes --

A. Yeah.

78. Q. -- in addition to that? How many Amexes were there?

A. Three. But those numbers changed as well over the years 'cause -- I -- I could never get a straight answer as to why because they were charging stuff to it inappropriately. There was, you know, a million different reasons and it just --

79. Q. Okay, so let's talk about access then. So for the bank account, the RBC main bank account, Hugh had full to it and you sometimes had access to it if you knew the password --

A. Yeah.

80. Q. -- at the time? Was there anyone else who would have had access to that account?

A. Years ago when things were good and Gerald was still there, Gerald would get in there 'cause every day Gerald would come in, he'd plunk -- would make him sit down as soon as he'd walk in the door and say "This is what we're sent, this is to have -- this is what we gotta pay today." Gerald was wonderful.

81. Q. So that's Gerald Shapiro?

A. Yeah.

82. Q. And then he left when? Before Covid or --

A. It was in the fall -- He was there through the mess of Covid so I want to say it was either fall of '20 or '21.

83. Q. Okay, and did he --

A. He left for a while and then he just was so bored at home he would just come in.

84. Q. Okay, so explain that to me. So he left -- like he retired?

A. Yes.

85. Q. But then he started coming back in again?

A. Yeah. And I think he did that mostly just for me 'cause I -- I had no idea. I don't -- I had no idea how everything was supposed to work and I could never get any answers, whereas I could say to Gerald "What am I supposed to do with this?" and he would tell me what he would do with it and what he knew needed to happen. But I think he came in for me, to be honest.

86. Q. Did Gerald have a title when he was at Clonsilla?

A. When he was there he was the general manager.

87. Q. And then when he came back after retiring did he have access to the bank account then or he -- his role was different when he came back?

A. It was different and I -- I think he was the same as I was, he could see it when Hugh let us but --

88. Q. That wasn't all the time.

A. -- not very often, yeah. Especially with Gerald 'cause I think Hugh just -- he -- 'cause he would -- I would say "Gerald told me that you need to this," and he'd -- he'd say "Well, you don't need to listen to Gerald 'cause he's retired." Well, he's the only one who gave me any direction so that's --

89. Q. Would you pay bills from the Clonsilla RBC account? Like did you have that authorization to make bill payments?

A. No.

90. Q. Did you ever do an email transfer, like a transfer of funds by email or otherwise from the RBC account?

A. No.

91. Q. So every time I look at the bank statements and I see a transfer, that would be Hugh that made that transfer.

A. Yes. I would pay bills over the phone with credit cards.

92. Q. Okay, but not through the bank account.

A. No.

93. Q. And then when we were talking about access, I think we were up to eight -- potentially eight credit cards.

A. Okay, there -- Those were the ones that I believe are listed in Clonsilla's name. I know he also had a Canadian Tire card because I got a statement in the mail one day with my name on it.

94. Q. With your name on it.

A. Yeah, 'cause apparently he got the -- I don't know what you call it. There's your credit card and you get another card for somebody else, and he had one for me.

It's like the bank cards, like the Visa cards. The Visa accounts he had there was like his and then I think there was a Nancy one and then a Gerald one, and I found -- when I started doing the HSTs I found one that had my name on it and I said "Why do I have this card?" And he gave me the "Okay, it's just a secondary card. It's not like a -- The account's not in your name, you're not responsible for it." And I -- to be perfectly honest, I didn't believe it so I went to the bank with it and asked them --

95. Q. Yeah.

A. -- because I wanted to know did he get a credit card in my name. And that's all it was, was just a secondary card on that account that he was responsible for.

96. Q. But he -- he personally -- Hugh Waddell personally was the account holder --

A. Yeah.

97. Q. -- for that one, but it was used for Clonsilla business sometimes?

A. Oh, yeah. I didn't have the card. To be -- I didn't even know what the card number was or PIN or anything because he held all the credit cards --

98. Q. Okay.

A. -- in his pocket. He had big thick pocketful of them.

99. Q. So let's go back to the ones that are actually in Clonsilla's name. Do you know whether secondary -- Who could use those cards?

A. Well, nobody could use them unless he said so because they were pretty much always right at maximum limit and he would have to pay something off to be able to use the card, so we couldn't just --

You know, if we needed paper I couldn't just go and get paper 'cause I didn't know if the card would go through. So I would have to wait until he would say "Okay, you can call Staples and make an order and --"

100. Q. So for any --

A. "-- use this card."

101. Q. Sorry. So for any of those cards if I see a charge to them, Mr. Waddell would have authorized either directly --

A. Absolutely.

102. Q. -- or --

A. Every -- every single one. None of us could do anything without -- He had his finger on every dollar.

103. Q. I'm gonna go back to my notes because we're gonna go back in time a little bit now.

What initially brought you to Clonsilla in the first place? Did you know anyone beforehand or did you just respond to an ad or --

A. I was a customer there. I had a car through them. There you go.

So when I was at the newspaper I loved the people I worked with, I loved my job, but it was one of those -- exactly the same as Clonsilla, so I'm thinking it's me, it's not the businesses. It's me as a person and what -- But it became a thing of the more you do, the more you're responsible for and the more they expected.

So like at the paper I would get there at seven o'clock in the morning, sometimes five or four depending if there was a press issue or whatever, and I never left there 'til six or seven on regular days, but on paper days I could be out all night delivering and then back into work in the morning. And I did it for a long time. And then I just went "I can't do this," so I held my breath, jumped off the cliff and quit my job.

So I actually went over to Clonsilla and just said "Lookit. I quit my job. I will still make the payments but -- I promise you I will get this looked after." And then a few weeks went by and Gerald called me and I thought "Oh, my God. I'm gonna make the payment. It's not due yet," you know. And he said "Well, just in case you need anything, you know, we -- we're lookin' for somebody to maybe do a little of running. It'll only be a little bit right now but it's something."

So I started doing that where he would call me and I would go and run around for two or three hours and then he'd call me for a few more days or whatever, but that was all I had at the time so I took it 'cause, you know, you gotta do something.

And then in the summer they needed somebody in the detail shop so he said "I know it's not what you do but it's --" And to be perfectly honest I wanted to have a job where I didn't have to think 'cause I was --

104. Q. M'hm.

A. -- so tired of thinking and it was so nice to go to work and not have to think. Little did I know. Yeah, so that's how I ended up there.

105. Q. Okay.

A. Because Gerald -- Gerald -- Everybody thought Gerald was such a crusty, crotchety old guy and people just didn't like him and you'll never hear a customer say a kind thing about Gerald -- well, maybe a handful, like literally, but most people hated him.

Me, I thought Gerald was wonderful. Like before I worked there I thought Gerald was amazing and I thought

Hugh was an ass because he was just so dismissive and -- you know.

And then when I started working there it's like it flipped over and I started seeing how Gerald was with people. We tried very hard not to let Gerald talk to people 'cause he was not good to people. Hugh was. And then I thought well, maybe he just didn't like me back then. You know? But then you soon figured out that it's -- whatever's happening at the moment is Hugh's mood, and you know --

106. Q. Did you know Hugh before 2016-17 when you started?

A. I knew he had the dealership 'cause my car was through them but --

107. Q. And then, Ms Jacobs, while you're -- Once you get into the office and you start sort of, you know, filling in the roles that are -- everyone else is -- no one else is filling, who else works in the office? How many people worked in the office?

I assume it changed over time so maybe that's not a fair question but sort of say in 2023 how many people are working in -- in Clonsilla's office?

A. There was basically Hugh and Rasto and me, and by then Eileen was there because I had to have help, like --

108. Q. So there was just the four of you in the office most days?

A. Yeah.

109. Q. Okay.

A. Well, Gerald would come in --

110. Q. And Gerald would --

A. -- whenever Gerald would come in 'cause --

111. Q. And there is only one office, right, for Clonsilla?

A. Building? Like, yeah.

112. Q. Yeah, so can you describe for me Hugh's role in the office? We've talked about it a little bit but maybe sort of on a day-to-day basis what's he in charge of for the dealership? Is it everything?

A. In real life or what he would tell you?

113. Q. I want in real life. How did he actually --

A. In real life he was in charge of everything 'cause he -- he -- nothing could be done without Hugh's say-so. Absolutely nothing. You couldn't do anything, you know?

114. Q. Okay.

A. He controlled all of the payments, all of the -- you know, the -- the banking, he bought the cars. I guess Rasto did buy a couple of cars but he could only buy them with Hugh's approval on them. He found the cars, we'll put it that way.

115. Q. Were there any elements of the business that Mr. Waddell didn't have any role in at all? Or he was --

A. Responsibility. I'm sorry, I'm sorry. No, he -- - he did --

116. Q. He did everything.

A. Yeah. There was nothing that we could do without his say-so.

117. Q. So you reported directly to Hugh?

A. Yes.

118. Q. Okay. What were the different ways in which Clonsilla collected revenue? How did it make money?

A. It -- it leased cars for the main chunk. So it would lease cars out to high-risk people, basically. Like people who couldn't get them anywhere else, they would lease through Clonsilla.

119. Q. How would those people pay their leases?

A. Most of them through direct debit, some of them would come in to pay it, some of them would e-transfer payments, like 'cause -- like some of them didn't have bank accounts so they would use other people's bank accounts.

120. Q. So when you say some people came in, if they were coming in every month to pay their lease, how would they pay them when they came in?

A. They would put them on a credit card, debit, sometimes cash. Like, whatever.

121. Q. Do you -- Over time do you start to get to know -- Like I would assume that if, you know, I'm paying my lease with cash once -- once month I'm probably doing it every -- every month and probably using the same payment method. Is that accurate?

A. Most people, yeah.

122. Q. Okay.

A. Some people are -- would -- Like a handful of people you just never knew. You'd be -- Sometimes you'd get four payments all at once 'cause they're so far behind and -- You know?

123. Q. And your role was at least partially to sort of stay on top of who's making their payments and who's not.

A. To try to do that, yes.

124. Q. Okay, and following up with people when they missed their payments?

A. [Witness nods]

125. Q. Sorry, you have to say "yes" or "no."

A. Oh, sorry, yes. Yeah, there was -- you know, a lot of the ones that there -- I can't even answer as to why they were allowed to do what they could do. Hugh wouldn't chase them, he wouldn't --

Like I could only do so much. You can phone a thousand times then they tell you they've dealt with Hugh, then, you know, I have to give it to Hugh. You know, there's a few of them that -- cripes, I have no idea how they ever got away with what they got away with and then get another car. You know? Like --

126. Q. Okay, so on the like day-to-day basis how much of your day is sort of like following up with people to make sure that -- or to let them know they've missed a payment?

A. At the beginning a lot of my day. That was most of my day was chasing that. At the end I'd be lucky if I could call people once a month.

127. Q. Because you have too many other responsibilities.

A. Yeah, because with everything crashing down and then he would bring in his kids to -- they were supposed to help and they're just more hindrance than anything because they just sit there and go "Well, how do I do this?" and "How do I find a phone number?"

128. Q. Okay, so who are his kids that you're talking about who came in?

A. Taylor, Sara, Meggan.

129. Q. So when I asked before who was working in the office I guess their names didn't come up but --

A. They didn't really work there. They were supposed to be coming in but -- Like Taylor was supposed to be there for three days a week and we'd be lucky if he came in one day a month. You know?

Meggan would come in -- at the beginning she would come in and help with sales and stuff but really she didn't -- she didn't do anything and she never --

130. Q. Okay, and --

A. Sara tried to clean up at the end. They got her coming in -- I think it was in early spring of '23, and so she was trying to clean up 'cause Taylor was looking after the collections and repos and -- but -- 'Cause I literally just got to the point where "Okay, they're not paying this. I can't do any more. Here's a pile of stuff; you find somebody to deal with it 'cause I can't do this anymore." So I just --

Piles just kept growing and growing and growing and then he finally got Taylor to come in. And I think he maybe got two files over to the paralegal to start chasing, and the only repos that ever happened is if I went out at night trying to find the cars and I would say "It's in this parking lot. Go get it." Like, you know?

131. Q. How old are Taylor or Sara and Meggan? Are they in their twenties?

A. Thirties.

132. Q. Thirties?

A. They're grownups.

133. Q. Okay, and before when we were talking about your responsibilities you said you couldn't believe there were some people that -- what they got away with and that, you know, they would get another car even if they were behind on their -- on their payments. Could you just subscribe -- describe that to me a little bit? Is that like Hugh sort of overriding you or telling you not to follow up with these people about their payments or --

A. Well, yeah, 'cause it was "I'll look after that. I'll look after that." And there was --

Okay, shining example would be Shawn Brennan, okay? He -- I don't even know how many leases he had in real life because he would get a car, get another car, get a car for his mother, get a car for his sister. Every -- I don't know, three or four months he might make a payment and for -- the payment would only cover maybe one month of all the leases and he'd still be all that far behind. Like I don't know the numbers exactly so don't quote me on this, but I betcha he was probably a quarter million dollars behind in payments.

134. Q. And --

A. And he would come in and get another car.

135. Q. And who is he? Like did he work at --

A. No.

136. Q. -- Clonsilla? Is he a friend of Hugh's?

A. I don't think so. I don't know. I don't know what -- the reasoning. Like there's no rational reason anybody would have ever continued to deal with him or give him another car if there wasn't some sort of a relationship, and I don't know what that is.

I have ran into Shawn probably two months ago and he has nothing good to say about Hugh, and I'm thinkin' "You're part of the reason this is all happening."

137. Q. Okay.

A. But I don't know why it was allowed. Some people would get -- they wouldn't make a payment for over a year and then they -- the car would break down and they'd come waltzin' in and Hugh would just say "Okay, well, we'll get you another car. Let's use that one as a trade-in," then, you know, he would take the missed payments and add it to the new lease.

And I'm just like "This is gonna do nothing but happen again. Like why are you doing this?" But I think he was doing it so he could fund that lease 'cause he was still makin' the payment on that old lease. At least he would have the financing from that one to try to buy time or whatever. I don't know. That's what I think. I don't know that but --

138. Q. Are you -- are you seeing these lease agreements when -- when they're being signed and like being put in the file and stuff, or is that something that you're --

A. I would get the files.

139. Q. So imagine --

A. I'm supposed to get the file -- Ha, it's a year ago and I still think I'm doin' it.

I was supposed to get the files once everything was done. I would get the files and there would be stuff missing and I'd have to take it back to them and say "I have no PAP agreement. I have no UCA in here. There's no safety. There's --" You know, give them back the file. Sometimes they're taking months and months and months to get a file from them completed. But --

140. Q. So what are the most important -- Did you need like an insure -- an insurance certificate?

A. Yeah.

141. Q. And did you need -- Like did you ever take photographs of the car before it went out or was that important?

A. I didn't. I asked for that because customers would come in and say, you know, "This was here when I got the car," and I was supposed to fix it and I had no way of knowing whether it was there or not.

I asked for that. I aske for the photos from the website to be put digitally somewhere in caps so that we could say "This is what it looked like when you bought it," you know? But nobody did that.

142. Q. Okay, so if you get a file, you're looking for the lease agreement, right?

A. [Witness nods]

143. Q. You have to say "yes" or "no" for the record.

A. Yes.

144. Q. You're looking for, you know, how are they going to pay, so the PAP agreement or something else like that, right? You're looking for the insurance certificate.

A. Yeah.

145. Q. Is there anything else that's really important that you need in that -- in that file that you'd ask for?

A. Okay, so we'd have the lease agreement, the addendum.

146. Q. Please explain -- Sorry to interrupt you.

A. Okay.

147. Q. Please explain the addendum.

A. Addendum is anything that's not covered particularly in the lease. Like it would say, you know, that you're gonna get a fee attached to your file if you don't keep your insurance up to date, or you know, there's repo fees or NSF fees or whatever. Those are all listed on there.

148. Q. So if there's some unique condition to this particular person that would be --

A. No, it's -- it was a general addendum. Everybody --

149. Q. Oh, it was the same --

A. Everybody --

150. Q. -- for everybody.

A. -- had the same one.

151. Q. Okay.

A. Yeah, but -- Honestly I can't think what --

152. Q. That's okey.

A. Every file would have one.

153. Q. Yeah.

A. So there'd be the addendum, their driver's licence, copy of the insurance, preauthorized payment. I can't -- I --

154. Q. Okay, and when you get the agreement -- or the file and it's missing some of these things, is it the salesperson that you're --

A. Yeah.

155. Q. -- asking to go collect it?

A. They're supposed to have it before they release the car.

156. Q. How many salespeople were there?

A. Just Hugh and Rasto. Well, at the end. Before, Meggan would be there, Taylor was there, Thomas got his licence but I don't that he spent more than a day or two in the office.

157. Q. Okay, but in 2023 --

A. In 2023 it was just Rasto and Hugh.

158. Q. And Hugh. Okay --

A. Gerald was licenced but like I said, we didn't let him deal with customers.

159. Q. So we -- we know there was another company that was incorporated in 2018 called Velocity Asset and Credit Corporation. You mentioned Velocity a little bit earlier this morning. I'm just gonna refer to it as Velocity which I think you do too --

A. Yeah.

160. Q. -- probably. It has two directors: Hugh Waddell and Holinsworth August. Do you know Holinsworth?

A. I know -- I know him over the phone and I know -- I think he was in the office twice.

161. Q. Okay.

A. I was trying to get him to come to the office because when they would be talking about what they're going to do with Velocity I'd be like "Hey, you need to understand how a dealership works and you need to come in because I need it to do what -- this stuff that I can't do." And with him just saying "Well --" to Hugh, "Oh, I could do this," and Hugh'd be "Oh, yeah, do that."

Well, that does no good for anybody and it's no benefit to the company so why are we wasting tens of thousands of dollars developing a program for something we don't need, you know? We need it to track things, we need it to -- you know, give me a report.

162. Q. Okay. That was the Velocity part of it, right, was trying to digitize the records?

A. Well, no, Velocity's real role was to secure a funder so the -- creating the program was supposed to make it so that we had transparency to the lenders to be able to say "Here you go. You can see everything. Here you can look at everything." You know? That was what it was supposed to be.

So Hol would -- Hugh would go out and try to find people to finance because when Dr. Bernstein was closing the portfolio he had to find somebody to buy it which is I think when --

163. Q. Do you know how -- So Holinsworth, you call him Holm?

A. Hol.

164. Q. Do you know what his relationship with Hugh was? They're both directors of Velocity but do you know how they knew each other?

A. I think they knew somebody in common and got introduced and then just talked.

165. Q. But in the --

A. That's how they decided that they would be -- it would be a good business to get into together.

166. Q. Okay. Clonsilla itself has two directors, one is Hugh and the other is Meggan. So Meggan is his daughter?

A. I didn't know she was a director, but okay.

167. Q. She is his daughter though, right?

A. Yes.

168. Q. And its Meggan, m-e-g-g-a-n, right?

A. M'hm.

169. Q. How long have you known her? Did you meet her back when you started at Clonsilla?

A. Yeah.

170. Q. Would she have been working at the dealership at that time?

A. When I started she was a salesperson.

171. Q. Okay, do you know how long -- how long did that last before she kind of petered out?

A. Well, she would only come in when she felt like it and sometimes she'd only come in for an hour and then leave and --

172. Q. Okay.

A. I think she was -- I think it was intended that she would be there enough to be able to work if Hugh went on holidays there would be somebody else there.

173. Q. Did that ever happen? Did Hugh go on holidays and Meggan filled in for him?

A. Hugh went on holidays and Meggan was his replacement while he was gone but she didn't ever come in. We'd have to fight to get her in the door and -- and basically you'd do everything over the phone.

Like even he would be in Florida for a couple of months at a time we still had to get on the phone to get approval to, you know, go buy copy paper. Like we literally spent two days where he's not reachable by phone and we can't make a copy of anything, like, you know, because -- Or we'd just reach into our own pockets and go get it. Like --

174. Q. And so how did Clonsilla pay its employees? Was there a sort of an outside provider that -- that did payroll?

A. Originally when I first started there Laurel -- Laurel was working there when I first started. She did the accounting, the books, tracking the stuff that was Clonsilla and the stuff that was the Waddells'. I called it the Hughniverse now but it is -- was the Waddells' back then. But Laurel did payroll.

175. Q. What's Laurel's last name, do you now?

A. Pickett, I'm gonna say. Pickett.

176. Q. Pickett.

A. It's been a long time since I thought of Laurel.

177. Q. Did anybody fill Laurel's role when she left? Like was there an account -- bookkeeper-accountant person?

A. Laurie.

178. Q. So that's Laurie. What's Laurie's last name?

A. Stark.

179. Q. Stark. And then how long -- Was she there until the end, 'til 2023?

A. No. She left '21 maybe.

180. Q. And did anyone fill her role when she left?

A. No, that's when they basically just said "Here. Figure out this --"

181. Q. That's when your job responsibilities exploded.

A. Yeah, yeah.

182. Q. Okay.

A. She left -- Now, there's multiple versions of this. Hugh says he just let her go because she wasn't getting anything done and no reports were coming to her. And everything I needed from her to be able to do like anything I needed, I couldn't get from her either, and I blamed her for a long time until -- when she left she left and said she just couldn't take the begging for information and the chaos and just -- she just couldn't do it anymore because she couldn't do her job without information and she was tired of having her name attached to it.

So when she said that I kind of -- I think that was a bit of an awakening for me because then when stuff started landing on my desk and I'd be like "I don't know what to do with this," and I'd ask Sid and Sid would say "Well, this is what you need to get." I couldn't get anything so I started to kinda switch 'cause I -- I thought that that's -- Hugh let her go because she just wasn't doing anything but I think she was really just slamming her head against the wall and just couldn't take it anymore. She had other clients, she didn't need to be so stressed out with what he was puttin' her through.

183. Q. Okay, so when you say she had other clients, like she wasn't an employee of Clonsilla?

A. No, she was a --

184. Q. She was an outside --

A. Yeah, she was a --

185. Q. -- bookkeeper.

A. -- bookkeeper.

186. Q. Okay, and that's about 2021 when she had that conversation with you and told you that she was just bangin' her head against the wall?

A. Yeah.

187. Q. Okay, so I started with how did Clonsilla pay its employees.

A. Oh, right. Laurel did payroll and then when Laurel was gonna leave we sat down and went through a bunch of different payroll companies and things because I thought if she leaves me with this I don't know what to do because I don’t know how to pay people.

188. Q. Yeah.

A. I don't know anything about it. So we figured out ADP and I figured "Good, there you go."

189. Q. Yeah.

A. So we put it through ADP.

190. Q. And did you use ADP up until 2023?

A. Until maybe June of 2023.

191. Q. Okay, what changed -- what changed in June?

A. 'Cause Hugh wouldn't pay them. They paid us but he'd bounce the payment to them. And I couldn't get them to make payment, of course they're not gonna keep processing until their payment and they just put a block on it and wouldn't process anymore. And I didn't know what to do anymore.

So there was the one pay period that I went on the Canada Employment Payroll Calculator and I had to process everybody's payment for payroll --

192. Q. Manually?

A. -- manually for that one pay period while I got a new one set up.

193. Q. Okay, and that was in June of 2023?

A. That was in June. June or July. I --

194. Q. And then --

A. It's all a blur.

195. Q. And then what did you do after that? What was the longer -- longer-term solution?

A. Well, then I got QuickBooks put in. He finally agreed to let me put -- 'Cause I was tryin' --

I wanted QuickBooks before. Laurie had started putting stuff into QuickBooks but again getting information three or four months down the road she couldn't get the banking and she couldn't -- there was so much that couldn't get done it just fell by the wayside. So I decided that I -- I could not do this with a piece of paper and a pen as much information as needed to be documented, so that's when I -- Probably if you've been through the files you'll see like there's fifteen copies of everything because I had to have -- if I couldn't find it I'd make another copy but I'm a hoarder so I don't throw any of them away because it might have a note on it. Like --

But I went and I got QuickBooks put in and so that -- the intention was that we could start just putting everything in there. We could put the banking in there, get the payroll put in there, we could get the -- the bill payments, like everything, so that QuickBooks could track everything and I could make reports and I could -- you know.

And I think that's when I found out that there's just no rhyme or reason to anything and I couldn't figure out how to get anything in there effectively other than payroll.

So I got payroll in there just 'cause I -- I knew I wasn't capable of doing it right and making sure the government got paid and all that stuff. So I got payroll in there and did that and nothing else really got put in there 'cause I couldn't get anything accurate that --

196. Q. I see.

A. -- I could attach my name to.

197. Q. So once you started using QuickBooks is that -- people were paid biweekly? Like was it every two weeks?

A. Biweekly.

198. Q. And so you would use QuickBooks to figure out who you're paying, and then would you go into the -- like are they paid out of the RBC bank account or like did you make the transfers that way or how did you actually get the money to the --

A. I would have to print off the report and then take it to Hugh and he would e-transfer.

199. Q. He would set up the e-transfer.

A. Yeah, because I couldn't get it processed through automatic deposits because I couldn't control the banking like to -- I couldn't set it up in the banking to do it in QuickBooks. It had to be him that would do it and he just said "I'll just pay it this way."

200. Q. Okay, so just so I understand and I'm making sure I do, every two weeks starting in around June of 2023, maybe July, every two weeks you're going into QuickBooks, figuring out how much money each employee should be paid and you're giving that information to Hugh and then Hugh's manually sending out the payments.

A. Yeah. Sometimes he would just pay them in money, sometimes it was e-transfers. I would just -- I just kept in all in the file of how everybody got paid.

201. Q. Okay, so sometimes he would pay them cash.

A. Yeah. They all -- but I made sure they all got a pay statement --

202. Q. Okay.

A. -- so that it showed what everything was. And he got all the paperwork to be able to pay the EI and CPP and taxes and all that stuff. Which as it turns out he didn't and I found that out when OMVIC came because they wanted a receipt and I called the government to get a receipt and there wasn't one.

203. Q. Okay, and so before June 2023, not all the way to 2017 but say, you know, to 2022, ADP was in charge of doing payroll, and so that's how employees were paid, was ADP was making the payments.

A. Yeah.

204. Q. Would employees get paid any other way other than through the ADP payroll pre-June 2023?

A. No, employees were done that way.

205. Q. Okay. Post-June 2023 when you start taking over how many employees are we talking? I'm just trying to wrap my head around, you know, who was getting the payments from Hugh post-June 2023?

A. Employees? There was me and Rasto, Eileen. I don't know who was in the garage, to be perfectly honest. Probably Deb and Will, Roger, Hunter who was a young guy that did maintenance, cleanup stuff. Anita.

206. Q. Was Gerald coming in at this time?

A. Gerald -- Sometimes he would come in but he got -- whatever agreement -- they had made an agreement that he would get so much money -- I don't know whether it was every week, every two weeks, whatever, and he got that whether he was there or not. It just --

207. Q. So he had a separate agreement from --

A. From his retirement.

208. Q. -- payroll.

A. Yeah. Like when he came in it wasn't really -- he didn't come in because he was working on the clock. He just came in. He was great at going through the files 'cause I finally got it set up so that like when they would sell a car or do something that the files would go to Gerald before they came to me and then Gerald would chase them around to try to get stuff, and he would only bring me the ones that he couldn't get answers on and then I would go and --

209. Q. So --

A. Because I couldn't -- I just -- I literally had files sitting on my desk for months and I couldn't get anything, so Gerald was pretty good at getting those.

210. Q. What about the kids? What about Meggan and Sara and Taylor, would they have been getting paid post-June 2023? Were they working then?

A. They weren't working in the office but Hugh said they worked at home. I can't say what they did 'cause I wasn't there but I didn't see any benefit of their work.

211. Q. Okay.

A. That's all I can say.

212. Q. Maybe they were working on projections or whatever. I have no idea. I don't believe that but what do know.

MR. MCGRATH: Okay, maybe we can just take a little break. We've been going at it for almost an hour. Let's go off the record.

Off the record at 10:51 a.m.

On the record at 11:03 a.m.

BY MR. MCGRATH:

213. Q. So Ms Jacobs I'm gonna move on to a new topic, but before I do there's just a couple of clarifying questions I just wanted to make sure I understand.

So when we're talking about the lease agreements that were being entered into with customers, you told me there's a paper file for each customer. That's right, right?

A. M'hm.

214. Q. Sorry --

A. Yes.

215. Q. Thank you. And is that because the customer is physically signing the agreement so you have to have the -- the physical copy that they've signed for your records?

A. Well, yeah, but there's other documentation that wasn't in Velocity that needed to be in the files.

216. Q. Understood, but one of the -- at least one of the reasons why there's a paper copy is because that's -- there's an actual physical copy that the customer signs.

A. Yes.

217. Q. In every case?

A. Supposed to be.

218. Q. Okay, were there any cases where there -- that you know of where there wasn't a signed agreement from a customer?

A. There was files I couldn't find.

219. Q. Okay, and so you don't know if it was lost or if it --

A. Yes.

220. Q. -- never existed in the first place.

A. Yes.

221. Q. Okay. I'm look -- I'm gonna to pass this to you. I'm only interested in the first page of this document which is an example of a least agreement. I'm not interested in the details of it at all, it's just as an example of a lease agreement this is the type of document you're used to seeing?

A. Yes.

222. Q. And when I look at the -- So in the middle there's the lessee's signature and this one has a cosigner's signature, so that's where the customers sign?

A. Yes.

223. Q. And then in the bottom left-hand corner I see a salesperson's name, and this one is Mr. Scasny. Do you see that?

A. Yeah.

224. Q. And then -- so he signs it right underneath his name?

A. Yes.

225. Q. Is that Mr. Scasny's signature? Would you be able to recognize that?

A. I want to say it is.

226. Q. Okay, and below that there's the lessor acceptance box and there's H. Waddell. Do you see that?

A. Yeah.

227. Q. And then at the bottom there's a signature for Mr. Waddell. Is that Mr. Waddell's signature, as far as you know?

A. I couldn't swear that it was, only for the fact that it is never the same. It's just -- We called it the seagull.

228. Q. Okay.

A. It's just a squiggle.

229. Q. Okay, so that's consistent with one of the types of signatures --

A. Yes.

230. Q. -- that he would apply. Were there any electronic signatures that you had to apply, Mr. Waddell's signature or anyone else's, or was it always them personally signing the documents?

A. Hugh sometimes would have us sign on his behalf if he wasn't there.

231. Q. Okay. When you say "us" is it --

A. I've done and Rasto's done it. That's why I can't swear to this because that's Rasto's writing.

232. Q. When you -- sorry, when you say "that's Rasto's writing" --

A. The H. Waddell and manager, like that's Rasto's writing.

233. Q. Okay.

A. So I don't know whether that was Hugh or Rasto, 'cause we would -- we would complete that and then take them to Hugh for signatures and sometimes he would say "Well, I'm not gonna get back to the office. Just sign it for me," and --

234. Q. Okay, so anytime -- And you wouldn't write like a "Signed for Mr. Waddell," you would just try to mimic his signature?

A. We just did a seagull.

235. Q. Okay, and just you and Mr. Scasny? Did anybody else do that that you know of?

A. I -- I'm imagining but I couldn't say yes 'cause I don't know.

236. Q. Okay.

A. Hugh normally signed them but I know there were times that he wasn't coming back to the office and we did.

237. Q. And every time you did that and signed his signature, would you have done it with his authorization?

A. Absolutely.

238. Q. Okay, and what about Mr. Scasny, as far as you can answer that question, but would he always have authorization from Mr. Waddell before he --

A. He couldn't do any lease without Hugh's authorization, so I would say Hugh would have given him permission to do it because he wouldn't be able to do the lease. And before any leases were submitted for funding Hugh approved them all.

239. Q. Okay, and how would you submit them for funding? Was that through Velocity?

A. Yeah.

240. Q. So what would you do? You would scan the paper copy that you had and upload it through Velocity?

A. Yes. And then it would go in -- like it would go into Velocity and you would apply for the funding, and then it would move over to another column and then I would do the copy and paste thing and put it on a piece of paper and take it to him and say "This is what's being funded." He'd be like "We have to hold it because we need another thirty thousand," or, you know, "That one's not going to go 'til next month," or --

241. Q. Okay, so do I understand it right that you never uploaded things through Velocity for funding purposes without Mr. Waddell's authorization to do that.

A. He authorized every -- everything. And -- and he -- I was thinkin' about it now. You asked me about how the company made business -- like made money. There was the leasing pieces but they also did retail sales. We never talked about that but they did retail sales too.

But I don't think we found much errors in that except with the -- the -- 242. Q. But most of the revenue was through the leasing.

A. M'hm.

243. Q. But the --

A. Much to my chagrin, 'cause retail sales were easiest. You'd sell the car, you'd process it and it's done. You don't have to think about it ever again.

244. Q. Right. Did anybody else upload these leases through Velocity or -- Were you sort of the point person on that process or did other people do that?

A. Everybody -- The salespeople were supposed to do their own. Everybody uploads in. I would go in and check to make sure all the pieces were there and that's when I would say "This is missing" or whatever. Hugh never did and Gerald never did, but I think that's how Rasto -- he would do their uploads because then he would put that on his commission list 'cause he did the work.

245. Q. Okay, but even when that's happening does -- does Hugh know? Like does --

A. Oh, God, yeah.

246. Q. So Hugh is always -- always knows what's being uploaded through Velocity --

A. Yeah.

247. Q. -- to the lender. I'd asked you about electronic signatures. Were there any electronic signatures?

A. I've seen them. I mean I don't do them myself 'cause I don't --

248. Q. What do you mean you've seen them?

A. I've seen where they've -- like emailed the documents to the customer, the customer e-signed them, 'cause there's a little box around it.

249. Q. Okay. How often did that happen?

A. Very few. I would say maybe there's ten or fifteen files in total out of all of them, maybe, over the years. I don't --

250. Q. And so for those ones would there not be a paper copy associated with --

A. There would be that copy digitally printed. Like the digital copy that would be printed and put into the file.

251. Q. So for those ten or fifteen that you know about, the customer would sign it electronically. Would --

A. I wanted when they came to pick up the car that we got an original signature on them because -- And I know everything's done digitally but I'm old and I think a piece of paper with pen on it stands up in court better than a piece of paper that got emailed. So -- But they were like "Oh, you just worry too much. It'll be fine."

252. Q. So would -- In the sales offer in Clonsilla would you print the one with the client's signature and then have the salesperson and Hugh sign it --

A. Yes.

253. Q. -- you know, in ink?

A. In ink.

254. Q. Okay.

A. Yeah, there should always -- the salesperson and Hugh's signature, those should always in inked and not a digital copy 'cause -- it's only if the customer is from far away they would get a DocuSign agreement.

255. Q. So you didn't have the seagull signature of Hugh electronically that you could add, it's always someone signing it with ink.

A. Inking it, yeah. Hugh would tell us if we needed to do it, we did it.

256. Q. Okay, and then --

A. And just for the record, I used that free hotline service for legal advice, and apparently if the person directly tells you to sign their name you're allowed to sign their name 'cause I -- I made sure I was gonna be able to do that before I would sign it. Not that I had, you know, any reason to mistrust anything Hugh ever told me, so I'd just, you know, trust but verify.

257. Q. Were you signing for Hugh off and on throughout your time there or was this like a more recent thing?

A. More in the past year of business probably because Hugh was always out in the world tryin' to find new funding.

258. Q. Okay. Do you know -- like can you estimate how often you -- you'd be signing his name to these forms?

A. Oh, on these? Not very often. Only if Rasto wasn't in the office or, you know, we were trying to get it funded through then I would do it for him but --

259. Q. Were there --

A. -- I didn’t do that very often on these.

260. Q. Okay, and I'm gonna -- just before I forget I'm just going to mark that first page as Exhibit 1 to this examination just so -- Ms Jacobs. so when we're looking back and we're all talking about a document it's just so we know what we're talking about. So that'll just be Exhibit 1, just the front page of what I've handed you.

MR. MCGRATH: For the record it's a lease agreement with Sarah Rose Mason and Dwayne Elliott Mason.

EXHIBIT 1: Front page of lease agreement with Sarah Rose Mason and Dwayne Elliott Mason

BY MR. MCGRATH:

261. Q. You keep saying "On these I didn't do it very often." Were there other documents or other situations where you signed Mr. Waddell's name for him?

A. I -- You know, I just don't know whether to say too much. But I'm -- I'm -- I'm not gonna hide anything.

So Hugh would call me -- Like I'd have somebody come in because there -- you know, they're gonna cut the hydro off or something and he would say "Well, give them a cheque." And most of the time he would leave me signed cheques but I have done it on the cheque, the seagull thing, 'cause he told me to.

262. Q. Okay.

A. Just -- Yeah.

263. Q. Anything else? Any other --

A. Which -- I did that only because I don't know why I always felt like I always needed to cover myself just to be sure because I did find out that he had gone down to the bank and had my name added to the bank account so that I could write cheques and I could do stuff in there, but I wouldn't do anything because I just didn't want anything being put back saying "Oh, she did this." So I just -- I never have.

Like you -- you can look through all the records. I've never put my name on their cheques, I've never -- 'Cause it wasn't my decision anyway, so it's your decision, you can sign it.

264. Q. Okay. With the cheques, was it happening often or was that just a really unusual --

A. Just if it -- if it had to be.

265. Q. Okay.

A. Yeah.

266. Q. Any more --

A. Normally Gerald or Hugh would be there. If there was a cheque to go they would just -- or Hugh would leave cheques with me --

267. Q. Right.

A. -- if he was going away so that I would have them. But I --

268. Q. So if it's an emergency situation, you need a cheque and Hugh's not there, and so you had to clear it with him first and then --

A. Oh, yeah.

269. Q. -- you would sign it.

A. Yeah.

270. Q. Okay.

A. Because most times you would never know if a cheque was going to clear or not anyway.

271. Q. Okay, I under -- I think I understand that and I understand the lease agreements. Is there any other situation where you might have signed Hugh's name or can I otherwise sort of assume that it is Hugh who signed the document?

A. I can't think of anything.

272. Q. Okay, last quick I think hopefully cleanup question. You told me there were paper files for each customer, I understand that. You told me you had access to them. Were there any paper files that you didn't have access to or you weren't allowed to -- to see?

A. Well, there were files in Hugh's office that he kept in there. I couldn't honestly tell you what they were because they were in Hugh's office and -- you know --

273. Q. So it's possible there are customer files in paper form that you -- that you didn't see or you just don't know what they are because you didn't have access to them, they were in Hugh's office.

A. Yeah.

274. Q. Okay. Did Rasto ever keep files away from you or prevent you from accessing paper files?

A. Not that I know of.

275. Q. Okay, and the ones that --

A. He would chase files as much as me because we both -- There were lots of times like we would have stuff and I'd go "Well, where's the file?" and he said "Well, I had it yesterday," and we'd tear the office apart trying to find it but --

So he would -- he -- I don't think he ever kept anything from me. He would -- him and I would both be scouring looking for stuff but --

276. Q. And the ones that Hugh had in his office, is he -- is it that he's purposefully keeping them from you or is it just that he's got some files in his office and you're just not sure what he's got.

A. I can't answer that honestly. I -- I can tell you that there's no reason for files to be in his office if they're already funded and there's no activity on it. Like if there's -- you know?

277. Q. Okay.

A. But lots of times I would go get a file and he would want it back.

278. Q. Did he have a lock on his office?

A. Yes.

279. Q. So did he lock it when he left or not?

A. Sometimes. Sometimes he did, sometimes he didn't.

280. Q. Okay. Does that cover what you wanted?

A. Now, we did have a key that I could get into his office if I had to but we never went in his office if it was locked 'cause it was -- If it was locked he had it locked for a reason and unless he told me "Get the key and go in there."

281. Q. Okay. I'm just gonna go through now some people whose names appear on some of the documents and I'm just gonna ask you questions about each one just to try who they are --

A. Okay.

282. Q. -- in all this. The first is Nancy Waddell, so who is Nancy Waddell?

A. Hugh's wife.

283. Q. And did she do work for Clonsilla?

A. She did. I'm not confident I can say she worked effectively. She's a very difficult person to work around or with.

284. Q. So what time period are we talking? Is it the whole time you worked there she also --

A. She --

285. Q. -- was working?

A. -- was there when I first started because I think she was part of the reason that Christina was leaving because the collections had gone into such a disarray and Nancy came in to --

Okay, there's the whole spectrum of the Hughniverse. You have Hugh here and Nancy here.

286. Q. So you're -- you're intimating with your hands that they're sort of at opposite ends of the --

A. Absolutely opposite people. With Nancy, everything is cut, dried, black, white. It's you do it this way and that's the way it's gotta be done, and you know, just --

So Hugh -- Hugh was not like that at all. You know, whereas when Nancy would come in everything would be exploding because she would be trying to get these things fixed, which is -- Sometimes I would have the innocent conversation with Nancy about things I was trying to fix because I knew she would come in and lay the hammer.

