August 5/11

This matter is further adjourned to August 10/11 to permit the parties to meet with the appraisers of the property. The purpose of that meeting is to understand the current approach of the appraisers to valuation in order that any related issues regarding the value may be addressed at the hearing on that date. It is important that the parties, including the appraisers, respond to any information requests and conduct that meeting in timely fashion in order that the hearing can proceed on that date. It is also understood that the receiver will not send any notices to creditors pending that hearing. W/ Hon - H.A.J.