287. Q. So in like 2023, 2022 was she also filling that role with Clonsilla or --

A. She was -- She would come in but not on a day-to-day work thing. It was basically she would come in to try to get things moving, and that's why the kids were called in because Mom was there, and -- you know, and --

But it didn't end up helping in the long run because they didn't -- they still didn't do anything. Like Taylor was there for two years and he'd come in and sit at that desk and I don't know what he did but he didn't get a lot accomplished. And my drawer that had all my legal files and my repo files and stuff, I ended up with a second drawer, and like it -- Like I had two full -- those are big damn drawers, and I had two of them filled with legal and repos and, you know, just --

288. Q. So I take it 2023 --

A. But Nancy would do repos.

289. Q. Did she go --

A. She'd go --

290. Q. If I take 2023, how often is Nancy coming into the office generally?

A. To do any work, maybe once or twice.

291. Q. Total?

A. Yeah. At the office.

292. Q. Okay. When you were doing payroll after -- post-June 2023 is she on the payroll?

A. No. No, she was -- I think she got paid as a contractor because I had no record of what she worked or -- And Taylor, same thing. He got paid as a contractor, I didn't have anything to do with that.

293. Q. Did --

A. There were a few of them that were just contract-paid people.

294. Q. Do you know if she had a -- like a -- did she literally have a contract with Clonsilla? Have you ever seen one?

A. I've never seen one.

295. Q. Okay.

A. Doesn't mean it doesn't exist, it just means I've never seen it.

296. Q. So in 2023 -- I'm gonna assume that it changes over time so I'm just gonna try to focus on 2023 to try to make --

A. Okay.

297. Q. -- it manageable for both of us.

A. M'hm.

298. Q. In 2023 would there be any reason why Nancy should be getting money from Clonsilla that you can think of?

A. Well, Hugh always said that she did work for the company but I don't know what that work was.

299. Q. Okay.

A. I -- Honestly I can tell you I don't know what that work was 'cause I never saw any product of it.

300. Q. That's fair enough. And so -- so you can't think of any other reason other than, you know, Hugh would tell you that she's doing work for the -- the company but everything she --

A. No, I would just -- Because I would ask 'cause I would -- Like when I got -- it was a nightmare but when I would get the banking stuff and I'd be trying to separate the Clonsilla world from the Hughniverse, and you know, there'd be cheques that go out to people and I'm like "What is this for? Is this for something in the business?" and he would say "Well, Nancy is doing work for the company," and you know, "That was personal, this is for new lights at the house" or whatever, and so I would just try to separate it.

So that's the only reason I know that Nancy did work for the company is because he told me that it would be left over in Clonsilla because that was her payment.

301. Q. When you're talking about this process, like a -- sort of like a reconciliation, you're talking about going through the RBC bank statements?

A. Bank statement, all the credit cards, everything.

302. Q. And you're trying --

A. Because everything was mixed.

303. Q. Because he's mixing up personal and business.

A. Everything.

304. Q. And so what's the point of that? So if -- if -- Say there's been a payment from the RBC account that Hugh is telling you it's personal, it's not for business, what do you -- what do you do with that? Like what --

A. Well, I would just put it on a separate tab in the Excel spreadsheet because that's what I had to work with 'cause I didn't have a program that would make my life easier. I would put it on a separate tab and that was the Hughniverse tab, and then anything --

Like I would only keep the stuff in Clonsilla that I could verify was Clonsilla. Employees I can't do anything with 'cause I don't know what they do or that's -- if he's contracted somebody, he's contracted somebody but --

Like he'd have payments in there just so that I can claim an ITC on the HST on that invoice. Unless I could attach it to work at Clonsilla I wouldn't put it in. And he'd get mad at me. But I would move it over into the Hughniverse because I'm the one that's gotta submit that to the accountant and he's gonna come back an ask me for a copy of that invoice and --

305. Q. Okay.

A. -- I need to be able to prove it wasn't Hughniverse.

306. Q. I think I understand that. So you've got to figure out whether they're true business expenses 'cause you've got a variety of tasks that you're trying to keep on top of from an accounting perspective.

When you've got the tab open of the -- the Hugh personal expenses what happens to that? Does he repay that -- Are you totalling that amount and he's saying "Okay, I've got to pay that back to the account," or that's just for your purposes knowing I'm not including that in the business expenses?

A. Okay. I would give that to him and I would break it down to the best of my ability, 'cause there was lots of things I could never figure out who was responsible for what.

So I would break it down: this is money that was spent for Nancy, for Sara, for Hugh, for Lawson, for Meggan, any of them. And I would put it under their name because apparently part of their investment was that they would invest and a portion of their investment would go to pay their living expenses or personal expenses, whatever, so those totals had to come off what was owing on their investment.

307. Q. Okay, so this was -- I just want to understand that. So let's take an example. Let's take one of the -- The children are involved in this so let's take Taylor for example. Taylor by example. I don't need to know the actual facts, just trying to get my head around it.

So you'd say if Taylor made an investment, so if Taylor sort of had invested in Clonsilla does that mean he is sort of like a part own -- part owner of it?

A. No, it was more -- and I think it was loans that they --

308. Q. Okay.

A. I call an investment; I don't know what -- what else to call it. They would loan the company money and the company would pay them so much a month and pay so much expenses. The so much a month was apparently the interest portions or something and the -- Because, you know, I'm not family I'm not -- not entitled to know everything. I've never see any of their agreements or if there was one, contracts, I just -- I can tell you I've seen [cell phone rings] payments come through but I don't know what they're for.

309. Q. Okay.

A. You know? But like -- So I don't know the numbers exactly so just I'm gonna give you a ballpark number just to say. So I would get the statement in and it would have a $20,000 payment to Bob's Wedding Venue. Well, that was Taylor's wedding so that would go under Taylor's tab, you know? Hugh would go "Oh, put that under our HST. We'll take that." Well, you know, that had nothing to do with Clonsilla, we didn't get married.

310. Q. Right.

A. So I would keep it under Taylor's tab. He did not like it but it is what it is. He couldn't -- He didn't know enough how to come down and change it over to another tab, but that would be under Taylor's to come off of how much the company owed him.

311. Q. Did you -- So when you're doing this you've got this Excel spreadsheet with these different tabs; are you saving that somewhere? Like is that something that I could see now, is it something that still exists this --

THE DEPONENT: Do you have my computer?

MR. ALLEYNE: Yeah, I do.

THE DEPONENT: It's probably in the there.

BY MR. MCGRATH:

312. Q. You think it's probably saved on your computer somewhere?

A. There's probably -- 'cause the thing is is there's -- as I would get new information I would have to start new sheets.

313. Q. Right.

A. You know? Where I would keep track of all the e-transfers or cheques that were made out to each of them under their tabs so that you can see numbers.

314. Q. Did you save this locally to your computer?

A. Yeah, it'd be on the computer.

315. Q. What would it be called?

A. Probably something like The Hughniverse or -- you know what, it could be multiple tabs on my CRA. I -- Honest to God I'd have to be --

316. Q. Okay, I understand.

A. -- looking at it to [cell phone rings].

317. Q. I think my colleague might have a --

BY MS KENNEDY:

318. Q. I have a question.

A. Sure.

319. Q. And just so you know, I'm Rebecca Kennedy, just for the record. You talked about it'd be like a loan repayment.

A. Yeah.

320. Q. Right? So for all that time that you were managing it did they pay money into the company as a loan? Like did you see that come in?

A. I saw money coming into the company from the kids. Like they would give Hugh bank drafts and transfer it in. 'Cause they would leave the drafts with me if he wasn't there and then I would give them to Hugh.

321. Q. And they would get deposited to the RBC account.

A. I'm -- I would say yes until I started going through the RBC account, and then I found a bunch of the stuff when I was trying to track it all and figure out where all this money went 'cause I wanted to know --

I know this sounds nosy. It wasn't really, it was just 'cause I was trying to get a whole picture so that I could sort things out in my mind of what was real and what wasn't. I started tracking back -- 'cause the kids would say, you know, "I have $2 million loaned into here." "I have -- you know, 1.6 million." And I'm like "Where is it?" Like, you know?

So I started goin' back and I told Hugh that I was doing it so that I could see how much of it was repaid to them and that, you know, they can say they put $1.6 million into a loan but did they get $1.4 million back and you only owe them $200,000. You know? 'Cause he's thinking he still owes them this full amount and everything.

So I started finding it but the -- a lot of the cheques or bank drafts or transfers and stuff went to him and then he put them into Northbridge and then Northbridge put them into Clonsilla. And it was really difficult to track because not all the numbers matched, you know? Like Sara would give him $60,000 and 5,000 went into Northbridge and 50,000 went into Clonsilla. But he's loaned the 60,000 so where is --

322. Q. So you were trying to reconcile.

A. I was trying.

323. Q. Yeah. Okay, and did Sara have -- these kids, Sara, Taylor, did they have other jobs?

A. Sara has always worked. She works -- I'm not sure exactly what she does but she does work on computers offsite for people and she's done stuff like that.

Taylor, I -- I think he worked at Accuracy Plus for a couple of months way back when I first started but I don't think he's ever had like an actual day-to-day job until recently. He's out workin' now.

Meggan had a gym but of course Covid killed that. I don't think many gyms survived that. But then after the gym then she started with a home staging business and she was --

324. Q. I just say because, you know, I have a good job and lots of people do but I certainly don't have the ability to take a cheque to my parents' business for $60,000 on a whim if I don't have another job.

A. Okay.

325. Q. That's what I'm trying -- where I'm coming from.

A. So here's some background.

326. Q. Okay.

A. Okay? Hugh's family was very well to do. His father -- well, he was actually mayor of Peterborough for a while -- he owned the Canadian Tire store here in Peterborough, he had a couple of car dealerships. And then when he passed his money went to his four kids, which was millions, and the kids all got an inheritance as well, so they all got a lot of money when Dad died.

And then Hugh -- I don't know their names 'cause I don't really -- Sassy maybe -- anyway, a couple of Hugh's sisters have passed away as well and they didn't have kids but their inheritances went to these kids as well. So these kids have all inherited millions of dollars --

327. Q. Okay.

A. -- from their family which they loaned into the company.

328. Q. Okay, and so they would have a record when they were giving money because you're saying it's bank drafts, correct?

A. Yeah, I never saw a pile of cash come in.

329. Q. Right.

A. I never saw it. Can't say that it happen -- didn't happen but I can say I never saw that.

330. Q. Okay.

A. I saw bank drafts come in and I know I've seen it in the banking things of wire transfers that have been sent, but --

331. Q. And in -- Sorry, let me rephrase that.

A. Now, that was -- Most of that happened probably before my time there or in the first few years when I really didn't do anything with any of that kind of stuff. In the last couple of years I think Sara's probably the only one that's put anything -- loan back in. I can't swear that but I want to say in the last two years it was probably just Sara. Don't think the other two had anything left to give.

332. Q. Understood. That was gonna be my question, what was the timing of the money coming in, so I think you've answered that.

MS KENNEDY: I think that was it. Sorry that I interrupted.

MR. MCGRATH: No problem.

BY MR. MCGRATH:

333. Q. You said that you never saw any agreements between, you know, any of the kids and Clonsilla, right?

A. I asked for them but Hugh told me that that was all -- it's in the personal stuff.

334. Q. Do you think there are -- like did he tell you there are written agreements, he just wouldn't show them to you, or do you just have no idea whether anything's in writing or not?

A. Well, because I was trying to explain to him, because there's a lot of money that went out on the kids' behalf, you know? So like Amazon purchases, or you know, dinner, and you know, heat and hydro, rent, phones, like all of these payments that were made by the company. And I said to him, I said "Are you sure that you've got a track on how much they've already gotten 'cause I don't think you owe them what you think you owe them. Like you -- You know, I don't think you need to be bending over backwards to keep filling their coffer if it's -- all this money's coming back." Like --

You know, like I think I just want to say there was like $4 million that went out to them in two or three years. And like, you know, and those were just in e-transfers. That was not even counting the cheques or the payments made on their behalf or --

You know, like Taylor's house. Like I don't think Taylor physically made a payment for anything of that. I think it all came through the office. Well, that money should be deducted from what his money loaned to the company was.

335. Q. What would Hugh say when you said that to him? What was his response to that?

A. Well, he'd say "Well, I --" You know, "I'd like to see the numbers," and I started showing him how much was going out and he's saying "You might be right."

"Get me some paperwork that shows what you agreed to because did you agree that if you give me $100,000 I'll pay you back $200,000 or --"

336. Q. Right.

A. "-- did you agree that you'd do it over an amortization or --" Like there had to have been some -- something. I -- I love my parents but I wouldn't be handin' over that kind of money not knowin' how I was gettin' it back. Just sayin' like --

337. Q. No. The next person I was going to ask you about was Sara, so we just talked about her. So you said she's the one that's given some money in the last couple of years. How much money to your knowledge has -- did she give in the last couple of years?

A. I want to say probably 150 - 200,000 maybe. 'Cause I know she would do it like, you know, 75,000 and then there was another one for 60,000 just of what I saw. So I don't know because she wasn't --

It wasn't going directly into the Clonsilla account so I didn't see it. I've never seen any of the banking for Northbridge so I don't know if it went in there and Hugh transferred it out, or -- You know, I tried to get from him to give me some idea what it was.

But Sara, I would say Sara probably has every record. Sara's very good at doing that. Because I know she would chase him -- and her -- her agreement was set up so that she got so much back every month. So she had to be paid on time because if he didn't make that payment today she was on that phone, you know? 'Cause she knows her dad would just delay it and not do it or whatever so --

338. Q. Okay, so for 2023, 2022 she wouldn't be getting paid for working for Clonsilla but she is getting money --

A. She was working for Clonsilla.

339. Q. Okay, what was her role?

A. She was trying to come in to make sense of what Taylor didn't get done with the collections, with the repos and, you know, all of that stuff. The stuff that was going to the legal department and everything. So she was.

340. Q. So how often -- Take 2023, how often would she have been coming into the office?

A. I think she was trying to come in one day a week but it -- sometimes it would turn into -- like, you know, she'd come in two days and not come back for two weeks or something. I guess it would depend on what her workload was --

341. Q. Okay.

A. -- trying to get through.

342. Q. And then when you were doing payroll for that period that you were doing it was she one of the people that was --

A. I put Sara on the payroll just because I told her that I thought it would be easier to do it that way 'cause then she was getting paid for the work she was doing Clonsilla and it wouldn't interfere with the payments her father was making on her loan. And I figured it covered my ass 'cause I had an employee... [indiscernible].

343. Q. Okay, so she's not a contract -- not a contractor like maybe Nancy was, she was actually getting paid through payroll.

A. Yeah. Well, literally as -- like nothing. Like sometimes she was only there for three or four hours or five hours or whatever. Like it wasn't --

344. Q. Okay.

A. -- wasn't very much.

345. Q. And then Taylor was next on my list so in 2022-2023 was he still working?

A. He would come in but I don't know -- I couldn't tell you how often he came in or -- Like it wasn't very often. Maybe a day every week or maybe a day a month sometimes, like --

346. Q. Was he on the payroll that you --

A. No.

347. Q. Okay.

A. I never put him on payroll because I didn't get any productivity from him, so I just left it to Hugh to deal with that and told him "If you don't get productivity you shouldn't be paying."

348. Q. Right, so is it fair to say then that as far as you know if Taylor's getting money from Clonsilla in those years, 2022, 2023, that's more related to the loan issue than to actual work that he's been doing.

A. There was -- Like there's chunks of time that he actually would come in and -- and be doing the work but it wasn't on a regular basis. I don't know if he was doing stuff for Hugh that I don't know about, but I never saw anything come back from that. Like if he was out, you know, repoing cars I would have seen --

349. Q. Right.

A. -- that he came in with a car, or that he'd been out and was -- I don't think he ever bought a car to sell or was out selling to customers or --

350. Q. I think for all these questions it's fair to say you don't know what you don't know, and so I'm not asking you things that you don't know about, or I'm trying not to. Just based on what you know Taylor wasn't doing work for Clonsilla in 2022, 2023 other than the most random sort of --

A. Yes. Yes.

351. Q. And Nancy's the same, right? Like you didn't see the result of any work that Nancy did for Clonsilla in 2022, 2023.

A. No.

352. Q. Sara's different because you did see her come in.

A. Yes.

353. Q. And you actually --

A. She would sit down with me and we'd go through files and we'd get stuff and things'd be -- you know, the files were a mess in some cases and she'd be putting them all back together and trying to get all the pieces and --

354. Q. And you reflected that in the paperwork that we will be able to see, which is that you actually put her on payroll.

A. Yeah.

355. Q. Whereas you didn't put the others.

A. I did not.

356. Q. Meghan Archer. Who's Meghan Archer?

A. Taylor's wife.

357. Q. Okay, did she do work for Clonsilla?

A. When I first started there her and Taylor were doing collections and repos. When I first started there she was coming in and she would be chasing people and making phone calls and, you know, doin' all that stuff. And then she wasn't.

358. Q. When about would that have stopped?

A. Probably about six months after I came.

359. Q. Okay, so this is way back in --

A. Yeah.

360. Q. -- around 2017.

A. Way back, yeah. In the last couple of years she had not done anything.

361. Q. Okay. Is there any reason you can think of why she should be getting money from Clonsilla?

A. Not that I know of. I'm trying to think of anything that but Meghan would not be -- I know Hugh would transfer her money if she had bills that she had to pay and he would send money to her to pay stuff, but that was off the loan.

362. Q. Okay.

A. I never saw a receipt or an invoice or anything.

363. Q. I have Gerald on my list next. We've talked about him. Was he being compensated for -- Oh, you said that he had sort of a separate agreement. He was just getting regular -- regular payments after his retirement?

A. Yeah, because he was never -- like he didn't have a benefits program or a retirement package or anything so they -- they made like a retirement package for him when he was -- when he got fed up and --

364. Q. Right.

A. -- decided he'd had enough. And I -- I don't know the numbers off hand but I know he got -- I don't know whether it was every week or every month, whatever it was he would get money.

365. Q. Okay, and what about Paul Shapiro? Who's that?

A. Paul is actually Gerald's brother.

366. Q. Did he have any role in Clonsilla? Did he work there?

A. Okay, so for probably up until two years at the end, as far as I knew Paul was the shmeg [phonetic] of the earth and nobody wanted anything to do with him. Even Gerald never spoke to his brother for like twenty years. They had no contact. And then all of a sudden Paul just started poppin' up.

What's goin' on? Like, you know? He started -- Him and Hugh were doin' work together and they were gettin' cars and his son was gonna come and be a salesperson and there was -- Just like Paul just appeared and Hugh loved him. I have no idea if he -- I don't know much about why it all started with Paul or what Paul's role is.

I know Paul's daughter Jackie, she worked for Dr. Bernstein when Bernstein was our funder. And so she did all the processes and everything and then when they started Velocity, Paul hired Jackie to come and do the paperwork for Velocity. So Jackie's always been a piece of the world; Paul's only just arrived in the last two years and I don't really know what his role was.

367. Q. So was he sort of the same, like he -- as Nancy in the sense of like you can't see what his job contributions are --

A. I don't think he ever worked for the company doing anything.

368. Q. Okay.

A. I know when this all happened then they were gonna try to -- some friend of his had a car dealership and they were gonna try to open a satellite office in Peterborough, and Paul was gonna do that.

369. Q. So that's --

A. That was after.

370. Q. That's post-receivership.

A. Yes.

371. Q. Okay.

A. I know Paul had financed -- I think it was a boat or something -- something of Hugh's personally, Paul financed it so Hugh would make payments on that. I think it was the boat.

372. Q. Okay. Any reason you can think of why Paul should be getting money from Clonsilla pre-receivership?

A. If he was I think it was for the boat, but that should have been coming from Hugh.

373. Q. Okay.

A. That would have been in the Hughniverse.

374. Q. Right. Who is Sandi McDavid? Do you know that name?

A. Sandi McDavid. I could be wrong on this but I think that might be his mother.

375. Q. Hugh's mother?

A. Yeah.

376. Q. Okay, but you're not sure.

A. To be perfectly honest I don't know her name. She is recent. She's recent -- Gave birth to the man sixty years ago, right? But he was adopted and it was just -- I'm gonna say maybe three years ago Meggan did that Ancestry DNA thing and they found a cousin who knew the story about Hugh --

377. Q. Okay.

A. -- being put up for adoption and they ended up finding his mother and so -- But I think that's her name. 'Cause I'd see birthday cards that would come in the mail.

378. Q. Right. Well, okay, assuming that's who it is, and I -- I take your evidence that you're not sure -- assuming that is his mother would there be any reason why she should be getting money from Clonsilla?

A. I think she gave a loan to Hugh.

379. Q. She may have given a loan? Okay, do you know how much?

A. I don't know. I just know I heard him on the phone talking to her that he was going to get her paid back.

380. Q. That's his mother.

A. I think that's his mother's name.

381. Q. Okay, and you haven't see any paper agreement or anything about that.

A. No.

382. Q. Okay.

A. Yeah, I'm pretty sure that's his -- See, there's a few people that he sent payments to that had loaned money for whatever reasons, and because I was always trying to find it out, but the Sandi McDavid, I'm pretty sure that's his mother's name. And I know that sounds awful but I really -- by the time she got into the picture I was really just trying to -- I don't want to know about your personal life, like --

383. Q. Rasto Beekmans is the next on --

A. That's Rasto Scasny.

384. Q. An aka for Mr. Scasny.

A. Yeah. When he -- Beekmans is his stepfather's name. When he came to Canada and his mother remarried he took his stepfather's name, and then just before Rasto got married he changed back to Scasny, which was his birth name.

385. Q. Okay.

A. But that's the same person.

386. Q. So am I right that if he's getting money from Clonsilla, which he did, it should have been through payroll. Would there be a reason for him to get money from Clonsilla outside of the payroll process?

A. Payroll -- His commission that he got from Hugh, that was always something they just always dealt with, and I was "Okay, guys, commissions have gotta be put in here. It's gotta get in here," like, you know? So I finally got them to let me put it into the system because he's -- he's gonna be taxed on that. He's gonna -- You know, there's gonna be all kinds of stuff with that.

I would -- I got them to try to put it into the system but then it never stuck. They would just change it back and start doin' it. Rasto said it was because Hugh didn't have the money to pay it on payroll days, he had to wait and get it when he got it sometimes through the month and then he'd pay him and catch him up.

I think -- I think, and don't hold me to this 'cause I'm just thinking, is that whatever the agreement was between them, they just didn't want me to be a part of it because I'd get really frustrated at the dollars that were flying over there and, you know, I'm watchin' him walk in to work at eleven o'clock and leave at three, and I'm there at seven o'clock in the morning and leaving at eight. You know?

387. Q. Yeah.

A. So I think they did that just so that I'd stop seeing it, because like Hugh was paying his phone bills and his vehicles and his maintenance and his car insurance, and like I don't know why. But it was a lot.

Now, that being said, after all this happened I found out that Rasto and his family had loaned a bunch of money to Hugh, but they were smart and they put liens on houses and whatever. But I don't know what the dollars were or the agreement of how it was to be paid back, and maybe this was all part of it but I don't know.

388. Q. Okay. As far as commissions go did they -- did they let you in enough to know like how often he was supposed to be paid? Like was it every month he was supposed to get --

A. I think it was based on a month and if you -- if he -- he would get so much per deal and then if he got so many deals he would get a bonus. But I don't know what the numbers were for that.

389. Q. Okay.

A. Yeah, it was none of my business 'cause it wasn't my payroll.

390. Q. Other than what we've just talked about is there any other reason you can think of why Rasto should be getting paid from Clonsilla?

A. I know he did loan money to them.

391. Q. Right, so there's the loan, there's commissions, there's regular payroll. Anything else?

A. No. That would be it that I know of. Oh, I think Rasto bought a brand new vehicle that Clonsilla was making the payments on because after six months it was supposed to be able to go on the lot and be sold, but because it was some family and friends deal at the dealership it had to stay in their name for six months. So I think he was making the payments on that car, but that was -- then this all crashed and Rasto got stuck with the car.

392. Q. So just so I understand that, the -- like Rasto got a deal on a car because it was like a family and friends discount --

A. Yeah.

393. Q. -- but it had to stay in his name for six months in order to get that discount --

A. Yeah.

394. Q. -- and the idea was he was gonna transfer it --

A. Then he --

395. Q. -- to Clonsilla.

A. -- would sell it to Clonsilla and Clonsilla would be able to put it out for sale.

396. Q. Okay. Do you know what kind of car that was?

A. Don't know. It was white.

397. Q. Right. Virginia Hamilton. Do you know who that is?

A. I know that was somebody that he had to make payments to but I don't know -- Again, I know he -- she -- she either loaned him money or paid for something and he had to pay her back and -- 'Cause she -- she would get weird numbers and then I think it went to where they made an agreement they were going to do it over so many months and got so much per month and finally got her paid off.

398. Q. Okay. She definitely didn't work for Clonsilla.

A. God, no.

399. Q. So --

A. I never met her. I just saw her name.

400. Q. There's some sort of loan agreement.

A. Yeah.

401. Q. But you don't know the details of it.

A. I did find out that pretty much if you could pick a name out of a hat, Hugh somehow convinced everybody in the world to give him money. And I don't know how that happened but --

402. Q. Okay, that may be some of these other names too. I've got Cheryl Ambrose on my list. Do you know who that is?

A. That's Nancy's friend.

403. Q. Okay, any reason why she should be getting money from Clonsilla that you can think of?

A. I know when Skip -- her husband was Skip Ambrose and he had -- you know the Kawartha Downs Racetrack Slots, that was his -- one of his many businesses. But when he died she had given Hugh a bunch of stuff to sell for her. There was like a car, a little Smart Car. You know, maybe a little Smart Car and I don't know what all there was but there was stuff that she had given to Hugh to sell for her. So I don’t know if that -- 404. Q. Is that recent? Like is that 2023, 2022 time?

A. Yes. Yeah.

405. Q. Okay, so she may have given him a car to sell for her and then --

A. I think it was two different cars and I -- I don't know what else.

406. Q. Okay.

A. I know there was a bunch of stuff that came in and Hugh wanted me to list it up on Marketplace and I said "I don't have time for that but I will donate it gladly for you." So I took it all to the donation.

407. Q. So she never worked for Clonsilla.

A. No.

408. Q. Any other reason you can think of why she should get money from Clonsilla or that's it?

A. That's all I know of.

409. Q. Sarah Rabinovitz. Do you know who that is?

A. Must be Jackie's daughter. Hmm?

410. Q. Do you know for sure?

A. I want to say it's Jackie's daughter.

411. Q. Okay.

A. I'm pretty sure I've heard her talk about her daughter Sarah was over doing the reports or whatever.

412. Q. Any reason you can think of why Clonsilla should be paying -- paying money to Sarah?

A. I'm -- I would be guessing 'cause I didn't know that they were paying her any money. It was either to reimburse her for something she bought for Velocity or she was working for Velocity.

413. Q. Okay, I also have a name on here, Aaron Rabinovitz, it's a-a-r-o-n. Do you know who that is?

A. I think that's Jackie's son.

414. Q. That would be the son?

A. Her husband's name is Stan, so that's -- Aaron and Sarah, I think those are her kids.

415. Q. Any reason you can think of why he should be getting money from Clonsilla?

A. I don't think I've ever heard of him doing anything. But I don't know that again 'cause -- you know.

416. Q. Ian Anderson.

A. That's Hugh's new brother.

417. Q. Okay, so when he tracked down his -- his birth mom she had another son --

A. Yeah.

418. Q. -- that's Ian Anderson?

A. Yeah.

419. Q. Any reason you can think of why he should be getting money from Clonsilla?

A. He works there. He does maintenance and he buildings and does stuff around.

420. Q. Okay, should he be getting paid through payroll or should he be getting -- would you expect to see him getting money other -- otherwise?

A. I wouldn't put him on payroll 'cause not all of his work was done at Clonsilla.

421. Q. Explain that to me. What do you mean by that?

A. A lot of his work was done at Hugh's house.

422. Q. For Clonsilla or just for Hugh?

A. Well, Hugh's house had nothing to do with the business. We didn't sell cars from there, we didn't -- You know.

423. Q. Okay, so you're -- what you're saying is Ian was doing work but it was more for Hugh personally and so if it was up to you, you wouldn't have put Ian on the Clonsilla --

A. I didn't. He was on the -- he was in the Hughniverse pile.

424. Q. Okay. Did Ian loan money to Clonsilla as far as you know?

A. Not that I know of but I don't know for sure.

425. Q. Okay. Richard --

A. Not what I've ever heard.

426. Q. Richard Deslauriers. Do you know who that is?

A. I've seen his name and I don't know why he was getting paid. I just was told that it was -- just process it and I would move it to the Hughniverse 'cause if I don't know why then --

427. Q. Okay, so Hugh told you to just process it and don't ask him questions about it.

A. Basically, yeah. I've seen the name a hundred times.

428. Q. Okay, but no reason you know of why Clonsilla should be paying him.

A. I don't know -- I know -- I know there's somebody that did the mortgages for like Taylor's house or others, but I don’t know which ones are him or --

429. Q. But that wouldn't be Clonsilla anyway, right?

A. No, it shouldn't be.

430. Q. Dave McClelland?

A. Dave McClelland was Meggan's ex that she had the gym with.

431. Q. Meggan Waddell's ex.

A. Yes. Who is now the best friend of current fiancé.

432. Q. Sounds complicated.

A. Oh, you have no idea.

433. Q. Any reason you can think of why Dave should be getting money from Clonsilla?

A. Dave, he has gone out and done repos and done pickups for Hugh. Like, you know, if he needs something picked up he'll go out and do that. It's not very often but he has done it.

434. Q. Okay, if he was doing money like -- sorry, if he was doing work like that would he be getting paid through the payroll?

A. No, because he would -- he might do a repo today and not do another one for four months.

435. Q. So it was just like a --

A. It's a random --

436. Q. It's a one-off.

A. Yeah.

437. Q. Almost like contracts to go do that --

A. Yeah.

438. Q. -- one thing. Okay, but in 2023, 2022 you'd say that's not happening very often.

A. Not very often at all.

439. Q. Okay.

A. So if he was getting money then I don't know whether it was money he was owed from the gym or something. I don't know 'cause --

440. Q. Okay, what about Thomas Sargeant?

A. That's Meggan's fiancé.

441. Q. That's the best friend that --

A. Yeah.

442. Q. Any reason why he would be getting paid money from Clonsilla?

A. He was -- he did get licenced and he was supposed to be coming in to be a salesperson but that didn't really pan out.

443. Q. So any reason you can think of why he would be getting money?

A. No.

444. Q. Okay. Bryan Buzzell?

A. Bryan is the most wonderful, kind, generous, sweetheart of a man that you'll ever meet in your life and I love him to death. He -- he originally -- when I started there he was just Hugh's handyman and worked around -- when he lived in town worked around his properties and did cleanup, yard work, whatever.

And then maybe some -- I don't even know for sure but probably sometime in '22 he started coming in to do some detailing and cleaning up around the garage and --

445. Q. Okay.

A. Yeah.

446. Q. So he did work for Clonsilla?

A. He did absolutely.

447. Q. Any reason why he wouldn't be paid through payroll?

A. Because Hugh said it was private and personal and he would pay him himself. I said "Why is the cheque written from Clonsilla?" But --

448. Q. Okay, but I thought -- When you say like he was doing detailing and stuff like that --

A. Yeah.

449. Q. -- that was work for Clonsilla.

A. Yeah. Well, for the garage, yeah.

450. Q. That's for Clonsilla, right?

A. Yeah, absolutely.

451. Q. Okay, but your evidence is that Hugh told you "Don't worry about that. I'm just gonna pay him outside of payroll."

A. [Witness nods]

452. Q. So you're nodding your head but just --

A. Oh, yes. Sorry, yes. No, I wasn't allowed to put him on payroll. Yes.

453. Q. Jason Outhwaite?

A. He was a driver.

454. Q. So a driver for Clonsilla? Like --

A. Yeah, he would go and pick up cars that we brought and bring them down to take them up to the auctions and --

455. Q. Okay. Any -- any reason why he wouldn't be on the payroll?

A. 'Cause he wouldn’t let me put him on payroll.

456. Q. He wouldn't let you put him on payroll. Okay, and so if I see transfers to him, which I do, from Clonsilla, that's for work he was doing --

A. Yes.

457. Q. -- for Clonsilla?

A. And every single one of those has an invoice 'cause I made sure if there was going to be payments there had to be documentation of why the payments went through. So I made the driver's provide invoices and I made Bryan provide invoices.

458. Q. Okay, so was it the same for Bryan?

A. Yeah, Bryan has invoices too.

459. Q. He'll have invoices for that as well. Marion Shapiro?

A. That's Gerald's wife.

460. Q. Okay, any reason why she should be getting money from Clonsilla?

A. I know pieces, I don’t know it all. I know Gerald had loaned Hugh money and has been struggling to get it back. And I think that was part of that.

461. Q. You may not know this but why -- why wouldn't the money just be going to Gerald? Why would -- why would it be sent to Marion if --

A. I think -- and I don’t know this, okay? I'm just -- my gut feeling is because Gerald did it without Marion knowing and she was upset and wanted to make sure it got paid back, and so she's got her finger on the pulse now that it happened.

462. Q. Okay.

A. That's just my gut feeling. I don't know that but -- 'Cause I don't think Marion would give Hugh a dime.

463. Q. She didn't work for Clonsilla.

A. No.

464. Q. Okay.

A. Now, she used to do paperwork and stuff for Gerald back in the day but I don't know what that involved and stuff. But that was just part of Gerald's job. He would take it home and she would help him with it.

465. Q. Northbridge Estates, you talked about that a little bit earlier. Did it loan money to Clonsilla?

A. I believe that it did but I don't know whether it was Northbridge's money or if it was the money that people loaned because for whatever reason Hugh would get the money and lots of times put it in Northbridge and then he would transfer it from Northbridge into Clonsilla.

466. Q. Is --

A. I don't understand that but I'm not -- Maybe there's a tax reason that they did it or whatever. I don't know, I just -- If you're just gonna loan money to Clonsilla just put it in Clonsilla. Like just -- I don't know.

467. Q. Who are the people behind Northbridge?

A. Nancy Waddell.

468. Q. So it's Nancy's company. Is Hugh part of --

A. I'm sure he's got a piece of it but she's always maintained that it's hers and he's -- keep his mitts away from her stuff.

469. Q. Okay, and so if I asked you -- It gets money from Clonsilla, I can see that from the bank statements. If I asked you why is it getting money from Clonsilla, what would your answer be?

A. I know the business -- like Northbridge owns the building and I think they pay rent to it. I don't know whether there was money in that -- if they did loan it maybe there was money for payments back, I don't know.

470. Q. Okay. Excuse me. There's a company called Auto Loans.

A. I think that's Jackie's company.

471. Q. I think it is too. Did it loan money -- so did she loan money through Auto Loans to Clonsilla?

A. Over the years she used to -- I think it was the floor planning. She would -- Like if you bought a car they would pay for it and then he would pay her payments until he sold or leased it and then paid them off.

Then she had gone -- Just before the receivership happened she had paid Hugh -- Her understanding was that she was buying the leases, that they now were hers. Hugh had told me that she was our funder so I just thought that was funding like everybody else was funding, but apparently it wasn't, it was supposed to be her ownership of the leases. But I processed them as if they were just a funder 'cause that's all I knew to do.

472. Q. Okay, I'm just gonna move on to Glortran Consulting. It's g-l-o-r-t-r-a-n consulting. Have you ever heard of that company?

A. I have, and oddly enough it was just a few months ago that it was stickin' in my head and I asked Gerald "What the hell's that?" It's Gerald -- it's Gerald's company.

473. Q. Gerald's company?

A. Yeah.

474. Q. Do you know why it would be getting money from Clonsilla?

A. I don't if maybe that's where the loan is through. I don't know.

475. Q. Okay.

A. Yeah, he goes "Well, how could -- how did not know that after all these years?" And I said "Well, I don't know. I've never really paid attention and didn't know what it meant." But it's -- His kids are Gloria and Tristan so apparently that's how it became.

476. Q. Okay, and then there was another recipient of money called Go To Loans, three words, Go, To, Loans.

A. M'hm.

477. Q. Have you ever heard of that before?

A. I have.

478. Q. Okay, do you know why it would be getting money from Clonsilla?

A. Because our courts are ridiculous. That's why. Yum-yum-yum-yum-yum. First term on any lease in Ontario made by the Government of Ontario and enforced is that anybody who leases a vehicle cannot go out and use that vehicle as collateral to obtain a loan for anything because they don't own the vehicle.

479. Q. Right.

A. So they're not allowed to put a lien on that vehicle for anything they borrow. Go To Loans allows people to do that. They can, you know, have a $6,000 motor repair or whatever, get a new transmission, they'll give them -- they'll pay the garage and then do this Go To Loan, which is ridiculous, like 29, 39, 49 percent interest depending on the customer. It's absolutely ridiculous. And then put a lien on the vehicle. Okay?

We fought them because they would do it. We'd tell them "You can't do this," but they would go ahead and do it anyway and then when they don't make their payments to Go To Loans, Go To Loans will repossess the vehicle. And then for us to get the vehicle back we had to pay their loan --

480. Q. Oh, I see, okay.

A. -- to get the car back. So we literally went to court, fought them, and the courts went "Well, you know, it's all business and you guys need to figure this out yourself. We're just gonna leave it as it is."

So Go To Loans would have been paid out on behalf of customers' loans that they made on vehicles they leased. As far as I know there was no other -- nobody else.

481. Q. Thank you, that clears it up for me. There's a company called J&S Concrete that got funds from Clonsilla. Do you know what that company is?

A. Yes. John -- I can't think of his last name. Anyway, he is a concrete guy. He did the floor in the garage. I think he did work at Hugh's house too but --

482. Q. Okay, so that was going to be my question. Was there -- there was concrete work done at the dealership or the garage?

A. All kinds of it, yeah. That whole garage floor had to be repoured. Like apparently -- well, not apparently, I actually saw it. When they lifted up the floor when they were moving the garage there, there was like literally -- You know how you go into an oil change place and they have the pits in the bottom? Like there were pits underneath the floor that were back there so they had to tear that all out, lift the building, put new forms and fill that whole floor in.

483. Q. When about would that have been, do you know?

A. July, August.

484. Q. Of?

A. '23. Prior to that I think he was working at the farm.

485. Q. The farm's Hugh's personal residence.

A. [Witness nods]

486. Q. Okay. There's another recipient down there called PD Roofing. Do you know what company that is?

A. Pat, Pat, Pat, Pat, Pat -- Pat something. He did the roof on the garage.

487. Q. Of Clonsilla's --

A. Yes.

488. Q. -- premises? Okay.

A. And then I think he did the roof when the wind took the stuff -- the tiles off. Like on the building, the front building.

489. Q. Do you know when about that would have been?

A. I want to say the roof had to be sometime last summer. Like sometime before the garage moved in. I don't know exactly.

490. Q. Do you know did he do any work for Hugh's personal residence too?

A. Not that I know of but I don't know.

491. Q. Okay. Do you need to take a break at all? Is everybody okay? Are you okay?

A. I'm okay.

MR. MCGRATH: Madam reporter, are you okay to continue?

THE REPORTER: Could we take five minutes?

MR. MCGRATH: Yeah.

Off the record at 12:10 p.m.

On the record at 12:21 p.m.

BY MR. MCGRATH:

492. Q. Ms Jacobs, I've just passed you a brief. It just has some bank statements from the RBC account we talked about this morning, and I have some questions. I think you've probably answered my questions in what we've just gone through but I just want to confirm a couple of points --

A. Sure.

493. Q. -- with you and I'll try not to belabour the points. So the first person we talked about was Nancy Waddell, and so if you flip up to Tab A, just look at the first page you'll see it says April 27th, 2023 to May 26th, 2023.

So first of all, the bank statement's addressed to the numbered company that is Clonsilla. Would you have seen the bank statements when they came in? Would they go to your attention or Hugh's or --

A. No, I would pull them out when I had to do like HSTs or that.

494. Q. And "pull them out" is like physically they'd be in a file somewhere and you'd pull out the file?

A. I know he had copies of them but I never -- I could never get them all in one place, so I would have to get him to sign me into the banking and print them.

495. Q. Okay, so you'd pull them out from the --

A. Yeah.

496. Q. -- website.

A. I'd keep my own copies in my own world.

497. Q. Understood. Okay, if you look onto the second page, so it should say 2 of 28 at the bottom.

A. Okay.

498. Q. And the date's May 1st and I see there's several transfers but one of them is Nancy Waddell for $1,000. Do you see that?

A. Yeah.

499. Q. So do you know why she would be getting a thousand dollars on May 1st, 2023?

A. I couldn't say for sure.

500. Q. And even if we stay within this same statement, if you go to Page 7 of 28, May 11th you will see there are more e-transfers, one for $500 and one for a thousand to Nancy Waddell. Do you see that?

A. Yeah.

501. Q. Any explanation for why she was -- would be getting those payments?

A. I don't know.

502. Q. So when I see e-transfers --

A. I have never gotten an invoice or a statement from her or anything to say that it should be paid to her.

503. Q. Understood. I thought that would be your answer, I just wanted to make sure.

When I see e-transfers sent, who is the one who is making that e-transfer? Is that Hugh --

A. Hugh.

504. Q. -- going in and -- Okay. Would you ever make e-transfers from this account?

A. I never made one.

505. Q. Okay, and as far as you know would anybody else other than Hugh be making e-transfers from this account?

A. Not that I'm aware of.

506. Q. Okay. There are several other transfers to Nancy Waddell if we go through these statements --

A. I have nothing to document why, and that's why all of hers went into the Hughniverse.

507. Q. Understood. Sara I think is probably different but she's got some here too I just want to ask you a couple of questions about. That same tab, so we're still in Tab A. If you go to Page 4 of 28 at the bottom, and there's a May 3rd and then its about two thirds of the way down May 3rd there's an online transfer sent to Sara Waddell for $2,349. Do you see that?

A. Yes.

508. Q. Do you have an explanation for why she would be getting that transfer?

A. I think is for one of the loans that -- I think she got that amount monthly 'cause Sara did up like an amortization schedule and said "I'll give you this much money and this is how much you're gonna pay me back every month."

509. Q. If you go to the next page, Page 5 of 28, so we just looked at May 3rd and now I'll go to May 5th. You'll see there was another online transfer sent to Sara Waddell for the same amount, 2349. So it's kind of what you're talking about --

A. Yeah, but --

510. Q. -- but it's --

A. -- back in April he might not pay her.

511. Q. Right, so as far as you know that might be just catching up on --

A. I would think so.

512. Q. Okay. If you go to Page 6 of 28 there is an e-transfer -- on May 8th there's an e-transfer auto deposit Sara Waddell. So it was a deposit $675.56. Do you see that?

A. Yeah.

513. Q. Do you know why that would be there?

A. Not a clue.

514. Q. Okay.

A. I don't think I saw very many of anything like that. That would have been kind of an anomaly of her, putting in small amounts like that.

515. Q. Okay, and there are many more examples. There's another one on May 12th of her getting another $2,349. That's on Page 8 of 28. Same amount but again it's the third one in the first -- within nine days. But your answer's the same: as far as you know, this is just regular repayments of her loan and maybe she hadn't been paid for a couple of months.

A. Yeah. That happened a lot where they didn't get paid and Sara would be on the phone "Hey. Hey. Hey. Hey. Hey." I don't blame her. It's a lot of money.

516. Q. Okay, there are many more of those payments to Sara for that regular amount, that amount shows up a lot.

A. M'hm.

517. Q. And so can -- Is it fair for me to assume that your answer would be the same for all of them, that you think that she's just being repaid for a loan.

A. Yeah. There's -- there's that one. I think there's another one too that -- I don’t know whether it was before or after when -- I think she's got two different amounts from two different sets of loans, but it'd be the same amount each time.

518. Q. Okay. Taylor shows up on these a lot, sort of more that most others. An example is May 8th. Yeah, it's actually one of the cheques on May 8th. So there's -- You'll see a cheque 38344 for $700. If you go the bank of the statement that was actually written to Taylor. You can look at it if you want. So it's on Page 20 of 28, there's a cheque to Taylor Waddell for $700. There are many, many more of them sort of regular payments. Do you have any information that you can help us with for why he would be getting these payments from the Clonsilla account?

A. I couldn't speak to any of the individual numbers. It's my understanding he's just getting back money that he had put in.

519. Q. Okay.

A. Now, there are some where Taylor's written cheques and it says on the bottom "Taylor" so I don't know whether Hugh would have invoices for what he did to earn that, but I don't have that.

520. Q. Okay, so certainly this one we're looking at --

A. No, that's just --

521. Q. -- doesn't -- doesn't have anything in that --

A. If it's an even amount like that I would think that it's just he needed $700.

522. Q. If I ask you to flip to the last tab of this brief, so Tab F as in Frank, and then Page 6 of 25 within that tab, this has the statement from September 27th to October 27th. On October 11th you'll see the third entry there is an e-transfer to Meghan Archer for $500.

So we talked about that. As far as you know, no reason why Meghan should be getting money from Clonsilla, right?

A. Anything that I saw with Meghan's name on it I just moved that under Taylor's tab 'cause I figured probably they needed $300 and he sent it to Meghan instead of Taylor 'cause maybe Taylor was off hunting or something. But all for Meghan I made sure I put her under Taylor.

523. Q. So moving on then, if I could ask you to turn to Tab E -- sorry, Tab C, which should be June 27th to July 27th.

A. M'hm.

524. Q. If you go to -- It's actually -- You'll pull up a cheque. It's Page 21 of 26. Cheque 38465 is to Gerald Shapiro for $600. There are a few of these, so why would Gerald be getting a cheque from Clonsilla? Do you know?

A. Again, I think -- I think he had loaned Hugh money off his credit card and Hugh had to pay him monthly for a credit card bill because he didn't pay it off, he'd just pay him whatever the interest was. Like it was like 10,000 or 20,000 or something he put on a credit card for him.

525. Q. Okay, so if I see other payments to -- I'm just trying to short circuit this a little bit but if I see other payments to Gerald Shapiro from Clonsilla, that would be your consistent answer you'd give as --

A. The $600 I think was a repayment of money he'd borrowed from Hugh -- from Gerald. But there was another one that was his money that he got as his whatever, like his retirement or pension or whatever you want to call it.

526. Q. Okay, just bear with me for one -- one second. Oh, I have maybe more of a question. If you could go to -- flip to Tab D, please --

A. Yeah.

527. Q. -- which is July 27th to August 25th. If I look at Page 13 of 27 at the bottom two cheques there are to -- looks to be made out to M. Shapiro.

A. That's Marion.

528. Q. And -- So that's Marion. So is this what you were talking about earlier, this is perhaps also repayment of a loan?

A. It could be repayment of a loan or it could be the -- like the retirement payment. I don't know what the -- those numbers are.

529. Q. Do you know how much he was getting repaid for the retirement payment?

A. I would have years ago -- a year ago, but I honestly can't remember.

530. Q. Do you know a ballpark how much we're talking about?

A. I want to say it's like $500 or $600.

531. Q. Okay. If we stay in that tab --

A. Five-something I think, and then I think the $600 payments were for the credit card loan.

532. Q. Okay.

A. I think it's like 500 and something. I don't know. It would be a monthly thing you would see every month. Or biweekly maybe, I don't know.

533. Q. I think I see $600 cheques going to him July, August, September, and October.

A. Yeah, I think the six -- I think the even number was towards the credit card debt, like for to pay the interest and whatever is on the credit card. And then there was -- it was 500-something, maybe it was 600 and something, I don't know, but it was a different amount but it was the same amount every time.

534. Q. That's for the retirement payment.

A. Yeah.

535. Q. Fair to say you're not sure? I mean this is just --

A. I wouldn't swear to it but that's my God's honest -- I believe it.

536. Q. Can you --

A. I can tell you that's what I believe it is.

537. Q. Can I ask you to flip back to Tab A, please.

A. Yeah.

538. Q. And Page 11 of 28, May 19th about four or five lines down you see the transfer to Paul Shapiro for a thousand dollars?

A. Yeah.

539. Q. Any explanation you can think of for why he would be getting that payment?

A. Not a clue.

540. Q. Same answer for -- there are three other payments he received in these statements. If I took you to each one you'd just say you're --

A. I have --

541. Q. -- not sure.

A. -- no idea.

542. Q. Okay, if we can stay within this tab then and go to May 3rd, which is Page 4 of 28. About five lines down there's -- that's Sandi McDavid for $770.

A. M'hm.

543. Q. That's who you -- best guess you think is his mother?

A. I think it's his mother.

544. Q. And your best information is that that might be a repayment of a loan.

A. I know she lent money to him because he was stressing really hard about not being able to pay her back when he was supposed to because it was a new relationship and he borrowed money from her.

545. Q. Yeah, she gets -- she gets pretty regular payments every month for around $770 so would that be your answer to each one of those --

A. I believe it would be. Is there any deposits from Sandi McDavid?

546. Q. I don't think so, although I --

A. It probably would have come through.

547. Q. So you don't remember seeing any deposits from Sandi McDavid yourself?

A. I don't -- I never saw one but that doesn't mean it wasn't there. It's just 'cause sometimes it'll say "deposit" and he could have wired it from his own account or from -- I don't know why he put it into his own or Northbridge before he sent it to Clonsilla. I don't know why that happened but there's a lot of stuff that -- you know, Sara would send money to him and he would put it in his account or in Northbridge and then it would go to Clonsilla.

It was really hard because the numbers don't always match up so trying to make a trail of all the pieces, I couldn't always make the trail.

548. Q. If I could ask you to flip to Tab B --

A. Okay.

549. Q. -- as in Bob, and the last page of that tab, Page 26 of 26, at the very bottom there's a cheque to Mr. Scasny for $95,000. Do you have any information about why he would be receiving that money?

A. I don't know the numbers off hand, but because I was in the office and I could hear things I know Rasto had loaned him a bunch of money that was supposed to be "As soon as we get our new funder in place and as soon as the HST comes in you'll get it right back, you'll get it right back," and I -- I think that was just a piece of what he owed to Rasto. Because I know when this all happened he still owed Rasto a lot of money.

550. Q. Okay, so to the best of your knowledge that's a repayment of a loan to him.

A. As far as I know.

551. Q. Now, he is getting very regular payments as well. If you flip back to Page 24 of 26 you'll see another cheque to Mr. Scasny for -- it's the second one on that page, it's $3,554. There are a lot of payments like that around that amount.

A. I think that's his commission, which is why it was really hard to sit at my desk and watch him only come into the office for a few hours a day. But I think that's why he didn't mind doin' all of Hugh's paperwork because if he did the paperwork he got it on his sales list, so --

552. Q. So I can take you to them if you -- if you want but -- you know, if I'm looking at money that Mr. Scasny received -- you know, on June 9th he gets two payments, one for 2,200 and one for 3,500. On June 19th he gets another 3,500. On June 23rd he gets 300. They're -- It's not like a regular monthly --

A. No, they're not.

553. Q. -- payment.

A. -- but this is your -- This is in '23?

554. Q. This is in '23.

A. Okay, 'cause in all of '23 he was so far behind in payments to people that he -- Rasto was hammering really hard, like "You've got to get me caught up. You've got to get my pay. You've got to get my pay." And then that's when Rasto came and said "We shoulda just left it in payroll. At least then I would get it." "Yes. Yes, you should have."

Well, I shouldn't say he was getting it then because Rasto maybe was supposed to be getting, you know, a deposit for $5,000 and he would send him 2,000 and then he'd give him $800 next week or whatever. And me trying to track all the payments that he did or didn't get or whatever it was -- it was absolutely --

But the whole past -- like last year, I'm -- I want to say that I would be willing to swear to it that Rasto was never paid up on his -- like for his -- He got his payroll money but if -- like his commissions and -- that was never caught up for a long time.

So there's probably times where there was hammers 'cause Rasto's freakin' out, and he'd pay him a bunch of money when he got it and then it would go again for a long time -- you know, a month or two and then he would hammer him again.

555. Q. But that 95,000, there's no way that's for a commission --

A. No, no, I -- I mean that --

556. Q. -- that's --

A. That's part of a loan, I'm sure. Like that's never gonna be part of anything to do with the sales.

557. Q. If I could ask you to flip back to the first tab, Tab A, and Page 9 of 28.

A. I can ask him. I could text him and ask him about it.

558. Q. No, that's fine. I think I'll probably be asking him what it was. So you should see May 15th at the top?

A. Okay.

559. Q. Second line is to Virginia Hamilton for $4,583. Any idea why she would be getting that -- that money?

A. She -- she -- I know she had money and I don't know whether it was to Clonsilla or to Hugh himself or whatever. I know he owed her money and had to pay her.

560. Q. Yeah, she does get really regular payments. I mean May 15th, May 24th, June 13th, June 22nd, July 11th and --

A. Yeah.

561. Q. -- then so on and so on every two weeks. So as far as you know that's to repay a loan.

A. I believe so. That's what I was told so -- And I believe it was because I remember seeing something where she was having a "You need to pay me now." You know, he had to set something up where it was so much and it was bigger payments. I don't know whether he paid them though.

562. Q. Cheryl Ambrose gets money on May 24th and I think it was a cheque; I'll just check. Yeah, it is.

So on Page 27 of 28, same tab, we're at Tab A, second cheque is a cheque to Cheryl Ambrose for $15,000 May 24th. Any idea why she's getting that money?

A. I couldn't honestly say that I know what that is for. I know she had given him stuff to sell for her --

563. Q. This was the --

A. -- husband.

564. Q. -- Smart Car?

A. Yeah, and he might have borrowed from her too. I don't know. He borrowed from everybody, apparently. I think there was another car but I can't remember what it was.

565. Q. Yeah, she gets one other payment during the time that we're talking about in August. There it is. So if you go to Tab D, and then Page 23 of 27, bottom of the page she gets another cheque for $10,000 in August.

A. M'hm.

566. Q. So that's $25,000 that's she's received in these few months. So as far as you're aware that's because she gave Mr. Waddell cars to sell?

A. I think it was cars. I -- I don't know what else. It might have been other things 'cause I know after Skip died she was struggling really hard trying to get -- There was so much stuff and he was involved in so many different businesses and stuff. But I don't --

I know he was selling stuff for her and I would think that that's probably it but those are pretty round numbers so I don't know whether she lent him money.

It's probably none of my business but did she put a claim in that she owed -- that Clonsilla owed her money or anything?

567. Q. I don't know the answer to that question.

A. 'Cause I don't know. 'Cause maybe he borrowed money from her too. I don't know that. Those are pretty round numbers.

568. Q. Did she give -- As far as you know did she give -- Imagine it was cars. Did she give the cars to Clonsilla to sell or was Hugh doing it? Like were they on the lot being sold or --

A. They were on the lot. I don't believe that they were -- Like they weren't cars to lease or anything like that because they needed so much work. They were just sittin' there.

569. Q. Did you see paperwork selling them to anybody? Would that have gone through the office?

A. I think the Smart Car went through the receivership but I don't -- I'm sure there was another something, either a car or a boat or something. I don't know. There was something else.

570. Q. Okay.

A. I would like to think that he must have paid her back because it's Nancy's friend, like they've been friends for a million years. Like --

571. Q. Tab C, which is June 27th to July 27th, Page 9 of 26, second line after July 14th it -- you can see there's one of the transfers to Sarah Rabinovitz for $333. And again, I think we already went over this but you're not sure why that transfer went --

A. I've never seen anything to say that she -- I got no invoices from her or -- I don't know but in know I have heard Jackie say that Sarah was helping her with stuff.

572. Q. With the Velocity --

A. Yeah, getting the program set up or whatever.

573. Q. And the Aaron Rabinovitz one is the next tab, Tab D, Page 7 of 27. So it should say August 11th at the top and about four lines down it's Aaron Rabinovitz for $2,000.

A. I have no idea.

574. Q. You don't know why he would be getting that money, correct?

A. No.

575. Q. Ian Anderson --

A. But I am a little bit perturbed right now 'cause I see this Aaron Rabinovitz got $2,000 and yet I only got $1,200 and he still owed me thousands of dollars at that time. So now I want to know why Aaron got my money.

576. Q. Yeah, well, I'm just gonna let that go because I can't explain it.

A. Okay, but here's -- here's the really sad piece of this, 'kay? So this is August 11th, 'kay? Payroll is goin' through. That $1,200 -- I believe that was $1,200 that was actually e-transferred to me to give to my sister because she doesn't have e-transfer. She -- Her bank account is like a Money Mart thing, so she -- he transferred it to me so I could give it to her and I didn't get a pay, right? That's August 11th.

On August the 14th my daughter walked into the building and handed me $3,000 and said "Mom, you're -- you just work too hard, you do too much. I'm gonna give you $3,000 and I want you to go and do something for yourself. Go and just do something, buy something just for you. Nobody else can have this."

Within an hour -- I swear to God he could smell it -- he came down freakin' out because he had a payment he had to make and he was short, and I handed it to him. And it took me months to get -- I didn't even get it all back. Never told my daughter.

577. Q. That's awful. So how much money sitting here right now do you think -- Are you still owed money by Hugh?

A. Oh, yeah.

578. Q. How much do you think you're owed?

A. Oh, tens of thousands of dollars. I got paid for 40 hours a week and I averaged 55, and all of those hours were banked because when the HST got cleared and when the new funding came clear I was gonna get it all back. That didn't happen.

579. Q. Right, and did you ever loan him money separately? Like so that's --

A. Just that one time.

580. Q. Just as one --

A. Yeah.

581. Q. -- example, the $3,000.

A. Yeah.

582. Q. Okay, and that didn't get repaid back.

A. He still owes me like $300 of it.

583. Q. Okay. Ian Anderson gets pretty regular payments. I can show you one starting at Tab A, Ms Jacobs. May 2nd, so Page 3 of 28 at that Tab A. About four lines -- Sorry. So at about the four lines down on May 2nd you'll see an e-transfer to Ian Anderson for 1,100 and change.

A. M'hm.

584. Q. That's his brother, you said, right?

A. Yeah.

585. Q. Is there any plausible explanation why Clonsilla should be paying Ian Anderson this money that you know?

A. Well, he could have been working on the garage at that time but I -- I wouldn't know what that work was for because I don't -- honestly I don't have it in my memory of when he was working at the garage and when he was working at the farm.

586. Q. So on Page 6 of 28, the same tab, the very last line has another e-transfer to him for 1295 and I can tell you there are others, May 23rd, May 30th, June 12th, June 21st, July 4th, July 17th. So is it -- is your evidence that you just don't know whether that's paying him for work he's doing for Clonsilla or whether it's for some other reason?

A. Yeah. Well, it's -- it would be either Clonsilla or for the farm because he's working back and forth --

587. Q. Okay.

A. -- all the time. Sometimes we'd have to wait for something at the garage because he was at the farm or the farm'd have to wait 'cause he was working for us.

588. Q. Was that constant or were there periods of time when he was only working at Clonsilla?

A. Yeah, there were times when he was there every day for, you know, weeks, 'cause he did the whole interior of the building, the raising and -- like he did a lot of work there.

589. Q. Yeah. Can you remember -- I know we're asking like over a year ago now but like in -- He's getting these payments in May, June, and July of 2023. Do you remember if he was at the --

A. I would say a lot of those was at the garage because they were supposed to move in in August and there was a lot of work that was done back there and they didn't get in 'til like September.

590. Q. And so remind me why wouldn't he be put on the payroll for that time? Was that Hugh didn't want him on the --

A. No.

591. Q. -- payroll? Sorry, I didn't --

A. No, sorry. He -- he just said that he was dealing with Ian it was not part of my world.

592. Q. Okay. Can I ask you to flip, please, to Page 14 of 28, same -- same tab. May 25th about halfway down there's -- one of the transfers to Richard Deslauriers for $2,222. I think we've said no reason that you -- you're aware of for why he would be getting transfers?

A. I don't know that I could say for a thousand percent positive but I'm pretty sure he was somebody who had a mortgage on something, one of the properties or something. I think he had -- he was -- a mortgage or a loan or something like that.

593. Q. Okay, so there should be something in writing if that's true.

A. I would think there is. I would hope but I don't -- I don't -- I've never seen it my own self. I always put Richard's payments in the Hughniverse.

594. Q. Yeah, he only -- I think he only -- For these six months that we're looking at I think he only got two payments, one May 25th and one May 30th, so it's not -- doesn't look like one of those regular ones. So I don't know if that helps you at all in trying to --

A. Well, that's the thing, is come up to May, June,

July, like there -- he literally was scrambling trying to find any money anywhere. So I don't know whether he paid him -- Like I don't know. I just know his name is on a lot of bank records for a lot of years.

595. Q. If I could ask you to flip to Tab E, please. Page 2 of 25. This is August 25th to September 27th, and you'll see August 29th there's a transfer to Dave McClelland for $440. This was Meggan Waddell's ex, right? Any reason why he would be getting this --

A. I believe that that was for the driving that he did. He had to go -- I think this is when he went -- he had to drive to Florida to pick up a car and bring it back.

596. Q. Okay, would there be an invoice for that if that was paid, do you know? You're not sure.

A. I don't know. I would have asked for an invoice but whether or not Hugh actually got it or not I don't know.

597. Q. Thomas Sargeant gets $300 in May. Would that be a similar thing, he might have done -- Was Thomas a -- Sorry, you'll have to remind me. Was he a driver as well?

A. No, he's Meggan's fiancé.

598. Q. Oh, he's the new fiancé. Did he do -- did he do any work for Clonsilla?

A. He has done driving and stuff and he -- he did go and get his licence to --

599. Q. To be a salesperson --

A. -- be a salesman but he never came in.

600. Q. Okay.

A. So I don't know, maybe that's to pay for the licencing or something. I don't know.

601. Q. Bryan Buzzell's the next person. He gets very regular payments pretty well -- not pretty much but weekly.

A. Yeah.

602. Q. So what would he be getting those -- can you just remind me why he would be receiving those weekly --

A. Originally he was just the maintenance for Hugh and all this stuff but then he started working in the garage as well, so he's in the garage and running around if Hugh needs his grass cut at someplace he goes and does it and --

603. Q. So it's -- really should have been on payroll but he -- he is the one -- he's the one who asked not to be on payroll?

A. I don't know. That was none of my business. That was something Hugh was dealing with Bryan because Bryan's been with Hugh forever. Like Bryan was -- I think they went to school together. Like they've just known each other for a million years.

604. Q. Okay. Did anybody ever get paid in cash? Did anybody get, you know, cash for the work they did for Clonsilla?

A. Like money-money, handed-over money?

605. Q. Right.

A. Not that I know of.

606. Q. When customers came into the -- I asked you at the beginning but I forgot. When they came into the dealership and paid with cash, what happened to it? Was somebody in charge of it to go deposit it into the RBC bank account or --

A. I was supposed to.

607. Q. Okay, and did you?

A. Well, if I could hold onto it but most of the -- Well, at the beginning I used to be able to do a deposit every day or two, but then over the last probably two years money would come in and Hugh would come and get it.

608. Q. Okay. Is that how often you were taking the cash to the bank account at the beginning when it --

A. I did because I don't like to hold it in my desk, 'cause, you know, once it's in my hands I feel responsible for it and --

609. Q. So it's fair to say like every couple of days someone was coming in to pay with cash?

A. Yeah.

610. Q. Okay, and there was no big change in that over time, so still in 2023 people are coming in relatively --

A. Yeah, once or twice a week somebody would come in with cash. I loved it when they would just do the debit thing 'cause I --

611. Q. Right.

A. -- didn't have to think about it. I would stress about it because I was afraid that I would lose it and something would happen to it. And I remember one time a guy came in and he paid like -- I think it was like $8,000 and I was afraid to leave it in the office --

612. Q. Yeah.

A. -- you know, because we didn't have a safe or anything like that. So I literally drove it to Hugh's house and said "It's your responsibility." You know?

613. Q. Would you -- My colleagues probably know this but I don't. How would you record it when you got cash? Like was there sort of a --

A. A receipt book.

614. Q. So you kept a receipt book. And did you always record it in there?

A. Yeah.

615. Q. Okay. You personally or --

A. Whoever took the payment or -- Sometimes they would just holler down to me and say "Hey, this person just paid this. Can you write a receipt," and I would do it just so the customer always got a receipt.

616. Q. Right.

A. I made sure that no matter what -- Like even if the money never came to me to be deposited, if the customer paid it -- and when they would come in to get their car they were supposed to bring them down to me so I could walk through "This is how we're gonna set your payment and what day do you want it," and I always went through it with them just 'cause it -- Like there were times where I would get -- If you know how the -- If you get the daily log out of the debit machine --

617. Q. Yeah.

A. -- and there would be a payment on there that I had no record of, and "I don't remember who that was. I don't remember that." So I literally would have somebody paid $880 and I have no idea who it is, so I would have to wait until people would come down and they would say "Oh, I paid this by debit." "Thank you," so I could document it.

And lots of times people would pay in cash and I would not even tell Hugh. If he didn't know about it I didn't go up and say "Hey, we got this cash in," because I probably had to pay them their payroll because he didn't pay them.

618. Q. Would you have the power to withdraw the cash from the RBC bank account?

A. He tells me that I have signing authority, that I could, but I never once have.

619. Q. So you never went to like a bank machine to withdraw money.

A. Never. Now, I can tell you that there was a cheque made out to me because he needed cash and didn't have any so he wrote me a cheque and sent me to the bank, so I wrote on the memo line what it was. I think it was something for the farm, and I wrote right on there that's what it was 'cause I didn't want anybody thinkin' I was just takin' that 500 bucks, like --

620. Q. Okay, so if -- if I see on the statements that there are cash withdrawals, which I do, that definitely -- that's Hugh taking money --

A. One thousand percent it could only be Hugh.

621. Q. Okay. Would there -- was there petty cash in the dealership?

A. Well, I tried that but it never worked 'cause he would just take it.

622. Q. Take it.

A. You know? Like even -- Somebody would come in and they paid like $250 -- I know this sounds awful -- but I would take that $250 and run to the gas station and buy $250 worth of gas cards so that when they needed gas to go get cars and stuff -- 'cause lots of time these guys were reachin' into their own pocket to pay for gas to go do it -- I would give them gas cards 'cause it was the only way I could do it. I did not ask permission for that either, I just went and bought them.

623. Q. If I can take you back to the first tab of that brief, please, Tab A, and Page 3 of 28, there's May 1st and the second line there there's a cash withdrawal of $45,000. So you've just told me that would be Hugh taking that money out. Any reason you can think of for why he would be taking out -- and I can tell you there are a lot of them -- large cash withdrawals --

A. Just a question because I don't know the answer. Would that necessarily be cash or could that be if you bought a bank draft?

MS KENNEDY: Cash. Because when --

MR. MCGRATH: It says "cash."

MS KENNEDY: -- it's a draft it would listed.

THE DEPONENT: [Cell phone ringing] I'm sorry, this is my mother-in-law. Hello? Hello? [Phone conversation continues]

MR. MCGRATH: Go off.

Off the record at 1:03 p.m.

On the record at 1:08 p.m.

BY MR. MCGRATH:

624. Q. All right, so just before the break we were looking at the $45,000 cash withdrawal and you had asked whether it could have been a bank draft. My understanding is because it says "cash withdrawal" I think it was quite literally a cash withdrawal, and if it had been a bank draft it would have said something different.

My question for you was any idea why it would be necessary to withdraw $45,000 in cash?

A. Not a clue.

625. Q. Okay, there -- And as I said, at the top there are several other withdrawals for large amounts like this. To save time, rather than taking you to each one, Ms Jacobs, you'd agree with me that each cash withdrawal would have been made by Hugh Waddell?

A. Yes.

626. Q. And you can't explain what that cash would have been used for.

A. I have no idea.

627. Q. There are also -- In each of the bank statements I can see transfers to Mr. Waddell's personal credit cards. We talked about that a little bit off the top, and so that -- There'd be no business purpose for Clonsilla to pay personal credit cards in Mr. Waddell's name, is that right?

A. Every credit card he had, whether it was for business or for personal, he used for business and personal. So even his personal credit cards from his personal bank account we would have to pay those with that sometimes 'cause it -- we didn't have the money in Clonsilla to -- You know, nothing was separate. Nothing.

628. Q. Okay, fair enough, so there could have been a legitimate business --

A. There could have been.

629. Q. -- purpose for it but is anyone going through the accounts -- I'm gonna guess maybe you --

A. I -- I would for any of the ones that I had access to. I probably saw five statements from the Canadian Tire card in all the time that I was there and I could never get them to use. And yet I know we bought stuff at Canadian Tire for the company so I know there's stuff on there but he just kept that all in his personal world.

And then I think he had cards from the Scotiabank or other places. I never got those. I only ever got the Amex and the Visas.

630. Q. Okay, so you'd agree with me that, you know, this morning we've talked a lot of transactions in the business that really don't seem to have a legitimate business purpose, right?

A. Right.

631. Q. Did -- and did that occur to you as -- you know, as you're in the moment that you knew there seemed to be a lot of transactions that just weren't making sense or is that something that's sort of been enlightened to you post-receivership?

A. Both. A lot of it -- I was finding these things as I was trying to figure out stuff at the company, which is why I wanted programs that I could put stuff in and they could track it and I -- 'cause -- Because I'm not, you know, an actual accountant or trained or anything, I did what I could figure out. If it was something that I could prove it stayed in my report. If it wasn't, it moved to the Hughniverse.

So that's -- that's the only way that I could do it really, 'cause it's the only thing I could think of to do. And he didn't like it but it was. And it turned out that thank God I did it that way because when we did get audited I had proof of everything that -- 'cause I would not submit anything unless I could verify it all, you know?

632. Q. When did you get audited?

A. When didn't we.

633. Q. Okay.

A. We started in -- Oh, God, I don't even know the years anymore. I think it was the November, December, January of 2021 maybe, that first audit period. And it -- Oh, that was nightmare anyway. So anyway that got audited and then they decided that we didn't pay anything, that none of our ITCs were valid even though I gave them everything. But it took us over a year and a half for them to admit that "Oh, yes, we made a mistake on that. We should fix that but --"

So once they got that audit done then they decided "Oh, let's back it up," so they did the audit from the period before and then the period before that. They just kept goin' backwards and -- 'cause they couldn't find anything because -- I'm sure there was lots of stuff in there that could have been wrong but I wouldn't put anything in it unless I could prove it. So there was audits upon audits upon audits upon audits.

634. Q. Did you ever raise any of the concerns you had about the business with Hugh? Like did you --

A. Absolutely.

635. Q. And what would his response be?

A. "This is how I've always done business. I know what I'm doin. I've been in business for 40 years."

And at the end of the day I can't make him do it, he just -- So I just decided that I would only process what I could track. If I couldn't track it, it didn't get processed.

636. Q. Is there anything that you coming in today that you were sort of expecting us to talk about, to go over, that we haven't touched on at all?

A. Not that I can think of.

637. Q. Is there anything else about Clonsilla or its business that you're sort of concerned about that we haven't talked about yet today?

A. Not that I can think of, 'cause I think a lot of what I did kind of read into the Deloitte thing, I think there's a lot of stuff in there that, you know, covers a lot of the crap that I ran into. But to be perfectly honest, this was kind of nice that you guys were picking out stuff that I would have picked out myself. 'Cause, you know, these are the questions that I had so obviously I had the right questions, I just couldn't get answers.

638. Q. Before I forget I'm gonna mark that brief as Exhibit 2 to this examination. So it's a --

A. Oh, my God, I wrote on your thing.

639. Q. That's okay. Yeah.

MR. MCGRATH: It's -- We'll call it -- we'll call it Brief of Bank Statements for the record.

EXHIBIT 2: Brief of Bank Statements

BY MR. MCGRATH:

640. Q. Are you aware that -- So you got a car from Clonsilla yourself, right?

A. M'hm.

641. Q. I'm sorry, that's "yes" for the record?

A. Yes.

642. Q. Are you aware of there being sort of a second agreement or there being some sort of misconduct related to your own lease?

A. Yes.

643. Q. Can you explain that to me, please?

A. I'm an idiot. That's what I can tell you. I -- My car was paid off and Hugh was struggling trying to get payroll put together, so I agreed to have my car refinanced so that Hugh would get the financing for it but he would make the payments.

644. Q. When about would this have been?

A. Oh, God, I don't even know right now. I can't get copies of anything so I don't know.

645. Q. Is it earlier towards when you started working there?

A. No, no.

646. Q. Or it's relatively recent.

A. When I started work is when I got the car and then paid it off, and then we refinanced it just through all this hell.

647. Q. So you knew that was wrong but you did it anyway.

A. Well, I didn't -- I know it's wrong now. I will tell you that right now. I can tell you I know it's wrong.

Here's what I thought, okay? Is that it's my car now and I'm basically -- If he came to me and said "Hey, can I borrow $10,000 and I took it off my credit card and gave it to him and he made the payments on it until it got paid off, it was my car to use as collateral and I could lend him that, is what I thought. You know?

Once you see all the rest of the world you see that that's probably the stupidest thing I could have done, but I did it and I can't even say -- I want to be able to say "I didn't do that." But I can't because I did that.

648. Q. I appreciate the honesty. And other people did the same thing, right? You're not alone.

A. My daughter.

649. Q. Your daughter too. So it's the same idea with your daughter?

A. Yeah.

650. Q. And then are there other people you know who did a similar thing as well?

A. Not that I know of but I suspect it.

651. Q. Okay, and you suspected at the time too?

A. No. I honestly thought that I was -- I was the saviour. I was helping making sure everybody got paid, is what I was thinkin'. I was doin' it because as soon as HST comes in and as soon as the funding comes in we're all gonna be paid off, it was all gonna be done and I'd have no stress, no worry. And he was makin' the payments and --

652. Q. Okay, we're coming towards the end of the examination today. I would ask you to please not discuss what we've talked about today with the people whose names we've discussed today --

A. Yes.

653. Q. -- because we're doing an investigation and probably going to ask questions to them too at some point. I don't think there's any legal obligation for you not to do that but I just ask you not to --

A. I have a moral obligation to keep things separated.

654. Q. Right.

A. Okay? And here's why. 'Cause I've had a hell of a time tryin' to find work. Anything that says "Clonsilla" nobody wants anything to do with you. So right now Hugh has work for me so I can tell you he's asked a lot of questions and I don't give him any answers. 'Cause the way I put it to him is "Clonsilla is a closed door and if we discuss Clonsilla I can't be here anymore."

'Cause I'm angry 'cause he owes me so much money, and part of me hopes that if I help him get a new business going he'll pay me. He won't but I can hope. But I'm just -- I don't want -- Like I would never want to keep that from you but he has had work for me to do and -- not much but it's better than nothing.

655. Q. I'm very sympathetic and I understand you're in a difficult position that I think he's put you in. So --

A. Absolutely.

656. Q. M'hm.

A. Well, up -- You know what, I find myself in a difficult situation because of a lot of things. Like even after all of this I couldn't even get EI because I worked with Deloitte.

657. Q. I think that we should talk about that offline 'cause I want to understand that a little better. It won't be part of --

A. Yeah.

658. Q. -- the examination under oath but I want to understand --

A. But like -- So literally since I left there I've had no work-work. I can't get work. So like there's -- I couldn't get EI, I can't get welfare even. I did try. Nothing.

So I don’t want to have to do any work with Hugh but I don't have much options right now 'cause I got -- Like I'm sitting in a house with no -- no bills paid and on Friday they're probably gonna take my hydro. So I have to do something and he's the only option I have right now. Like I literally -- I can't even get a job at Tim Horton's. You know?

659. Q. Okay, I think I'm just gonna caucus with my colleagues just to make sure I didn't miss a question that they wanted me to ask, but for myself I'm done with my questions. I want to thank you so much for your time today and your honesty. I really appreciate it. I know it's been difficult. But give us just one minute --

A. Yes.

660. Q. -- to make sure I haven't missed something and --

A. And just so you know too, you have my contact information if you need a clarification or any other questions I have no issue. 'Cause like I say, that's on that side of the wall, and over here I will tell you whatever I know that I can help you with.

661. Q. Thank you so much, it's so much appreciated. As I say, we'll talk offline about the EI issue. I've just got the word from my colleagues that I didn't miss anything so I think subject to any undertakings or under advisements or refusals, of which I don't think there were any, those -- that concludes our questions for today. So thank you again.

A. Okay, but if there's anything, I don't mind at all.

EXAMINATION FOR DISCOVERY OF NANCY WADDELL

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 2024

11:26 A.M.

THE REPORTER: Do you solemnly affirm that the evidence you are about to give shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth?

THE DEPONENT: Yes.

THE REPORTER: Please state and spell your name for the record.

THE DEPONENT: Nancy Waddell. N-A-N-C-Y, W-A-D-D-E-L-L.

THE REPORTER: Thank you. Are we ready to proceed?

MR. MCGRATH: We're ready.

THE REPORTER: You're on the record.

MR. MCGRATH: Thank you.

NANCY WADDELL, affirmed,

EXAMINATION BY MR. MCGRATH:

1. Q. Good morning, Ms. Waddell. Ms. Waddell, I'd first like to start with just some background questions. Not too many, but just a few. Starting with your education, do you have any formal or post-secondary education?

A. Just -- I went to Durham College for -- actually just half a course. Like, half a year. Sorry, one year into a two-year program.

2. Q. Okay. What did you study when you were there?

A. It was -- that's a long time ago. I'm trying to remember the name of the actual course. I think it was called Arts and Science.

3. Q. Okay. Any other post-secondary education?

A. No.

4. Q. Okay. And then as far as your employment history goes ---

A. I worked for a trust company right after high school, and then I worked for the Royal Bank, and then I worked for my father in Peterborough, and then I had kids, and then I worked for an interior design firm, and -- just very part time. And the odd time, worked at the office. That's it.

5. Q. Okay. And when you say, "The odd time at the office," is that the office of Clonsilla Auto ---

A. Yes.

6. Q. --- Sales?

A. Yes.

7. Q. Okay. And when did you start working there?

A. I don't remember. I mean, I worked there all the time for the last 30 years, off and on.

8. Q. And what did you do when you worked there?

A. I did collections, I made phone calls, sometimes I answered the phone. Whatever they needed.

9. Q. Okay. And if we can -- maybe we can focus on starting in 2020, around the time of the pandemic that started ---

A. Yeah.

10. Q. --- in 2020. Did you work at the office for Clonsilla in 2020?

A. In the office, I think I did, yeah, doing some collections, I believe.

11. Q. Okay. And would that be consistent all the way until, you know, 2023? Do -- did ---

A. Yes.

12. Q. Sorry, let me ask ---

A. Yes.

13. Q. --- it differently. Did -- did it change at all between 2020 and 2023, or was your role pretty much ---

A. No, my role was pretty much the same. Whatever they needed, I would go in and do. Like I say, if, you know, somebody was busy, I'd go in and answer the phones, I'd do whatever. Yeah.

14. Q. And how often would you do that?

A. I don't know. It depended on the week and the -- I mean, going back four years, I'm -- I'm having a -- I don't know. It was whenever I was needed. I don't really remember.

15. Q. Can you give me -- so let's take 2023, then. So just last year. Can you give me a sense -- I -- I get that it changed ---

A. Well, at one point, I -- I was there for probably three months straight doing collections. So ---

16. Q. When would that have been?

A. I think it was through the summer. Like, maybe April, May, or May, June, or something. I -- I can't quite remember the timeframe. There was an employee that left, and left a bit of a mess, so I went in and -- and did a lot of collections.

17. Q. Which employee was that?

A. Christina Scaliotis.

18. Q. So she left, and then you came in and worked on almost a full-time basis ---

A. Actually, I was trying to work with her when she was there, and then she left when we were trying to -- we were trying to do the collections together, and she left. So...

19. Q. So then, what, you were working, like, more full time for the first few months after she left?

A. Yeah, maybe not a few months, but for weeks anyway. And I really can't remember. But yes, I worked a lot doing the collections.

20. Q. And was someone else hired to replace ---

A. Yes.

21. Q. --- her?

A. Pretty -- well, no, I think we got them under control, and then Maryanne took over or Maryanne was there at the time as well. So she ---

22. Q. So what ---

A. --- was doing a different job, and I was pretty much trying to just do all the collections.

23. Q. Okay. So eventually, Maryanne took over, and then your involvement wound back to where it was before?

A. To -- yeah, where it was -- whatever was needed, you know, if she was out, I'd go in, answer the phones. I did -- yeah, whatever was needed there.

24. Q. So outside of that, you know, that period where it was really busy when Christina left -- so forget about that for a moment. Just, like, are you going into the office, like, a few days a week normally in -- in a regular week?

A. Sometimes. Sometimes, and sometimes it would go a month without me being in there, so...

25. Q. Did you always have to go into the office to do the work you did? Or did you ever do it from home?

A. No, I could do some from home.

26. Q. So I'm just trying to get a sense of -- are you doing work for Clonsilla, like, most days of most weeks, or is it less than that?

A. Less than that, yeah.

27. Q. And then how were you being compensated for the work that you were doing?

A. Well, sometimes I got a paycheque. And took various amounts of money at various times, like ---

28. Q. Okay. Let's start ---

A. --- I didn't take it. I mean, it was given to me at various times, I guess.

29. Q. Let's start with the paycheque part of your answer. So were you on sort of the regular payroll for Clonsilla?

A. I don't think I was. I think what happened was I would get the money, and then at the end of the year, get a T4, and submit that, and paid taxes on it, and submit it to the government, and it was -- it was whatever I had taken out over the year, that's what would -- I would submit as my T4.

30. Q. Okay. Just -- I'm less interested about the tax part about it. I just want to understand how you -- how you were getting paid. So -- so you weren't on regular payroll, right?

A. I don't believe so, but I'm -- I didn't do the payroll, so I'm not sure how exactly they characterized me.

31. Q. Well, how did you get paid?

A. I -- I -- e-transfer, most of it.

32. Q. So e-transfers are going to your personal account?

A. Correct.

33. Q. And who -- do you know who's directing those?

A. No, whoever -- I presume it was Hugh.

34. Q. Were they at regular intervals?

A. No.

35. Q. So how is it being determined how much you're going to get paid?

A. I'm not exactly sure. I don't know. I think that it was -- part of it was income splitting that it was potentially what the accountant said to do. I'm not -- I'm not exactly sure.

36. Q. Were you keeping track of how many hours you were working anywhere?

A. No.

37. Q. Did you have any sort of employment agreement, or anything that was in writing about your employment relationship?

A. No, no. This is a family business. I went in whenever it was necessary to do whatever was needed.

38. Q. So it's -- I'd be wrong to look for, you know, "Ms. Waddell is getting paid $30 an hour, and she worked X hours this week, so she should getting -- be getting paid this amount"?

A. Correct.

39. Q. There's no ---

A. Yeah.

40. Q. --- way for me to ---

THE DEPONENT: Well, I don't think there was. I -- I didn't sign any -- any kind of a -- an employment agreement, if -- can I put this down a bit?

MR. HARRIS: Yeah, of course.

THE DEPONENT: That went quick.

BY MR. MCGRATH:

41. Q. Okay. And -- and you weren't keeping track of your -- of your hours?

A. No.

42. Q. Were you keeping track of -- and you weren't even keeping track of how much you were getting paid? Is that true, too?

A. Well, I mean, I had the -- I got the e-transfers, and I -- and -- and I know that there was a T4 issued, so -- so ---

43. Q. But did you ---

A. --- I mean, no, I didn't necessarily really keep track of it. I mean...

44. Q. So it's not like at the end of the year, you get your T4, and you are comparing that against what you thought you got paid? You just were sort of relying on what you were ---

A. Correct.

45. Q. --- told?

A. On what I -- yeah. On the amount of money I took -- I -- I -- I received from -- from the company.

46. Q. Did you ever loan money to Clonsilla at all?

A. Personally? Did I ---

47. Q. Personally.

A. --- Nancy Waddell? No.

48. Q. Okay. So money that ---

A. Not that I remember, anyway.

49. Q. So when we're talking about how much you were getting paid, you said, you know, you were -- you were getting paid some amounts. And then you said you took out some other money, and then you said, "Well, I didn't take it, you know, directly" ---

A. Well, I mean, I received it is what I meant.

50. Q. --- so is that separate from what we just talked about?

A. No.

51. Q. There were other payments? Or -- or that's the whole thing?

A. I -- as far as I know, that was it. All I received was -- was the money that I got by e-transfers.

52. Q. And those weren't at regular intervals? They were ---

A. Correct.

53. Q. --- just ---

A. No, they weren't.

54. Q. Did you ever ask, say, "Hey, I haven't been paid for a while" ---

A. Yeah. Yeah.

55. Q. Okay.

A. And then -- and then Hugh would send me an e-transfer. Or somebody. Whoever did the transfers. I'm not sure.

56. Q. But you would tell Hugh, "I haven't been paid for" ---

A. Yes.

57. Q. --- "a while"?

A. Correct. Or I -- yeah.

58. Q. And when would that happen? Like, try to help me understand. So is it, like, if you had been working for a few weeks and you hadn't seen an e-transfer in your account?

A. Not necessarily. If I didn't need the money, I wouldn't even ask for the money. If -- when I needed the money, if I needed to, you know, put groceries or food or clothing or what-have-you, then I would say, "Send me some money."

59. Q. Okay. So that makes more ---

A. And he kept the -- I -- somebody kept track, I guess. I'm not -- yeah. I don't know because I didn't do payroll or anything.

60. Q. That's fair. I -- I'm just trying to understand what you do know. I'm not asking you ---

A. Yeah.

61. Q. --- to guess about other things.

A. Okay.

62. Q. So that -- that makes some sense to me. So it was more need based. If you ---

A. Correct.

63. Q. --- needed money and it wasn't in your account, then you'd tell Hugh, and ---

A. Yeah.

64. Q. --- he would give you money?

A. Yeah. And he would, I presume, allocate it against my hours.

65. Q. Either personally he would do that, or he would direct someone else ---

A. Somebody, yes.

66. Q. --- to?

A. Yeah. Yeah.

67. Q. Okay. And any money that you received from Clonsilla would be for your -- for your work. Is there any other reason why ---

A. Well, yes, I -- that's why I was saying I'm pretty sure that -- that we did some income splitting as well, you know?

68. Q. Okay.

A. Hugh didn't -- that was -- would have been whatever the accountant said to do. Like, I -- whatever he would characterize things as.

69. Q. So can you just explain to me what your understanding of income ---

A. Of income ---

70. Q. --- splitting is?

A. --- splitting? Hugh owned the business, and in order to keep his tax level rate down low, we would do some income splitting. So they'd allocate some of the income to me, and I did, in fact, do some work, so -- you know, so as far as I know, there was income splitting done.

71. Q. Okay. So it was, like, you know, money that really was owed to Mr. Waddell, but ---

A. No. No, I wouldn't say that. I did do work. But I'm not sure. I can't tell you how much work I did for -- for that versus how much of it was income splitting because I didn't even do my own taxes. The accountant did the taxes.

72. Q. All right. I'm just trying to make sure I understand.

A. Yeah.

73. Q. I think I do. But you tell me if I'm -- if this is wrong, okay? This is my understanding of what you just said. You worked -- you did work for Clonsilla. Some money you were owed for the work that you did. Also, another reason why you might have gotten money in addition to work you did, was for income splitting. So that would be money that, if Mr. Waddell accounted it all for himself, he would pay more taxes, and so he split it with his spouse, that's you, and so you would get money also, and that was sort of an income splitting tax reason for you to get ---

A. Yes.

74. Q. --- additional ---

A. Well, and I'm not sure if that happened in 2022. Is that -- or 2020. Is that what you're saying? You're going back to 2020? I'm not sure which year these things happened. Some years, I just got paid for my -- for my work. Some years, I think there was some income splitting. I'm not sure ---

75. Q. Which is which?

A. --- which is which on any given year. But I'm -- I -- I don't think I ever took out an excessive amount of money, regardless.

76. Q. Okay. And you mentioned your accountant a couple times. Who ---

A. Yeah.

77. Q. Who is -- who is the accountant you're talking about?

A. Sid. Sid. I don't even know how to say it, Kasmarzyn or something. I can't even remember. I just call him Sid.

78. Q. Okay. And would your husband know -- if you know, would your husband know what was income splitting and what was your salary?

A. I don't know. I don't know.

79. Q. Were there -- was anyone else involved in those decisions ---

A. I ---

80. Q. --- that you know of?

A. I don't know.

81. Q. Okay. So we talked about your wages, we talked about income splitting. Is there any other reason why you might be getting money from Clonsilla?

A. Personally?

82. Q. Personally.

A. I -- not that I can remember.

83. Q. Okay. Is ---

A. Oh, I might have got paid back for items, if I purchased things. Sometimes I went to Costco, and I bought supplies for the office, paper towel, toilet paper. I did the -- I did the -- all the din there, put the kitchen in and did all those things. I may have paid for those things, and then billed the office for those. That might have been some other way of getting money out.

I can't tell you if that's the way it went. I -- because I don't recall. But I did buy, on -- on -- bought, sometimes, if they were out of paper, for example, I'd go to Costco and get the paper. And then they'd pay me back. Things like that. So yes, it's possible I took money for other reasons.

84. Q. What was the process for that? Would you save the receipt from ---

A. Yeah.

85. Q. And then you'd submit it to who?

A. I'd give it to Hugh, and then I'd get the money. I don't know if I got it -- if I got it at the time, or if I got it later. I'm not entirely sure. Sometimes, I think, maybe they might have even paid my credit card, or -- or potentially I had Hugh's credit card, and I put it on that. I'm not sure.

86. Q. These expenses that you were incurring for the business, is it fair to say they would be relatively small expenses? Or were there any major purchases you made?

A. Well, that's what I'm trying to remember is when we did the renovation in the building. And I -- and I can't remember the year that we did the renovation. So it -- but ---

87. Q. So the kitchen you mentioned?

A. Yeah, well, there's kitchen -- I mean, there -- there was flooring put in, there was paint done, there was a roof put on, there was all -- like, well, no, the roof wouldn't have been part of that. But yeah, there was renovation -- I know there was a fish tank put in, fish, you know. Things like that. And I'm just not sure if I paid for it and got reimbursed, or if they paid for it. I'm not -- I'm not entirely sure. That's why I don't want to say I didn't get money if maybe I did.

88. Q. Okay. And do you know when that -- when what renovation was?

A. No, I can't remember. I'm sorry. You know what? I -- I'll tell you, I've had a brain injury from a fall that I had, and I have less memory. I also had a terrible bout with chemo and high doses of prednisone and -- and that also has run a bit of havoc with my -- my memory. So I'm not sure. If you point me to something that you want to know, I might be able to remember it.

89. Q. Fair enough. I'll just ask you to do your best. That's all ---

A. Yeah.

90. Q. That's all any of us can do. If I said, like, was it in the last five years, or was it longer ago than that, are you able to tell me? Or you -- you ---

A. No, I actually can't really remember how long ago it was that we did the reno on that building. Inside the building, I mean.

91. Q. Then you said you did the decor. Is -- is that ---

A. M'hmm.

92. Q. Are -- same thing? Or is that a different thing from the renovations?

A. Well, at various times, things had to be redone. Like, so, I'm not sure. I mean, there were the initial -- I did the -- all of that. And then there were times when it was repainted, you know, new furniture or whatever.

93. Q. Do you recall your daughter, Meggan, doing sort of staging and sort of doing some of the decor there?

A. Yeah, yeah. She was staging items. She had the items.

94. Q. So she ---

A. Yeah.

95. Q. --- brought the items?

A. Yes.

96. Q. Is that all she did? Or did she do any ---

A. I'm not sure what else she -- no, I think at some of the times, she also worked there. But she -- it's all her staging items that are there.

97. Q. Is that different from the decor type of things you're ---

A. Yeah ---

98. Q. --- talking about?

A. --- like, I -- I mean, I hired the painter at the first time, and potentially she may have another time. I'm not sure. But she had her staging items in there, and she may have done some decor, too.

99. Q. Okay.

A. So it was probably before 2018 that we did the reno, when I think about it, because that's the year I was sick, and I did that before I was sick. So...

100. Q. Okay. That's helpful. Thank you.

A. Yeah.

101. Q. Do you know a company called Northbridge?

A. Yes.

102. Q. That's your company?

A. Yes.

103. Q. Did it ever make any loans to ---

A. Yes.

104. Q. --- Clonsilla? Can you explain that to me? How -- how much and when? Do you ---

A. Well, I -- I -- I didn't know you were going to ask me about Northbridge. You just said Nancy Waddell. So I didn't realize that -- that -- and -- and I -- anyway, no, I don't -- I -- I -- I can find that out for you and let you know.

105. Q. Okay. Just -- I'll ask that question, but before I get into it, just give me a sense, because I don't know the answer to these questions. Are we talking about a large amount of money that ---

A. Yes.

106. Q. Do you know the -- I won't ask you ---

A. Oh, millions.

107. Q. --- exact amount, but -- millions of dollars?

A. M'hmm.

108. Q. So it's the ---

A. It -- when it came in through Northbridge from the kids, mostly, and -- and Northbridge lent it -- or, sorry, Northbridge didn't really lend it. The kids lent it to -- to the company, and it went through Northbridge -- oh, I -- and I -- for my -- what I recall, because this was, I think, 2018 is when I took over Northbridge, it was doing a lot less transactions than Clonsilla. So it was easier to keep track of the money if it came through Northbridge than if it got in -- the -- like, just went into Clonsilla's account.

109. Q. Okay. Thank you. That's helpful. And I --

I think I just have to back up a bit. So Northbridge is your company?

A. Yes.

110. Q. Are you -- you're the only -- you're the director, shareholder ---

A. Yes.

111. Q. --- officer of -- of Northbridge?

A. Yes.

112. Q. And does it carry on any business of its own?

A. No, it just holds the company, like, the building itself. So it used to collect rent, and -- and collect HST, and then pay HST, that kind of thing.

113. Q. And when you talk about "the building," that's the building that Clonsilla was operating out of?

A. Correct.

114. Q. So it owned the -- the building. Did it have any other assets? Or that was really all it did?

A. Yeah, no, I think that was it. It might have had a car. I can't remember.

115. Q. Okay.

A. But I think it -- that's all it had.

116. Q. Fair enough. And then you said you took it over in 2018?

A. Yes because what happened was I got diagnosed with my kidney disease, and I knew I was going to have to have this treatment, and that was December. And so in that February when I started the treatment, we knew I couldn't -- I used to own Clonsilla off -- the -- Clonsilla Auto Sales and Leasing, that used to be my company. And so we switched companies. Hugh took over Clonsilla, and I traded him for -- they were basically worth the same. So we just traded companies. That way I had a lot less to deal with.

117. Q. A lot less day to day management of -- for --

A. Correct.

118. Q. --- for Northbridge versus ---

A. That's right.

119. Q. --- Clonsilla?

A. Yes. Because Clonsilla has, you know, obviously in the car business, it had a lot of paperwork, and it had a lot of other things like that. So I took over the more passive company, and we just traded.

120. Q. Understood. And so when we talked about loans from Northbridge to Clonsilla, I think I ---

A. It wasn't really Northbridge's money.

121. Q. Right.

A. It was the kids' money.

122. Q. This is -- your children's money is flowing from -- they give it to Northbridge, and Northbridge loans it to Clonsilla?

A. Correct.

123. Q. And we talked about the kids, we're talking about Meggan, Taylor, and Sara?

A. Correct.

124. Q. Each of them did this arrangement?

A. Correct.

125. Q. Okay. And that's millions of dollars, you said. Do you have records that -- that could tell me exactly how much money ---

A. Well, we did. I'm pretty sure Deloitte took everything when they left the office, so if they would like to give that back, I'm sure I could then find all of that.

126. Q. Okay. I'll tell you that Deloitte hasn't found those records.

A. Well, they took all of our personal records. They took everything out of the building when they left. So ---

127. Q. Okay. So ---

A. --- I'm pretty sure they do have them.

128. Q. All right. I hear you.
A. They even took the kids' personal income tax and everything. They took my personal income tax. They took everything.
129. Q. Okay. So what exactly are the documents ---
A. I don't know exactly. They would be documents showing -- you want to see where the money came in, and when it -- where it went out?
130. Q. Yeah, let ---
A. Is that ---
131. Q. Let's just break it up, you know, piece by piece. So would there have been any agreements on paper ---
A. I believe there was ---
132. Q. Just ---
A. --- yes.
133. Q. Just let me finish my question ---
A. Oh, sorry.
134. Q. --- if you don't mind.
A. Sure.
135. Q. Just for the reporter. It's really hard for her when ---
A. Sure.
136. Q. --- you and I are talking over each other.
A. Yeah.

137. Q. So my question was going to be, are there any documents, so paper documents, showing an agreement between any of your three children and Northbridge? Start there.

A. I'm pretty sure there is.

138. Q. Okay. And then were there any documents that -- between Northbridge and Clonsilla?

A. I'm pretty sure there is for that, yeah.

139. Q. Okay. So let's take the first one between the children and Northbridge. Do you know what type of -- are we talking about a promissory note, or?

A. I think there was -- I think it was, maybe, a promissory -- I think there was a promissory note. So I think -- I think there was -- I'm trying to remember the -- the things -- I -- I -- I think there was promissory notes. I think there might have been some -- I don't know what they call them. Directions, maybe something like that. I -- I...

140. Q. Okay. That's fine. Now you -- would -- you would have signed them on behalf of Northbridge?

A. Oh, yeah. I -- yeah.

141. Q. Okay.

A. I think. I mean, I -- but I don't recall signing ---

142. Q. Okay.

A. --- anything, so I'm not positive. I -- I have to -- I -- I don't know. But ---

143. Q. Okay.

A. --- I presume so.

144. Q. Are they all post-2018? Or would there have been pre-2018?

A. I don't remember when they started lending the money. I'm not sure.

145. Q. Okay. Is it fair to say that there would -- there would have been some post-2018?

A. After 2018?

146. Q. After 2018.

A. I believe so, but I'm not -- no, I -- I -- I -- you know what? I don't know.

147. Q. You don't know.

A. I don't remember.

148. Q. Who would have prepared these -- these -- I'll call them "promissory notes."

A. I'm not sure if the -- if a lawyer prepared them, if the kids prepared them, or Hugh, or -- I'm not -- I'm not sure.

149. Q. Would you have -- would there have been sort of a lawyer that was your lawyer at the time who would have been the one who prepared it, if a lawyer prepared it?

A. I don't know. 2018. I can't remember who -
- who we were using. I don't know.
150. Q. Is it your evidence that you don't have a copy of any of these anymore?
A. Oh, I -- I'm not sure. I may have. I -- I can -- I can look.
151. Q. Okay. I -- I would ask you to please -- just -- it's a best-efforts request. If you can just use your best efforts to see if you can locate ---
A. Sure.
152. Q. --- any document evidencing loans from any of the children to Northbridge.
A. Sure.
MR. MCGRATH: Counsel, I'm going to -
--
THE DEPONENT: (Inaudible) --- (Whereupon UNDERTAKING NO. 1: To make best efforts to produce any documentation evidencing loans from any of the deponent's children to Northbridge Estates.)
MR. MCGRATH: I'm going to -- yeah.
Yes. There will be a transcript prepared at the end, as well, and Mr. Harris, I'm going to take Ms.
Waddell's ---
MR. HARRIS: Yeah.
MR. MCGRATH: --- agreement as -- as the undertakings. I ---

MR. HARRIS: That's fine.

MR. MCGRATH: --- won't ask you for a separate one.

MR. HARRIS: M'hmm.

BY MR. MCGRATH:

153. Q. Okay. So that was the children to Northbridge. Do you know anything about how much money that we're talking about?

A. I'm not exactly sure. But it -- it was millions, each one of the kids gave -- I'm not exactly sure how much, but each one of the kids gave a -- a lot of money.

154. Q. And the ---

A. They lent a lot of money.

155. Q. I'm sorry. And the source of those funds is inheritances, I understand.

A. Correct, yes.

156. Q. Okay. Do you know the terms of those loans were?

A. I know they were getting paid interest. I don't really know what -- what the rate was.

157. Q. How involved were you in these arrangements? Like, were you a part of sort of trying to strike the deal?

A. No, no, not really. No.
158. Q. So was your role ---
A. You mean putting the kids' money into -- like, loaning the kids' money?
159. Q. Right.
A. No, I really wasn't.
160. Q. So you're -- you're involved because the money is going through Northbridge, and Northbridge is your company, but other than that, is that sort of why you're involved?
A. Well, yeah, and because it was, like I say, the -- just -- there was so much going on in Clonsilla because it was collecting lease payments, it was paying all the -- you know, doing all those things. So it was too much banking going through there. So to be able to properly keep track of -- of the monies that the kids were lending -- so we just put it through there. I -- I guess we thought it was a good idea at the time.
161. Q. Okay. And then Northbridge takes the money from the children, and -- and advances it to Clonsilla? Is that right?
A. Well, yeah, I guess. I guess that's the way -- yeah. I mean, it went -- came in from the kids -- I think just was like a pass through to -- to Clonsilla. Like, Northbridge didn't keep any of the money.

162. Q. Right. It -- Northbridge ---

A. It went direct to ---

163. Q. --- isn't -- isn't paying anything on behalf of Clonsilla. It's giving money -- the money to ---

A. Correct.

164. Q. --- Clonsilla?

A. Yes. Northbridge didn't take any money, didn't receive any money of the kids', I mean, other than, like, we took it in, and then out it went. It was just, like, a flow through kind of thing.

165. Q. And Northbridge isn't carrying on active business at this ---

A. No.

166. Q. --- time, other than is it receiving rent from Clonsilla?

A. Well, at that point, I'm not exactly sure. When -- when did the pandemic start?

167. Q. 2020, I think.

A. 2020. So at some point, it -- it stopped -- it -- like, I -- I was collecting rent. And then I -- then we -- I think it was at the pandemic, we decided to not have the rent anymore. Like, you know, a lot of landlords gave businesses a break. And -- and I think, then, what I did was -- so I didn't collect the HST, and I didn't have to pay the HST. I just had them pay the mortgage direct. So they got a cut on their rent.

168. Q. Northbridge had -- just has one bank account that -- that all this activity is happening in? Like, the money in and then money out?

A. I'm pretty sure it only has one bank account, yeah.

MR. MCGRATH: So Counsel, especially for you, I think, can I ask for an undertaking to check the bank statements for Northbridge? And I -- I'm only interested in money that went in from any of the children as a loan, and then I want -- I would like to see the -- the money that went in, and I would like see where it went out to Clonsilla.

MR. HARRIS: M'hmm.

MR. MCGRATH: Could I have that undertaking ---

MR. HARRIS: Yes.

MR. MCGRATH: --- please?

MR. HARRIS: Yeah.

THE DEPONENT: Going back as -- as far ---

MR. MCGRATH: As ---

THE DEPONENT: --- as they did it?

MR. MCGRATH: As far back as you can.

THE DEPONENT: As we can, okay.

BY MR. MCGRATH:

169. Q. My understanding -- we had another examination this morning. My understanding is some are maybe more than seven years ago, which might be difficult to -- do you have bank statements for Northbridge, like, a paper copy of a bank statement?

THE DEPONENT: That's what I -- I already -- remember ---

MR. HARRIS: Yeah.

THE DEPONENT: --- I wrote you and I told you they took them all.

MR. HARRIS: Yeah.

THE DEPONENT: They were all at the office. They were in the filing cabinets at the office, and they're no -- they -- when we took the office back over, they were not there any longer. There was one box of some papers, and I know that -- that Hugh was trying to get all of our personal stuff out. And it was with you, right?

And you were going to give him eight hours, and ended up kicking him out after three hours, and he was not able to get all of our personal documents, including my Northbridge documentations. So they're there, or you guys have them. And -- because they were not left on the premises when we got -- got back into the building.

170. Q. So the undertaking I asked for is best efforts, and so, I mean, to the extent that you're able to get them electronically ---

A. Sure.

171. Q. --- from -- from the bank, that would be helpful. If you have paper copies anywhere, obviously that's helpful too. You can only do what ---

A. I did close that account and opened a new account. So ---

172. Q. When?

A. I closed it after all this went down ---

173. Q. Okay. So ---

A. --- because ---

174. Q. --- recently?

A. Yes. M'hmm.

175. Q. All right. I think those statements should still be available, but ---

A. I hope so.

176. Q. --- you know, your counsel will help you ---

A. Yeah.

177. Q. --- with that.

(Whereupon UNDERTAKING NO. 2: To provide copies of Northbridge Estates' bank statements that show money from any of the children that went into Northbridge Estates as a loan, and where it went out to Clonsilla Auto Sales and Leasing.)

BY MR. MCGRATH:

178. Q. Now, I understand -- so let's talk about your children for -- for a second. So each of the three of them loaned money the way that we've talked about.

A. And potentially Lawson as well. I'm not exactly sure. I can't remember.

179. Q. Okay.

A. But potentially, Lawson did as well.

180. Q. Well, fair enough. To the extent any of our previous undertakings -- I was only thinking about the other ---

A. Sorry.

181. Q. --- three children. But if Lawson falls into one of the categories that we've already gone over, I'd ask for that information as well.

MR. MCGRATH: Is that okay, Counsel?

MR. HARRIS: Yeah.

BY MR. MCGRATH:

182. Q. Did -- let's start with Meggan. Meggan, I understand, didn't work for Clonsilla any time recently. She did in the old days, but maybe not ---

A. Correct.

183. Q. --- since ---

A. Yeah. Other than, like, she put in staging items and stuff, which I don't -- I don't even know if she got paid for that or if she just put the staging items there. I'm not sure.

184. Q. Taylor, I think, may be different. So let's just take from 2020. I'm not asking to go back any further than that. But did Taylor work for Clonsilla since 2020?

A. I believe he did. I believe he prepared stuff with -- they were going to do, like, for the paralegal, to look after -- like, to, you know, go after lessees. I believe ---

185. Q. Oh, I understand.

A. --- he prepared that. I'm not exactly sure what else he may have done.

186. Q. Okay. Do you know how often he would have --

A. No ---

187. Q. --- been working?

A. --- I don't.

188. Q. Okay.

A. No.
189. Q. Did he ---
A. I really didn't have anything to do with the day-to-day running of Clonsilla at all.
190. Q. And -- and what about Sara? Did she work for ---
A. I have no ---
191. Q. --- Clonsilla?
A. Well, she -- I know she did, like, back when she was in high school for sure. I'm not sure what --
192. Q. Since 2020?
A. I don't know. I'm -- I -- I have no idea.
193. Q. Okay. When I was asking earlier about money that you would have received from Clonsilla, you kept saying, "Directly." Indirectly, did you get paid by -
--
A. Wait a minute, what do you mean I kept saying, "Directly"?
194. Q. You kept saying -- you kept asking me, "Directly?"
A. Oh, no, I meant personally. You mean ---
195. Q. Personally?
A. Yeah, I -- because I wasn't sure if you were asking me if Northbridge received money.

196. Q. Okay. Well, that's my question.

A. So...

197. Q. So ---

A. Yeah.

198. Q. --- did Northbridge receive money from Clonsilla?

A. Just rent money. Like, originally when it was -- when it was getting rent, yes.

199. Q. Yeah, we started down that path because I had asked if Northbridge had ever loaned to Clonsilla. And I think I understand now, it -- it didn't, for its own money. It did as a flow through for the children's money.

A. Yes, I mean, it did get shorted rent money during the pandemic and stuff, so ---

200. Q. Okay.

A. --- you could call that a loan, too, I suppose. But ---

201. Q. Well, was there ---

A. But I let that happen. So ---

202. Q. Was there a formal agreement about that? That it would be paid -- the rent would be paid eventually, or?

A. No, no, I think that was just a ---

203. Q. It was a forgiveness ---

A. --- it was -- it was a -- yeah. Yeah. It was just because it was the pandemic.

204. Q. I think I understand. And then did you indirectly, so not personally, but you indirectly, get money from Clonsilla in any other way? Is there any other company that you have an interest in, or anything that I've sort of missed?

A. No. I -- did I own another company? No, I don't. Is that what you mean?

205. Q. Yeah, did you get -- did you get any other benefits, any other money -- did you get the benefit of any other money from Clonsilla other than what we've already talked about?

A. No. No.

206. Q. What about vehicles? Did you drive vehicles?

A. I did, yes. I drove a vehicle that was owned by the company. Oh, sorry, you were -- meant that. Okay. I also got my drug plan paid for from the company. Yes, I drove a vehicle. The company also would have covered the insurance because the vehicles were in the company name. Is that what you're asking? Is -- is what -- anything I benefitted? Okay.

So at some point, I think my cellphone was paid by them, but then I took it over because I didn't like their plan. I can't -- I -- I -- I mean, I can't really think of any other way that I -- I mean, I might have -- I would have been reimbursed, like I said, for expenses that I -- or things I bought that would have been for the office.

207. Q. Right. Okay. On the vehicle point, so let's say 2023 ---

A. Okay.

208. Q. --- did you have just one vehicle that you drove during ---

A. Yeah.

209. Q. --- that time?

A. Yeah.

210. Q. Is that sort of same for other years for you, Ms. Waddell? Like ---

A. I only ever had one vehicle, yes.

211. Q. Okay. And is it the same vehicle for, like, 2023 and 2022? Or did you sort of switch ---

A. Sometimes I would ---

212. Q. --- vehicles in the middle?

A. --- switch, but often I kept them for a long time. Like, I think I switched between two cars for a couple of years. But I get one if -- if he would lease it out to somebody, if it would come back off lease, I might get put back in that car, and -- and it -- I kind of drove whatever was available sort of thing.

213. Q. Okay. Just trying to understand that a little bit. So -- and I -- I get that it probably changed over time, so it's -- it's difficult for all of us, but if I take 2023 -- okay, Deloitte came in in October of 2023, so it's towards ---

A. Okay.

214. Q. --- the end ---

A. Yeah.

215. Q. --- to try to orient you. Are you driving, like, one -- the same car for most of 2023?

A. Yes, I believe so.

216. Q. And what car would that have been?

A. I think it was a Land Rover.

217. Q. Okay.

A. Or Land something. Land Rover, I think it's called. No, it's not. It's a Land -- maybe it's a Land Rover, I don't know. It's -- it was a white car that was a -- a white, like, SUV.

218. Q. And would you sign a lease for that vehicle? Or was it just given to you without any sort of paperwork?

A. I didn't sign a lease for a vehicle, I don't think. I don't know. I thought it was just a -- the company owned it or something, and I drove it.

219. Q. So is that how it would have worked? Like, just -- I don't know if it's -- why don't you tell me how it worked? What -- is it just someone would tell you, "This vehicle is available; you can just start driving it"? Or was there a process for you to sort of ---

A. No, I just -- Hugh would say, "Here, take this car." That's -- yeah.

220. Q. And were you driving that Land Rover for -- for a number of years?

A. Yes, pretty much. Yeah.

221. Q. Okay.

A. Although, as I say, there -- I know there was a time when -- when I got switched into, I think it was a Jeep for a bit, and then it got switched back to the Land Rover. I -- we -- whenever he had an opportunity to sell a car we were driving, he did. And sometimes I -- we got them back. Or sell or lease, I guess it would be.

If he sold it, I wouldn't get it back. But if he leased it, sometimes I would -- we'd get it back. That's what happened, I know, with the Land Rover. I think it was a -- what's the other? There's a Land Rover and a Land something.

222. Q. I think there's paperwork that shows it was a Land Rover, so ---

A. Oh, that's ---

223. Q. --- I think -- I think you're using the right ---

A. Okay.

224. Q. --- term.

A. All right.

225. Q. Okay. So just help me understand. So you would be driving the Land Rover, and then he would lease it to someone else?

A. If -- if he had a chance to lease it to someone else. But then if he had to -- if -- when he -- I think the Land Rover, it -- it ended up getting repossessed. So then I got put back in it.

226. Q. So how would someone else lease the Land Rover that you were driving?

A. Well, no, I would give it up. I got into the Jeep ---

227. Q. No, I know, but ---

A. --- they would lease that.

228. Q. I guess my question is how did they know that it's available? Like, are -- are you ---

A. Well, Hugh would have a customer come in, or Rasto would have a customer come in, looking for a particular car, I guess. They would say, "Oh, we have one. It would be one of the family members driving it." In this case, me.

Then Hugh would say, "Okay, you've got to bring the car. I -- I've got somebody to show it to." I would take it there. Sometimes they would want the car, sometimes they wouldn't. So sometimes he'd have it for the afternoon to show somebody, and I might drive a different vehicle for the afternoon.

In -- in the case of the Land Rover, I'm not sure if he leased it or if it just sat on the lot during the time I drove -- and I think it was a Jeep was the other car that I changed it with. One winter, I had a different car, but then I got the Land Rover back again. So -- but I wasn't personally leasing it.

229. Q. And do you know what year that was?

A. It'd be a 2015, '14, '16. I don't know. Somewhere around there. 2014, '15 maybe. I don't know.

230. Q. Approximately, like, 10 years ago?

A. It was -- yeah. This wasn't 10 years ago, though. Like, but it was a -- it was an older car ---

231. Q. That's ---

A. --- that I drove.

232. Q. That's the year of the car?

A. Correct.

233. Q. What year did you lose it for ---

A. Did I start driving it?

234. Q. --- did you lose it for the winter, and you had to take over the Jeep?

A. I don't remember. I don't remember what years. I don't remember which years I had it. I had it -- over a couple of years, I had it for most of the time other than one time, like I say, in the winter when I took a different vehicle.

MR. ALLEYNE: Do you remember the other car that you -- that he gave you?

THE DEPONENT: I think it was a Jeep. That's what I'm saying. I think.

MR. ALLEYNE: What colour?

THE DEPONENT: I don't know. Black. It was a black Jeep, but I don't remember what year or anything. I didn't drive it very long. I only had it that one winter.

MR. ALLEYNE: Like, a Wrangler? Or, like, a Grand Cherokee?

THE DEPONENT: Probably a -- probably -- I don't know. What's the -- I don't know the difference, really.

MR. ALLEYNE: Oh, okay.

THE DEPONENT: I'm not sure.

MR. ALLEYNE: I was going to -- I was trying to see (inaudible).

THE DEPONENT: I'm not sure. But I mean, I would sometimes go shopping and come out and have a different car. Because if he had a car -- customer to show the car to, he'd come and take my cars, and show it to a customer, and sometimes I'd get it back, and sometimes the customer would buy it, so I wouldn't see it again.

BY MR. MCGRATH:

235. Q. All right. And you don't ever remember signing -- I don't have one that I'm planning to show you. I'm just -- just confirming. I -- I understood your evidence to be you don't really remember ever signing a -- a lease for any of these vehicles. You were just given ---

A. I don't remember that, no.

236. Q. In front of you is a brief of bank statements. These are statements from Clonsilla's account, RBC account. And I just have a couple questions for you based on some of the documents in there. So Tab A, go to page 2 of 28. Your counsel can help. So you'll see there's May 1st, and then a few lines down, I -- I see e-transfer sent to Nancy Waddell ---

A. M'hmm.

237. Q. --- for $1000.

A. M'hmm.

238. Q. Is this an example of what we talked about at the beginning, of just you're -- you're getting paid wages and ---

A. Yeah.

239. Q. Okay. If you can skip ahead to 7 of 28, here on May 11th, there's -- there's two -- one for $500, and one for $1,000.

A. M'hmm.

240. Q. Do you know why you'd be getting those two transfers?

A. I -- I -- probably he gave me $500, and I said, "No, I need more." So he sent me another one.

241. Q. Okay. And that's the same thing we've been talking about, that's just wages, essentially, for the work that you were doing, but it wasn't strictly kept track of?

A. That's right. Yeah. I mean, I think there's some years I took more than other years, or received more, sorry. I shouldn't say "took," I guess, but received more than other years. And it was

-- I mean, it was, you know, kind of a loosey-goosey arrangement. I -- if I needed more, I'd take more. If he needed more work, I would do more work.

242. Q. Can you just flip to page ---

A. M'hmm.

243. Q. --- to 9 of 28?

A. M'hmm.

244. Q. And the very -- so this is four days later on May 15th. The very top line there.

A. M'hmm.

245. Q. You get $2,800 ---

A. Right.

246. Q. --- for this one, which is one of the larger ones we have to you. Do you -- is this the same as -- I guess -- is your answer the same for this one as for the other ones? Or is there ---

A. I -- I would think ---

247. Q. --- something you remember ---

A. --- so, unless -- if you want me to consult my calendar, I can maybe see if there was something I was paying or something at the time.

248. Q. How about we do it this way? If after this examination, you're able to give me any more details about why you might have been ---

A. Okay.

249. Q. --- receiving this money, I'd like to -- very interested to hear it. But I'm just going to assume that -- if I don't hear from you, I'm going to assume that this is just the same thing we've been talking about ---

A. I know in ---

250. Q. --- just wages.

A. I know in 2022, I took a T4 and declared I think it was about $43,000 and some odd dollars. So I would have taken that, and in 2023, I only took around 22,000 or something. So I presume, if we add these up, that's probably mostly what it would be. I mean, there might be the odd thing that was sent, like I said, as a pay back for something else, but I'm not sure. You must know how much I took. Do you?

251. Q. I have -- I guess I could add them up, yeah.

THE DEPONENT: Yeah, I mean, I -- I -- I didn't receive large amounts of money other than -- other than what I declared as -- as income, I don't believe. Do I need to (inaudible) my T4s?

MR. HARRIS: No, they'll ask me.

THE DEPONENT: Okay.

BY MR. MCGRATH:

252. Q. I can take you to each time you ---

A. M'hmm.

253. Q. --- you received money. But Ms. Waddell, I'm just wondering if I can fast track this. Maybe I can just give you the references, and I'm going to give your counsel a copy of this to walk away with. I'm going to assume that all of the transfers to you, and these are what we've talked about, that they're all the same. They're sort of wages that you were paid.

A. That's what I'm going to assume as well. I mean, I haven't seen this, but I know what I got in my account. I sent you guys my -- what I received. So I presume if they -- if they add up the same -- unless there's something that, you know, you want to direct me to that seems ---

254. Q. I mean, I can't, like, you know, for example, on -- I'll just -- without taking you there, I'll just tell you. You know, on June 6th, you got $2,000. On June 16th, you got $1,000. On June 26th, you got $2,000. I'm going to assume that those are -- I suspect, if I take you to those, you're just going to tell me the -- the same thing, that you think they were probably wages, but you're not 100 percent sure. If that -- if I'm wrong, then I'll take you to each one and ask you ---

A. Well, I ---

255. Q. --- but ---

THE DEPONENT: Yeah, I mean, I -- you know, I -- I didn't bring my -- I forwarded my bank statements ---

MR. HARRIS: Yeah.

THE DEPONENT: --- to you, right? So if you would -- if you have those, I can -- I can tell you if I received them at the same time. I -- well, I mean, if they went out of here, they went into my account. I only have the -- the one account they were going into.

BY MR. MCGRATH:

256. Q. Right. And I'm only asking about the purpose -- I -- I agree. If -- if they're on here, then they're on your account ---

A. Right.

257. Q. --- too. It's just if there's some purpose other than, you know, what we've talked about today, which was sort of your wages ---

A. My wages, maybe ---

258. Q. --- or income splitting.

A. --- potentially some income splitting, and potentially pay back if I purchased something. Those would be the only reasons that I received the monies.

MR. MCGRATH: Okay. So Counsel ---

THE DEPONENT: Yeah.

MR. MCGRATH: --- I'm going to give you the references for what's in this document that Ms. Waddell received. I'm going to assume that they are all for either wages or income splitting. If that's -- if you get -- have information to tell me that's wrong, "Actually, I got money for X, Y, or Z reason,"

MR. HARRIS: Okay.

MR. MCGRATH: --- or, "I was repaid for some $1,000 payment I made on behalf on the company," please -- I'd ask for an undertaking for you to -- to let me know, but I'm going to assume that they're -- they're not ---

THE DEPONENT: I -- I did give you guys all my bank statements, and I circled them. Remember, Matthew?

MR. HARRIS: Yeah.

THE DEPONENT: I sent everything to you.

MR. HARRIS: Yeah, I sent -- I sent them to you.

THE DEPONENT: And I sent you all my bank statements from the period you asked for. And -- and -- and I would have marked anything -- so no, I don't believe there was anything unusual. Because I would have marked it at the time.

BY MR. MCGRATH:

259. Q. Okay. I think that' -- I think that's right, which is why I'm trying to ---

A. Yeah.

260. Q. --- short circuit this. So ---

A. Yeah.

261. Q. --- the references, just for your counsel, so we went through May 1st, there are two on May 11th that we went through, and there was one on May 15th we talked about.

A. Okay.

262. Q. There's a transfer for $2,000 on June 6th, $1,000 on June 16th, $2,000 for June 26th, $750 on July 5th ---

A. Is this all 2023?

263. Q. This is all 2023.

A. Can we add that up, and I can tell you if that's right?

264. Q. You can do it however you want. I'm just -- I'm just trying to get these on the record. $500 on June -- July 11th, $1,000 on July 25th, $1,800 on September 20th, and $1,000 on September 29th. As I said, I think those will match up with your records, and that'll be the reason why you received that money. If I'm wrong, or there's some other explanation, I just ask you to let me know.

A. Okay.

(Whereupon UNDERTAKING NO. 3: To advise if the deponent received the funds for any reason other than what has already been discussed.)

BY MR. MCGRATH:

265. Q. And there's just two other references that I wanted to take you to. If you can just flip to Tab E, please. And page 10 of 25 on the bottom. So it should be September 20th at the top. Are you ---

A. Yeah.

266. Q. --- with me?

A. M'hmm.

267. Q. There's a payment. It says, "Insurance Northbridge," for $1,469.90 about halfway through that date.

A. Yeah, I see that.

268. Q. Do you ---

A. Oh, the company. The insurance company, oddly enough, is called Northbridge.

269. Q. So that has nothing to do with ---

A. Northbridge Estates, not ---

270. Q. --- your Northbridge company?

A. --- my company, no. The insurance -- I know. I -- I looked at that twice myself when I saw it. And -- and it was called, "Northbridge Insurance Company."

271. Q. Okay.

A. Yeah, it's got nothing to do with me.

272. Q. That's also what I thought, but I wanted to ---

A. Yeah.

273. Q. --- make sure. Okay. Ms. Waddell, do you know who had the power to withdraw money from Clonsilla's RBC bank account?

A. No. Like ---

274. Q. You did ---

A. --- all, you mean?

275. Q. You didn't have the power to ---

A. Well, I -- I might have been a signing authority, but I...

276. Q. Did you ever take cash out of the Clonsilla RBC account?

A. No.

277. Q. Hugh would have had the power to do that, right?

A. I would think so, yes.

278. Q. Is there anyone else you know of that had the power ---

A. I don't.

279. Q. --- to do that?

A. I don't know.

280. Q. Is there any reason you can think of why large amounts of cash would be withdrawn in cash from the Clonsilla account?

A. I -- I don't know. I didn't have anything to do with Clonsilla, really. Other than, you know, I mean, on a very surface level.

281. Q. And then you -- you mentioned the credit cards.

A. Wait a minute. How large an amount of cash?

282. Q. More than $10,000.

A. Oh, no. No.

283. Q. You mentioned the credit card. You mentioned -- sorry, before I move on. You -- you asked me the question. So if there was a smaller amount of cash than that ---

A. Well, then I would think maybe some petty cash to pay drivers, to do drives to Toronto, things like that. I think they -- (phone rings). Oh, I'm so sorry guys. I forgot to shut it off. (Inaudible). Oh, it's Telus. Sorry. I'll shut this off. There. Sorry.

284. Q. That's absolutely fine. Yeah, so that would be more, like, hundreds of dollars, o maybe up to 1,000, but ---

A. I would think. I mean -- yeah.

285. Q. It's not ---

A. Beyond -- I'm just actually guessing, to tell you the truth, because I didn't know.

286. Q. So for the credit cards, we -- you mentioned that a little bit earlier. How -- how many credit cards are in your name?

A. My name? I have a BMO Mastercard. That's all I have now. I don't know. Over the years, I'm not sure.

287. Q. Did -- did Clonsilla ever pay accounts that you would have made charges to?

A. They might have. Like I said, they might have paid me back for something I purchased, potentially.

288. Q. Okay. Did you have joint credit cards with -- with Hugh?

A. Well, I don't know if you call them joint or not. They were his credit cards, but, like, in his credit, but I had a card in my name, but he had to pay it.

289. Q. Did you ever charge anything for personal -- your personal use that had nothing to do with Clonsilla to that credit card?

A. Well, probably.

290. Q. Okay. Were you keeping track of that ---

A. No.

291. Q. --- at all?

A. No.

292. Q. So ---

A. Like, this -- the card was in his name.

293. Q. Okay. But you charged to it ---

A. Sure.

294. Q. --- sometimes, right?

A. Yeah.

295. Q. And sometimes those were personal charges?

A. I -- probably.

296. Q. And then the company would have paid the account?

A. I don't know. I don't know if they were ---

297. Q. But you didn't pay it?

A. No, I did not. Yeah. Hugh may have paid it out of his personal account, and paid the -- I don't know.

298. Q. You said that now you only have the BMO card. When did you stop having ---

A. I don't -- oh, I -- well, he -- I don't know. I don't know exactly when, but we stopped using American Express. So I don't -- I didn't have that card anymore.

299. Q. So can we focus, please, on October 2022 to October 2023?

A. Yeah.

300. Q. The -- those are what these questions are going to be about, okay? How many credit cards did you have during that time that you could charge to?

A. Two. My BMO account, and his American Express card.

301. Q. Okay. And the American Express, did the company ever pay your BMO ---

A. No.

302. Q. --- card? So that was purely personal?

A. Correct.

303. Q. For the ---

A. Oh, now wait a minute. They may have given me some money, like I say, to -- to repay me if -- if I did purchase something. I -- I can't say definitively, "No, they never gave me any money for it." I always paid my own BMO card, though. So it is possible. I might have gone to Costco and bought something at Costco for the office on my BMO credit card and then presented them with the bill; they would give me the money, and then I would pay my BMO card.

304. Q. Okay. But Clonsilla is not paying your BMO card directly?

A. No. No.

305. Q. So let's take the Amex card, then, for that period. October 2022 to October 2023. Are you making personal charges, charges that aren't for the business, that are for our own personal use, whatever they are, during that period?

A. Yes. I -- yeah.

306. Q. And I hear you, you're not sure whether the company paid that account, or whether Hugh did personally, but you didn't personally pay it? It didn't come out of your account to pay that card?

A. Correct. Well, not my banking account. It might have come off my wage part, my banked wages or something. I don't know.

307. Q. Okay. Do you have access to the credit card statements just for that period, October 2022 to October 2023?

A. My credit card statements?

308. Q. For the Amex card.

A. No, I don't.

309. Q. Do you have paper records of them anywhere?

A. No, I -- I -- I never got them. I wasn't --

I was only a supplementary card holder. I -- it wasn't my account. It was his. They wouldn't even speak to me on the phone because I'm just a supplementary card.

MR. MCGRATH: Okay. Can we just take maybe five minutes off the record?

THE REPORTER: We're off record.

OFF THE RECORD AT 12:24 P.M.

(WHEREUPON A BRIEF RECESS WAS TAKEN)

ON THE RECORD AT 12:41 P.M.

THE REPORTER: We are on the record.

NANCY WADDELL, resumed,

310. Q. Okay, just a couple sort of clean up questions. The Land Rover. You told me that there was one winter when you didn't have it, or otherwise you had it ---

A. It might have been the fall, but it was at some point ---

311. Q. Winter or fall.

A. Yeah, m'hmm.

312. Q. Okay. So am I safe in saying, you know, in 2023, from the spring of 2023 on, that was your car? You were driving it for that time at least, right?

A. I think so.

313. Q. Okay. My colleague has a copy of the credit card statement for the Amex card for March of 2023, and I'm sorry, I don't have a paper copy, but I'm just going to pass it so that you and your counsel ---

MS. KENNEDY: No, I'm going to -- you can just -- Matthew, just -- it's two fingers to scroll. So I went to the top. It's just here. You can scroll down on the PDF. Take as much time with it -- the pages, I think, starts on 7 or so ---

MR. MCGRATH: You don't want to just print this?

MS. KENNEDY: We can after.

MR. MCGRATH: I'm only going to show the one statement. So I mean, I'm happy to print it if you can't see that.

MR. HARRIS: No, just because it's easier if we have to mark it or anything like that. It might just be easier. They have a printer here.

MR. MCGRATH: We can do that. Can I just ask some questions, and we -- we'll print it for the -- and -- and make a paper copy?

MR. HARRIS: Yeah, that's fine. I just thought if you're going to ask questions, then she might want to have it in front of her. Is that okay? Or do you want to just email it to me?

MR. MCGRATH: If -- if you're -- if you're saying -- if you're -- if you can't deal with this, then we'll -- we'll find another way. But I don't have very many questions about it, and I -- I -- I suspect ---

MS. KENNEDY: It starts on page 7.

MR. MCGRATH: So ---

MR. HARRIS: Page 7?

MR. MCGRATH: --- if you go to page 7 ---

MS. KENNEDY: Like this -- I'm just showing you the top ---

MR. HARRIS: Right.

MS. KENNEDY: --- which is the document, but it's just the statement, and where the questions will start is page 7.

MR. HARRIS: Maybe we'll -- let's just go off the record for one second.

THE REPORTER: We are off the record.

OFF THE RECORD AT 12:42 P.M.

(WHEREUPON A BRIEF RECESS WAS TAKEN)

ON THE RECORD AT 12:44 P.M.

THE REPORTER: We are on the record.

NANCY WADDELL, resumed,

314. Q. So we just went off the record, and just -- you looked with your counsel at some of the entries on this statement. And my questions are just -- were you in Florida in March 2023?

A. Yes.

315. Q. And so when we see charges here under the -- the -- under your name on the statement, those would be charges that you yourself ---

MR. HARRIS: It's not (indiscernible) ---

THE DEPONENT: Oh, not necessarily, because Hugh was with me at the same time, so it might have been -- well, it -- it was either him or me, yes.

BY MR. MCGRATH:

316. Q. Okay. And certainly charges appearing in Florida, those wouldn't have been for the business, those ---

A. No.

317. Q. --- would have been personal, right?

A. Correct.

318. Q. Okay. And just generally, if I'm looking at statements like this, one -- do you agree with me that charges made under your card for this account appear under your name on these statements? That seems to be how they're organized, right?

A. Yes.

MR. MCGRATH: Okay. For the record, I'm -- I'd like to mark the brief as Exhibit 1 to your examination just so it's consistent between the examinations today.

(Whereupon EXHIBIT NO. 1 : Brief of bank statements.)

MR. MCGRATH: And then we will make a printout copy of -- well, we'll -- we'll mark that statement as Exhibit 2 to your examination, and we'll make sure your counsel gets a copy of it. I think actually probably at this point, it probably makes sense just to send it to you electronically.

MR. HARRIS: That's fine.

(Whereupon EXHIBIT NO. 2 : Bank statement dated February 24, 2023, to March 23, 2023.)

BY MR. MCGRATH:

319. Q. We talked about your T4s. So there was a T4 prepared for you for 2023, right?

A. I believe so. I know there was for 2022. I'm not sure. I know I -- I filed taxes for both years.

320. Q. Who would have prepared your T4 for 2023?

A. I don't know. I don't know. Might have been the accountant. I don't know who did that, so...

321. Q. Okay. Was it Hugh who gave it to you, or was it your accountant who gave it to you?

A. No, I think the accountant had it.

322. Q. Okay. Could I ask -- I don't think we have a -- I was trying to check to see whether we had it already, but could I ask for a copy of your T4 for 2023 showing your income from Clonsilla?

MR. HARRIS: So the -- the T4 from Clonsilla?

MR. MCGRATH: Right. I don't want to know other income ---

THE DEPONENT: I -- I ---

MR. MCGRATH: --- from other sources.

THE DEPONENT: I'm not sure that -- that they issued a T4 for 2023. I think the accountant just did my taxes based on what I took.

BY MR. MCGRATH:

323. Q. All right. Can I just ask you to just double check?

A. Sure.

324. Q. Best efforts.

A. Yeah.

MR. HARRIS: Yeah.

BY MR. MCGRATH:

325. Q. If you don't have it, then obviously you can't.

A. Yeah, because they didn't have the books anymore, right?

326. Q. Right.

A. By the time the T4 would have been due.

327. Q. I think my understanding ---

A. (Indiscernible) ---

328. Q. --- is there -- I'm sorry to interrupt. I think my understanding there was a T4 filed with CRA on your behalf that Deloitte didn't see, but that could be wrong. My information could be wrong. So to the extent you have a copy of the T4 for 2023 related to Clonsilla, I'd ask you to please produce it.

MR. HARRIS: Okay, yeah.

THE DEPONENT: Okay.

MR. HARRIS: Yeah.

(Whereupon UNDERTAKING NO. 4: To make best efforts to produce a copy of the deponent's T4 for 2023 related to Clonsilla Auto Sales and Leasing.)

BY MR. MCGRATH:

329. Q. And then I'd also ask that your T4s for other years that you have records for from Clonsilla also be produced.

MR. HARRIS: Okay.

THE DEPONENT: For how many years?

BY MR. MCGRATH:

330. Q. How many years do you have them for?

A. I don't know. I don't know.

331. Q. Well, I think I usually ---

A. I'm not sure ---

332. Q. I think I usually ---

A. --- actually, if I have any of them. I -- I know I saw my taxes for -- because I got a CRA letter. But I don't know if I've got them, or the accountant has them all.

333. Q. Okay. Let's take the two questions separately. So as far as how long, I think I usually say the last five years. So anything before that, I think -- I'm not asking for, but for the last five years. So '23, '22, '21, '20, and '19. And then I'd ask you to ask your accountant to see if -- that's Sid?

A. Yeah.

MR. MCGRATH: I'd ask you to ask him if he'll give you a copy, and if he will, if you'll give those to us, please. So that's -- that's an undertaking, Counsel? Just for the record.

MR. HARRIS: It is, yes.

MR. MCGRATH: Thank you.

(Whereupon UNDERTAKING NO. 5: To produce copies of the deponent's T4s from Clonsilla Auto Sales and Leasing from 2019, 2020, 2021, 2022, and 2023.)

BY MR. MCGRATH:

334. Q. We talked about the children giving money to Clonsilla as a flow through through Northbridge. Do you know of anyone else who loaned money to Clonsilla through Northbridge?

A. No, I don't -- I don't know.

335. Q. Do you know who Virginia Hamilton is?

A. Yes.

336. Q. Who is she?

A. She's a friend of mine.

337. Q. Do you know that she loaned money to Clonsilla?

A. I do now.

338. Q. Did she loan money through Northbridge?

A. Not that I know of.

339. Q. Is there a way for you to check? If you're checking ---

A. M'hmm.

340. Q. Northbridge doesn't have many transactions, you told me earlier. So ---

A. Yeah.

341. Q. --- can I ask you to look at Northbridge's statements, the ones that you have, and let me know if there was anyone else who loaned money to Clonsilla through Northbridge ---

A. M'hmm.

342. Q. --- please? Sorry, you just have to say "yes" or "no" for the record.

A. Oh, sorry. Yes.

343. Q. Thank you. And that will -- that will cover the next -- I was going to ask about Cheryl Ambrose. Do you know who that is?

A. I do.

344. Q. Did she loan money to Clonsilla?

A. No, not that I know of.

345. Q. Okay. So I'd just ask you -- my understanding is she did, and I take it from your last answer, you don't know if she flowed it through Northbridge.

A. Well, I know that he sold a car for her.

346. Q. Okay.

MS. KENNEDY: Who is Cheryl Ambrose?

THE DEPONENT: She's a friend of mine.

MS. KENNEDY: Okay.

THE DEPONENT: And her husband died, and she asked him to sell her car.

BY MR. MCGRATH:

347. Q. Okay. So that'll be subsumed -- included in the last undertaking, then. If you -- if you see through your records for Northbridge that anyone, including Ms. Ambrose, Ms. Hamilton, or anyone else was flowing money through Northbridge to Clonsilla, you'll -- you'll let me know ---

A. M'hmm.

348. Q. --- please.

(Whereupon UNDERTAKING NO. 6: To check Northbridge Estates' records and advise if there was anyone else, aside from the deponent's children, who loaned money to Clonsilla Auto Sales and Leasing through Northbridge Estates.)

BY MR. MCGRATH:

349. Q. And I'd like to know the details of -- of those. So, you know, how much, and when it came to Northbridge, and then when it when to Clonsilla.

MR. HARRIS: Okay.

MS. KENNEDY: (Inaudible). Thank you. (Inaudible).

MR. MCGRATH: Oh, yeah.

MS. KENNEDY: (Inaudible).

(Whereupon UNDERTAKING NO. 7: If there was anyone else, aside from the deponent's children, who loaned money to Clonsilla Auto Sales and Leasing through Northbridge Estates, to advise as to how much was loaned, when the loan came to Northbridge Estates, and when the loan went to Clonsilla Auto Sales and Leasing.)

NANCY WADDELL, resumed,

EXAMINATION BY MS. KENNEDY:

350. Q. I just wanted to ask you -- I wasn't going to ask any questions, but I think it's easier than me -- us taking another break and then getting him to ask them. So am I right that before 2018 when you said you swapped businesses, you generally, then, ran Clonsilla? Is that how it worked?

A. Yes.

351. Q. Okay. And when you were running Clonsilla, did you ever make large cash withdrawals as part of operating the business?

A. Not that I recall.

352. Q. Okay. So I just want to take you to, for example -- and I'm going to take you to Tab C.

MR. MCGRATH: This is Exhibit 1, Tab C.

BY MS. KENNEDY:

353. Q. Can we turn to page 3? So do you see at the fourth line from the bottom, and this is a July 4th transaction, why would two transactions cash withdrawals? And first you can see there's $200,000 --

A. I don't know. I wasn't running the company then.

354. Q. Did you ever make cash withdrawals like that when you were running the business?

A. Not that I can recall.

355. Q. And in running a dealership, would there be any purpose ---

A. I don't know. Because I ---

356. Q. --- to take out ---

A. --- I -- I don't -- I don't know. That was...

357. Q. It's July 4th ---

A. Yeah.

358. Q. --- 2023. And then I'm going to take you forward two more pages, to page 5.

THE DEPONENT: Are you writing this one down, please?

MR. HARRIS: I'm going to -- yeah.

THE DEPONENT: M'hmm.

MR. HARRIS: It's all on the record, so...

THE DEPONENT: I'm sorry, to page 5?

BY MS. KENNEDY:

359. Q. Yes.
A. Yes.
360. Q. And then if you go also near the bottom ---
A. I see it.
361. Q. --- seven lines up, you can see there's another cash withdrawal ---
A. M'hmm.
362. Q. --- for 169,000. And it -- you know of no reason that there would be such large cash withdrawals?
A. No.
363. Q. And then just in the same -- same one, the very next page, again, on C, C(6), which is July 10th, there's another cash withdrawal of 162,000.
A. Yeah. Cash? They wouldn't even give that kind of cash. Oh, there's a deposit of 162 going up on July 7th. There's a deposit of 162,000, and then there is, three days later, a withdrawal of 162, too.
364. Q. M'hmm. We're trying to figure that out as well.

MR. HARRIS: Was that taken out in paper money?

MS. KENNEDY: That's what we understand. We know that it's not ---

THE DEPONENT: I mean, the banks don't even carry that much money. Ask Hugh where -- where it went or what it was for.

BY MS. KENNEDY:

365. Q. I'm just asking you right now.

A. I don't know.

366. Q. And then do you know who Rasto Beekman is?

A. Yeah.

367. Q. And do you know if he also was a creditor of Clonsilla? Did Clonsilla owe him money?

A. I don't know.

368. Q. You don't know? Okay. So I'm going to take you to ---

A. He worked for the company. He was a sales rep.

369. Q. Correct.

A. Yeah.

370. Q. So I'm going to take you to letter B, Tab B.

A. "B"?

371. Q. "B," yeah.

A. Okay.

372. Q. Of the same exhibit. And at -- I'm going to skip ahead for you and go to the very last page of this document.

A. Okay.

373. Q. And if you look at the very bottom,

Rastislav Scasny, I understand that's another name that Rasto ---

A. Yes.

374. Q. --- Beekman goes by.

A. Yes.

375. Q. Do you know any reason why Clonsilla would be paying him $95,000?

A. I do not.

376. Q. You do not? Because it seems like a large sum of money to pay to an employee that's a salesperson.

A. Yeah, I -- I -- I don't know anything about it.

MR. MCGRATH: All right. Subject to the undertakings and any questions that arise from those, that concludes our questions for this witness today. Thank you very much.

THE DEPONENT: Thank you.

THE REPORTER: Off record.

EXAMINATION FOR DISCOVERY OF SARA WADDELL

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 2024

2:58 P.M.

COURT REPORTER: Ms. Waddell, I'm going to affirm you. Do you solemnly affirm that the evidence you're about to give should be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth?

THE DEPONENT: I do.

COURT REPORTER: Okay. Please state and spell your name for the record.

THE DEPONENT: Sara Waddell, S-A-R-A W-A-D-D-E-L-L.

COURT REPORTER: Thank you. We're on the record.

SARA WADDELL, affirmed,

EXAMINATION BY MR. MCGRATH:

1. Q. Good afternoon.

A. Hello.

2. Q. Just going to start with some background questions. Do you have any formal post-secondary education?

A. I did a couple of certificates in painting and jewellery and then I did a fine arts degree with a minor in history.

3. Q. Okay, and where did you go to get the fine arts degree?

A. Georgian College and Thompson University. Thompson Rivers University.

4. Q. Do you have any other post-secondary education?

A. I don't think so.

5. Q. And then for your employment history, where are you currently employed?

A. Well, I was helping run a garage service centre but that's no longer. So, I'm presently looking for work again.

6. Q. Okay. When did you work for the service centre?

A. January until two weeks ago.

7. Q. Okay. And then before January, where were you working?

A. I had worked at Clonsilla for, like, part-time. I'd say probably, like, 100 hours or something in 2023. Just trying to help them with stuff and then before that I'd worked as an administrator for several non-profit.

8. Q. Okay. So, those approximately 100 hours in 2023, what were you doing for Clonsilla?

A. They didn't have a great process for repos, so I was trying to help them create one. In the middle of my doing that I was hit by a car and had a severe concussion and I was ordered to not be on screens for six weeks. So, that's why it didn't really get completed.

9. Q. So, the approximate 100 hours is really helpful for me to understand how much, but was it sort of concentrated, like, before the accident?

A. Yes.

10. Q. Is that fair?

A. Yes.

11. Q. When was the accident?

A. It was in middle of June. So the work started in April and most of it was May, early June. And then I did a couple of hours in July -- no, no, in August. Yeah.

12. Q. Okay. So ---

A. Bulk of it was in September.

13. Q. Bulk of it was in September?

A. I'd say so. I can't remember perfectly. I'm sorry.

14. Q. That's fine. Is it fair to say before April 2023 you weren't doing much work for Clonsilla?

A. No. As little as possible.
15. Q. Right. Okay. And then when you were doing those 100 hours or so of work, how were you compensated for that? Were you on the payroll, for example?
A. Yes, hourly. Yes.
16. Q. What was your hourly rate?
A. Thirty-five. Because it was -- he wasn't charging them for everything.
17. Q. Okay. And then did you have an actual employment agreement with Clonsilla?
A. I don't know. I got payroll, pay stubs. There wasn't anything very formal because they just wanted me to -- they didn't even know what the parameters were they wanted me to do. They just were, like, "Can you do something with this?" and I was, like, "Yes." So, I created the system and then it never got implemented.
18. Q. Okay. But you wouldn't have been paid outside of sort of ordinary payroll for the work that you were doing ---
A. No.
19. Q. --- for Clonsilla?
A. No, sir.
20. Q. And then I understand you've also made loans to Clonsilla?

A. Yeah.

21. Q. Could you tell me a little bit about those? How much money have you loaned to Clonsilla?

A. It's in the creditor report that I provided. So, without looking at it, because it was a lot of amount over the time from -- I think it was '08, was the first installment. Might have been '07. I can't remember. And then -- so let's think. In 2017, I gave an amount, in 2018 I gave some more. I think it was 2019 as well, and then not in 2020. Then again of '21, '22, and '23. But I'd have to look at the creditor report. I'm so sorry I don't...

22. Q. Proof of claim.

A. Proof of claim? Sorry. Sorry I don't know the word.

MS. KENNEDY: Who did you send the proof of claim to?

THE DEPONENT: Hugh submitted it.

MS. KENNEDY: Oh okay.

MR. MCGRATH: Yeah.

BY MR. MCGRATH:

23. Q. Okay, so, I'll look at your proof of claim for the exact amounts. What did you have in terms of loan agreements with Clonsilla?

A. So, it was mostly just that I would provide the loan. I would be paid back in interest. And then when I asked for the full amount or he had sold the company or something or whatever, whatever changes there were, then I could withdraw the loan and be paid out what I was owed for the loan.

24. Q. Okay. And that's true for every advance you made, it was the same general terms?

A. No, not for every one. There was short-term ones that were given, like, in May 2020 -- yes, May 2023. It was a short-term loan of 75,000 and then he paid me back in June for that. And then again in August and October and November; they were short-term loans. They were only supposed to be 30 days each. And there was a couple like that throughout the time that is noted in the report that I don't know off-hand because there -- there was a lot of them.

25. Q. Okay. Did you have a written loan agreement?

A. The promissory note. Yeah. The big one. Yeah.

26. Q. Okay. Have you provided a copy of that?

A. Yes.

27. Q. With your proof of claim?

A. Yes.

28. Q. Okay. Are there any other agreements or there's just really the one big one, or were there, you know, for the short-term loans for example, did you enter into separate loan agreements for each one?

A. I don't think so. It was all done through my bank, through CIBC, and so Paul Whelan, who's my advisor, he said he could talk about them because he was the one that spoke to Clonsilla about the terms.

29. Q. Sorry, what's Paul's last name?

A. Whelan, W-H-E-L-A-N.

30. Q. And is he with CIBC in Peterborough?

A. No, in Toronto.

31. Q. In Toronto. Do you know what branch? Is it a Scarborough branch?

A. It's not at a branch. He's part of Wood Gundy.

32. Q. Okay. So, he works for CIBC Wood Gundy in Toronto?

A. Yeah, sorry, I should have said that first. Yeah.

33. Q. All right and he -- is it that he'd have the details of if there were any written loan agreements for the other one, the other loans?

A. Yeah, well, like, it was all -- yeah, it was all done between Hugh's CIBC bank account for ease and then directed him into, sort of, a facilitation agreement to -- from there. So, he -- Paul would be the one that would know what was securing these. As far as I knew, it was all just short-term loans. He agreed to pay them back and that's what he did for all the time that we did these things.

34. Q. I apologize, I don't have your proof of claim in front of me but how much money do you say you're still owed from Clonsilla, sitting here right now?

A. Okay, so probably around, like, again it's been a minute since I reviewed it, probably around 1.3 or 4.

35. Q. Right. And I'll look at your proof of claim to get the exact amount.

A. Thank you. Yeah. Sorry.

36. Q. Okay. That's fine. And then -- so you were receiving interest payments, sort of, over time for all these loans?

A. M'hmm.

37. Q. Were they -- you know, like, weekly you were getting interest payments?

A. Usually, yes. After 2017.

38. Q. Okay. And were all of your loans directly to Clonsilla? We heard that some loans may have been through an intermediary. Northbridge ---

A. Sometimes.

39. Q. --- Estates?

A. Yeah. And those are all documented in the credit ---

40. Q. Okay, so ---

A. --- I forget what it's called already, sorry.

41. Q. The proof of claim.

A. Thank you. Geez, sorry. Yeah.

42. Q. Okay, so you've tried to lay out in your proof of claim what was directly with Clonsilla and what was through Northbridge Estates?

A. Yes.

43. Q. Are those the only two options, like...

A. There was -- because of Hugh's CIBC account, because he had invested with CIBC and I had as well, it was sometimes directed directly through him to Clonsilla through there. Sometimes. I avoided that for obvious reasons.

44. Q. Okay. I'm -- so, today we've been asking people to use their best efforts to collect all the documents and evidence they have of -- of everything. Seems to me like with the proof of claim you've made, you may have already done that and so I'm not going to ask you to do that today because I think, to be fair to you, I'll look at what you've already given us.

A. Okay.

45. Q. If I have specific documents, probably one of my colleagues will tell me at a break and I'll ask for it, but I ---

A. Sure.

46. Q. --- I -- to the extent I'm going through my records and there's something that I would like to have that I don't see in our records, I think maybe I'll just reach out to your counsel directly and see if we can't make the request there, rather than putting you under oath again and asking for it. But I don't really see the point in asking you for undertakings today if you've already done the work and put together the -- the proof of claim. So, that's why I'm not going to ask for that today. And if, in the future, if there's something I want, I'll make the request through your counsel. And if there's something we see at a -- at a break today and I can avoid that then I'll ask for it after the break.

A. Okay. Sure.

47. Q. Are you aware of your siblings making loans to Clonsilla as well?

A. Broadly.

48. Q. So, if I take Meggan, your sister, for an example, do you know how much money she would have loaned to Clonsilla?

A. No.

49. Q. And would you know any of the details around, you know, how much she would get paid back or how much she has been paid back, for example?

A. I do know that she had taken some money out to start her business. And I do know that their arrangement payment was not based on interest. That, like mine -- I was very adamant that mine be structured and I know hers was not. And that is about the only difference. Like, I know that Clonsilla was responsible for paying, like, for her cellphone for example. But, yeah...

50. Q. And what about your brother, Taylor? Did he loan money?

A. I think it was the same. Yeah.

51. Q. Do you think he was the -- I'm sorry. Do you think he was the same as your sister?

A. Yes. I believe so. The structure was similar because they were close to home. They had more dealings, so...

52. Q. And then, with your brother loss and I know that it's -- the situation is a little bit different, but do you know if there were funds that were his that were also loans to Clonsilla?

A. No. I don't believe so, that I know of. I'm not saying that they didn't, I just don't know ---

53. Q. Okay.

A. --- anything about that part.

54. Q. So, in front of me there's a brief called "Bank statements." So, a couple of questions about them. So, if you go to tab A, these are bank statements from Clonsilla's Royal Bank ---

A. M'hmm.

55. Q. --- account. And so, you see the first one at tab A is April 27th, 2023, to May 26, 2023.

A. Yes.

56. Q. If I look at page 4 of 28.

A. M'hmm.

57. Q. That's the first time I see your name. You'll see on May 3rd ---

A. M'hmm.

58. Q. --- about 10 lines up from the bottom or so, ---

A. Yes.

59. Q. --- you received $2,349.

A. Yes.

60. Q. Is that an interest payment for your loan?

A. That would be the standard one that I would get every week, yes.

61. Q. Yeah. And I see that. Now it's not -- most of them are almost every week. There are some that are off, like, so this was May 3rd for example.

A. M'hmm.

62. Q. The next one is May 5th ---

A. M'hmm.

63. Q. --- which is unusual for 2349, but after that they get pretty regular every week?

A. Yeah. He had told me that he had missed one before, like, I don't know when, but yeah.

64. Q. And where I see one -- I'll take you to it. So, there's one on May 26th. Page 14 of 28. Just four lines from the bottom.

A. Four lines from the bottom. Sara Waddell, 3604 ---

65. Q. So that one's just a different amount than the other ones. Do you know why that might be?

A. Yes. That was part of a -- I'd given him, I think it was $14,000. I want to say it might have been January or February; it had to do with a short-term loan. What was it for? I think it's noted in the creditor thing. Let me try and remember. Where was it? Anyway, yeah, it was a short-term loan, 14,000. Don't know if it was January, February, or March. I don't know. My house sunk that year, so everything he had -- yeah, we had exchanged a lot of money in the short term. It was very stressful, so I don't know exactly. I'm sorry.

A. That's fine, but generally it's still repayment of a loan but it's -- is it fair to say it's more different sort of short-term one than one of your -- your overall agreements?

66. Q. Yes. Because there -- and that's -- yeah. Like -- like the ones that happened in May 2023, August, September, -- or August, October, November, were all outside of that larger agreement.

67. Q. Okay.

A. Yeah, and then this would've been one of those little outside ones. They didn't happen a lot, but they didn't -- they were not infrequent.

68. Q. So, every time I see 2349 going to you, that's the regular interest payment right?

A. Yes.

69. Q. And so the only -- if I can take you to tab B.

A. M'hmm.

70. Q. It's 14 again, 14 of 26. Again, four lines from the bottom. This one just that one has a different amount.

A. M'hmm.

71. Q. It's 1255.

72. Q. Do you know ---

A. M'hmm.

73. Q. --- what that would have been for?

A. Clonsilla had split my payments. I don't remember exactly why. I'm trying to think it through, hold on. Yeah, so from time-to-time Clonsilla would have to -- like, it started in Covid, in 2020, my regular payments got reduced because there was no income, right? At the same level. It was just leases not sales. So, from that period on there was change in the regularity of the amount. With me keeping track of all of that. So, I can't speak to specifically why it went to that without looking at my records.

74. Q. Okay. But it -- it's still -- is it fair to say that any money you're getting from Clonsilla's bank account, it's always repayment of a loan? It just might be different loans, and if the amounts are differing, it might be a circumstance like that where it's just ---

A. Yes. Because anything payroll related would be in the --on the ADP. Yeah.

75. Q. That just reminded me. I understood that there was a point in time, maybe for a short period of time, where the ADP wasn't the way that payroll was done and ---

A. Okay, not when I was there.

76. Q. That wasn't when you were there? You don't remember that?

A. No. Like, when I worked there, a long time ago, it wasn't done on ADP but in the time that it relates to this ---

77. Q. That we're talking now?

A. Yeah. There was always ADP for the very brief moment I was there.

78. Q. Okay. Do you know who had control over this particular account, the Clonsilla corporate account, who had signing authority over it?

A. Is that the one that when it shows up -- it's like it -- sorry, just going to look ---

79. Q. Yeah, you can ---

A. --- in front.

80. Q. Yeah. Sure.

A. To see if I could know -- the 926749 I believe was -- would have just been Hugh. I believe.

81. Q. If I can ask you to turn to C, tab C, and page 3 of 26.

A. I'm sorry.

MR. HARRIS: No, it's okay. Yeah, it's the right page.

BY MR. MCGRATH:

82. Q. Three lines from the bottom and four lines from the bottom you see, like, some cash withdrawals of $200,000 and $217,000.

A. Yes.

83. Q. Do you have any idea why, you know, such large cash withdrawals would be made from that Clonsilla account?

A. No. The only thing that automatically comes to mind -- well there was a deposit too of 80 and 128. Sorry, he didn't ask me that. Like, when -- when Velocity was paid, where was -- was this, like, because I don't know. So, that's my only curiosity. Because maybe it was standard? But I guess not, you wouldn't ask me that if it weren't standard, so I guess not?

84. Q. Yeah, I don't think it was going to Velocity and that's why I asked the question. I don't really know where this money went. Seems unusual. Large amounts ---

A. Yeah.

85. Q. --- if you -- you know...

A. I -- this is my first time seeing any of these. And so, I don't know if that is normal, but I guess not.

86. Q. I understand. I just wanted to know if -- if you had an obvious answer to that. Like, if you, flip two pages for example, to page 5 of 26, on July 6th, you know, if you go back to eight, nine lines from the bottom ---

A. Yes, I see it right away.

87. Q. --- there's another one for 169,000.

A. Oh, and then item returned and then a deposit. Huh.

88. Q. Looks like really large amounts of money going in and then really large amounts of money coming out.

A. Yeah. So, I don't know. That one. No, I wouldn't know. I'm just trying to think of anything because any money that I gave was May and then I gave in August it was -- I think it was 45. So, nothing in June, July, I don't think. Again, I'd have to look at the record.

89. Q. When you were making these short-term loams in 2023, can you remember any of the reasons why you were told that they were necessary and why you had to give these short-term loans? What was the purpose for them?

A. They were -- well it was -- the 75 in May was for -- they were short on a small tranche, which happened from time to time so, I filled them in and then they paid me back when it was funded. And then in August, he said that there was an issue with the CRA and then same with October and November. So, he was waiting on CRA money to come in and needed money for -- because he said they've been double-dipping and requested support.

90. Q. Do you know what he meant by "double-dipping"?

A. That they had overcharged him for a long time and ---

91. Q. CRA has been?

A. That was what he had said and showed me documentation for that.

92. Q. Okay. And what documentation did he show you? Do you remember?

A. The -- there was a guy --- oh my gosh, this was a while ago, wasn't it? Who was the guy, the CRA man? I want to say Ryan (ph), but I'm not sure. Letters from him back and forth stating that -- about the account status and then there was something from a ruling, or something, about how the specific transaction period had been looked at and was being acknowledged. And I don't -- that's -- trying to remember, like, picturing it all in my head, the paperwork. And there had been some audits. Yeah, so he showed me a bunch of the paperwork for that.

93. Q. Okay. So, the $75,000 short-term loan you made in May did get paid back?

A. Yes, in June.

94. Q. How much money did you loan in, I think you said August, October, November?

A. So, I think August was 45 or it was 52. I think it was done in two separate transactions. Because one was actually just more, like, to pay a separate bill and then the other one was for running stuff or -- I don't know. And then October it was payroll. No, it wasn't. November was payroll. October was -- he wanted I think to buy cars and he didn't have any floor planning left. That was it. Got it, yes.

95. Q. And when you advanced these monies, just -- just I'm just focusing on the May, August, October, November 2023 ones.

A. M'hmm.

96. Q. How did you give him the money? Did it go CIBC to CIBC?

A. Yeah, so under the direction of Paul Whelan he would and then in the -- there was email that I have to say this is directed to Clonsilla via this. Yeah.

97. Q. Right.

A. Yeah.

98. Q. Okay. And then did the -- did the later ones, the August, October, November ones, did they get paid back to you?

A. No. And -- and part of the October one -- not the October one, I'm sorry, the August one was a - because, as you can tell, things were not always super rigid, being family, that we were going to use a portion of that rather than pay me back the money, that I use it towards a new car because my car has been running into issues. So, we'd discussed doing that but nothing was firmed up.

99. Q. Okay. And then, and I'm sorry if I missed this, the -- so, the August, October, November ones didn't get repaid to you, right?

A. No -- only that $20,000 was from one of -- was --would've been the August transaction that I'd be repaid for.

100. Q. Okay. But that was only part of the August one?

A. Yes.

101. Q. Okay. And then you mentioned the -- the vehicle -- I -- you didn't -- we've heard from some of your other family members that they, sort of, drove vehicles from Clonsilla or, like demo vehicles, from time to time. My understanding is you didn't do that, but is that right or wrong?

A. No. I avoided it.

102. Q. Okay. I'm just going to maybe take a ---

A. Yeah, of course.

103. Q. --- quick couple minutes off the record.

OFF THE RECORD AT 3:23 P.M.

(WHEREUPON A BRIEF RECESS WAS TAKEN)

ON THE RECORD AT 3:41 P.M.

SARA WADDELL, resumed,

104. Q. All right. So, we just sorted out while we were off the record that we actually hadn't received the proof of claim yet. I have just received it from Mr. Harris now. So, we'll review that some other day and if I have any questions, I'll probably route them through your lawyer.

A. Okay.

105. Q. I'd like to mark this brief of bank statements as Exhibit 1 to the examination. And with that I'm going to turn it over to my colleague who's got some questions about some other documents.

(WHEREUPON EXHIBIT NO. 1 : Brief of bank statements.)

EXAMINATION BY MS. KENNEDY:

106. Q. So, I'm Rebecca Kennedy. I'm going to show you a series of documents and then I'm going to give it to you and give you a chance to read it and then I'm going to ask you questions about it, okay?

A. Okay, great.

107. Q. So, I'm going to hand to you the first one.

A. Okay, thanks.

108. Q. And maybe just -- I'm going to take you to the bottom. So, we'll start at the bottom email. And you can ignore the part at the top, which is my email.

A. Yes.

109. Q. That's just when I forward it to the reception to get it printed.

A. November and June, yes. M'hmm, yeah. Makes sense.

110. Q. So, the email is entitled, "My mistake."

A. M'hmm.

111. Q. And it -- there's two emails on the chain and I'm going to start at the first one and it's from 2017.

A. M'hmm.

112. Q. Now I understand that you said that in 2008 you lent some money into the business and then also later again. I think 2017 or 2018.

A. Yes. Yeah. Exactly.

113. Q. And it says, "Hi doll." I assume that's what your dad calls you ---

A. Yes.

114. Q. --- because it's an email from your dad to you. "Many years ago, I came up with a scheme that would take a relatively small investment portfolio, pay a lot of income. I knew that if I did it piece by piece I could get the cash to you through the business tax frame. That was the plan. What went wrong is that I never realized how hard it was to become a banker doing all the disbursements as well as the accounting. It was fine and it worked when I just did your stuff until I could on Meggan and Taylor's and then it all went sideways. I lost control of the balances ---"

A. M'hmm.

115. Q. "--- and where I was at. Thankfully, I have a pretty good sense of what you have on account. I'm currently looking for a good special assistant with a deep accounting background. One of her first projects will be to give you -- give a final total for you. My accountant has your investments on the general ledger for Clonsilla. I have a lot of work to do. Almost 10 years now of bookkeeping. Laurel (ph) has done a lot to catch it up and you probably have some good growth that I just have to figure out. Good news, I have all the documents, and I mean I have everything, so we will get it straight. What I should've done is simple. I should've cut you one cheque per month for interest and let you do your own banking and adjust what was owing when you took big money out for house purchases. If I had to do it again, it would be the only way I would do it. My tax avoidance scheme has caused a lot problems. Good news is that despite two audits on our company's books, none of you have ever had -- ever had to pay a dime in taxes, so my plan worked."

A. That's not true.

116. Q. "That was worth a lot, whether you realize it or not." Then he continues on about respecting your decision and if you want to go with CIBC. And then that's the first email.

A. M'hmm.

117. Q. And then in 2023 ---

A. M'hmm.

118. Q. Now this is after the receivership ---
A. M'hmm.
119. Q. --- you are sending it back to your dad. And pollyg11 (ph), that's your husband's email ---
A. Yes.
120. Q. --- correct? And you're saying, "This is why I said you told me not to claim the interest earnings as income."
A. M'hmm.
121. Q. Now, let's go back to 2017.
A. Yes.
122. Q. What are you talking -- what's your dad talking about?
A. So, my original investment, which was the '08 amount, right? And then I would've taken out some money to do a down payment on a home. And then I put that money back in when it sold. And then as far as the taxes go, he -- I wanted documentation on it from his side for my taxes because I was always claiming my taxes every year, including my interest earnings, and he did not want me to, which is something I just probably shouldn't have said here, but whatever. So, yeah, it was just me demanding documentation because he was never providing it.
123. Q. So, when you talk about it being a loan ---

A. Yes.
124. Q. --- and you say that you loaned money in, and that it should've been as an interest, but the reality is, is that your dad says that, "You have an investment on the general ledger of Clonsilla."
A. So, that's his choosing to work that way. Yes. And you can see from all of my documentation going all the way back it always says loans.
125. Q. And did you receive interest payments on a regular basis during that time that you say it was a loan?
A. Sometimes. Like, when?
126. Q. Well, I would say you said from 2008 to 2017?
A. Sometimes. Yeah. He would give me my regular loan payments for interest on my -- the money I'd lent him.
127. Q. Was it somewhat the case that when you inherited a bunch of money, it seems consistent that each child was sort of asked to put money into the business?
A. We -- loans were requested of us, yes. Over and over again. In personal as well as business.
128. Q. Sorry, when you mean that, do you mean in your personal capacity or your dads?

A. Like, what do you mean?
129. Q. You say, "In personal and in business." Do you mean that you have a business that you were lending through?
A. Oh no, sorry.
130. Q. It was always your own personal money?
A. He personally asked me for money to -- to borrow from me, as well as the business requested loans from me.
131. Q. Got it. So, you were lending to your dad in both his capacity as Hugh Waddell ---
A. M'hmm.
132. Q. --- and as well in respect of Clonsilla?
A. Yes.
133. Q. That's what you mean?
A. Yeah.
134. Q. Okay. I want to mark this as Exhibit 2.
(WHEREUPON EXHIBIT NO. 2 : Emails between the deponent and Hugh Waddell dated June 26, 2017 and November 18, 2023.)
135. Q. So, I'm going to give you this next one. Let me know when you've had a read. And again ---
A. Sure.
136. Q. --- let's sort of like start at the bottom and work your way up.

A. Okay, so...
137. Q. And I - I didn't print the attachment ---
A. M'hmm.
138. Q. --- so I'm just dealing with the content.
A. Right. Right, yeah. The interest not the capital on loans. Yeah.
MR. MCGRATH: Maybe we'll just go off the record while -- while the witness is reading. Just so you don't have to...
COURT REPORTER: Okay.
OFF THE RECORD AT 3:48 P.M.
(WHEREUPON A BRIEF RECESS WAS TAKEN)
ON THE RECORD AT 3:48 P.M.
SARA WADDELL, resumed,
139. Q. Okay. So, I want you to sort of go back to 2021 and ---
A. I just want to point out this isn't the proof of claim. This is all in -- in the proof of claim as well, so you'll see it there again.
140. Q. This email is?
A. Yes, absolutely.
141. Q. Okay, perfect.
A. It's very important, so...
142. Q. Who is Beacon (ph)?

A. Beacon was the original lender.
143. Q. For?
A. For Clonsilla.
144. Q. Just for the record.
A. Yes. Sorry, sorry. Yes
145. Q. Yeah. And what was "the travesty" that's being talked about here?
A. So, with the -- where is the travesty?
146. Q. It says, "Our current lease lender Beacon --
A. Oh, right.
147. Q. --- has been a travesty"
A. Thank you. I'm sorry about that.
148. Q. That's okay.
A. Yeah, he -- I believe that was referencing that Beacon had -- was charging too much interest.
149. Q. Okay.
A. I think that's all it was.
150. Q. Okay. So in 2021, it seems like your dad is asking you to put in some 281,752.70.
A. Yes.
151. Q. And then he says, "When I get the new funding" ---
A. M'hmm.
152. Q. --- and I'm assuming that's Enlightened, when he got the - take out financing for Enlightened. Is that what he's ---

A. I don't know.

153. Q. You don't know?

A. I don't know. But I -- I mean, that's a safe assumption based on logic. I didn't know at the time anything about who he was negotiating with.

154. Q. Do you understand that he did replace Beacon with Enlightened later?

A. I -- it -- was there anybody in between? I don't know. But I -- so I don't know what the leap frogging was. But, yes I understand that that was the current funder the end of 2023.

155. Q. Okay. Well, I can tell you that Enlightened funding was used to payout Beacon.

A. Okay.

156. Q. So, when he talks about new funding, I'm assuming that it is the Enlightened funding.

A. Yes.

157. Q. And it says, "Refund myself 456, what's on the spreadsheets and refund you at the same time." Did you receive payments when the Enlightened capital funding was received? Or as you understand, the new financier, whether it was Enlightened or whoever you understood it to be.

A. Yeah.

158. Q. Did you receive money?

A. No.

159. Q. So, you never received any repayment of any principal amount?

A. No. And that's in the proof of claim. It explains that instead I went ahead with keeping the loans in place and receiving a monthly amount. Or weekly amount, sorry. So, all of these emails were in there too. With the documentation about my dad and the bank statements.

160. Q. I guess this one will be 3.

(WHEREUPON EXHIBIT NO. 3 : Scanned document from Xerox Multifunction Printer Dated November 18, 2023 from the deponent to Hugh Waddell.)

BY MS. KENNEDY:

161. Q. Okay. I've got an email with attachments. And I'm just going to tell you the attachments aren't really important but ---

A. Okay.

162. Q. --- if you want to look at them.

A. Sure. Oh, yes. Yes, okay. Yeah, I know these well. Yes. These ones will not be in the proof of claim.

163. Q. These emails will not, yea. Okay, So you know what this email is?

A. Yes.

164. Q. Okay. So, I want to start on the email that's November 22nd, I guess at 10:35 a.m. The one that's sort of in the middle of that first page.

A. M'hmm.

165. Q. I know, and so I'm going to ask you, LW2 is one of the tranches.

A. Yes.

166. Q. Lending tranches. And so, was Alpha, correct?

A. Yes.

167. Q. And those are the tranches that were bought out by Enlightened that used to be financed through Beacon?

A. Right.

168. Q. Okay. Now, this is your email?

A. Yes.

169. Q. And I want to know what you're talking about because I have my own understanding. But was is it that you mean when you're talking about duplicates?

A. Duplicates between -- because there was -- so Maryanne asked me -- and this was off of the, like, I didn't charge the hourly wage or anything. This was just to help them because at that point, obviously, was up in the air. So, Maryanne and Hugh would ask me to help them find if there was any duplicates between tranches.

170. Q. Because -- sorry, I'm going to change that. In and around November 19th, the receiver wrote to Clonsilla because there were many duplicates between the tranches. And that duplicate means were the same VIN had been financed in multiple tranches ---

A. Yes.

171. Q. --- without any corresponding repayment.

A. Right.

172. Q. So therefore, that vehicle had been multiply financed.

A. Right.

173. Q. Through the various tranches.

A. M'hmm.

174. Q. And so, it looks like you have, in fact, found duplicates not just between Alpha and LW2, but you found duplicates within LW2 itself. Is that correct?

A. Yes.

175. Q. And did you ever ask your dad about that?

A. Yes, at length.

176. Q. And what was the explanation?

A. That many of them had been -- so, it was pointed out that if you look at it -- so, in tranche 1 it was funded and then it was funded again on, like, tranche 3 or something. And then in between there, if you look at the discrepancy in the amounts, it -- it -- so when it -- his explanation was, what? It shifted from, I guess -- see, I thought it was Alpha. I didn't know it was Beacon. So...

177. Q. Alpha was the name ---

A. Yeah.

178. Q. --- of the tranche. Beacon is the name of the lender.

A. Yeah. I did not know that. Thank you.

179. Q. It's okay. It's okay.

A. So, I was, like, -- that's why I was like, "I don't know who was in between Beacon and -- I don't know." So, yeah. So, as far as what I was told by Maryanne actually, more so than Hugh, was that when Alpha -- which I thought was Alpha -- when Beacon was being bought out by Easy (ph) then they paid out a portion of the first tranche and there was some remaining and then that got covered off in the third one. And that's why there was the duplicate and that was then carried over from the one to the other. So, then it was completed, the transaction.

180. Q. Okay.

A. And then there was duplicates because they weren't all cleanly done, one -- one -- one car and one tranche, it was partial between them.

181. Q. But there were cases where inside the same tranche the same vehicle was also in there?

A. I did not find that.

182. Q. One duplicate within LW2. It's off ---

A. Oh, sorry. Sorry, you're right. Sorry. Yes, and I don't know -- I can't speak to that specific one because it's not in front of me but I think it might have just been a clerical error. But I'm not sure and I don't know without knowing which one it is. Because there was several clerical errors.

183. Q. Okay. So, the idea is that the duplicates were clerical errors and it wasn't ---

A. There was the one clerical error. The one where it was a duplicate in the same tranche. The rest of the tranches they made sense once I looked at the balances and once it was explained to me that the tranche only covers a portion of the contracts and then the third or second tranche carried the rest of it. And when I -- when you compare them it's very obvious that that's the difference. So like the balances made sense.

184. Q. Got it.

A. Yeah. To me. That's how it was explained and made sense. Then the one that I believe is a clerical error.

185. Q. Okay.

A. Yeah.

186. Q. Do you know who Nex Gear is?

A. A floor planning company. I believe.

187. Q. Okay. And do you know what that means? Floor plan company?

A. Provide money for the purchase and acquisition of used vehicles from auction.

188. Q. Okay. And -- are there -- to your understanding, are there any specific rules like around that kind of lending?

A. No, I have no idea. But I probably should know.

189. Q. Okay. I'm going to show you an email and there's four attachments.

MR. MCGRATH: Let's mark this one.

MS. KENNEDY: Oh, sorry. Let's mark that last one as 4, Exhibit 4.

COURT REPORTER: What do I call it?

MS. KENNEDY: Sorry. I'm going to give you the package. Did you write on them?

MR. MCGRATH: Yeah, I did.

MS. KENNEDY: I can go back.

MR. MCGRATH: I can just be -- I think it can just be by the top date.

COURT REPORTER: The email's dated the bottom left?

MR. MCGRATH: Yeah.

MS. KENNEDY: Sorry, and just omit the part from me. It actually starts -- because I had to forward it to reception.

COURT REPORTER: Yeah, I was seeing from Sara Waddell to ---

MS. KENNEDY: Correct. Yes.

COURT REPORTER: --- from -- to Hugh and date. Is that good?

MS. KENNEDY: Yeah, that's perfect.

COURT REPORTER: Thank you.

(WHEREUPON EXHIBIT NO. 4 : Email RE: LW2 and Alpha dated November 22, 2023 from the deponent To Maryanne Jacobs CC: Hugh Waddell.)

BY MS. KENNEDY:

190. Q. I want to look at the email and it's from you to Hugh Waddell, December 4th. Were you an employee at that time?

A. No. Well, I mean technically, yes, but, I mean I wasn't doing any official work for them. I would've been an employee until I received that letter from...

191. Q. Deloitte?

A. Thank you. Yes. That's the one. December 8th, yes.

192. Q. So, this email is entitled, "Nex Gear images truck."

A. Yes.

193. Q. Okay. And, so if we turn over there's four pictures. And in each one it says "cafe".

A. Yeah.

194. Q. It's four pictures of a truck, correct?

A. Yeah.

195. Q. And do you know why you have to put "cafe" in the picture?

A. To designate which -- that it's real authentic, not photoshopped, I'm guessing. That's probably, like, -- what's that called? Authentication. There we go. Probably required by Nex Gear because this was a common standard practice for when you're doing that for insurance, back in the day. So, I'm guessing it's the same.

196. Q. Did you take these pictures?

A. No.

197. Q. Where did you get the pictures?

A. Hugh sent them to me requesting me to send them to -- to him via email. He was having trouble with his cellphone. So, he texted me them and then I sent them to him by email.

198. Q. So, you did not take these photos?

A. No. You can see those are not my hands.

199. Q. So, Hugh took these photos, sent them to you, and had you then send them to him via email?

A. Yeah, he texted them to me and then I emailed them to him.

200. Q. Do you know where those cars are ---

A. No.

201. Q. --- or that the picture is?

A. Oh yeah, this is Clonsilla's lot, isn't it?

202. Q. Oh, isn't it?

A. Oh wait. No, no, no. It's not. I assumed it was. Let me check. I don't know where that is.

203. Q. Would you be surprised if I told you that it was Auto Connect's lot?

A. I wouldn't be surprised or not surprised because it looks like any auction that we would have gone to. Oh, I get it. Auto Connect. Isn't that the place across the road? Oh.

204. Q. Yeah.

A. Martin Tempelman's place. That's what I call it, is Martin's. So, I'm sorry I didn't ---

205. Q. Okay. Yeah. No, that's Martin's lot.

A. Yeah. Okay. Sorry.

206. Q. So, do you know why your dad would've gone to someone else's lot and taken pictures with his words from his floor plan financier?

A. I don't -- would not know that. I couldn't begin to imagine why.

207. Q. And then he sent them to you ---

A. Yeah.

208. Q. --- to send back to him?

A. Yes. He texted them to me because his email wasn't working. And he asked me to put them in an email to send them to him so he can forward them. That happened to me -- him all the time. I did it for him all the time. He'd have tech issues everyday.

209. Q. Okay.

MR. MCGRATH: Do you still have a copy of that text message he sent to you?

THE DEPONENT: I can check right now. I can search for it pretty quick. Let's see here. Open, open. Hugh. Still to this day he sends me pictures of stuff and he says, "Can you email me this?" Every day. Not every day, weekly. Open.

November. There. Right here. So, he sent me these photos. He had called me because I had last texted him saying that somebody had shown up at a lot asking for a car. Unrelated. And then he had sent me these images. And then he had -- yeah, he had just called me said, "Could you please send me these by email?" Because he couldn't get that to connect from -- I often have to walk him through. He'll call me and be like, "How do I put this image on an email?" And I'm like, you just click the little ---"

MS. KENNEDY: Check mark?

THE DEPONENT: Yeah. And then it's just like, "Okay, dad. Just text me the things, I'll send them to you." So, that's what that is. And I didn't know anything about what it was for.

MS. KENNEDY: Okay, I'm going to give you this one. And the last one.

MR. MCGRATH: It's Exhibit 5.

MS. KENNEDY: Exhibit 5 ---

THE DEPONENT: M'hmm.

MS. KENNEDY: --- is the December 4th email.

(WHEREUPON EXHIBIT NO. 5 : Email RE: Nex Gear images truck dated December 4, 2023 from the deponent to Hugh Waddell.)

BY MS. KENNEDY:

210. Q. So, the next email, and we'll mark it Exhibit 6, is December ---

COURT REPORTER: Okay. Wait, wait, wait. Let me just figure this -- let me finish this one first.

MS. KENNEDY: Okay. I'll do it at the end then.

COURT REPORTER: Thank you.

BY MS. KENNEDY:

211. Q. So, it's an email, December 5th ---

A. Yes.

212. Q. --- 2023. So, this is three days before the full receiver is printed.

A. Yeah.

213. Q. And it says -- subject is Bernstein (ph). Now I understand that Bernstein was a lender that predated Beacon, is that correct?

A. Yes. And I don't know where in the timeline.

214. Q. And it's now 2023, we're talking about Bernstein.

A. M'hmm.

Q: And your email to your dad says, "Please explain why Meggan and Taylor have both said it was under threat of your life, and our family's, that the sons threatened to kill or hurt you or your family. That you had to repay his money immediately and that's why you crushed down your trust, etcetera."

A. M'hmm.

215. Q. Okay. I'd like to know a little bit about the context of this email.

A. M'hmm.

216. Q. And who the loans were with. And maybe just -- what -- what made you send this email?

A. There was obviously a lot of confusion happening. Nobody knew what was going on. Hugh was doing whatever he was doing and I couldn't get a straight answer out of him about what was happening. I didn't know why there was auditors in the office. I didn't know why he was asking me to do all of these tranche double-checking's. I didn't know. And I was like, "why aren't you answering me?" So, I couldn't get a straight answer out of him. And then my -- so I asked my siblings, and they said, "Oh, he's hiding from you that Bernstein has been threatening him. His sons had been threatening him and that --" I'm trying to remember, sorry. So, it went like this. I was -- I had confronted my dad several times. There -- let me -- sorry. All right. So, I'd confronted my dad several times asking him, "What the hell is going on?" And he said, "Oh, it's an audit to do with Velocity and Easy." And I was like, "Okay. But like -- like -- like why -- like, why can't I receive my, like, loan repayments? Why --" you know, and that's been going on for months. And, "Why do you need help with payroll?" and, like, stuff like that. And I wasn't getting straight answers, I was getting sort of different answers every time. And I understood it was because he was under extraordinary stress and so I had a lot of leniency. So I went to my siblings, which I don't normally do, and I said, like, "What is going on?" And they said, "Oh, it's to do with Bernstein." Apparently, he was being threatened and their sons had threatened all of our lives if he didn't pay him back immediately. And then after this he called me and he's like, "No. None of that's true." He's like, "That was never an issue." And that was as far as that issue went.

217. Q. So, what was an issue? What was your dad's explanation for what was an issue?

A. That -- I'm trying to think. That -- his reasoning for why it was an issue was the CRA problem and the -- he said that Easy or Velocity, I don't remember which, I'm sorry, which one he said it was because that was a year ago and I have a memory like a sieve -- that it was Easy or Velocity, I don't remember -- was in trouble financially and that we were an asset of theirs and we're being pulled in to that issue, and receivership, which the letter had said. So -- but I'm pretty sure he had identified it as being Easy is the origin. And I did not know; I had to go on the paperwork I received from Deloitte and what he said and what my siblings said.

218. Q. Okay.

A. I just wanted answers.

219. Q. Did your dad routinely borrow money from people that he would use Clonsilla money to repay them?

A. No. This was -- it was Clonsilla -- like, he -- Clonsilla borrowed the money from Bernstein. And -- or Bernstein loaned money rather, like as an investment. And then when their father was dying, the sons came and were demanding the money back. And it was a short-term scramble, is what Hugh explained, and that was -- he's like, "There was no threats. There was no issue. I don't know why Meggan and Taylor said that," is what I was told.

220. Q. And when did that lending happen?

A. I don't know. That was pre -- pre-Beacon.

Would've been well before Beacon. I don't know when. I want to say -- I want to say the mid-2000's but I can't confirm. I don't know exactly when it was. Everything's very -- not written down. So -- in emails.

221. Q. Okay. I mean, we're obviously trying to figure out where some of these large cash withdrawals came from.

A. Yes, because those are seismic, yes.

222. Q. And then we see these emails that talk about threats to life.

A. Yes. That's very worrying.

223. Q. Correct. And so, I'm just trying to understand if there's any other insight you can provide as to why large cash withdrawals might have been made from a company ---

A. No. There's ---

224. Q. --- when we get emails like this.

A. I've been think about this since it was first shown to me because those are excessive and a little bit more than alarming. I can't think -- I -- he didn't speak about any of it. There wasn't any red flags were throw up then. There wasn't any discussion about any of it. I obviously had been asking over and over again to everyone that would listen, "What is going on?" and getting told things from investors that have been long out of the picture. Hugh speaking to me about how they were -- they were incorrect in bringing that up. Yeah, I can't fathom what those amounts could be for or from or why. And -- especially because I was at the time, which you'll see when you get the proof of claim, I put in some money, so it makes me worry where it goes. Is that my money being taken in?

225. Q. Right. Okay. Before I forget, I'm going to mark this email that's got the subject as, "Bernstein" as I think number 6.

(WHEREUPON EXHIBIT NO. 6 : RE: email with subject line "Bernstein" dated December 5, 2023 from the deponent to Hugh Waddell.)

BY MS. KENNEDY:

226. Q. I Have another email.

A. Yes.

227. Q. Okay, so this email is from you to Maryanne.

A. M'hmm.

228. Q. And for the record it's Maryanne Jacobs.

A. M'hmm.

229. Q. And it's Friday December 8th, 2023, 12:58 p.m.

A. M'hmm.

230. Q. And the subject is "Address." And I assume that's your address listed?

A. M'hmm.

231. Q. And then it says, "How many PPSA's are going in my name?"

A. Yeah. So, I literally could not even begin to tell you what this is about because I absolute have a blank on this. If you give me one second, I can look and see if I have any text message or email from her. I didn't end up with any PPSA's in my name, I know that.

232. Q. Before you do that, I want to ask you some questions.

A. Yes. Please.

233. Q. Okay. So, do you understand that December 8th was the day that the receivership ---

A. Yes.

234. Q. --- became the full receivership, right? And it seems like property is going to be transferred into your name.

A. Yes. Which I didn't know the receivership was happening in the way that it was. And I didn't know that that's why it never happened and also, I don't know why it was brought up. Other than maybe they knew because of the recent loans, they wanted to help me? I don't know. Like, I want to give you more details. I just don't know off-hand.

235. Q. Okay, so your evidence is that no PPSA's went into your name though it was contemplated that some would go into your name?

A. Just based on this, yes.

236. Q. And did any property get transferred into your name?

A. Just that cheque. That one that I talked to about with him, yeah.

MR. HARRIS: Yeah. You told them that, yeah.

MS. KENNEDY: Yeah. So, we'll put that on the record.

BY MS. KENNEDY:

237. Q. So, you did receive a $20,000 cheque after the receivership?

A. It had been deposited before, it just didn't clear until after. So, that's the contention, right? Because it had been deposited five days before the 8th.

238. Q. Okay. I mean it looked to be drawn after but...

A. I -- I don't know when he deposited it into his account and when it cleared. He sent it -- again

I'd have to look specifically.

239. Q. What do you mean "he deposited"? Because it was a cheque in your name.

A. Like, to me, yes. So, he had taken, as far as I can recall, he had taken a deposit from a customer for a car, in the new account, which had -- was the one that I believe got him into a lot of trouble. Like, I've learned after. Yeah, so I don't know when it was deposited. His -- what he has told me is that he deposited it before the receivership had happened.

240. Q. The date of the cheque is December 9th, 2023.

A. Okay. And then -- see I didn't even know that this had gone down until after. And now I know it was the 8th. So, -- and then he had deposited it or sent it to me. I deposited it at that point. I -- -

241. Q. You deposited the cheque?

A. I don't remember. I don't know if I did.

242. Q. Okay. Has your dad routinely asked you to take property that should've been property of the business and put it in your name?

A. No.

243. Q. Never before this?

A. No.
244. Q. Never before the cars, or whatever is going to have PPSA registrations, or the cheque?
A. No.
245. Q. So, before December, he never asked you to put things in your personal name that were actually property of the business?
A. Never. Not once.
246. Q. But you do see that this ---
A. Looks real bad? Yeah.
247. Q. Looks bad. As well as the cheque. So, it's a cheque written on December 12th, 2023.
A. M'hmm.
248. Q. And it's to Sara Waddell. And it was deposited into transit 03802 and I'm sure we can figure out the account from this information.
A. M'hmm.
249. Q. And it's not been endorsed, so it would've had to be deposited into an account of your name. It's not like you signed the back and gave it to your dad, it had to go into your account to be deposited?
A. Yes, yes, yes. So that was a cheque that Hugh wrote to me.
250. Q. M'hmm.
A. From the new account. So, he was supposed to have given it to me several days before, but it had -- the cheque that he had received from the customer, that he was supposed to pay me from, didn't clear until then. And then he wrote me the cheque and I, unaware of this, went ahead and deposited it. And I was, like, finding out over the next several days. I'm like, "What the hell is -- like why are you getting kicked out of your business? I contacted you guys to give you guys passwords and stuff because I did not know any of this was going down." As far as I knew, he was like, "They'll be out of here soon," so I went ahead with what I thought was a normal transaction like we were doing for years.

251. Q. Okay, but it isn't a normal transaction because all of the normal transactions were for a very specific number that you said were loan repayments or interest repayments. And we have emails that say that you were getting interest only payments throughout this whole time ---

A. Yes.

252. Q. --- and you've included them in your proof of claim.

A. Right.

253. Q. Okay.

A. Perfect.

254. Q. And now we have a cheque that's $20,000 which, just so you know, corresponds to almost like down to the dollar, there was maybe some change left, that he took out of the account that was opened after the receivership and not disclosed to the receiver ---

A. M'hmm.

255. Q. --- and this was actually after the full receivership. So, what is this payment for?

A. Okay. So, the same way as the $75,000 in May and then the ones all the years before, which you'll see in the proof of claim. So, that was a very normal interaction. I give him money, he gives me it back. No big deal. I didn't know the ins and outs of the accounts until after the fact, right? I didn't know that this wasn't from a client giving him a cheque and then he was forwarding it to me based on the money that I'd given him in August, as part of what was supposed to be a down payment. And then he's, like, "Well you can't obviously buy cars for here, right now, because of everything that's going on." I didn't know it was closing. He didn't know what was happening. I was frustrated, you can tell from these emails over here, and I was, like, "Just -- can you just give me some money back? I've given you so much. Like, I can't keep giving you money."

256. Q. Okay. So, it was just an outside of the ordinary course repayment of some money to you?

A. Exactly.

257. Q. And the deposit really has nothing to do with it? It wasn't a deposit for you buying a car? This is out of the ordinary course of repayment to you?

A. Like, his intention was that -- because I've been - sorry. Yeah. So, I've been talking to him being, like, "This isn't fair. Like, I'm supposed to buy a new car, like, I have one car my husband needs to commute, I need to commute, like what is going on?" Like, once I get a new job. And also, like, I volunteer and stuff and I was like -- whatever. Anyway, and so I was -- like, that was the purpose. He was like -- I was like, "I need money to be able to do a down payment on a car. Like, I need to move on with my life, like, why are -- you told me these were going to be short-term loans in August, October, and November." And so, he made a big point about cutting me this cheque and being, like, "There, now you can use it for a deposit." And this is actually from a lady giving me a cheque. And -- because I was, like, "Where is this money coming from? Like, What is happening?"

258. Q. Okay. You have talked, and I understand you have put some materials in a proof of claim that we've not yet reviewed, about how there was money going back and forth. Either direction.

A. Yes.

259. Q. And it sounds like you have an accounting of that.

A. Yes.

260. Q. Can you undertake to produce all of the information with respect to funds that went in either direction between ---

A. They're all there. Everything with the CIBC, everything Clonsilla. Every single one of them. I keep track of all of them, unlike my father.

261. Q. M'hmm.

A. Because he doesn't. And I knew that. So, I made sure I kept every email between me and my banker and that's all in there to make sure you can see that. Those little interactions. I think there's the one that I couldn't find was $6,500. I have the bank draft. I don't remember what it was for. So that's the only one.

262. Q. And I'm not talking about just payments that you made into Clonsilla. I'm talking about an accounting that's taken into account all these interest payments. Because one of the emails ---

A. Should be there.

263. Q. --- talks about how -- since 2019, it looks like you had become, additionally, a securitization lender where you were also lending against leases and that you got 60-month terms payments as well as 72-month terms.

A. I'm supposed to.

264. Q. I'd like an accounting of all of those, please?

A. Because I had my own end. I didn't have his end that he had promised me.

265. Q. Do you have your own accounting of those?

A. Yeah. And they're in the -- yeah, they're all within the proof of claim. Yes.

266. Q. Including all the repayments?

A. I believe so. All my bank records. And I have any interactions. It was June that I put it together and sent it, so I don't know off-hand, but if they're not there, I'll get them to you, no problem. I'm delighted to.

(WHEREUPON UNDERTAKING NO. 1: To produce all information with respect to funds going either way between the deponent and Hugh Waddell.)

MS. KENNEDY: Okay. So, I want to mark the December 8th email as Exhibit 7 and we will get you an electronic copy of the bank draft to Sara Waddell dated December 9th and that'll be Exhibit 8.

(WHEREUPON EXHIBIT NO. 7 : Email dated December 8, 2023 from the deponent to Maryanne Jacobs.)

(WHEREUPON EXHIBIT NO. 8 : Bank draft to the deponent dated December 9, 2023.)

BY MS. KENNEDY:

267. Q. And please bear with me because we have asked some questions to the same -- three times today ---

A. Yeah.

268. Q. --- and we cannot recall if we've already spoken about this.

A. Okay.

269. Q. Do you know who Rasto Beekmans is?

A. Yes.

270. Q. Do you know if he goes by any other names?

A. Scasny.

271. Q. And did we already go through the cheque?

MR. MCGRATH: No.

THE DEPONENT: No.

BY MS. KENNEDY:

272. Q. We did not. Okay.

A. No.

273. Q. That was my question.

A. No.

274. Q. So, I'm going to take you to tab B.

MR. MCGRATH: Of Exhibit 1.

BY MS. KENNEDY:

275. Q. Of Exhibit 1.

A. Okay.

276. Q. And I want you to go to the last page. So, this is the last cheque. And it's in June -- I think June 26, 2023.

A. M'hmm.

277. Q. And -- sorry, I just want you to look at that and I'm going to ask you a few questions first. I understood Rasto's job was a salesman?

A. M'hmm.

278. Q. And do you if Rasto was ever an owner of Clonsilla?

A. I don't.

279. Q. Do you know about any transaction where he may have bought shares or anything like that from your dad?

A. There was talk of it. I don't know what happened with it. I don't know. It was one of those many questions I had when everything was going to shambles and I was never given a clear answer.

280. Q. And do you know any reason why, at the time, in June 2023, I think that, you know, the business was certainly struggling and having issues, right? And it wasn't making all of its payments to its creditors. Why Clonsilla would pay Rasti or Rastislav Scasny $95,000?

A. I don't know. Not the foggiest. And I didn't know that there was any distress at that time. I thought this distress began after August. So, I can't -- I can't fathom. That's a significant amount. All I knew was Rasto worked for Hugh and he had talked about becoming an owner and that was all I'd heard.

281. Q. Okay.

MS. KENNEDY: Can we take a two-minute break?

COURT REPORTER: We're off record.

OFF THE RECORD AT 4:23 P.M.

(WHEREUPON A BRIEF RECESS WAS TAKEN)

ON THE RECORD AT 4:31 P.M.

MR. MCGRATH: So, I just have two undertakings to ask for, Counsel. So, the first is for production of text messages between you, Sara, and your dad, between October and December of 2023. And I only want ones, obviously, that are relevant to the proceedings. So, very happy for you just to send them all to Mr. Harris and have him ---

THE DEPONENT: Sure.

MR. MCGRATH: --- send us the relevant ones.

THE DEPONENT: M'hmm.

MR. HARRIS: Okay. Yes

(WHEREUPON UNDERTAKING NO. 2: To produce all text messages between the deponent and Hugh Waddell between October and December of 2023.)

MR. MCGRATH: And the second one is similar. I understand that Hugh started using a personal Gmail account around the time of the receivership ---

THE DEPONENT: Okay.

MR. MCGRATH: --- which, obviously, the receiver didn't have access to. So, if there are any relevant email communications ---

THE DEPONENT: Sure.

MR. MCGRATH: --- between yourself and Hugh, same period, October 2023 to December ---

THE DEPONENT: Yes.

MR. MCGRATH: --- to the end of December 2023.

THE DEPONENT: Yeah.

MR. MCGRATH: If you could send the relevant ones to your counsel and ---

THE DEPONENT: Absolutely.

MR. MCGRATH: --- have them produce to us as well please?

MR. HARRIS: Okay, yeah.

(WHEREUPON UNDERTAKING NO. 3: To produce all relevant email communications between the deponent and Hugh Waddell between October 2023 to the end of December 2023.)

MR. MCGRATH: All right. Then, subject to us reviewing the proof of claim that you've given us today or all the other undertakings and your responses to them, that concludes our questions for today. So, thank you very much.

THE DEPONENT: Thank you. And sorry I couldn't answer as many questions as you needed.

EXAMINATION FOR DISCOVERY OF TAYLOR WADDELL

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 2024

1:59 P.M.

THE REPORTER: Do you solemnly affirm the evidence you are about to give shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth?

THE DEPONENT: Yes.

THE REPORTER: Please state and spell your name for the record.

THE DEPONENT: Taylor Hugh Waddell. T-A-Y-L-O-R, H-U-G-H, W-A-D-D-E-L-L.

THE REPORTER: Thank you. Are we ready? We are on the record.

TAYLOR WADDELL, affirmed,

EXAMINATION BY MR. MCGRATH:

1. Q. Good afternoon.

A. How you doing?

2. Q. I'm just going to start by asking you some background questions.

A. M'hmm.

3. Q. So let's start with your education. Do you have any formal post-secondary education?

A. No.

4. Q. Okay. And then your employment history, are you -- what -- what's your current job?

A. I'm a carpenter.

5. Q. Carpenter?

A. Yeah.

6. Q. And how long have you been a carpenter for?

A. Since last December.

7. Q. So December 2023?

A. Yes.

8. Q. And what did you do before that?

A. Before that, I had held various jobs. I did a lot of bartending, and then also did -- helped out with project-type stuff at Clonsilla Auto.

9. Q. Okay. Can you explain a little bit, like, what exactly did you do at Clonsilla?

A. So I did a lot of the collections stuff. Any time the receivables would kind of get out of hand, I'd sort of step in and chase down money, essentially, that was owed. And then I did -- also did the vehicle repossession aspect of it.

10. Q. Okay. And what did that involve?

A. Which part?

11. Q. The -- the vehicle ---

A. So we would keep the vehicles in our name until the conclusion of the lease, when the customer bought them out. And then -- so that allowed us to keep a second set of keys, and essentially, we were retrieving our own property, so there was no need to go through a sheriff or bailiff or whatever. So yeah, we could just go get the vehicle if we weren't having any luck getting people to cooperate. So ---

12. Q. Okay. And you did that ---

A. With payment.

13. Q. Sorry. And -- and you did that sometimes? You just would go and literally ---

A. Yes.

14. Q. --- literally, you know, put the -- you know, use the keys and take the car and bring it back?

A. Yeah, or generally speaking, you would go and chat with people and try to come to some kind of arrangement, and then yeah.

15. Q. Okay.

A. If that failed, you'd take the vehicle.

16. Q. And did your role at Clonsilla change over time? Like, were there other things you did at one time, and it changed?

A. Sure, yeah, there was -- there was lots of different stuff. I mean, you know, organization of spaces, like, physical spaces. I did a lot of file preparation for -- for lawsuits or just collection duties in general. I would essentially streamline the information for the paralegal that we used. We went through, you know, a few different paralegals we used over the years, but I would be the sort of contact point for them.

17. Q. Okay. So I -- I'm going to focus on October 2022 to October 2023. So about the last -- Deloitte went in in October 2023, so ---

A. Okay.

18. Q. --- about the last year.

A. Sure.

19. Q. So what would your job responsibilities have been during that time?

A. Same thing. Project related, yeah.

20. Q. Okay. And so how often would you be -- like, how much of your time was it taking to work for Clonsilla, would you say?

A. To say part time would be probably a stretch on most -- most times.

21. Q. Like, more -- like, occasionally?

A. Occasionally, yeah, sure. Now, I mean, there would be -- say we had a month where I would be intensely involved in something. Like I said, it would be project related. I would be in there quite a bit, but I mean, not -- not even hitting full time, really.

22. Q. Okay. And for everything you did for Clonsilla, would you always go into the office to do it? Or were there things that you did from home or -- -

A. No, if I was doing collections type stuff, particularly the repossession aspect, a lot of that is sort of skip tracing type stuff, trying to track people down. So I would -- you know, I would drive around town. I would find them on Facebook, and figure out who their friends were, and go visit the friends; see if I could, you know, kind of figure out where people were. These people would move a lot, so I'd spend a lot of time sort of, you know, looking for people. And then the actual repossession aspect was generally fairly short.

23. Q. Okay. And so how did you get compensated for your work for Clonsilla?

A. I would take payment at times, and then at times, I would not take payment. Like, if it was just -- you know, it's a family business, right? So if -- if somebody -- you know, if my dad said, "Hey, I just, you know, I need something picked up in Toronto. I need a car picked up," or something, I would just go do it, and sometimes I'd be like, "Man, don't worry about it," you know?

24. Q. So were you -- so you -- I take it from that answer you weren't on the normal payroll.

A. No.

25. Q. And then when you were paid for, you know, the ---

A. Sorry, just to clarify, this is -- you're talking between '20 and 2023?

26. Q. Right.

A. October 2022 to 2023?

27. Q. Yes.

A. Correct. Okay. Yeah, I was not on payroll. Yeah.

28. Q. Okay. So I take it from that answer, that before, there was a time when maybe you would have been but ---

A. Do you know what? I honestly can't remember. I have, like, pretty severe ADHD, so I can't remember what I did yesterday. But yeah.

29. Q. Okay. That's fine. So when you did get paid, how did you get paid? Like, would you get a cheque? Would you get a ---

A. Cheque, e-transfer, one of those two.

30. Q. One of those two?

A. Yeah, whatever was convenient, yeah.
31. Q. Convenient for who?
A. Like, if -- if the office was closed, and I needed, you know, payment, I would text my dad and he would send me an e-transfer.
32. Q. Okay. And so is that how -- let me back up. Were you keeping track of, like, how -- how much time you were spending for the business anywhere?
A. Not really. I mean, it was pretty informal. I knew roughly, you know, what I did. I -- I knew roughly how much time -- I'll give you an example. So if I -- if I did a legal file for -- to streamline it for the paralegal, I knew that would take me two to three hours. I would bill two to three hours.
33. Q. Sorry, did you say you would "bill" two to three hours?
A. I would bill -- I would say, "Hey, you know, you owe me for" -- if I did, you know, five of them, I'd say, "You owe me for fifteen hours."
34. Q. So are you physically keeping track of it anywhere? Like, in writing?
A. Not really, no.
35. Q. Okay. So it's sort of, like, in your head, you know how much time ---
A. Yeah.

36. Q. --- you had spent?

A. I mean, there's -- I'm sure you can imagine, like, there's a fairly trusting relationship between my father and I, so...

37. Q. I do, and ---

A. You know.

38. Q. --- my questions aren't -- I'm just trying to understand what existed and what didn't exist ---

A. Of course, yeah.

39. Q. --- so don't try to read into my questions. I'm just trying to understand.

A. Yeah.

40. Q. So that's fine. So is it, then -- when you wanted to get paid -- okay. I'll back up even further. When someone had work for you to do for Clonsilla ---

A. Sure.

41. Q. --- is it your dad who is reaching out to you, saying, "Hey, can you do, you know, XYZ?" Or ---

A. No, it was ---

42. Q. --- is that not how it worked?

A. It was generally Maryanne. But it really just depended who needed help with what, you know? I mean, if -- if my dad -- like, my dad did a lot of different stuff, you know, had his eye on a lot of different stuff within the business, so, I mean, you know, we'd have times where he'd be like, "Hey, I've got a bunch of cars to pick up in Toronto. Can you organize some drivers and go down and get them?"

So, you know, that would be one day. And then he'd call me up and say -- you know, or Maryanne would call me and say, "Hey, I have -- having a real hard time getting this vehicle back. Can you see if you can track them down?" ---

43. Q. Okay.

A. --- and then I would track them down.

44. Q. Were you bartending during this time, too? Like, during that year?

A. What's that? Sorry.

45. Q. Were you bartending as well?

A. Yeah, intermittently, yeah.

46. Q. Okay. And then for the payment part of it, is it that -- like, were they telling you how much they were going to pay you? Or were you asking them to pay you? Or both? How -- how did that work?

A. No, like, I -- I had an hourly wage that we came up with between the two of us. It was, like, 25 bucks an hour. You know, a little bit of variance, but probably not a lot between those two dates. And I would basically just talk to one of them and say,

"Hey, you guys owe me 300 bucks, 400" -- whatever, you know? Whatever...

47. Q. Okay. So I just want to make sure I understand. So between October 2022 and October 2023 ---

A. M'hmm.

48. Q. --- you had an agreement with your dad that Clonsilla would pay you, we'll say, $25 an hour. Maybe it was a little different than that, but ---

A. Yeah. That -- that would be accurate, I would imagine for that time.

49. Q. Okay.

A. Yeah.

50. Q. And you're not, you know, physically keeping time sheets or anything, but you're sort of generally in your mind keeping track of how much time you're spending on whatever they're asking you to do?

A. Yes.

51. Q. And then -- is it, like, every two weeks you're asking to get paid, or?

A. No, it was kind of just whenever I completed a task, or you know, like, I would go in -- I'm a very -- as I mentioned, I have ADHD, so I have, like, a -- a good attention span, but it's very short. So I would go in, you know, if they're like, "Oh, we have a serious backup on the legal stuff. We need to get to the paralegal," I'll go in and I'll slam out ten of these things, you know, in a couple of days, and then I'll go do something else.

52. Q. But at the end of those two days, would you ask to get paid for what you just did ---

A. Sometimes.

53. Q. --- because that task is over?

A. Sometimes.

54. Q. But not ---

A. Yeah.

55. Q. --- all the time?

A. Not all the time.

56. Q. Okay. Is there any record anywhere of, you know, that would show me how many hours you worked during that year?

A. Maybe in -- in the possession of Maryanne or my dad at the -- during that time, but I ---

57. Q. You don't have anything?

A. I don't have anything, no.

58. Q. Okay. And then did you also loan money to Clonsilla?

A. Yes.

59. Q. How much money did you loan to Clonsilla?

A. About 1.2 million.

60. Q. Okay. And was it all at one time, or was that over time?

A. The million was -- actually, it's higher than the 1.2, I believe. But the million was in -- in around 2018. In around -- I think it's September 2018.

61. Q. Okay. And was that part of an inheritance that you received?

A. Yes.

62. Q. And so then you loaned it to Clonsilla?

A. Yeah.

63. Q. And then -- so you said 1.2, maybe it was more. So was -- what -- what were the other advances you made?

A. So there was another amount that was 200,000, and it's going back far enough -- and I don't have the records anymore, they were in my office, it's going back far enough I don't remember if it was a personal loan, or if it was to the business.

64. Q. Okay. And were there any other loans you made, other than those two?

A. There was another loan for 75,000. Again, I -- I can't recollect if that was personal or -- or to Clonsilla.

65. Q. Was that also a -- a long time ago?

A. Yes, yeah, quite a long time ago, yeah. As I say, in and around 2018, 2019.

66. Q. Any others besides those three?

A. I'm sure there's more. But I can't recall off the top of my head. I kept records of this stuff in my desk in the office, and when we were asked not to attend the office anymore, I didn't -- I didn't realize that that stuff was going to be, you know, taken out of there. So I just don't have copies of that ---

67. Q. Okay.

A. --- kind of stuff.

68. Q. So let's start with the $1 million advance, then. What were the documents you had, you know, in your desk, say, or otherwise, to ---

A. So we had a -- a loan agreement drawn up and signed with a witness, you know, a witnessed document.

69. Q. Okay. Who -- who drew it up?

A. I -- I can't recall. I don't -- I don't -- it might have been LLF Lawyers, it might have been Maryanne, it might have been myself. I actually don't recall.

70. Q. Who would have witnessed it?

A. Again, I -- I don't recall. But I'm certain it was -- it was witnessed. It might have been Maryanne. Yeah.

71. Q. Okay. And so the loan was for $1 million?

A. Yeah.

72. Q. It was from you, personally, to who?

A. No, so it was from -- well, yeah, it -- it was from me to Clonsilla Auto.

73. Q. Okay.

A. And it was transferred from CIBC Wood Gundy, which was the investment account where the inheritance was deposited.

74. Q. Okay. Now, we've heard from some other witnesses that some of the loans went through -- through Northbridge Estates, and then Northbridge sent it to Clonsilla.

A. I don't -- I -- I wouldn't be able to recall.

75. Q. Okay. But you ---

A. I don't think -- I don't think any of mine did.

76. Q. Okay. So your ---

A. Yeah.

77. Q. Your information is that you loaned the million dollars directly to Clonsilla?

A. Absolutely, yeah.

78. Q. Do you have -- were there any other documents around this? So there was the loan agreement. Were there -- was there anything else in writing to sort of evidence what the loan was?

A. I did a financial disclosure in 2018 for a separation I was going through that denotes it as a loan. Yeah. Now, that's -- so I would -- I would have emails, I suppose, between the lawyer and myself ---

79. Q. The family law ---

A. --- letting her know ---

80. Q. --- lawyer?

A. Yes, correct. As well as the actual financial disclosure, so...

81. Q. What were the terms of that loan? Like, were you to get interest, for example?

A. Yeah, so -- so the -- again, I don't remember the exact phrasing of the document, but essentially, the discussion we had was -- when I offered the loan to him, I was, like, "Look, I'm not trying to make money on it, I just don't want it to cost me money. So, you know, you need to keep up with -- like, you need to pay" -- I -- I believe what we discussed is interest in -- in keeping with, essentially, inflation, as well as any costs related to the transfer of the -- you know, the -- the loaning of the -- the money itself. So I -- I can't remember if, at the time, it was loaned -- it had come out of my margin account, or if it was direct principal. I'll have to -- that's something I'll have to get back to you on.

82. Q. When was it to be repaid? Like, how were you going to get it back?

A. Well, I assumed it was fairly safe in the business, so I actually -- I don't know that we denoted a specific repayment date. I believe we did, but it was, you know, applicable to extension by mutual agreement kind of thing without a further contract. So...

83. Q. And was it ever paid back?

A. So I got, like, bits of repayment over time. You know, when I needed -- when I needed money, I -- I had -- I've had three small children throughout the course of the existence of this loan, essentially, and I have a spouse with pretty extreme mental health issues, so I spend a lot of time at home kind of caring for everybody. And that was -- you know, so that was part of how, you know, I funded life was, you know, I -- if I needed money, I'd go to him and say, "Hey, I need some of that money back." So...

84. Q. Were you -- were you keeping track anywhere of how much money you had got back versus how much money you'd loaned?

A. Roughly.

85. Q. Was it, like, a -- a spreadsheet somewhere where you keeping ---

A. You're not going to like this, but scratch pad style. Like ---

86. Q. Okay.

A. Yeah.

87. Q. Do you still have any of those notes?

A. I would have to -- I would have to look up -- there should have been a rough tally sheet in my office, again, at the -- at the office.

88. Q. Okay. So I'm going to ask you, through your lawyer, to -- to make best efforts to find any documents you can find ---

A. Sure.

89. Q. --- that evidenced this loan, including, you know, when you sent the money through, and ---

A. Sure.

90. Q. --- and whatever money you got back. So ---

A. Yeah.

91. Q. I would include in that the loan agreement, any notes you kept on -- on the scratch pad.

A. Sure. M'hmm, yeah.

92. Q. I don't need your -- I don't need or want your disclosure in your family law case. But to the extent, you know, you can redact everything but that one line showing that you -- you were disclosing it at the time, I think ---

A. Sure.

93. Q. --- I'd put in the category of something that does evidence the loan that you gave.

A. Sure. I believe in my financial disclosure it lists the $200,000 loan as well.

94. Q. Perfect. So ---

A. Yeah.

95. Q. --- yeah, I would ask for the same thing for all three of your loans that you've ---

A. Sure.

96. Q. --- told us about. And just for the record, just included in that, any bank -- bank statements you have. So whether it's the CIBC Wood Gundy account or ---

A. M'hmm.

97. Q. --- any other that just shows the money going out or ---

A. Yeah.

98. Q. --- in, I guess. When you're getting money back from Clonsilla, is that the same? It's either by cheque or by wire transfer?

A. Yeah, it would vary. Sometimes draft. Yeah.

99. Q. Okay.

A. Just depends on the amount.

100. Q. Just any documentation you can give me to just help me figure out exactly ---

A. Now, this is ---

101. Q. --- what the total is.

A. --- for between 2022 and 2023?

102. Q. No, no. It's any time. I understand that, you know, the further back we go, the harder it's probably going to be for you to get any records, but --

A. Yeah, it might take me a little bit of time. There's an additional complication. So I was a victim of fraud about a year and a half ago on my main bank -- chequing account, and it's actually still locked down for investigation. So that's going to take some time. But I'll get you anything that I can.

103. Q. All right. Well, all I'm asking is to use your best efforts ---

A. Of course, yeah.

104. Q. --- to locate whatever you can.

A. I will do that.

105. Q. Thank you.

(Whereupon UNDERTAKING NO. 1: To make best efforts to produce any documents that evidence three loans, including the loan agreements, notes, and bank statements.)

BY MR. MCGRATH:

106. Q. Now, I understand your siblings made loans to Clonsilla as well.

A. M'hmm.

107. Q. If I start with Meggan, or -- do you have any knowledge about how much money she would have loaned to Clonsilla?

A. I have no idea.

108. Q. And what about Sara? I don't know how much money she gave?

A. No idea.

109. Q. And I understand Lawson, there may have been money from him that also went to Clonsilla. Do you have any knowledge about that?

A. No idea. We don't do a lot of inter-sibling discussion about business stuff.

110. Q. Okay. Do you know a Rasto Beekmans?

A. Yeah.

111. Q. How do you know him?

A. We actually met bartending many years ago.

112. Q. And then he also worked for Clonsilla, too --

A. He did ---

113. Q. --- right?

A. --- yeah.

114. Q. Was he a part owner of Clonsilla? Do you know?

A. No, he was just a sales guy.

115. Q. Do you know if he ever loaned money to Clonsilla?

A. I have no idea.

116. Q. Okay. I'm going to -- so the brief in front of you is called a Brief of Bank Statements. And these are just some bank statements from Clonsilla's account. It had an RBC account. I'm just going to show you some transfers to you, and just ask you ---

A. M'hmm.

117. Q. --- about them. So if you can flip to Tab A.

A. Yeah.

118. Q. If you just go to the second page, 2 of 28, at the bottom there.

A. M'hmm.

119. Q. So we're in April 27th, 2023 to May 26th, 2023. If you look at May 1st, there's two transfers to you that day, one for ---

A. Yeah.

120. Q. --- 250, and one for $400.

A. M'hmm.

121. Q. Do you know what these would have been for?

A. I -- I couldn't guess. Amounts wise, that looks like probably one of the circumstances I was talking about where I'm, like, "Hey, I just whacked out a bunch of files. Can you pay me?"

122. Q. I ask you to turn to page 17 of 28 ---

A. M'hmm.

123. Q. --- please. Same tab. Hang on. Should be a page of cheques, and the top one is written out to yourself for $1,680.

A. Okay.

124. Q. Do you know what this would have been for?

A. Sorry, I'm not seeing that cheque.

125. Q. Oh, it should be the top -- page 17 of 28.

A. Oh, I'm 16. Sorry. 1680. I'm not -- I -- I couldn't say. That could easily be wages. Or it could have been, you know, a small amount of loan repayment. I -- I couldn't say.

126. Q. Okay. There's -- there's a lot of these. Okay? There's a lot of transfers ---

A. Yeah.

127. Q. --- to you over time. And is there any way for me to know whether they're wages for you, or whether it's repayment of the loan to you? Or some third reason, I guess.

A. Well, I don't think there would be a third reason. But I mean, I suppose if I had access to the stuff from my office, I -- I did keep rough notes. There's probably some of these that'll match up numbers wise. I could go through those and try to match them up, and then you'd know specifically what each transfer was. But I don't know those documents anymore, so...

128. Q. Did you file, like, a T4, like, a tax return for 2023 that would show what your wages, earnings were?

A. This will shock you, but tax -- tax stuff is not really my area of expertise. But if I did, I would have to ask my accountant. I don't -- I -- I sort of just explained to him what I, you know, took in income wise in a particular year, and then he kind of, you know, did his accounting magic, and, you know ---

129. Q. Who ---

A. --- filed for me.

130. Q. Who is your accountant?

A. Sid Karmazyn.
131. Q. Okay. All right. Could I ask for a copy of your T4, if any, that you received from Clonsilla, for -- to -- let me back up. Do you know if you got a T4 from Clonsilla for 2023?
A. I'm actually not sure.
132. Q. You don't know?
A. Yeah.
133. Q. Okay. Can I ask you to check your records?
A. Of course, yeah.
134. Q. If -- if you did, could you produce it to us, please?
A. Yeah. Yes. Yes.
135. Q. Thank you.
MR. HARRIS: That's for ---
MR. MCGRATH: That was for 2023, a T4 for income from Clonsilla.
MR. HARRIS: You only want 2023, if it exists, or ---
MR. MCGRATH: I don't. That -- that was for that undertaking.
(Whereupon UNDERTAKING NO. 2: To produce the deponent's 2023 T4 from Clonsilla Auto Sales and Leasing.)
MR. MCGRATH: And so then I'd also ask for the four years before that as well.

MR. HARRIS: If they exist, we will provide.

MR. MCGRATH: Thank you.

(Whereupon UNDERTAKING NO. 3: To produce the deponent's 2018, 2019, 2020, 2021, and 2022 T4s from Clonsilla Auto Sales and Leasing.)

BY MR. MCGRATH:

136. Q. Do you mind if I call you Taylor instead of Mr. Waddell?

A. Of course, yeah.

137. Q. It might be confusing.

A. Yeah.

138. Q. So Taylor, I'll -- I'll wait and see what you can find, but if you're unable to locate T4s, I'd ask for your permission to contact Sid, your accountant ---

A. M'hmm.

139. Q. --- and just ask him if he has these records that I'm asking for today. It won't be anything in addition to what I'm already asking for ---

A. Sure.

140. Q. --- but just for me to just ask him directly rather than you having to ask ---

A. Yeah.

141. Q. --- him. So that goes for -- would he have -- would he have any records of your loans, either? Would you ever have given that information to Sid? Or not?

A. I -- I'm not sure. I'd have to ask him, but...

142. Q. Okay.

A. So sorry, just to be clear, you're asking me for my permission right now to contact Sid directly?

MR. MCGRATH: Yeah, through your counsel. Counsel, I would ask for that undertaking that to the extent this witness is unable to locate any of the documents that we're looking for today, that I have his consent to -- or Mr. -- I guess, Sid the accountant has his consent to release those documents to me, to the extent that they're in his possession.

MR. HARRIS: So I guess prior to us -- well, I mean, we can just ask him, too. Right? Because we're going to be looking for them.

THE DEPONENT: But yeah, I mean, if he has them and I ask him for them, he's going to provide them, right?

MR. HARRIS: Yeah, but you're asking me if -- if we can't find them, can we give you permission to talk to the accountant? Which is fine. I mean, there's nothing ---

THE DEPONENT: Yeah. Yeah.

MR. HARRIS: Yeah, that's fine. So yeah, we'll give you that undertaking. That's fine.

MR. MCGRATH: All right. Thank you.

(Whereupon UNDERTAKING NO. 4: To provide the deponent's consent for his accountant to release the requested documents.)

BY MR. MCGRATH:

143. Q. So Taylor, I -- I was going to take you through -- we've got, you know, five or six months worth of account statements; you were getting ---

A. Sure.

144. Q. --- transfers relatively regularly.

A. Yeah.

145. Q. I'm going to assume -- I'm going to try to short circuit things maybe a little, and you tell me if -- if we have to go through them, I'm more than happy to do that, but ---

A. Yeah.

146. Q. --- if I show you, for example, you know, you got transfers on May 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 15th.

A. Yeah.

147. Q. I could take you to each one of those, and I'm happy to do that, but generally, if I take you to a transfer that you received from the Clonsilla bank account ---

A. M'hmm.

148. Q. --- are you going to tell me it was either wages or loan repayment, and ---

A. Yeah.

149. Q. --- you're not sure which one?

A. That's a safe bet, yeah. Sure.

150. Q. And I guess if we get your T4s, that might help us figure out which ones were allocated ---

A. Absolutely.

151. Q. --- towards income, and which ones weren't.

A. Yeah, sure.

152. Q. Is there any other way you can think of that we can try to figure out how much -- whatever you received, how much of it was wages and how much of it was loan repayment?

A. As I said, if I can get the stuff back from my office ---

153. Q. Okay. So -- and that's, like, the notes that you had ---

A. Yeah, so ---

154. Q. --- stored there?

A. Yeah, so I had a desk in -- in -- I call it "my office," but it's just an office, it was an old sales office. And I had a desk that had a filing cabinet attached to it. In there, in a somewhat haphazard manner, I had stuffed a fair amount of this information of this sort, you know? Loan -- loan agreements, you know, my, granted, limited notation kind of of my hours and stuff and stuff like that. But I mean, the hours thing should be fairly straight forward because I would have reported it to my accountant, and he would have filed for it.

155. Q. Okay.

A. So -- and I was up on filing my -- my taxes, you know, so I -- I would assume that should be fairly easy to clarify.

156. Q. All right.

A. Yeah.

157. Q. So if we get that information either from you or your accountant, and ---

A. M'hmm.

158. Q. --- it shows your income was X ---

A. M'hmm.

159. Q. --- then whatever you received in excess of that from Clonsilla was a -- was repayment towards your loan?

A. Well, I mean, I can't speak to -- as to how he would have -- I mean, I have to imagine, right? You pay an accountant, he's going to file it in the most advantageous way possible. So, you know, there may be some disparity between the two numbers. But I would imagine that would give us a rough idea.

160. Q. Okay.

A. There's not going to be -- I -- I think if I -- and maybe I am reading into this question. I don't think there's another explanation for money coming out of there, other than loan repayment, including as I said, interest in accordance with, you know, inflation, or wages.

161. Q. Okay.

A. There's not another reason I would take, you know, money, generally speaking, out of Clonsilla.

162. Q. Do you know who had the power to withdraw cash from Clonsilla's bank accounts?

A. I have no idea. I never dealt with any of the financial aspects of -- of the company.

163. Q. Did you drive a -- a vehicle that was from Clonsilla?

A. A few over the years, yeah.

164. Q. Okay. Just bear with me. I'm not ---

A. Yeah.

165. Q. --- just checking my phone. I just have ---
A. I assume you're ---
166. Q. --- some information on it. Did -- first of all, who is Meagan Archer?
A. That's my spouse.
167. Q. Okay.
A. Yeah.
168. Q. Who drove a 2015 GMC Suburban?
A. Meagan.
169. Q. So that was your spouse?
A. Yeah.
170. Q. And then did you also drive a vehicle from Clonsilla ---
A. Yes.
171. Q. --- as well?
A. Yeah.
172. Q. What vehicle were you driving? Let's take October 2022 to October ---
A. Yeah ---
173. Q. --- 2023.
A. --- sure. It was a -- I want to say a 2019 Dodge Ram Rebel.
174. Q. And then how did it -- how did it work for both you and Meagan to have these vehicles? Did you make -- first of all, did you enter into any sort of agreement to -- to get them? Was there a lease agreement?

A. So a couple of the -- as I said, I've had a few vehicles from there. At different times, I've had, you know, a, like, a lease for a vehicle, and then I -- I believe the most recent truck that I drove, we kind of just -- it was a demo.

So I just kind of -- you know, I was in there, you know, quite a bit for, you know, trying to deal with the receivables and repossessions, stuff like that, so they were kind of, like, "Just drive the -- you know, you can drive this," so yeah.

175. Q. Was that how it worked with the GMC Suburban?

A. So Meagan drove the GMC, like, full time. So it wasn't, like a -- it wasn't a demo. I -- I don't remember when she got it. But, I mean, she certainly would have been driving it in the time period you're asking about. I -- I think.

176. Q. Okay.

A. Yeah.

177. Q. And then you wouldn't have made any lease payments on either of those vehicles? Is that true? You or Meagan.

A. What's that? Sorry.

178. Q. You would -- you -- you weren't making lease payments or any payments to Clonsilla? It's just -- you were able to use them ---

A. Yeah, essentially, yeah. Yeah.

179. Q. All right.

A. I -- I believe the discussion we had was kind of along the lines of, like, you know, "I have a million-dollar loan into the company. Plus, you know, we can probably drive a couple of demos." So yeah.

MR. MCGRATH: All right. Can we just go off the record, please?

THE REPORTER: We're off record.

OFF THE RECORD AT 2:40 P.M.

(WHEREUPON A BRIEF RECESS WAS TAKEN)

ON THE RECORD AT 2:47 P.M.

THE REPORTER: We are on the record.

TAYLOR WADDELL, resumed,

180. Q. I just have one clean-up question.

A. Sure.

181. Q. When we're talking about your family law proceeding, I assume you had to provide something to your family lawyer to -- as evidence of ---

A. M'hmm.

182. Q. --- the loan. Can you either search your records or ask that lawyer what you provided, and if you can get it, to provide it to us?

A. I know what it was. It was the loan document that was signed between ---

183. Q. Perfect, okay.

A. --- my dad and myself, yeah.

184. Q. So if you could just -- you already gave best efforts ---

A. Sure.

185. Q. --- to try to locate that. But if you can add to that, please just make sure you contact that lawyer and see if they still have it in their records.

A. Yeah, sure.

186. Q. I just want to make sure... One last thing to ask you about the bank statements. If you could please turn to Tab C.

A. Yeah.

187. Q. Or B, sorry. And the last page of Tab B. There's a cheque at the bottom there to Radislav (sic) Scasny. That's another name for Mr. Beekmans, right?

A. Yeah. Rastislav, yeah. Yeah.

188. Q. For $95,000. Do you have any idea why Clonsilla would be paying Mr. Scasny $95,000?

A. I have no idea.

189. Q. Do you live at 1922 Maple Ridge?

A. No.
190. Q. Have you ever lived there?
A. I have, yeah.
191. Q. Did you own that property?
A. No.
192. Q. I understand that mortgage payments for that property were being made by Clonsilla.
A. Yeah.
193. Q. Do I have that right?
A. I -- I don't know. I don't know the inner workings. I know that it was owned, you know...
194. Q. Okay.
A. Yeah.
195. Q. I understand that Mr. Beekmans had a -- a -- had security over that property as well. Do you -- do you know?
A. I don't know anything about that.
196. Q. You don't know anything about that?
A. No. I'm assuming that was after I moved out.
197. Q. When did you move out?
A. April.
198. Q. 2024?
A. Of this year, yeah. 2024, yeah. But I -- I don't know. I mean, I'm just guessing. I don't know anything about it.

199. Q. Okay. So you don't know whether Mr. Beekmans was taking steps to enforce his security against that ---

A. I have ---

200. Q. --- property?

A. --- no idea. Is security, like ---

201. Q. Like, a mortgage.

A. --- a lien? Like a -- that's -- okay. Oh, like, a mortgage? Okay. Yeah, I -- I'm sorry. I don't know anything about that.

MR. MCGRATH: All right. Subject to the undertakings and any questions that might arise from the information we get from them, those are our questions today. Thank you very much.

THE REPORTER: We're off the record --

MR. MCGRATH: Oh, sorry. Can I just go back on record for one second? Pardon? Yeah.

OFF THE RECORD AT 2:50 P.M.

(WHEREUPON A BRIEF RECESS WAS TAKEN)

ON THE RECORD AT 2:50 P.M.

THE REPORTER: We're on record.

MR. MCGRATH: Sorry, I just forgot to mark this as a -- an exhibit. So it'll just be Exhibit 1 to this examination, just the brief of bank statements.

(Whereupon EXHIBIT NO. 1 : Brief of bank statements.)

MR. MCGRATH: And that concludes our questions for today. Thank you.

EXAMINATION FOR DISCOVERY OF MEGGAN WADDELL

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 2024

9:28 A.M.

THE REPORTER: Do you solemnly affirm that the evidence you are about to give shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth?

THE DEPONENT: Yes.

THE REPORTER: Please state and spell your name for the record.

THE DEPONENT: Meggan Waddell. M-E-G-G-A-N, W-A -- (coughs) -- D-D-E-L-L.

THE REPORTER: Thank you.

THE DEPONENT: Is that okay that I coughed in there?

MR. HARRIS: Yeah.

THE DEPONENT: Okay.

THE REPORTER: Are you ready to proceed?

MR. MCGRATH: Ready.

THE REPORTER: Okay. We are on the record.

MR. MCGRATH: All right.

MEGGAN WADDELL, affirmed,

EXAMINATION BY MR. MCGRATH:

1. Q. Good morning, Ms. Waddell. Ms. Waddell, I just have some introductory questions. The first is, do you have any post-secondary education?

A. A little bit. Nothing exciting.

2. Q. So where did you go?

A. Fleming College.

3. Q. Okay. What did you study there?

A. Biology.

4. Q. And did you get a certificate or a degree from Fleming College?

A. Yeah, I got a certificate.

5. Q. Okay. In ---

A. I also went to theatre school, Randolph Academy.

6. Q. Okay. The certificate you got from Fleming College, that was in biology?

A. Yes.

7. Q. And then sorry, you went to what did you say? Theater?

A. Randolph Academy.

8. Q. Randolph Academy. And did you get a degree or a diploma?

A. I's -- it's just its own thing. It's, like, its own program. It's a year.

9. Q. Okay. Do you have any ---

A. Singing, dancing, acting.

10. Q. Do you have any other post-secondary education?

A. I -- OMVIC, I had, that I don't have anymore.

11. Q. Okay. When did you have your OMVIC registration?

A. I think it was good until, like 2018 maybe, or maybe a little sooner than that.

12. Q. And do you know when you first got it?

A. 2007 or '8.

13. Q. What did you have to do to get it?

A. Study, and then just go to the Ministry, I think, or Chamber of Commerce, actually, in Peterborough, and then you just write an exam. It was open book. Still kind of hard.

14. Q. All right. And then in terms of your employment history, maybe it's sometimes easier to start now and go back. So are you currently employed?

A. No, I'm not working at all.

15. Q. Okay. What was the last job that you had?

A. I have my own company.

16. Q. Okay. What's that company called?

A. It's called Upstage.

17. Q. And what -- what is it?

A. Home staging.

18. Q. How long have you had that company?

A. 2021.

19. Q. All right. Have you had any other jobs since 2021? Or Upstage has been ---

A. That's it.

20. Q. --- the only one? Okay. And what about right before Upstage? What was your job then?

A. I think the last job that I had before that was -- like, actual work -- I didn't work that much for good reason. I didn't need to.

21. Q. Sort of stopping you there ---

A. M'hmm.

22. Q. --- what do you mean by that?

A. I inherited a lot of money.

23. Q. Okay. When did you inherit a lot of money?

A. In 2017 and in 2008.

24. Q. All right. I should have asked this off the top, but can -- can you just give me your date of birth, please?

A. October 4th, 1986.

25. Q. Okay. So 2008, you inherited a lot of money? So when you were 22?

A. 21.

26. Q. 21 or 22?

A. 21st birthday.

27. Q. Oh, that makes sense. What -- what -- so would that have been 2007, then?

A. Maybe. It could have been. I don't know.

28. Q. Well, if you're born in 1986, your 21st birthday would have ---

A. Yeah.

29. Q. --- been in 2007.

A. Yeah, but I probably didn't get it, to be honest ---

30. Q. Maybe right ---

A. --- in 2008 because it took time to...

31. Q. Okay.

A. I just remember that in 2008 that I started getting money from that.

32. Q. All right. So is it fair to say before 2021, you didn't really have any full time (inaudible)?

A. No, I did. I worked at a golf course, for example.

33. Q. Okay. When did you work at a golf course?

A. In 2006 to -- just 2007. I also worked at the dealership for a period of time ---

34. Q. Okay.

A. --- in 2007. Maybe even 2006, I did actually do some work there. And then until 2013, consistently, I was -- I worked there.

35. Q. Okay. And the dealership you're talking about, it's Clonsilla Auto Sales and ---

A. Yeah.

36. Q. --- Leasing?

A. M'hmm.

37. Q. I'm just going to call that "Clonsilla" for today.

A. Yeah, sure, that's fine.

38. Q. So how about after 2013? Did you work at Clonsilla?

A. Casually here and there, but nothing, like, committed, all the time. To be honest, it was more of a personal, like, family thing. It was, like, no, I want to not -- I want to do my own thing, basically. So...

39. Q. What did you -- your answer might be different for different periods of time, and I understand that ---

A. M'hmm.

40. Q. --- but my question is what did you do for Clonsilla when you worked there?

A. Usually just sold cars for the most part.
41. Q. So if I take -- post-2021, did you work at -- at the dealership at all?
A. (Inaudible response).
42. Q. And so if I take 2020 to 2021, were you working at the dealership at all then, either?
A. No, only occasional work. Like, I had certain people that had dealt with me always kind of thing. And then I'd just redirect them to -- because they would text me or something and be like, "Hey, I need a car." And then I would redirect them to someone that works at the dealership now kind of thing.
43. Q. Okay. But you wouldn't actually go and, like, show them a car or try to sell or ---
A. God, no.
44. Q. --- lease a car?
A. No. Not at all.
45. Q. Okay. So post-2021 ---
A. M'hmm.
46. Q. --- did you ever go into the dealership for any reason?
A. Yeah, all the time. My dad was there.
47. Q. Okay. But that would just be to see your -- your family members or to see people you knew?

A. Absolutely. Chat, whatever, you know.
48. Q. Okay. You were not going in there to work at that time?
A. No.
49. Q. Do you know -- your mother is Nancy Waddell.
A. M'hmm.
50. Q. Did she have a -- let's stay in that period, post-2021 ---
A. M'hmm.
51. Q. --- for now. Did she have a job at Clonsilla?
A. So she's always done some stuff for Clonsilla. Collections and things like that. So she's had bits and pieces that I know of, but honestly, I don't actually know her role per se. We just don't really discuss it. But yeah, she's been in there.
52. Q. Okay.
A. And sometimes doing stuff in general, just tasked out to her.
53. Q. And what about -- your sister is Sara Waddell?
A. M'hmm.
54. Q. Did she have a job at Clonsilla?
A. I think she fairly frequently would go in there. I don't know what she was doing. We never really discussed it. I -- I don't actually know what my sister does now.

55. Q. Okay.

A. So we're just not that way, you know. Nobody really talks about that stuff other than my brother, who complains a lot.

56. Q. Yeah, I think your brother was the next -- my next question.

A. M'hmm.

57. Q. So that's Taylor Waddell, right?

A. Yeah.

58. Q. Did he have a job at Clonsilla?

A. Yes, he did. He did collections and all kinds of things as well. Like, he -- yeah.

59. Q. Okay. Did you ever loan money to Clonsilla?

A. Oh, yeah.

60. Q. All right. So can you -- first of all, just generally, can you just explain that to me? Like, what ---

A. Yeah, sure.

61. Q. --- what -- what type -- how much? When? What are the details?

THE DEPONENT: Okay, well, the first time was in -- I want to say, like, 2009-ish. It could have been some other time. Am I supposed to answer questions going this far back?

MR. HARRIS: M'hmm.

THE DEPONENT: Okay. Just want to make sure I'm doing this right. Okay. 2009-ish, I gave $555,000 transferred from RBC -- it was -- actually, it was right in -- coinciding with the crash in the economy in the US. So it was, like, "Oh, God, I'm going to lose a bunch of money." I started to lose money in my RBC -- I forget what it's called, but it -- my investment portfolio with them, what -- the specific name was -- Charlie Harper was my guy that did my investments at the time.

And his advice was kind of, you know, just stick it out. But I wasn't comfortable. I lost $35,000 in no time. I had $708,000 to begin with with him. And then I took 555,000 and I put it into the loan for my dad because it made sense. Felt safer.

BY MR. MCGRATH:

62. Q. Did you ---

A. I was wrong.

63. Q. Did you have a written agreement with your --

A. Yeah ---

64. Q. --- your dad?

A. Absolutely. At the time, we did. Yeah.
65. Q. Okay. And -- and so what were the terms of that? You -- you gave a loan of $555,000.
A. Yeah.
66. Q. What -- what were the terms of that loan?
A. I was getting interest only for a period of time at 10 percent, which was enough for me to get by on and pay off my debts as they kind of went because I had debts, credit cards, things like that.
67. Q. What period of time was that interest (inaudible)?
A. So he said to me that at the end of 10 years, which is what I wanted anyway, I wanted to protect it because I didn't really know what was going to happen with my life, that I could -- oh, I could do it any time, actually, I wanted to. I could pull the money any time I wanted to. But at the -- at the period of 10 years, we would discuss the rate, basically.
68. Q. Okay. So if 10 years is around 2019 or 2018 ---
A. We discussed it before that.
69. Q. Okay. Let me start with -- did that money -- did that loan get paid back to you?
A. In some pieces, bit and pieces here and there, but no, like, substantial -- I didn't ask for it either, other than in bits and pieces.

70. Q. So, like, sitting here now, is it still outstanding?

A. Yeah, there's more than that, though.

71. Q. Okay.

A. Much more than that.

72. Q. Let's talk about the -- let's get the -- all the advances sorted and then ---

A. Okay.

73. Q. --- we'll start talking about the repayments. So there's $555,000 in about 2009.

A. M'hmm.

74. Q. What other advances did you make?

A. So in 2017, I inherited $2.3 million.

75. Q. M'hmm. Who did you inherit that from?

A. My aunt. My family are heirs to Quaker, so...

76. Q. Is it your dad's sister?

A. Yeah.

77. Q. Okay. So you inherit 2.23 million in 2017 --

A. M'hmm.

78. Q. --- and how much of that do you advance to your father?

A. Then and there, to be honest with you, I don't recall the exact amounts at different times. There were some amounts I advanced and were repaid very quickly because I wanted to do something with it. And then I know 225,000, I think, right away, and then another 25,000 right away. I can't honestly think off the top of my head exactly how much, but ---

79. Q. Okay.

A. --- it was substantial, and it was recorded, like ---

80. Q. Yeah, I just want to take it in -- in bits. So when you're advancing all this money, are you -- is it a loan to your father? Is it a loan to Clonsilla? Do you -- did you think about ---

A. Clonsilla, it's definitely for Clonsilla, yes.

81. Q. And then so what, in writing, do you have to -- to talk -- or to document the terms of your ---

A. Promissory between Dad and I.

82. Q. You have -- do you have a written promissory note?

A. We did have. They were in the office. So I don't know -- we can't get any of the paperwork. So...

83. Q. Okay. So sitting here, you don't have any paper -- paperwork for any of your advances?

A. No, but I do have record, of course, of the money going out of my accounts and into ---

84. Q. Yeah.

A. --- where it went.

85. Q. Yeah. And did they go right into the -- the Clonsilla bank account?

A. Presumably. I don't know. I don't really manage any of that.

86. Q. Okay. So you -- you just directed someone else to make the -- the actual advances or transfers?

A. Often, yeah. So whoever managed my money, this is, you know, this would be the transfer information, put it in there.

87. Q. And you -- so you -- you would have record -- do you have records of all the advances you made ---

A. Yeah.

88. Q. --- to Clonsilla?

A. Sure. Absolutely. Even through the bank if I must, right?

MR. MCGRATH: Counsel, could I ask for an undertaking to just use your best efforts to locate all records of advances that Ms. Waddell made to Clonsilla and to produce them?

MR. HARRIS: Yeah. Yeah, best efforts.

(Whereupon UNDERTAKING NO. 1: To make best efforts to locate all records of advances that the deponent made to Clonsilla Auto Sales and Leasing, and to produce them.)

BY MR. MCGRATH:

89. Q. Do you know when the last advance you made was?

A. I think 2019 was my last advance, yeah.

90. Q. And were you getting paid back -- so let's talk about ---

A. Actually, sorry, it was 2018. It was 2018 for sure.

91. Q. Okay. And then let's talk about payments back. So ---

A. Yeah.

92. Q. --- how -- how did that work? You said you got bits and pieces at ---

A. Yeah, so ---

93. Q. --- different points.

A. --- for example, I had a house I was renovating. I needed money back to fund that renovation. "Can I get some money back?" That was how. Also, my vehicle situation. It was provided under the condition that, you know, it's -- that comes out of the amounts that I am paid.

94. Q. So how were you keeping track of how much money you had advanced, and how much money you got back?

A. I didn't necessarily keep track. It kind of depended on it being kept track of for me. I knew, generally, what I was expecting. And as long as that was satisfied, and if I needed it, I could get it, and I was fine with that. Also, I knew that if I withdrew beyond a certain amount, then I would have to not be paid as much.

95. Q. But did you -- did you know, like -- you know, at any give time, did you know, "Oh, he's," -- you know, "I'm still owed X dollars"?

A. Yeah, I mean, I had a rough idea at all times. I know that ---

96. Q. But the ---

A. --- right now, like, because I didn't always collect my money, I didn't always want to collect my money, and the idea for me was basically it's better loaned out, safe, which is what I thought it was, than in my hands that, in my mind, was a young age, you know?

97. Q. So to your knowledge, there's not, like, you know, some spreadsheet somewhere where someone is keeping ---

A. I'm sure that there probably is.

98. Q. But ---

A. But I ---

99. Q. But to your knowledge, you don't know?

A. So it did exist at one point. That's what I'm saying. We don't have access to any of the documents that had all that information in it.

100. Q. And who would -- who would be updating that spreadsheet? Or ---

A. On the regular?

101. Q. Right.

A. Definitely, I think, my dad.

102. Q. Anybody else?

A. I mean, maybe. But I don't know.

103. Q. Not that you know of?

A. (Inaudible response).

104. Q. And sitting here today, how much money do you think is still outstanding?

A. Probably around 850. 850,000.

105. Q. So explain that to me. Because, you know, you talked about your initial advance was 555,000.

A. M'hmm.

106. Q. You talked about, you know, right away you advanced, after your inheritance, another 225, and maybe another 25, so ---

A. No, there was additional money as well. I just -- it's here, there, and everywhere. That's probably best if I get all of those advances together. I know that I tallied it before, and it's about 1.225 that I put in all together.

107. Q. And approximately 850,000 still outstanding?

A. M'hmm.

108. Q. In ---

A. Yeah.

109. Q. --- principal?

A. Yeah, I would say. That's my guess. But again, it was on -- like, there was records of these things, and...

110. Q. So I've got the undertaking for you to use best efforts to get us your records of your ---

A. Yeah.

111. Q. --- advances. Would you have records of receipts as well over the same period of time?

A. Records of receipts for what? Sorry.

112. Q. How much money you got back, interest payments.

A. Possibly, yeah. I mean, I probably could easily enough show what I've had back.

113. Q. I mean, so, you did get some direct transfers from Clonsilla? Is that right?

A. Oh, for sure, yeah.

114. Q. But then would -- would there also be -- so you talked about your vehicle.

A. M'hmm.

115. Q. So Clonsilla is making -- was -- was Clonsilla just providing you a vehicle sort of without payments? Is that how it worked?

A. Essentially. Like, I didn't really -- we didn't really talk about the hows or the whys. I also bought vehicles. Traded it in, had it sold, demo-ed vehicles, like, lots of different things. It's just kind of car dealership stuff.

116. Q. Okay. So I'm just interested in any vehicles that you got that were sort of consideration for the loans that you provided. So ---

A. M'hmm.

117. Q. --- you know, if you're paying for a vehicle, I'm not really that interested in it. But to the extent you got a vehicle and you didn't ---

A. Yeah.

118. Q. --- make an actual physical payment ---

A. Yeah.

119. Q. --- for it, it was sort of, you know, a consideration for all of the loans you provided, can you just explain that to me a -- a little bit? Like, you know, how many vehicles are we talking about?

A. Well, tons, because if it's something I was driving sold, then it sold. So...

120. Q. So how did it work? You just got a vehicle from the dealership, and you could use it until someone -- a -- a customer ---

A. Yeah.

121. Q. --- wanted it?

A. Essentially, yeah.

122. Q. And what period of time are we talking -- are we talking the whole time? Or ---

A. Always. I mean, I had demos. I -- and then that was the thing is I would have to take either a lower wage when I first started working there, and -- to have the demo, because, of course, you have to then prep a car for sale after someone has used it, being kind of hard on it, right? You have to do brakes, whatever. All that stuff so it's worth something.

So I, at first, took a lower wage, but then as this came in, and I didn't work there anymore, I just, "Okay, well, I'll take a car, and that can offset some of the debt."

123. Q. Okay.

A. It worked very well for 14 years, no problems.

MR. MCGRATH: So Counsel, can I ask, please, for an undertaking to use best efforts to try to determine how much money was paid back to Ms. Waddell ---

MR. HARRIS: Yeah.

MR. MCGRATH: --- for her loans?

MR. HARRIS: Yeah.

MR. MCGRATH: Thank you.

(Whereupon UNDERTAKING NO. 2: To make best efforts to determine how much was paid back to the deponent for the Clonsilla Auto Sales and Leasing loans.)

MR. MCGRATH: And -- and if there are any documents to support whatever you come up with, if you could produce them, please.

MR. HARRIS: Yes.

(Whereupon UNDERTAKING NO. 3: To make best efforts to produce any supporting documentation used to determine how much was paid back to the deponent for the Clonsilla Auto Sales and Leasing loans.)

THE DEPONENT: (Indiscernible). We don't have those.

BY MR. MCGRATH:

124. Q. Yeah, well, that's why I'm asking for best efforts.

A. Sure.

125. Q. You can't produce what you don't have.

A. Yeah.

126. Q. And I'll just -- I think I asked this already, and I apologize, but were there written loan agreements for any ---

A. There were some promissory notes, like I said, for sure. In my mind, it's always been there's a paper trail of everything, so I guess I just never -- again, I wasn't concerned. This is family, family business. My dad is, like, my best friend. I totally trust him.

127. Q. So aside from the promissory notes, were there any -- like, there was no loan agreement, for example, other than whatever is in the promissory notes? Is that ---

A. Yeah, basically.

128. Q. --- right?

A. It definitely was a loan agreement. Like, this is exactly how it was paid. Without question.

129. Q. Do you have a copy of any of those promissory notes?

A. Probably, but again, everything -- so basically our trusted space to keep things was the office. So that was where we put all important documents, and they're all gone. And I tried to get them, but I wasn't allowed in the building. And I was also told to leave and not take any documentation with me.

130. Q. Is there any way you have a copy, sort of, that wasn't in the office?

A. Potentially.

131. Q. That's possible?

A. Potentially, yeah.

132. Q. Because I haven't seen a copy of it. So I'm not hiding a version. I would ---

A. Yeah, yeah, yeah.

133. Q. --- love to see one, if it -- if we ---

A. Yeah.

134. Q. --- can get our hands on it. So I'd ask for an undertaking just to use your best efforts, just check your records ---

A. Of course. Absolutely.

135. Q. --- to see if you've got a copy of ---

A. No problem.

136. Q. --- any loan agreement, promissory note, anything ---

A. M'hmm.

137. Q. --- evidencing your loans to Clonsilla.

A. Yeah, I might even have things like emails, too, discussing ---

MR. MCGRATH: So Counsel, could I have that undertaking, please?

MR. HARRIS: Yes, yes.

MR. MCGRATH: Thank you.

(Whereupon UNDERTAKING NO. 4: To make best efforts to check records and produce any documentation, including loan agreements and promissory notes, evidencing the deponent's loans to Clonsilla Auto Sales and Leasing.)

BY MR. MCGRATH:

138. Q. Ms. Waddell, do you know, did your siblings ever loan money ---

A. Oh, yeah.

139. Q. --- to Clonsilla? And do you know -- let's start with Sara. Do you know how much she loaned to Clonsilla?

A. Honestly, I have no idea what any sibling loaned Clonsilla. We don't have those relationships where we discuss openly our finances, so...

140. Q. Fair enough. So if I asked you, you know, how much either of them had given or how much either of them had gotten back, you don't know?

A. I only know that my brother was in excess of a million, Taylor was. So I do know that.

141. Q. In excess of $1 million ---

A. That's only from conversation, not from proof.

142. Q. So from conversations, you think you know that he had loaned over $1 million to ---

A. Yeah.

143. Q. --- Clonsilla?

A. Yeah.

144. Q. Have you ever seen loan agreements that they had with ---

A. Yes.

145. Q. --- Clonsilla?

A. Yes, I do know that he has agreements that are super solid. He's a little more concerned with this, which means that I'm too casual, I guess.

146. Q. Okay. Do -- do you have copies of any of those, or you just know because you've seen them?

A. No, I just know because I've seen them. I don't have copies of anything.

147. Q. How about your mother? Do you know, did she make any loans to Clonsilla?

A. No idea. Not a clue. I'm relatively uninvolved financially. I also -- quite frankly, I'm not a huge fan of money, and money problems, and things that go on because of money. Like this, for example. Not my thing.

148. Q. Understood.

A. Yeah.

149. Q. Do you know who Rasto Beekmans is?

A. Yeah.

150. Q. Who is he?

A. He is a former employee. He is -- was a friend.

151. Q. Is he a part owner of Clonsilla, too?

A. I have no idea. I don't believe so, but I have no idea.

152. Q. Do you know if he made any loans to Clonsilla?

A. Definitely. I know that he made some loans. Again, I don't know numbers. I know nothing about it.

153. Q. Okay.

A. I don't allow anyone to talk to me about anything that's going on either, because I don't want to know. I just don't want to be involved. I have a baby, and I'm super focused on family life and trying to survive right now, which is nearly impossible.

154. Q. Okay. I'm going to move onto a new topic. Do you -- do you want to take a -- now would be a good time to take a break ---

A. I'm good to not break ---
155. Q. --- or you're okay?
A. --- but...
156. Q. Okay.
A. Just because I want to make sure when he needs me, then I can do that.
157. Q. Sure.
A. I haven't had the call yet, so...
158. Q. So I'm going to pass you a brief, and it's just bank statements from Clonsilla.
A. Okay.
159. Q. And you'll see there are Tabs A, B, C, D, E, and F. Those are ---
A. Yeah, that's them.
160. Q. --- just -- each one is just a different month.
A. Yeah, yeah.
161. Q. I just want to ask you not too many questions, just a couple. So ---
A. M'hmm.
162. Q. --- if we go to A, and page 3 of 28 at the bottom, so you'll see ---
A. Yeah.
163. Q. --- these are bank statement from ---
A. Okay, yeah.

164. Q. --- from RBC for Clonsilla.

A. Yeah.

165. Q. And if I'm looking at May 1st, about three lines down, you'll see there's -- it says, "Online transfer sent Meggan Waddell, $650." Three lines from the top on ---

A. Okay. Sorry.

166. Q. --- page 3.

A. On page 3. Oh, okay. Sorry, yes, May 1st. I didn't really look there. Yeah.

167. Q. So why would you be getting a -- a $650 transfer on that date? Do you know?

A. Oh, because I usually got $600 a week. That was part of my loan agreement.

168. Q. Okay. So we didn't go over that. So you -- -

A. Yeah.

169. Q. --- you were getting paid -- sorry, did you say 600, or $650?

A. 600, 650 would be because I didn't get the right amount before, or I just needed an extra $50. Like, I could just call him and say -- yeah, I'm sure. And I wasn't collecting to the extent of which my loan should repay me anyway, so...

170. Q. Okay. And when you said, "I'd call him," that's your father?

A. Yeah.

171. Q. Hugh Waddell?

A. Yeah.

172. Q. And so you'd say, "Hey, I want an extra $50 this week," and so he'd send you 650?

A. Yeah.

173. Q. Okay.

A. I mean, that was a rare thing. I pretty much just in the $600 a week. Tried to keep it simple.

174. Q. Understood. I think exactly what you're talking about -- if you just flip ahead to page ---

A. Yeah.

175. Q. --- 8 ---

A. Sure.

176. Q. --- of 28.

A. M'hmm.

177. Q. There's May 12th, and you'll see -- a few lines down, you see your name and the $600.

A. Yeah.

178. Q. So that's what you're talking about.

A. Yeah.

179. Q. That -- that's repayment of your loans ---

A. That's ---

180. Q. --- $600?

A. --- correct, yes.

181. Q. Okay.

A. It was just ongoing scheduled repayment.

182. Q. So any time I see a transfer to you of $600 or thereabouts ---

A. M'hmm.

183. Q. --- that's repayment of your loan?

A. That's correct, yes.

184. Q. Okay. And sometimes I -- like, sometimes I see smaller amounts. Like, there's one for $25 for example. That -- that might -- what would that be?

A. Sometimes it would be things like repayment. So I would go and put fuel in a car because I happened to be there. "Can you do me a favour? Can you get lunch? Can you do this or that?" kind of thing. So --

185. Q. Okay. So let -- let's ---

A. --- here and there and everywhere, like, it would just be simple stuff like that. But if I'm buying lunch for the office, then he sends money from there.

186. Q. Okay. So if you just go the next page, 9 --

A. Yeah.

187. Q. --- of 28.

A. M'hmm.

188. Q. On May 15th, your name appears again, but it's only a $25 ---

A. Yeah, that's what I mean. I -- it could have been, like, I picked up lunch ---

189. Q. So that wouldn't be ---

A. --- for the office.

190. Q. --- repayment of a loan? That would be repaying you for ---

A. Yeah.

191. Q. --- something that you spent for the business?

A. Yeah, there's no way that I'm getting 25 bucks for loan repayment, no.

192. Q. Okay.

A. Unless I literally had $25 cash, handed it to them because they needed $25 cash, or something. Making change. Like, there's a variety of situations under which I may have assisted. But nothing major, like, it would be, like, buying lunch or something. I was a casual visitor. I was very, very busy with my staging company. Very busy. Like, not now, completely dead. But was very, very busy.

193. Q. Just bear with me. I'm just ---

A. Yeah, yeah. Of course.
194. Q. I'm not going to ask you questions about $600 payments. I'm just going to see if there is any others that aren't...
A. Yeah.
195. Q. So if you go to Tab B ---
A. Yeah, okay.
196. Q. Still -- they're all statements in this brief, but this one ---
A. Sure.
197. Q. --- is just the next month. And if you go to page 15 of 26 ---
A. Okay. Okay.
198. Q. On June 27th, you'll see your name. You got a transfer of $2,300 on that ---
A. Yeah.
199. Q. --- day. What would that have been for?
A. I don't know. Like, I'd have to look into it, but it would be -- again, when I do that kind of thing, that's just pulling money, like, if I need something in excess of what I would have essentially been supposed to get, which is our agreed to $600 a week, yeah.
200. Q. So it would still be repayment -- it would be -- it would be, generally, repayment of a loan.

But ---

A. Yeah.

201. Q. --- there might be a reason why you needed more money that -- is that right?

A. Yeah, actually, to be honest, in this case, I want to say -- I have to look into it, honestly. I have to look into it. Because that might be -- June 27th... I need to look into that date.

202. Q. Okay.

A. So I mean, yeah.

203. Q. Could I ask you to do that then, please?

A. Yeah. Yeah, yeah.

204. Q. My assumption is going to be that it was repayment of -- of a loan. But if there are details around that ---

A. Agreed.

205. Q. --- or that's wrong, please -- please let me know.

A. Agreed. Absolutely. So there's a couple of times where the shop was getting prepped for the dealership to, you know, do their work at the shop kind of thing. And in order to do that, certain things had to take place, so it was compliant with OMVIC.

And I know there was some work going on involved with that. And I had helped with that because they were away, so that's what I mean. I need to check into that to have a better answer for you.

206. Q. Okay. Thank you.

A. Yeah.

(Whereupon UNDERTAKING NO. 5: To look into and advise as to the reason for the $2,300 transfer from Clonsilla Auto Sales and Leasing to the deponent, and to advise if there are details around the transfer, or if the money was not for repayment of a loan.)

BY MR. MCGRATH:

207. Q. So the ones that we've looked at have all been direct transfers. But if you go -- I'm at Tab C now ---

A. Okay.

208. Q. --- which is the next month.

A. Okay.

209. Q. And if you go to page 24 of 26 ---

A. Okay.

210. Q. --- if you look at the -- should be copies of cheques, and at the very bottom, it looks like there's a cheque made out to yourself ---

A. Yeah.

211. Q. --- for 1,800. So -- on July 23rd, 2023.

A. Yeah.

212. Q. Do you remember what that was for?

A. I think that that was, and I could be wrong, but this happens to be here, so I'll check. I'm just going to check before I say what I think.

213. Q. Sure.

A. Because I'm not 100 percent sure. Missing $600 transfers, promissory, yeah. That's what I thought.

214. Q. Okay. So what would happen there? Like, you're just not getting them for three weeks, and you say, "Hey, where's my" ---

A. So ---

215. Q. --- "money," or?

A. --- his scheduled payments were not coming through, and that's just because of it ran out of -- you know how you have a number that you type in for how many transfers for the next whatever, period of time?

So when it would run out, which happened now and again, then I maybe wouldn't notice because I was busy with work or something at the time, and had nothing to worry about financially, and then I would go, "Uh, oh, I'm missing this," and call my ---

216. Q. And then he'd catch up with a cheque?

A. Yeah, exactly.

217. Q. Okay.

A. Or a transfer. Whatever worked. But in this case, it was a cheque. Probably my dad was not available. Or sometimes banking. I don't know. Get online banking for whatever reason.

218. Q. If you go to the next ---

A. Yeah.

219. Q. --- tab, Tab -- I'm on E now.

A. Okay, yeah.

220. Q. I think there were none in August, all right.

A. M'hmm.

221. Q. I don't have a record of any. Do you know why that might be? Is it the same thing? Where the --

A. Honestly, I don't know why. Obviously things changed at some point.

222. Q. Right.

A. And I don't really know why, or what, but...

223. Q. Okay. I'm on page 10 of 25.

A. Okay. Okay.

224. Q. So we're in September now, September 21st, 2023.

A. Okay.

225. Q. And your name pops up at this $200 ---

A. Yeah.
226. Q. --- transfer. Do you know what that might be for?
A. Well, it would be money that -- again, I didn't understand the circumstance, what was going on. But I knew, obviously, something was going on. And I would have just needed $200 of my money, in my mind, and, you know -- what could it have been? I have no idea, to be honest.
227. Q. So when you say that you knew something was going -- going on, can you just explain a little -- a little bit?
A. Oh, actually, this is September. So no, I knew when you guys were there that something was going on. So I was thinking that that was around that time, but potentially not.
228. Q. I think it was around October ---
A. Yeah.
229. Q. --- when things -- when Deloitte started getting involved.
A. Okay.
230. Q. So if we're in September now, you're saying ---
A. Yeah.
231. Q. --- you might not have been ---

A. No, actually, I would not have known. I just would have been busy with work and not at all have thought anything -- I don't know what that's for, either, because $200 is a weird amount, and ---

232. Q. Right.

A. --- I wouldn't typically -- it could have been anything. I don't -- I just don't know.

233. Q. Well, that's on the 21st, and then ---

A. Yeah.

234. Q. --- if you go to the next -- or page 12 of 25 ---

A. Oh, yeah, okay.

235. Q. --- there's September 25th, the very first --

A. Yeah.

236. Q. --- line ---

A. 400.

237. Q. --- for 400. So that gets you to ---

A. Yeah, so then that maybe checks out to the 600, that amount.

238. Q. Did -- do you ever remember your dad telling you that -- that cash was tight, and so he couldn't give you $600, but he'd ---

A. No.

239. Q. --- give it to you over a couple -- a few days or something?

A. Not at all.

240. Q. And then the same page, September 26th, there's an online transfer to yourself for $1,681.

A. Yeah. So that was a normal payout amount.

241. Q. What does that mean?

A. Like, it was normally something that I also had for an additional loan, like, the 225 plus 25 plus whatever I had, was -- it was a, like, a scheduled payment.

242. Q. How often was that payment?

A. Once a month.

243. Q. So once a month, you should have been getting 1,681?

A. I think it was that, yeah.

244. Q. Okay.

A. Or 1687.50, maybe. I don't know.

245. Q. This one is 1681.

A. Yeah. It could have been done in error. It also could be wrong. It could have nothing to do with that. Like, I -- I need to look at my own banking, I guess, and see what this was.

246. Q. Okay. I appreciate, you know, I'm just asking these questions ---

A. Yeah.

247. Q. --- kind of out of the blue. So can I just ask you, and you've got an obligation to do this anyway, but I'll just put it for the record that if you search your records and you have -- you realize, "Oh, something I said was wrong," if you could just -- -

A. Of course.

248. Q. --- let me know.

A. Yeah. I'm not interested in any -- I'm family focused. I just am not in this. I don't need problems, I guess.

249. Q. So the last tab is Tab F.

A. Yeah.

250. Q. And if you go to page 3 of 25 ---

A. Okay.

251. Q. --- you'll see -- so September 29th, you get $200.

A. M'hmm.

252. Q. And on October 3rd, you get $400.

A. Yeah.

253. Q. So it looks like sort of the same -- to me, it looks like the same thing from the last month where you get ---

A. Yeah.

254. Q. --- $600, it just didn't come all at once?

A. Yeah. Again, I don't know. I just don't -- I don't recall even having these conversations. I'd have to look at what I have for information and -- and I don't mind getting back to you with that information at all.

255. Q. Sure. I think it's subsumed in the -- in the previous undertaking, so...

A. Yeah.

256. Q. The last one I have is on page 6 of 25.

A. Okay.

257. Q. In this tab, F.

A. I don't know what's subsumed under the --- 258. Q. I think it's part of ---

A. --- undertaking ---

259. Q. I think we've already -- I think we've already gone through it. I think you ---

A. Oh, okay.

260. Q. I think we've confirmed that you'll -- you'll ---

A. Oh, it's under what you already stated ---

261. Q. You'll correct ---

A. --- okay.

262. Q. You'll correct me if ---

A. I just don't want to not tell you that I don't know what you're saying.

263. Q. No, that's fair.

A. And that I agree to something I have no idea I'm agreeing to.

264. Q. No problem. I got it.

A. I know that you've got it, but...

265. Q. October 11th, there's -- this is the last one I have ---

A. Yeah.

266. Q. --- and it's $300 ---

A. Yeah.

267. Q. --- to yourself. So this would have been close to the "end" or, you know ---

A. Yeah.

268. Q. --- when things started to really change.

A. Sure.

269. Q. Do you know what that $300 payment was for?

A. No. Same thing. I don't know. I did have stuff in the like, in Clonsilla that I had used my staging company stuff in there to decorate the place, just because I thought it needed it. And he was like, "Yeah, we can definitely do that." And that was kind of done along a time before that.

So there is some funds in there where it was kind of ongoing. Obviously, it wasn't expensive. That wasn't the goal. It was just to keep it decorated. And also, I just have a amount that I deduct every month for what the value of my stuff is, right? So ---

270. Q. Okay. Do you know ---

A. --- there is that in there ---

271. Q. Do you know ---

A. --- but that's it.

272. Q. --- when you did that? Like, when did you stage it?

A. I staged it -- like, I frequently changed things out. But it was kind of, like, ongoing staging, even. Like, it just -- I don't know. I just changed things out all the time if I thought I needed it for another job, for example. Swap it out. But it's just -- my stuff was in there.

273. Q. So do you know when you first did that? Like, would it have been around 2021?

A. I would say no, probably 2022 ---

274. Q. Okay.

A. --- is about right.

275. Q. And then was there a written agreement or anything? Or that's just sort of, like ---

A. No, that was just something I did.

276. Q. Like, a handshake deal between ---

A. Honestly, yes.

277. Q. --- your dad and yourself?
A. Yes.
278. Q. Okay. And then the idea was that you'd be compensated for it ---
A. Yeah, reasonably. So I would basically say, "This is what it's worth," and basically cut that in half.
279. Q. So how much -- what was that?
A. I don't know. I don't recall, exactly, but I would say, like, in there, if I was to quote doing that job, I -- it'd be, like, $2,800 for the year kind of thing. So it's not much. It's not substantial.
280. Q. Okay.
A. It's very small amounts. But it just keeps it always decorated, if you will.
281. Q. 2,800, is that the half? The 50 percent price? Or that would ---
A. Yeah, that's ---
282. Q. --- have been the full price?
A. --- about the 50 percent price. Most of my stages are between 5 and $7,000.
283. Q. Okay. But there's nothing in writing about that agreement?
A. I don't know. There actually might be, yeah.

284. Q. Okay. Can I ask you to search your ---
A. Yeah.
285. Q. --- records, and if ---
A. Of course.
286. Q. --- there's anything in writing about ---
A. Absolutely.
287. Q. --- that agreement ---
A. Yeah.
288. Q. --- you'll produce it, please?
A. Yeah. Just kind of also, I think, he gave me a space to photograph, to use for, you know...
289. Q. Sure.
A. To build my business.
290. Q. I'll just ask -- this is a -- I appreciate that we're having kind of a conversation, but I think for the reporter, it might be difficult when you and I are talking -- we're talking like we're having a conversation where we're talking at the same time. But if you can just try to wait for me to finish talking, and -- and then answer, and vice versa.

I'll try to wait for you to finish your answer before I start asking the next question. I have a feeling we're talking over each other a little bit. I just have one more questions about these statements in front of you, I think one more. So if you go back to Tab B ---

A. M'hmm.

291. Q. --- please.

A. Okay.

292. Q. And literally the last page of that tab.

A. Okay.

293. Q. There's a cheque at the bottom of that page. Now, Rastislav Scasny, I understand that's another name for Rasto Beekmans. Do you know -- do you know that name?

A. Yeah. Yeah.

294. Q. So he got a cheque -- this is June 26, 2023, for $95,000.

A. Right.

295. Q. Do you know what that would be for?

A. Not a clue. I know nothing of their affairs.

296. Q. Okay. Does it surprise you that he's getting a cheque for $95,000?

A. I -- I never knew about it, so it's a surprise from that point of view. But I ---

297. Q. Okay.

A. --- certainly am not, like, alarmed at the amount. I'm sure there's something about that that makes sense.

MR. MCGRATH: Okay. I'm -- I'd just like to mark this brief as Exhibit 1 to this examination, which is brief of bank statements. And I suspect I'll be marking the same brief for the other examinations today. Mr. Harris, I'll make sure you get a copy at the end of the day, either electronically, physically, or both.

MR. HARRIS: Okay. Great. Thank you.

(Whereupon EXHIBIT NO. 1 : Brief of bank statements.)

BY MR. MCGRATH:

298. Q. Ms. Waddell, do you know anything about the Clonsilla bank -- banking situation? Do you know who had authority over that -- over this account, for example?

A. Not a clue.

299. Q. Okay. So if I see cash withdrawals for large amounts, which I do ---

A. Yeah.

300. Q. --- in the bank statements, do you know who would have the power to withdraw cash from those accounts?

A. No, I mean, of course my dad. But I don't know anybody else. Like, I don't have a clue who -- who is who in that regard. At this point, especially. Back in the day, it was just Gerald (ph) and my dad when I worked there. I don't even know if Gerald did. I just don't know who did or didn't.

301. Q. Right.

A. Even then, no.

302. Q. Fair enough.

A. Yeah.

303. Q. And then in your experience with the dealership, did -- did you ever see large amounts of cash being needed for a business purpose in -- in your experience there?

A. For me? I mean, all the time because cars would be bought and sold, so it's -- I mean, that's large to me. But I don't really ---

304. Q. Were they bought and sold in -- in cash?

A. Oh, cash. No. Sorry, I thought you meant, like, money ---

305. Q. Right.

A. --- just any kind of money. No. I don't think ever with cash, that I -- no.

306. Q. Okay.

MR. HARRIS: Well, cash -- you mean cash as in, like, five ---

MR. MCGRATH: Paper money.

MR. HARRIS: --- dollar bills?

MR. MCGRATH: Yeah.

THE DEPONENT: Yeah, paper money ---

MR. HARRIS: Okay.

THE DEPONENT: --- no, not at all. I mean, people sometimes paid their deposit in cash, say, for example. But then a receipt is written and handed to the person who paid in cash.

MR. MCGRATH: Okay. I'd just like to take a -- maybe a five-minute break, and I'm winding down, but ---

THE DEPONENT: Yeah, yeah.

MR. MCGRATH: --- I just want to check my notes.

THE REPORTER: Off the record.

OFF THE RECORD AT 10:13 A.M.

(WHEREUPON A BRIEF RECESS WAS TAKEN)

ON THE RECORD AT 10:42 A.M.

THE REPORTER: We are on the record.

MEGGAN WADDELL, resumed,

307. Q. So Ms. Waddell, I just wanted to ask about a specific vehicle. It was a 2017 GMC Sierra.

A. Okay.

308. Q. Are you familiar with ---

A. There's a lot of 2017 GMC Sierras.
309. Q. Right. So it doesn't ring a bell to you? Is that what -- what -- a personal vehicle ---
A. No.
310. Q. --- that you've used?
A. I would have used -- I've used many trucks.
311. Q. Okay. So we've seen an ad that you placed on Facebook ---
A. M'hmm.
312. Q. --- Marketplace to sell a 2017 GMC Sierra. Does that ---
A. Okay.
313. Q. --- sound familiar?
A. Yeah, I mean, at some point, I did do that. I don't know, like, I didn't realize it was a 2017, but yeah.
314. Q. Okay. Who owns that ---
A. My uncle Ian.
315. Q. --- vehicle? Sorry, your uncle?
A. My uncle Ian owns it.
316. Q. Does -- is your father -- does he drive a 2017 GMC Sierra? Do you know?
A. I don't know what he drives. A GMC Sierra, maybe. I -- I don't know.
317. Q. You don't know the year?

A. I don't know.
318. Q. It's not the same -- is he driving the vehicle that you put up for sale?
A. I don't know. I just got sent the photos to post the ad, and I literally never thought about it again. I had very little interest in it, and it was over -- I think it was a year ago, maybe.
319. Q. Who sent you the photos to post?
A. I think my brother.
320. Q. Taylor?
A. Yeah, I think so.
321. Q. Okay. So if I ask him during his examination, he'll know more about ---
A. I -- maybe. I don't know who sent it to me, but I can even look through my phone maybe and tell you that. Like, I could do that right now.
322. Q. Yeah. It's our information that that particular truck is actually Clonsilla property.
A. Oh, okay.
323. Q. Do you know -- I think you said you -- you thought it was your uncle Ian's truck.
A. Yeah.
324. Q. What are you basing that on?
A. Because absolutely nothing was Clonsilla property that remained anywhere near us, to my knowledge.

325. Q. Okay. But how do you -- what are you basing that on? What's your knowledge based on?

A. The information that was provided to me when I was listing the vehicle for sale.

326. Q. Okay. What information was that?

A. That I needed to help them get rid of this car.

327. Q. Okay. But did they give you, like, the registration documents?

A. No, I don't have any of that. I was setting up appointments just because no one is savvy enough to do that and, frankly, neither am I. I'm not very good at that stuff, the -- the online Marketplace stuff. Not my thing.

328. Q. Okay. So you said that your -- you think it's your brother Taylor who sent to you the information ---

A. Yeah, I don't know.

329. Q. --- to post.

A. I can look right now ---

330. Q. All right.

A. --- to see who sent me photos.

331. Q. Don't --- you don't have to do it right now. But ---

A. Okay.
332. Q. --- I would ask that you do that, and ---
A. Yeah, sure.
333. Q. --- if you can just -- I would like to see, actually, exactly what you were ---
A. Yeah.
334. Q. --- told to do and by whom and what information you ---
A. Yeah.
335. Q. --- had.
A. Sure.
336. Q. Is that okay?
A. Absolutely, yeah. It definitely, to my knowledge, is not a Clonsilla vehicle that I put on there at all. If I thought it was a Clonsilla vehicle, I wouldn't do it. But furthermore, I just don't believe that it is.
337. Q. Okay. As far as we know, we think it is. And so any information you can give me to ---
A. Yeah.
338. Q. --- help me sort out ---
A. Yeah.
339. Q. --- what vehicle that is, and whose ---
A. Yeah.
340. Q. --- it is, that would be appreciated.

A. Yeah. Yeah.

MR. ALLEYNE: Including the VIN.

THE DEPONENT: Including the VIN?

MR. ALLEYNE: The VIN, yeah.

THE DEPONENT: Okay. Yeah, I don't know if I have the VIN, but if I can get that, I will. Yeah, so then you can do a vehicle search history kind of thing?

MR. ALLEYNE: M'hmm.

THE DEPONENT: Sounds good, yeah.

(Whereupon UNDERTAKING NO. 6: To advise as to what the deponent was told to do with the 2017 GMC Sierra, by whom she was told, and what information she had about it, including the VIN.)

BY MR. MCGRATH:

341. Q. Do you know where that car is now? Like ---

A. I don't know. I don't even know -- like, I don't know anything -- I haven't looked at it. I -- until you said that that I had it listed, I'm like, "Oh, that's the truck that I listed." So I've never thought about it again because it's been a long time.

342. Q. Okay. So you had said this morning -- you talked about the promissory notes that were at the dealership.

A. M'hmm.

343. Q. And we did try to confirm whether any promissory notes were found ---

A. M'hmm.

344. Q. --- and I don't think we've located what you're talking ---

A. Okay.

345. Q. --- about. So I'd just like to understand -- you've given an undertaking to use your best efforts to try to find if you have ---

A. Yeah.

346. Q. --- a copy, but ---

A. Yeah.

347. Q. --- how many are there? Do you know?

A. Probably six or seven times, I gave large sums. Before I did that, there were casual, small amounts that definitely don't have notes or anything.

348. Q. Okay. For the six or seven larger ---

A. M'hmm.

349. Q. --- transfers, there would be a promissory note?

A. I believe so, yeah.

350. Q. And would it be called promissory note ---

A. Yeah, typically.

351. Q. --- at the time?

A. Yeah.

352. Q. And who would prepare those?

A. We probably just prepared them in the office.

353. Q. "We," like, you and your dad?

A. Yeah, me and my dad.

354. Q. And in the office, like, in the dealership?

A. Yeah.

355. Q. Okay. And then what, you would both sign it?

A. We'd both sign it, and then, typically, someone would witness it. I don't know, sometimes it would have been Rasto, Maryanne, there used to be another girl that worked there named Christina. She was there -- I don't even know when she stopped being there. But Maryanne started there when she started.

356. Q. Do you have a memory of -- like, would Ms. Jacobs have witnessed at least one for sure?

A. Oh, yeah. For sure. Yeah.

357. Q. And Mr. Beekmans is the same? He would have witnessed at least one for sure?

A. Yeah, I think so. I don't -- like, would they recall the individual -- so much signing happens at a car dealership, right? And so many people are, like, "I need you to sign this because you are the this or that." Specifics, I don't know.

358. Q. Okay. We did find one promissory note in the records, but it's a promissory note between yourself and Lawson.

A. Okay.

359. Q. I understand that you, from that note, that you borrowed money from him.

A. Yeah.

360. Q. Is that right?

A. Yes.

361. Q. In 2017?

A. Yeah, I did. Yeah.

362. Q. Can you explain that to me, please?

A. Sure, yeah. Is my personal thing between Lawson really up for conversation, though?

363. Q. I -- well, in searching for promissory notes in the records that we have, this is the only promissory note we have ---

A. Right, but my brother is ---

364. Q. --- so I'm trying to understand ---

A. --- special needs, and I don't really, like, should I be answering that question? It's between my brother and I.

MR. HARRIS: Lawson is your other brother?

THE DEPONENT: Yeah, Lawson is my special needs brother.

MR. HARRIS: Okay.

THE DEPONENT: And it's 2017. I mean, well in advance of this and...

(Whereupon REFUSAL NO. 1: To explain the 2017 promissory note between the deponent and her brother, Lawson.)

BY MR. MCGRATH:

365. Q. Well, let me ask you -- let me ask this ---

A. Yeah.

366. Q. --- question.

A. Okay.

367. Q. Why are you borrowing money from anyone, Lawson or anyone else ---

A. Yeah.

368. Q. --- at the same time that, as I understand it, you're getting a multi-million-dollar inheritance? What ---

A. Because sometimes people's money comes in ahead of other people's money.

369. Q. I don't understand that answer.

A. So someone received their money first, then I'm waiting for mine to come in. We all inherited money. And some of it came in ahead of others. Some people's came in ahead of others.

370. Q. Is that -- is that loan that we're talking about from 2017 that you received, is that all paid back now?

A. Yeah.

371. Q. And did any of that go through Clonsilla in any way?

A. I don't know.

372. Q. You don't know?

A. I don't know. There's guardianship stuff involved, right? So...

373. Q. When you got the -- when -- whenever you finally received the inheritance money ---

A. Yeah.

374. Q. --- did that pay back that loan, and so then that was sort of ---

A. Yes.

375. Q. --- done? Okay. But you're not sure the mechanics of it, and whether Clonsilla ---

A. 100 percent, I have no idea.

376. Q. Okay. Did you borrow money from Clonsilla at any time?

A. Borrow? I -- none. Not, like, "Can I borrow $50,000" or something? No. That would be repayment.

377. Q. And every -- all the loans that you gave that we've talked about ---

A. Yeah.

378. Q. --- today, they were all made, you say, to Clonsilla, right?

A. Yeah.

379. Q. And so all those promissory notes, those six or seven promissory notes, they're all between yourself and Clonsilla?

A. Yes.

380. Q. None of them are to your dad personally?

A. I don't believe so. Could that have ever happened? Possibly. I -- we have a relationship of trust, not me questioning what would be -- you know, I trust him to present me with honest documentation. The reason we even documented anything was in the event of his death.

381. Q. Do you know a company called Northbridge?

A. Yeah, of course.

382. Q. What is that?

A. It's my mom's corporation that owns the building and...

383. Q. Did you ever loan money to Northbridge?

A. I don't know specifically if it went to Northbridge or not.

384. Q. Any of the promissory notes we talked about today ---

A. I don't know.

385. Q. You don't know?

A. Potentially. I don't know. I don't know. I'm sorry that I don't have that information. I wish I could tell you.

386. Q. Well, you're going to search your records and ---

A. Yeah.

387. Q. --- see if you can find any ---

A. Of course.

388. Q. --- of them, and maybe that'll clear it up for us.

A. Yeah.

389. Q. And then post-2021 ---

A. Yeah.

390. Q. --- after you started your own company, you told me that you didn't do any work for Clonsilla, right?

A. No, no, like, selling cars or any sort of, like, payroll-type stuff, no.

391. Q. So you're not signing, you know, lease agreements with customers ---

A. No.

392. Q. --- or anything like that?

A. No, no, no, no, no, no, no. Absolutely not.
393. Q. Okay.
A. No day-to-day operations were in my hands at all, to be very clear.
394. Q. Okay. I'm just going to take one minute.
MS. KENNEDY: (Inaudible).
MR. MCGRATH: Yeah. Okay. Can we go back on?
THE REPORTER: Yes, we're on the record.
MR. MCGRATH: My colleague, Ms. Kennedy, is just going to ---
THE DEPONENT: Yeah.
MR. MCGRATH: --- ask a couple questions.
THE DEPONENT: Yeah, yeah.
MEGGAN WADDELL, resumed,
EXAMINATION BY MS. KENNEDY:
395. Q. Do you recall purchasing a Chevy Avalanche from Clonsilla on October 13th, 2023?
A. Do I recall purchasing? No.
396. Q. No? And so did you ever take possession of that car?
A. I did drive an Avalanche, so just -- but to say that I purchased it, I don't -- I don't know that I would say that's how it was handled. But again, the management of the loan funds, I don't really know the intricacies of it. I didn't really ask questions. So just -- yeah. That's all I did. Just trusted it.

397. Q. Okay. So -- so in the example where you were driving the Avalanche, was the purchase price of the Avalanche applied against your loan?

A. No. So it would be what it's worth after it sold, for example. So it -- if it needed work, typically, I would pay for the work that needed to be done. And let's say it was worth $35,000 when I started driving it, if I put 10,000 kilometres on it, well, that's not going to do much impact. If I put 80,000 kilometres on a car, that's not going to be worth very much. So we're looking at potentially the difference, which was the right way to do it from a business perspective, because it kept the value in the vehicle.

398. Q. Okay. So I'm going to ---

A. Yeah.

399. Q. --- use an example. Because I think I understand what you're saying ---

A. Yeah.

400. Q. --- and I'm not going to use a specific car, but ---

A. Yeah.
401. Q. --- to follow your example, if you guys had a car and it was worth $35,000 ---
A. M'hmm.
402. Q. --- and you were driving it, and then later, that car sold for 30 ---
A. Yeah.
403. Q. --- $5,000 would be allocated as, like, to you against your loan?
A. Yeah.
404. Q. Okay.
A. Alternatively, though, sometimes, like I said, there was vehicles -- like, I owned a Jeep outright. I traded that in. I had a Grand Prix in 2009, and I traded that in. Those were things I had of value. And sometimes, I did do that. And then that would be removed from that equation as well. So it's a little complex, I suppose. And maybe it's clear as mud, but ---
405. Q. Okay.
A. --- it was done differently per situation, right? So...
406. Q. Okay. Who is Thomas Sargeant?
A. My partner.
407. Q. He's your partner?

A. Yeah.
408. Q. Okay. And did he also drive vehicles that were ---
A. Yeah, but not -- like, he drove one that was basically provided because of Lawson. So he took care of Lawson, so when he had Lawson, he would drive a provided vehicle.
409. Q. Which vehicle was that?
A. The Ram.
410. Q. And when was the Ram returned? Because the Ram was a Clonsilla vehicle.
A. Yeah, I don't know.
411. Q. And was it only Thomas that drove the Ram?
A. Yeah, I think so. I mean, I drove the Ram sometimes. But, like, did other people ever drive the Ram? Is that what you mean? Like, if it was in our driveway, let's say, did other people drive it? Or are you asking me if it was every somebody else's through Clonsilla?
412. Q. Well, it was registered in the name of Thomas Sargeant, correct?
A. Yeah. Yeah.
413. Q. Okay. And so that vehicle was subject to Enlightened's security interest.
A. Right.

414. Q. And then that got assigned to (indiscernible) later, but that's not really relevant. But just to make clear, that was the subject of the security interest that we are trying to help recover the funds from.

A. Sure.

415. Q. And the vehicle, I believe, was valued at at least $40,000, let's say. I think ---

A. Yeah.

416. Q. --- capital costs was 47,000 ---

A. Yeah.

417. Q. --- in 2023, correct?

A. Right, yeah.

418. Q. And Thomas drove it routinely, and he used it to take Lawson places?

A. Yeah.

419. Q. And do you recall the condition that the car was in when it was returned?

A. Yeah, I mean, I heard that it wasn't in good condition, but to my knowledge, it was in fine condition. So the last I saw it, it was fine. And the last he saw it, it was fine. There was a couple of things, like, dings that have happened, but nothing serious.

And now I guess I heard -- and I don't even know where they heard this from, but that the windshield was gone, and all this stuff had happened. And, I mean, the thing was really nice. He took a lot of pride in it.

420. Q. So who would have done that to the car?

A. I don't know, honestly. There was a lot of angry people, so...

421. Q. What does that mean?

A. A lot of people were angry about what happened when the receivership happened.

422. Q. Who?

A. People in town, their cars getting repossessed, and things like that. They were annoyed, right? So...

423. Q. Okay. Let's -- let's just dive into that a little bit more.

A. Okay.

424. Q. The vehicle was ultimately returned by your dad.

A. Okay.

425. Q. Okay? So I'm going to ---

A. Yeah.

426. Q. --- tell you that your dad returned the vehicle.

A. Okay.

427. Q. So when did it go from being in Thomas' possession to being in Hugh's possession?

A. I don't know. Because when all this started, he stopped driving that vehicle. So -- because he was, like, "I don't know what's going on, but I don't want to be involved," so...

428. Q. And then do you think he returned it to Hugh?

A. I don't know. I mean, I -- he's right there, and they could ask him, to be honest. Part of it is recollection of events is the issue, and the other part is when I don't know, honestly, I certainly don't want to say or speak for somebody else when I honestly don't know, I don't have an answer.

429. Q. Okay.

A. It certainly wasn't a low stress period in our lives, so I really would have a hard time. Like, it was no sleep, no capacity to function day to day, not eating, nothing. And I had a newborn.

430. Q. When you -- when you took cars ---

A. M'hmm.

431. Q. --- and used them ---

A. M'hmm.

432. Q. --- were you ever -- did -- let me rephrase that. When you took cars and drove them from

Clonsilla ---

A. Yeah.

433. Q. --- did you ever sign lease agreements with respect to them?

A. I believe so, yeah. I think we signed lease agreements from time to time. It wasn't all the time. It just depended on the plan with the vehicle. "Are we keeping it for a long time?" And it's an offset to the loan agreement in those cases.

434. Q. Okay. Well, let's understand that a little bit. So, routinely, you owed -- you were owed money -- --

A. Yeah.

435. Q. --- out of your loan agreements, and then you had leases going the other way, where then the lease payment goes out to Consilla? Or Clonsilla, sorry.

A. Yeah, that's okay.

436. Q. And you're saying that you would offset the loan payments?

A. Yeah. So then the vehicle would then sell to somebody, and that would be paid out. And the vehicle, then, would be resumed into a new lease with the new person. So it'd be a temporary thing, but it's the right way to carry it because it's the right way to do your taxing and stuff like that, so...

437. Q. Well, I -- I'm not sure I agree with that because when you signed a lease ---

A. M'hmm.

438. Q. --- that lease was then borrowed against. But what you're saying is that you never made the payments under the lease agreement that you signed.

A. Oh, I didn't say that.

439. Q. Well, okay. What you did just say to me is that it was set off against the loan payments that were owed to you.

A. That's correct, yeah.

440. Q. Okay. So did you, when you signed the lease for the agreement, ever pay money, like, cash or payment into Clonsilla to account for the lease payment?

A. No, that was done for me.

441. Q. By who?

A. On my behalf.

442. Q. By who?

A. Maryanne, or my dad, presumably. But ---

443. Q. They paid ---

A. --- I don't actually know for sure.

444. Q. Oh, sorry. I don't ---

A. Yeah.

445. Q. --- want to over speak you ---
A. That's okay.
446. Q. --- for the record.
A. No, no, no.
447. Q. They paid money on your behalf to Clonsilla?
A. It would have been through Clonsilla because Clonsilla owed me the money.
448. Q. I think we're having -- okay. Clonsilla owed you money.
A. Yes.
449. Q. And then you then owed Clonsilla money ---
A. That's correct.
450. Q. --- for the lease. And what I'm asking is, was it treated as a set off, where no actual money got transferred? Or did you ever ---
A. That's what I mean, I don't know the internal working of that, whether they did that or not, whether there was swapping of actual -- I don't know. But I personally did not provide cash, aside from the loan money, which was used to offset any lease that was put in there. And the idea behind that, I don't know if someone could maybe elaborate on that. But it wouldn't be me.
451. Q. Okay. That is helpful.
A. Okay.

452. Q. I want to just talk about one thing that you just said ---

A. Yeah.

453. Q. --- after that. You talked about the car would then be sold to someone else.

A. Yeah.

454. Q. So this was like a demo, where while you had it ---

A. M'hmm.

455. Q. --- you were driving it, but someone else could later still buy it?

A. Yeah.

456. Q. Yes. But there was also a lease put against that vehicle ---

A. Yeah.

457. Q. --- in your name?

A. Yeah. Sometimes, not every time. Quite often not. That was just on occasion. So if I was planning to keep a vehicle for a long period of time, then we would do that. But only if that was practical. So it was, like, "Okay, I know I'm having a baby, and I'm not going to want to change vehicles for a long period of time."

So that would be something, then, that we would look into doing, and might make practical sense, you know? And I'm tying up inventory of Clonsilla's. So in order to do that, we did it that way. But I don't know the ins and outs of everything. I couldn't tell you.

MS. KENNEDY: Okay. Do you have any more questions? (Inaudible).

MR. MCGRATH: I guess I could ask ---

MS. KENNEDY: Two-minute break?

MR. MCGRATH: Yeah.

MS. KENNEDY: Two-minute break, and then we'll be right back.
